Account of Professor Hart's administration; and in the one following it, we shall conclude the history of the High School. AUXXVS. SUPERSTITION IN LOUISVILLE:-Wo learn from a Louisville, Ky., friend, new in this city, whose residence is near the haunded spot, that night after night there are from frych hundred to one thousand persons gathered on Broadway, near the corner of Sixth street, to witness the va-garies of a ghost, said to rise from a large pilot one thousand persons gathered on Broadway, near the corner of Sixth street, to witness the va-garies of a ghost, said to rise from a large pilot on thousand persons gathered on Broadway, near the corner of Sixth street, to witness the va-garies of a ghost, so assume the appearance of a white hary dolumn, and to môve slowly forward, some hundred yards or so, and then disappear. Our in-formant says he has no thoen able to find the man who has actually seen the phantom. The old Marquis Capponf, who was once styled by M. Thiers "the first citizen in Europe," came down to the Palazzo Veschio to give his vote for the down fail of the house of Lorraine. Ho is studied by M. Thiers "the first the tast out, members of the data are of his, son-house of Lorraine. Ho is studied that, this illustrious man, once seld to the Grand Dake Leopold an the day when ho rowoke dito statute; "for if you do you will surely fail with it." Over $100 was raised among the officers at headquarters, at Camp Massachusets, in aid of the statute; "for if you do you will surely fail with it." Over $100 was raised among the officers at headquarters, at Camp Massachusets, in aid of the soldier who was roipled for life by an accident which occurred to gesting out of the cars.
