inder the control of politicians opposed on very land to the Democratic party, that the iter is in about as hopeless a minority in hat State as the Abolitionists are in Virginia, and the Opposition have therefore regulated its politics, exactly to suit themselves. The only real contests which arise are not between the Democracy and their adversaries, but all approve of the principal features of the creed of the Republican party, but differ is their regard for the tenets of the "American" party. A few years since the devotees of Americanism were completely in the ascendancy, and the only monuments they left to aftest the benign nature of their away were the records of the celebrated "Hisa" Investigating Committee, and a law which prohibits the exercise of the right of suffrage to all who cannot write their names and read the Constitution of the United boy in the play, who, because a French girl could not understand his jargon, supposed of the play in the play is the marriage remains secret for some time, sufficiently long for the Duchess to become a mother of the play is the play i all those who did not fully understand the English language to be supremely ignorant. Many of the best, most patriotic, useful, and intelligent citizens that have ever lived in this State could not have voted if the absurd Massachusetta law had been enforced here. Last winter another tub was thrown to the whale of the American element of the Bay State by the passage of a law submitting to the popular vote, on the 9th of May next, a constitutional amendment, which provides that no adopted citizen can vote in Massachu-

If this amendment should be adopted, a seven years residence and the ability to read and write the English language will be required as indispensable conditions for the exercise of the right of suffrage by adopted citizens, while fugitive slaves are llowed to exercise the same privilege after a residence, of one year in the State. A distinction of so odious a character naturally excites much feeling in the breasts of the nume rous German members of the Republican party throughout the Union, and therefore the nti-American Republicans in Massachuset are disposed to make attenuous efforts to de-feat the proposed amendment at the coming election in May. The result is looked forward to with considerable interest, as it may exercise great influence upon the future political associations of a large number of yery in telligent and influential citizens.

The New Test.
The new test of Democracy which the ultraists of the South, aided and abetted by the Administration, are endeavoring to establish of Congressional protection of slavery in the Pereltories, in deflance of the will of the peo ple who inhabit them, and in utter disregard of the vital principle of self-government—is a atriking instance of the andacity with which ambitious men sometimes attempt to per-vert political organizations from their true objects and original purposes. THE WAR QUESTION. The war question monopolised attention. Rumors of the most alarming nature had been carrient, and it was at one time asserted that Austria has estually declared war against Piedmont. This rumor provid to be destitute of anthorisy, but it was, nevertheless, regarded as the shadow of an event not far distant. The Continental journals and correspondence were filled with warlike apprehensions, and the conviction appeared to be general that the crisis was close at hand, and that war could not be averted. On the afteroom of the lith, however, there was somewhat of a lull in the war pune, and under the influence of some reassuring rumors in regard to the Congress, the funds became firm, and prices advanced both in Paris and London.

SINGULAR DISCOVERY OF SILVER GOIN.—An old-fashioned scoretary, belonging to a well-known member of one of the learned professions, and doubtless prized as an heir-loom, was sent, a day or two ago, to Mosers. Browster & Fenn's, to be repaired. In the process of repairing, a sort of silde, held to its place by a spring, and containing three small drawers in front, was taken out, and behind these drawers were found three corresponding drawers, opening in the opposite direction, and which, when the silde was in place, were effectivally concealed.

On examining these secret drawers, one was found packed full of silver coin, of all denominations, from a dollar to a sixpense—amounting to about filty dollars. A SHOCKING AVFAIR OCCURRED IN Washington county, Miss., a few days ago. Two brothers, named William and Robert Beford, we's living together. William had a very pretty wife, with whom the younger brother, Robert, became madly infatuated. A criminal intercourse between the two had been carried on for some time, but, growing weary of the restraint imposed by the presence of the injured husband, the younger brother determined to add to his other crime that of fratricide. On Wednesday evening of last week the outraged husband and brother was murdered, and on the Sunday following Robert Beford, the double murderer, committed suicide by taking strychnine. The misguided wife of the murdered man, with two children; are left the sole memorial of this chapter of horrors.
