BURNETT'S COCOAINE.
The following testimonial is conclusive of its efficacy in the case of
MRS. LANDRUFF.
BOSTON, Oct. 30, 1859.
Messrs. JOSEPH BURNETT & Co.:
GENTLEMEN: I have used your COCOAINE about six weeks, and its effect is so marked and extraordinary that I deem it my duty to state it to you.
My worst complaint for several years has been DANDRUFF, with itching and irritation of the scalp. After rubbing my hair, my coat-collar would be covered with the white scales, looking for all the world like a shower of snow.
My barber tried various applications without effect. His absence of your COCOAINE, and his obstinate refusal to use it, provoked me to procure and try it.
Three weeks used less than a bottle. The dandruff, and the irritation which caused it, have entirely disappeared, and my hair was never before in so good a condition.
Your obedient servant, A. S. FULLER.
BURNETT'S COCOAINE.
A single application renders the hair (no matter how stiff and dry) soft and glossy for several days. It is recommended, by all who have used it to be the best and cheapest Hair Dressing in the World.
Prepared by JOSEPH BURNETT & Co., BOSTON; and for sale by all dealers generally. at 50 cents a bottle.

CAUTION!—ASTROLOGY!—LOOK OUT!—GOOD NEWS FOR ALL.—The never-failing Mrs. TAN MORN is the best; the most successful; she never fails. All who are in trouble, all who have been unfortunate, consult the lady at once, for she has the secret of fixing the affections of the opposite sex. It is the fact which includes illiterate pretenders to try to imitate her, and copy her advertisement. She knows you the instant of your future wife, husband, or absent friend. It is well known to the public at large that she is the first and only person who can show the likeness in reality, and can give entire satisfaction on all the questions you may ask, which can be relied and proved in a month, both married, and single, who daily and secretly consult her. Come one! come all! to No. 1336 LOMBARD Street, between Juniper and Broad.

MEDICINAL.
MRS. WINSLOW,
AN EXPERIENCED NURSE AND FEMALE
Physician, presents to the attention of mothers her
SOOTHING SYRUP
FOR CHILDREN TEETHING, which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation; will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and GIVE TONE AND ENERGY TO THE BOWELS.
Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and
RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.
We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say in confidence and truth of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine, IT NEVER HAS FAILED IN A SINGLE INSTANCE TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak what we do know after ten years' experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfillment of what we have declared to be the case, when used according to directions. To the mother we can say, from the bottom of our hearts, that no language can exaggerate the benefit she will derive from the use of this article, if her child is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be realized in fifteen minutes after the Syrup is administered.
Unwavering confidence in the power of this article to give RELIEF, in every instance, in the most distressing case of GRIPING IN THE BOWELS AND WIND COLIC, and overcome completely the most violent convulsions, which, if not relieved, end in death, we believe is the universal sentiment of mankind, and we speak in this matter what we do know, after ten years' experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfillment of what we have declared to be the case, when used according to directions.
It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA, in children, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause. We believe and have no hesitation in saying, without fear of contradiction, that in the case of children suffering from any of the following complaints, viz: GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, WIND COLIC, SOUR STOMACH, DIARRHŒA, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause, DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether arising from teething or from any other cause, CONVULSIONS, which, if not relieved, end in death, we say to the mothers of these children, that we have never known an instance when the Syrup, if administered according to directions for the use of the medicine, did not produce the desired effect. We never have known an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who has used it. On the contrary, all concur in pronouncing it the greatest discovery in the world for the relief of suffering children. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be realized in fifteen minutes after the Syrup is administered.
This valuable preparation is the result of long experience and observation, and has been used in the nursery of the
PRINCESS OF WALES
for over FIVE YEARS, and has been used with never-failing success in the NURSERY OF THE PRINCESS ROYAL,
Eldest daughter of Queen Victoria, and
NURSERY OF THE QUEEN'S PALACE,
and has been used with never-failing success in the
NURSERY OF THE ROYAL FAMILY,
and has been used with never-failing success in the
NURSERY OF CHILDREN
OF CARES
Of all kinds from many, but in Simple; corrects acidity,
to the whole system.
It will almost instantly relieve GRIPING IN THE BOWELS and overcome convulsions, which, if not relieved, end in death. We believe it to be the world, in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from pain of any kind, not to let her prejudices, or the prejudices of any friend, prevent her child from having the relief that will be given by MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, if used in time. Do not delay a few moments after the infant is taken with the pain, but procure the article immediately and administer according to directions. Be sure and call for
MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP,
And take no other kind. Price only 25 cents a bottle.
Sold by Druggists throughout the world. Principal Depot, No. 13 CEDAR Street, New York.

