There was Peter R.—, for instance, who went to the door, and saw with a maxement the sky lighted up, and he concluded that the world was on fire, and that judgment-day had come. This gazed swhile in specelless terror at the scene, and with a yell of horror sprang into the yard and ran discreamed, and prayed like an awakened sinner. This awakened his wife, whoy seeing her huebadd ranning and screaming about the yard and ran work to the the start in the tell her what on earth was the matter. "Peter, what is the matter with 'you?'' said the stonished wife'. "What makes 'you and seins and sore word to her. There was a long score of sins against him, and the time for a full settlement as he thought had come, and he was heedless and callous of his wife's appeals, and all other terrestrial things. The wife became intensely alarmed, and put on your breeches.''
