The Pennsylvania Central Railroad has nothing

rhalever to fear in competition with any of her rivals. The shortest, the mafest, the best route from the Great West to Now York itself lies over her ralls, and with As a matter of record, we copy from the clear report given by the Pittsburg Post the reasons why the fit. Niphulas Hotel compact was terminated. Mr. Garreft, if the Baltimore and Ohio road, spoke of the value of the compact, at Buffalo, and we find by the proceedings that Mr. Gaga said that the No.

that Mr Cass said that the St. Nichelas augurated the most valuable reforms which had yet seen made for the country and for the railway interest; and all of 'them owed the gentleman who had brought it about by his indomitable energy and 'perseverance a debt of graftfude which they could never repay. It had saved thurdress of thousands of dollars to the hall-road interests of the sountry, and he desired to know now, and to have the fact spread before the country, what that gouldonan's reason was for terminating that agreement. He alluded to Mr. Moran as the individual who had been the first to give notice of the termination of, as he had in fact been the author of the compact, frequent agreements with the New York Certral Road and all had been violated.; At the Washington and St Nicholas Convention it was agreed that rates of freight should be uniform; and that neither party should make contracts for through freight; and yet, immediately after they adjourned, as he had been reliably informed arter they adjourged, as he had been reliably informed, this Now York Central Road had sent agent throughout the Western country, contracting for the transportation of freight, en the resemble of mylgation, at any nytie; and their own agents had admitted to him that they had made large contracts in the neighborhood of Toley for the transportation of freight at prices quite as low as pravailed during the compatition of last summer as prevailed during the competition of last summer. This was why he had given notice to abrogate the St.—Nicholas agreement, because he could not trust the New York Central. He would no longer be bound by compacts with the New York Central Rallroad, no longer be deceived by them, and would enter into no pacts for freights whatever. entral was the cause of the fupture. 🧢 firsting amplyeasy mostings ever held in this siy, of a missionary character, took place at Occopic Hall last evening, on the cocasion of the sixth analysis of what is best known to our citizens as the Bediand attreet Mission.

The hall was completely filled with the friends of the chanse, the interest and impressive and on the creations.

sohe had been, through these meeting, brought under the influence of the saying grade of God. Babbath and day, schools have been eastablished, the average attent ance at both being about two hundred and hity scholars it was also atted in the report that the children are all taught, and most of them have count tied to memory, the Ten Commandments, the Lord's Pager, and the Aponia's Grade. During the past about fifty hire been placed in good situations. The average attends piaced in kood stitustions. The anomal axp mas attending the school is twelve handred dollars. The sick, in the vi inity in which the including is complete, are not al-lowed to suner for want of medical attendance, which ovarity is extended without respect to lestinction of orect or color. The total expenses for the year have been $1,836; the bilance app in the treasury, $34.

After the reading of the report, the children among the cheantiful Babbath school, bynn; commencing "I layer a fether in the recovered. have a father in the promised land "
The first speaker of the evening was the Rev. Dr.

Wiley, late missionary to China. In opening, he said there were two words in the English language which there were two words in the English language which had always fallen with peenliar switchess upon the ear of his heart. The first of these was the word "home." which he said had an irresuitible charm, he be lieved; to every one; and the second was the word mission." The Saviour's command, to "go and preach the Gospel," had switch had, to him, a permitar and touching significance, and one to which the heart of every Christian should respond. The blending of these two words in the little of the susceistion, the surjection of the susceistion which have all others, he thought recommended it to the sympathy of Christians. He had himself sees much wretched hear and destitution, both in this country and heather and destitution, both in this country and heathen lands, and he was fee to say that the vicinity in which the Bedord-street. Mission was directing its efforts— which he had yesterday visited—was, in point of ablast which he had yesteday visited was, in point of abject squalor, deeper sucken than any place he had ever seen. Yo deeply had he best impressed with this fact that he expensity urged upon all Ohvistians to make a personal visit for themselvas, assuring them that neither in Chins, India, nor Java, could they and has neither in China, India, nor Java, could they find heatendom developed in its more deporable forms than in the yelevity of Sixth and Badford afreets.

And now, as the system of drainage, which the city of Philadelphia; employed as dwartageously, in order to keep pure the physical condition of her streets, so there was a moral drainage necessary, to purify thous pestiferous moral sinks of iniquity. The pure stream of Christianity must be introduced for this purpose, and just in preportion an this was allowed to have free course would this work of purification be anocoarful. Dr. Wiley continued on atknow, length in a true bilationary plrift, urging all who heard him to take care of the suffering thousands around them.

The Her Altred Ookman was next introduced. He came forward, stating that there were at that instant

The Rev. Altred Ookman was next introduced. He came forward, stating that there were at that instant two emotions at mature his beart—these were prids and gratitude. He felt provid that he was a citizen of Philadelphia—a citizen of norman of the feet grateful for what he saw around him, as he contemplated what Ohristians were doing among the poor of this city. It, said he, Rome had ther Colliseum, Atheus her Acropolis, Theoes her temples, Bebylon her gardens, and Egypt her world-szaowned pyramids, much more had Philadelphia in her noble hospitally his charitable saylums, her Bedford street Masics, and all her other institutions of mercy. Oh, how much uobler and more enduring were these than all the monuments of man's folly to which he had adverted!

