BY MIDNIGHT MAIL. Public Entertainments. MOUNT VERNON CONCERTS .--- The second of these nsical and dramatic entertainments came off last night, at the Academy of Music, and the attendance, though still far below what the high charac ter of the performances warranted, was a grea deal better than on Monday evening. The Gen mania orphestra played very well, as it generall; does ; and it was gratifying, during the overlure to William Tell, to see the conductor-Mr. Senta we believe-go back to the good old, legitimate, but latterly-out-of-use, practice of leading with his violin. That is, of leading by his own skilfut playing. which all could hear, instead of by ges-ture, which all do not always see. He did this only during part of that performance, but even to have done it at all merits praise. The vecal performances went off very well. Miss Richings', fine and certain execution; Miss S. May's spien did voice, which is at once powerful and soft, and Mr. Frazer's beautiful tonor, (which preduced dramatic effects in the Scena from Fra Diavolo,) were "applauded to the echo, which doth applaud again," and encores were frequent. Mr. Rohr sang, as he did on Monday, in a mufiled voice. We waited for Miss Richings's resitation of parts of Longic How's noble poom, "The Building of the Ship," and wore well recompensed. As our readers know, the Academy of Music, from its vastness, is not well adapted for the speaking voice. Neither has Miss Richings got a strong voice, yet, without straining, she was heard in the remotest parts of the house. Her articulation is so clear and distinct, that she was audible without effort. Though her cedences were too mournful, while de-soribing the construction of the vessel-which nerely was a joyous thing, and should have been o expressed-the whole recitation was very good indeed. The description of the marriage-rites was given with delicate tenderness, and that of he ship's launch with emphatic spirit and force.

Very beautiful, too, was the peroration, alluding to the Ship of State. There was too much delay, the audience thought, between the different parts of last night's entertainment. The third part did not commence until nearly ten o'diogs. We learn that, at the request of many ladies who cannot attend in the evening, as also of residents Buenos Ayres, with a fair prospect that a good blow will send them all to Davy's locker, in the the original programme, will take place this after-noon at two o'clock, when, for this coession only, the price of admission will be reduced to twentyfive cents to all parts of the house, irrespective of location. The public should remember that mere amusement is not the sole object of these performances-but to aid the putriotic fund for purchasing, for the nation, the Home and Grave of Washington. ARCH-STREET THEATRE.-Messrs. Wheatley &

Clarke, lessees and managers of this well-conducted and prosperous establishment, have been out of town, "starring," for some weeks. At Rich mond, they were highly successful, and at the Holiday-street Theatre, Baltimoro, were so popu-lar that they have been re-engaged for three nights more. A Baltimore paper, of Monday, says: "The immense audiences attracted by these brilliant comedians. with the most serious and attrac tive opposition the drama has had this season, is a compliment Baltimore rarely pays for so many con-socutive nights to the best of talent. This evening the charing comedy, entited (Wild Oak; with a vory great cast-Mr. Wheatley as 'Rover,' and Mr. Clarke as 'Sim.''