JULIA KAVANAGH.
One volume 12mo., 423 pages. Paper covers, 38 cents; cloth, 50 cents.
[From the Boston Daily Advertiser.]
Miss Kavanah is unquestionably one of the most agreeable romancers of the day. There is a remarkable charm and fascination in her stories, which she knows how to make interesting. She gives a great facility to her personages to come into each minute detail of their actions and motives that her readers soon come to feel as familiar with them as if sharing the real joys and woes of their own lives. Her style is pure and graceful, and possessing much of the delicacy of touch and grace of expression which characterize the writings of her countrywomen.

JUST PUBLISHED,
THE INGOLDSBY LEGENDS;
Or, MIRTH AND MARVELS. By THOMAS INGOLDSBY.
(Rev. Richard Harris Barham.)
With Life, and copious Illustrations by Cruikshank and Leech.
From the 16th London edition.
Complete in two handsome volumes, just ready.
Cloth, fine paper $2 00
Half calf, gilt, or antique do. $5 00
The constant demand for the high-priced English edition of this delightful book has induced us to issue it at a low figure, in the very best style. The Memoir is as delightful and witty as that of Sydney Smith, and will excite the same attention. It contains anecdotes of Theodore Hook, Tom Hood, Sydney Smith, Canning, Georges IV, and other celebrities of the last century. Any criticism would be superfluous of the poems whose wit and originality have attracted such widely-extended notice. Some were interesting on account of the notoriety of their subject or their being connected with the events of the day; but all are animated with a spirit of fun, and an unflagging humor, that must secure unbounded popularity. The author's delightful vein of facetiæ is his unrivalled power in rhythm, and the flow and facility of his versification. His satire is always genial and good-natured, and equally a few touches display a different and higher order of poetic power, standing out in contrast with the ludicrous images that surround them. The Memoir gives an amusing sketch of his intimacy with Theodore Hook, and many anecdotes of living persons are added to the lighter historiettes.
The surprising cheapness of the price at which this invaluable work is published (only $2 50,) is in comparison with the price of the English edition, ($11 25,) should induce all admirers of polite humorous literature to possess themselves of a copy.

HELPER'S IMPENDING CRISIS.—A fresh supply. Wholesale and Retail, at ANTI-SLAVERY OFFICE, 107 North FIFTH Street.
d29-6t

The Impending Year and the "Impending Crisis."

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

Father Time is a hardy old fellow, forsooth;
He never lies down in a bed;
Wide awake, with a scythe and a glass in his hands,
He jogs, without resting, ahead.
In a Union unfreemon since "Seventy-six,"
We've welcomed the years in his train;
And the sons of the fathers now sainted in heav'n
That Union will ever maintain.
There's a talk of a "crisis impending" just now;
But why have a crisis?—oh! why?
Of the dear sister States, in a sisterhood bound,
Oh! where is the "sis!" who would cry?
Not a sister beloved of the whole thirty-two
With tears in her eyes will be seen;
In silence true, stands the "sister, white, and blue,"
They'll stand like the valiant "Thirteen."
"We are one!" they will shout, "and no crisis we fear,
The ties of our Union to sever;
In his talons our Eagle shall bear to the skies,
A "E Pluribus Unum" for ever;
For our wives and our daughters, with brooms and with forks,
Would march with our aunts and our nieces,
To prevent any "crisis, impending" o'er us,
From knocking our Union to pieces.
Not a crisis could stand 'gainst the women in arms
From homes of the brave and the free;
For each man on our soil, with a soul in his breast,
A Hero, to help them, would be.
Then, hurrah for our country! enshrined in our hearts!
No crisis impending we'll fear—
To a man, we will rise in the night of the right,
And wish her a "Happy New Year!"
And the wish will be answered by Him who hath blest
Our States, for His glory allied—
The confederate knot, He hath kept ever firm,
Shall never be cut or untied!
But the heats never conquered—in loyalty strong—
Will listen to Duty's behest;
And so act, if a conflict of States should occur,
That th' conflict shall soon be repressed.
We are one! and the fate of our Union shall find
On high, o'er the famed Tower Hall!
And the North and the South, with the East and the West,
Be a nation of freemen, at last.
On Bunker's fair Hill, in a National house,
As firm as the Union shall stand,
And most cheaply the callers shall all be supplied,
Whatever their wants may demand.
Then the vests, over best, will be buttoned up strong,
Or hearts which of Joy will be full,
And, through nations of Beauty, on wool may get warm,
Yet none o'er their eyes be will pull:
But his Bard, for the good of the country, will write—
The rights of all sections defending—
And, with pen or with sword, will be ready when'er
A "crisis" is o'er us "impending."

NOTE.—The people will not forget that new, strong Clothing can be cheaply bought at Tower Hall when a crisis is impending over the nails which they have long worn.
