The ride to Alantie is very pleasant, the capassing through the beautiful town of Haddonfield, the young cities of Hammonton and ker Harbor, and the action of a baseom. From Absecom to Alantie a distance of seven miles, the railroad is laid upon the salt meadows.

This part of the trip is truly delicious, for while in haling the pure salt air from the ocean, and listening the broaders from the ocean, and listening fully view of Atlantic City, its spires, cupolas, lighthouses, hotels, and cottages.
