The New Orleans Picagune of December 18th says: "If y a special decree of the 30th of November, the Government of Yucatan has granted to a joint stock company, of which D. Juan de Regil is the director, the experise privilege for the importation and sale both of Mexican and foreign floar in that State, for the space of six months. For this pri-vilege the said company engage to pay into the public treasury the sum of $24,000, in monthly in-stalments of $3,000 each, the first within eight days after the signing of the contract. They also decree that at no time, so long as the contract endures, shall the price of floar be more than $21 per bar-rel, either at Bisal or Merida. "By virtue of the same decree, as also in special terms, the free importation of four is formally sus-pended on and after the 12th instant, from New Orleans, Havana, and other ports on the Moxie-m gulf, and on and after the 24th instant from other ports named respectively, will be admitted on the payment of the same ductes gaid by the new com-pany, viz: $0.50 the barrel, besides the domestio consumptive duries, which amounts to some three or four dollars more."
