congratulations from these they represent, on your return to the Atlantic States after many years of absence The profering this invitation, the gentlemen by whom it is tendered desire to express their bigh appreciation of your personal character sell your public services, and at the same time to convey through you ascarances of the cordial root will and fraternel feeling they entertain for their curvity-men generally who reside in that section of the Union to which you belong. The wicked attempts which have recently been made, for the most sharacter partice, to implicate the great being of conservative, Union-laving citizens of the North in the offusie reimes of a few desperate and miguilet families, make the present an especially suitable particle for size as surances, and for the reiproval interchange of the surances, and for the reiproval interchange of the surances of the same great national con-federacy. From no body of men can the proposal of such an interchange more properly proceed than from there who speak for and in the name of a city which has always been loysl in its devolution to the Constitution; and to no individual can it more properly be offered than to one who has faith-fully represented that State which and erform-stances of severe stial has maintained and pro-claimed its attachment to the Union. Hooping that it may be agreeable to you to be present at the time designified, or st any time that you may eggeed as increate conventient to your-calf, we are, with assurances of esterants. of bodies were dug out, and two persons were ta-ken out alive.
