Gentlemen: The Salamanider Prie-Proof Safe, of your manufacture, purchased by us from your agents, Ferris & Garrett, of our city, some nine months sage, was severely tried by burglars last Saturdsy night, and although they had a sledge-hammer, cold-clusels, drill, and gunpowder, they did not succeed in opening the safe. The lock being one of "Hall's patent powder-proof," they could not get the powder into it, but drilled a hole in the lower panel and forced in a large charge, which was ignited, and although the door inside and out showed the explosion not to have been a small one, it was not forced open. We suppose they were the greater part of the night at work on it. We are much gratified at the result of the atteinpt to enter it, and if the above facts are of any service, you are at therety to use them.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1859. confort, the question, "where shall we buy our stores," will soon have to be solved, Our advice to such its, for various reasons, which the reader will appreciate, to visit the extensive establishment of Mr. J. S. Chark, I No. 1008 Market street, where every conceivable style of heating aparatus, from the noates/chamber-stove to the most capacious Cooking-Stoves and Ranges, may be had, manufactured in the best style, and at moderate prices. The Silver's Gas-consuming Stoves, which are so colehrated for their coal-saving properties—fifty per cent. being saved in fuel by their use—and which, as manufactured by Mr. Clark, of the best and heaviest material, have become the most popular Parlor and ornamental Stove now in use, are here displayed in all sizes, with several highly important improvements of Mr. Clark's own invention attached.

To appreciate fully his admirable slove, which, taken upon the whole, as really an ingenious piece of mechanism, it must be seen. Of the improvements spoken of we may mention his Safety Self-acting Door, which offectually prevents explosion; also his retort, which obviates the difficulty heretofore concuntered from the accumulation of ashes and cinders between the outer plate and the cylinder. By means of adjustable slides, a current of air is admitted into the rotort, and becoming heated, immediately ignites the gas arising from the coal, whereby a large saving of fuel is naturally attained.

In making an examination of this excellent stove, we SOUTHERN AUTHORESS WANTED—A Special Pariner, with Ten to Twelve thousand Dollars, in an established Wholesale House doing a safe and profitable bearings. Each man had given two dollars, and would concoal, whereby a large saving of fuel is naturally attained.

In making an examination of this excellent stove, we were forcibly struck with the value of several additions introduced by Mr. Clark this season, one of which is a Cast-iron Mouthpiece, which is certainly a vast improvement over the sheet-tron ones ordinarily used, both for durability and appearance. Another is his new patent ventilator on the top of the stove, by which the draught can be instantly and most effectually checked, rendering the vroservation of an equal temperature in a room a matter of egos; or, if desired, the stove can be reduced in temperature to perfect coolness in a few minutes; and still mother decided improvement is found in the construction of the porcelain knobs by which the draw is regulated. They are so made that the difficulty of their coming of hereofore attending them is entirely overcome. In conclusies, we would say that any of our readers in want of a good Parlor, Dining-room, Chattabler, by Office Stave, cannot fail to be perfectly saited in this admirable stock, which Mr. Clark now offers.
