The result of the Democratic cancus is considered but fair and just to Mr. Boscok. He dan' somen trate as many yous as any other, and it is much better to be defeated mainfully standing by the arist choles than to fail after valing seeking to rin more acadidates. Mr. Mongromery's suggestion

Mr. Craig, of Missour, to appoint a committee of confarence with the same party, was exploded to day by Mr. Burnett, of Kentincky.

These foot definiouly prove that the Administration men will not; as a body, act with the South Americans, however anxions they may be to seduce the latter to their support. This I think equally donbiful, as doubtless Mr. Sampel S. Cox, of Ohlo, expressed the general views of the Northern and Northwestern Democratics when he said he could not vote for any Know-Nothing, or any man who supported a Know-Nothing. Then again, if the States and Union speaks for anybody in the South, or elsewhere, we are told that the Administration perty must not add in dignifying a faction by bestowing upon it the Speakerehip.

The South Americans of course know how—unless they know nothing—to return these very complimantary salutations with which they are greeted by both Northerp and Southern followers and worshippers of the present Administration. It is

Mr. Curry, of Alabams, however, could seek difference, and it was much more to his interest not to see the difference, if possible not to do so, than to Mr. Larrabee, the climate of whose locality is not Me held that slaves could be brought into the Territories, and retained there until the State Uon-stitution was adopted. In his protestations and declarations of this nature, good Mr. Larrabse out-Vallandigham-od Vallandigham.

Apropos of the latter gentieman, he will soon have his hands full. He yesterday had a complaint against the Congressional Globe some-thing about not allowing him to correct his speech and this morning he found fault with the manner

.. Two ballots being the ninth and tenth-were taken to day, both with the same result, Sherman lacking four of the necessary number of votes.

The rain pattering on the sky-lights, and reverberating in the hall, in contrast to the warmth of berating in the hall, in contrast to the warmth of the atmosphere within, and the geniality of the crowd of faces, creates a domestic feeling not de-void of happy results. They may not actually sities in this way, but the effect is all the same. There can be no mistaking the difference of feeling manifested on the floor and that which hold sway

There can be no mistaking the difference of feeling manifested on the floor and that which hold sway there eight or ten days ago.

On all sides there seemed to be a morbid snappishness, and a quicknoss of question and answer altogether too nimble for the preservation of order and harmony. Now that gentlemen elearly understand that there is no need of brew-beating on any side, things are in a much more happy train. During the ballot I cast my eyes around, and was struck with the gentlementy geniality visible everywhere. Why, there is Kilgore—horribly suggestive cognomen—who declared, on the first day of meeting, that he was "not of the facility there he is, shjoying the pleasant day of confabulation with Keitt, one of the most sweetlent spirits of the South, but who, in the syst of the New York. Tribune, is something whatevith to frighten sucking doves in Northern villages. Barney Williams, in the two first pieces, will be a great attraction.
Here it is proper to add, which we do with great satisfaction, that the idea of this Testimonial Benefit originated with Mr. Barney Williams, who, on learning that Mr. Marshall's present circumstances rendered such a tribute acceptable, immediately tendered his own and his wife's aid. At a positive loss to humself of several hundred dollars, Mr. Williams has thus surrendered one of his aights at Walnut-street Theatre. He is a warmhearted, liberal man, and his conduct on this occasion, as indeed at all times, shows that he really acts with an Irishman's proverbial kindness and benevolence. We refer to the programme in another column, and heartly loos that Mr. Marshall will obtain such substantial results from this Benefit as his friends anticipats.

The Anti-Slavery Fair. The Anti-Slavery Fair.

To the Editor of The Perss: Will you, in justice to a portion of our fellow-citizens, publish the following statement of facts? The Ponnsylvania Anti-Slavery Fair has been held in this city, annually, during twenty-three years, without disturbance. On Monday last, the twenty-fourth of these fairs was opened at Concert Hell. Its signal flag, which was suspended in front of the building, bears a picture of the old Liberty Bell in Independence Ball, with its inscription, "Proclaim liberty throughout all the land, to all the inhabitants thereof;" and, also, the words "Anti-Slavery Fair."

The Fair progressed with its usual order and decorum, On Thursday more ing the high constable pame to the Hall, and informed one of the inspagers that the Mayor codered that the flag should be taken down. In the afternoon of the same day, the sheriff announced his interesting the same day the same
