Important Intelligence from Europe.

By the arrival of the North British at Philadelphia, four days later than was expected, we have received the latest intelligence from Europe. The war in Italy has closed as suddenly as it commenced, and a treaty of peace has been concluded between Napoleon and the Emperor of Austria.

Letter from 4 Occasional.

Advices from California state that the Convention of officials at the Administration of Justice, which was held in Philadelphia, has been a success. The most remarkable evidence of popular disapprobation was apparent. Some two hundred of these men assembled at the Convention, and the result was a complete success.

Wanted.

Wanted: A French Minister of State, who is well acquainted with the language and customs of the country, and who is capable of conducting the affairs of the Government with skill and discretion.

Letter from Bedford Springs.

Graduates of the Springs are filling up, and in a short time the rooms will be occupied. The President is expected to arrive in a few days, and the Convention will be held in a few days.

The Dead and Wounded at Solferino.

If there are any who have grown so intensely interested in the war in Italy, and so fond of the excitement of watching from their safe and distant points of view its progress, they should now be turned to the following account of the dead and wounded at Solferino.

The Appointment of Governor Frazier.

The appointment of Governor Frazier of the State of Pennsylvania is a subject which has attracted much public attention. The Governor has been appointed by the State Legislature, and his appointment is generally regarded as a success.
