Panama on, the Sist ultimo, from Realejb. The Bogota mails, which should have brought our dates up from that capital to March 12, failed, as is usual of late. Piag officer Long, who left Realejb in the Mer-rimack, en the 24th ult, heard, just before sail-ing, that the Oass-Yrisarti reasty had been ratified by the Gongress at Managus; and signed by Presi-dent Martiner; with two amendments. One was that the United States should not land troops in Nicaragia. Without special permission or invita-tion from that Government. The second wolld ment; it is, that the United States may land troops in pursuit of fillubation in cass they escape the vigilance of our naval commanders at sas. Flag-officer Long has received no official or other communication from our minister, General Lamar, in regard to the foregoing information, but he be-ileves it, nevertheles, to betrue. GENERAL NEWS.

THE RIVER-ANOTHER CREVASSE-RUIN AHTAD . We have sgain more had tidings to an-nonnce concerning the all absorbing topic of the times, the fiver. On Sunday night, about eleven o'clock, we learn that the Diamond Island Levee, o'clock, we learn that the Diamond Island Levce, completed last year; gave way about a mile below the Uastleman break, and we hear from a gentle-man residing in that portion of Madison parish, that in all probability, from the rapid ravages it made night before last and yesterday, it is now fully, if not more than a mile wide, and aweeping verything before its wild and maddening rush of waters. We had hoped that this fine levce, which firmly withstood the high water of last year, might stand the text of the present mighty flood; yet it will not be wondered; that it has succumbed when we state that, for some time - before it gave way, waters. We had hoped that this fine lover, which firmly withstood the high water of hat year, might etand the text of the procent mighty flood; yet it will not be wondered; that it has succumbed when we state thet, for some time - lefore it gave way, the river was rolling over it, and that the water stood when the drevasso occurred thirisen and half inches ligher than (hat of last sateon.
