WASHINGTON, June 26, 1859. It is gravely suggested in one of the Western papers that the leading reason operating upon the mind of General Cass when he wrote the Le Clerc letter was the hope that the Austrian Government, now that the notorious Francis J. Grund is, or has been, within its borders-that he would be reclaimed by that Government, and compelled t perform military service, thus saving the Adminis-tration $18 a day, and keeping out of the country Fortifications at Piacenza Blown Up. one of the most mischievous and dangerous of men. Grund is a native of Austria, and, I have no doubt. when the letter of General Cass is received by the Emperor, Francis Joseph, he will proceed to act apon it, and lay his hands upon every adopted sitizen, Grund inclusive, io whom, under the doc trine of that letter, he may have a claim.

It is a fast that some of the editors of Adminis tration papers are German adopted citizens, who have been put into a terrible dilemma by the new dootrine in regard to the protection of naturalized clustens. [From the Pan Francisco Herald.]
The influences which were actively incught into operation, for the purpose of defeating the delegates to the Democratic State Contention favorable to Mr. Nugont's nomination, embedded nearly all the machinery that has been hereto-fore considered omnipotent, at primary elec-tions in San Francisco. A simple enumeration to of them will be sufficient to show how great wess the opposition, and how signally the preference of the regular Democracy of this county has been manifested. On Saturday, the poling places were surrounded from first to last by men who, by overy means within their power, sought to obtain votes in support of the Custom House; the Usited States Marshal's office; the 'Host Office; the Plot Commissioners, with one exception; the United States Appraiser's office; the 'Post Office; the Plot Commissioners, with one exception; the Surveyor-General's office; the 'Host Office; 'the Plot Commissioners, with one exception; the Surveyor-General's office; the 'Host Office; 'Wardens; the State Gauger's office; the 'Host pital; the propristors of both lines of omnibuses; e the Notsriss Public, and the vasquished Bukk-hesdore were in the field, ergaged in the sfort for defeat the friends of Mr. Nugent.