Mr. Cookman, in the curve of his remarks, told

Mr. Cookman, in the curse of his vamarts, told most felicitonaly the story of a benevolent Christian lady who had taken a destitute orphan white, add so laviabed her bounty upon it, that the little one, quite oversome with this, to her, unexpected "angel's viale," saked, when the lady was about to leave, whether she was not God's wife? This, to the speaker's mind. was a beautiful sentiment. His account of a ledy who had dropped a dishipped rigglinto a gutter hited with fifth, as she was passing along the street, and who immediately instituted a successful search with her snow white hand, created into him with a mong the ragged urchins on the platform, especially as the minister began to apply this illustration to the wrotched district to which they belonged, as though it was the much to no which they belongs, any any and the series of a socie outlet approximate any set that anything so valuable as a disposition outlify. possibly be looked for in that poverty introken locality. This showed, at Ireas, the interest, the children were tablog in the proceedings, and their subsided levity.

showed, also, that the spiritual application of this showed, also, that the spiritual application of this story was not entirely unapprehiated by them. This close of Cookman's address was an entirely appeal in habit of the anti-bution that was about taken the habit of the address—another kynn having beam sage; to by the children—the Rev. John Chambers, was infroduced to the andiance as the last speaker of the evening.

Mr. Chambers and there was a sommon saying that on some occasions we are to ' beaud the lion in his that dan?' Most supplictfully was this applicable to the the Bedford street Mission. They was right into the old devil—who walketh about as a rowing lion—and beard. devil—who walketh about as a rozing 116m—and bearded the old ruscal in his den of iniquity. And if they had not done this, the question might well be saked, would that assembly ever have seen these scions pointing to the children), on this platform, under the shadow of the Gospel? Never. Probably the only elevation that nome of them ever would have stained to would have been the gallows. Her sized his voice enguestic in behalf of the Christian Church—the water Christian Church-which was the only Church he would recog-his hearers whether it had ever occurred to them that just such missionary efforts were required in many of our manelose on Waltut street. "As God hyes, said be, the stronghelds of ain are just as ripe for the aggressive efforts of the Ohristian religion as the most adject dens of poverty and crime. Put down your drinking and gamb.ing hells, sa'd the speaker, and the taxes that the poor are made to pay, in the shape of houserents, will be diminished, and not till then. Of the efforts in behalf of the c'ildren, he said he believed that many a little fellow no older than those he saw around him, had read his "title to manulous, in the gates?" just as o'early as had Bir Isase Newton. his hearers whether it had ever occurred to them that The great hindrance to the progress of the Gospel, he believed, was the vast amount of dead material floating in the church. He believed that the Colliseum at

In the church. He believed that the Colliseum at Rome, entarged ten thousand fold, would not begin to contain a tithe of the dead lumber that wis row depressing the church. If, said he, our public functionaries would give the money they are signariering in making gormandizars of themselves and chimneys of their mouths to such afforts at the Bedford-arrest Mission, he did not doubt that it would be better spent. BY MIDNIGHT MAIL.

We have had in Central America and Mexico not only regularly accredited ministers, but special ogents and courters de cabiner, and yet our Government, as the results now prove, has been nore in the dark than if it had neither one nor the other, and had sofely relied upon the information of the newspapers. It has certainly been out-witted in the Nickraggan negotiation, notwith standing the intimate relations between Mr. Bu-changn and Gore Ouseley and the untiring exertions of Talleyrands Lamar and Carey Jones. I presume there have been more hair-splitting con-troversies upon the relative rights and pretensions of the United States and Great Beltain in Central America and to its Isthmean crossings than verbose scholiasis ever dreamed o . Libraries of arguments have been exhausted pro and con, and at hope of triumph, it turns out that we have shouted before we were out of the woods, and that in good sooth the lion of England has taken the lion's sooth the lion of England has taken the Holy's share. We have seered our national fowl not in frequently, and it must be that Mr. Buchanin or the Cass: Yrissari treaty, involving our terrestrial welfars, was rejected by Nicaragua.

So far as Mexico is concerned, it is nearly as difficult to tell exactly where the rebellion is in the treaty is to tell where the rebellion is in the fit is in Michoacan, or Vera Cruz, or almost that his in Michoacan, or Vera Cruz, or almost any cherifiction within Mexican limits. It is another springs up to take its place. The English bond-holders, who are looking after their money, are not overjoyed with the present condition of fairs. While they have resolved that they would it is not at all improbable that they will not make the same of the communication between England and him is not at all improbable that they will not make the same of the communication between England and him is not at all improbable that they will not make the same of Lords to the tell works.
