Dr. Franklin surveyed the route of the Dela. Mare and Chesspeake Canal, at his own expense, in 1767. Baron Napier surveyed the route of the Forth and Clydo Canal, at his own expense, in 1781. Both of these works were subsequently ac-complished, but after great delay. Dr. Zabdiel Boyalston introduced innocula-tion for the small pox, into Boston, in 1721, and tried at first on his son Thomas, and other members of his family; but such was the force of prejudice and unbellef, that the other phy-sicians gave a unanimous opinion against it-the municipal government prohibited its prac-tioe, and the populace would have torn him to pieces if he had not retired from the city. Ler us Have THE BEST.—A farmer in an ad-joining county once went to his clergyman and inquired of him "why he did not preach as inquired of him "why he did not preach as inquired farm and Greek as the minister did who
