I have no doubt there is miny a romantic story connected with this hermitage, which was the work of two men alone; in the year 1670. As it has no endowment, it has long since been abandoned by hermits, and is now coupled by a poor gardoner, who, having no family, has taken up his solitary abode in one of its little

I was much interested and amused at all I saw, and the villagers seemed to regard my foreign appearance with the same degree of curiosity. It was a curious sight as I entered the long, low room of the subarre bidded with man and women figure; with the emblens of Christian hope (in the "Rock of Ages") and peace, (symbolized by a dove,) gracefully appended. The whole is artisti-cally executed. Adjoining this is the neatlyenclosed Buckingham lot, alongside of which is that of John Dallam, where, in a magnificent sarroom of the auberge, packed with men and women, and the casemonts hermotically closed; for if there is anything in the world the Swiss dread, it is a ophagus, are deposited the remains of Charles W. current! As Mr. Josern Lurr, a respectable farmer living near Sackett's Harbor, Now York, went out to sait his cattle, on Sunday last, he was set upon by a wicked three-year-old buil. The animal first struck him with both horns in the loins, and gave him a toss in the air; as the unfortunats men came down he was struck again in the forehead and shoulder. Of course the result was invitable death. A neighbor saw the transaction, and when he went to the result of him, when he was shot with a gun that the man had with him. Believing it to be the duty of all good citizens to expose error and defeat the plans of designing politicians, I inko pleasure in exposing the true meaning of two articles which have recently ap-CELEDRATION AT NORWICH .- The Boston peared in the Fitteburg Post, favoring the nomi-nation of James Buchanan at Charleston. peared in the Pitteburg Post, favoring the nomi-inition of James Buchanan at Charleston. Certain jottor-writers for the Eastern press have assorted that the author of these papers is Attor-ney General Black; others, that Mr. Buchanan, having altored his determination not to be a candi-date for ro-election, has selected the Post as the proper organ through which to make public this annodiffeement. There is not the least semblance of truth in either of these otories. Because the distinguished Attorney General is so profuse of Shakapeare, it has been pressmed that the first ar-ticle was his, as it was interspersed by reveral apt quotations from the great Bard. As well might it have been 'attributed to the profile por of 'Win. H.' Smith, Esq., (former editor of the Post, who has read Shakspeare, as well as Judge Black, and to no little advantage to himself and the commu-nity at large. With a full 'knowledge of the facts, I can posi-tively say that Judge H. is not the subtor, nor had J. B. the slightest intimation that his vanity was ativist in articles referred to. Bat the editor, James O. Barf, Keyd.; desirous of feeling the palse of the party. threw out the 'wo columns of homyod words which have to ikled the Proston ever since, and has satisfied his own mind that ther exists a decided aversion to J. LAST Friday morning the Pittsburg Gazette had reached its 73d anniversary. The first copy was issued on the 29th of July, 1786, and it was not only the first paper printed in Pittsburg, but the, first one west of the Alleghouy mountain. Seventy-three years have passed away since then, and to-day the Gazette is in a more floatishing and thritity condition than it ever was before. Its pro-gress has kept pace with that of the city.

Our Gorman and Irish Democracy are disgusted with this last attempt to patch up this blunder of Cass in his dotago, and it will be a mat-ter of great difficulty to get them to yote the De-mocratic ticket at the coming election. They feel that the Administration would have strictly adher-ed to its first declaration, that the American flag does not protee the naturalized foreigner in his ma-tive home, had not the pressure of public opinion compelled a complete somersault on this plain que-tion.
