NEW EDITION OF MAJOR HILL'S WORK.

A CONSIDERATION OF THE BERMON ON THE MOUNT: By Major Daniel H Hill. Second edition revised. 12mo. 75 cents.

"An expository treatise of this kird, from the pen of a mathematician and a milliary man, is certainly a novelty. But the claims of this book by no means rest on its noverly alone. It is really an excellent treatise, and all the more attractive because it is swi generis. We conless to a much higher appreciation of the Bermon on the Mount, since reading it, than we ever had before. His logical mind seems to dwell with pleasure on the logical order of that ionimitable discourse, and he makes his reader share that pleasure.
The spirit of the writer is worthy of all praise, and we most cordially commend his work to our readers as one which, while it is sure to instruct and profit, possesses also a peculiar power to secure and hold the interested attention of those who puruse it."—Evangelical Repository.

The "TIN TRUMPET," by the sate Paul Chattleid

To proceed to St. Joseph's Cometery. acety repunisated in this country out owing to assist that much of its matter was of purely English, local, and temporary interest, referring to the political and religious requables of the times, the success of the work here was but temporary, and it has long been entirely out of print. It contained, however, a sufficient quantity of wit and wisdom, original and selected, to make its resuscitation at this time appear desirable. The American Editor, to whom was entrusted the office of preparing it for republication, hes thought fit, while pruning the original of all that appeared superannusted, and of no present and lasting interest, to embody, with what remained, such selections from his Common-place book as appeared to him to come legitimately within the design of the author. The original plan of the book—an alphabetically arranged collection of the wit and wisdom of many of the best writers, andient and modern—has not been changed. Buch as it now is, the book is committed to the American philic, with the belief that, while it will become a mine of easy quotations to many of our ready writers, it will serve yet more to while away pleasantly and not unperfibile a superar affection or winter avantage to the Oux.

The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral, from her late residence, on Thursday morring, June 2d at 10 o'clock, without further notice, laterment at Christ Church burying ground, lith and Arch streets. THIM (Taisday) APTERNOON at 5 o'clock, to deliver
