The Wreck of the Flora Temple. The Herald of yesterday contains a graphic account of the wreck of the American clipper ship Flora Temple, of Baltimore, in the China Sea, in October last, which disaster caused the loss of eight hundred and fifty Coolies, and eighteen Europeans. It was written by Dr. A. P. CHILDS, who was a passenger on board, and illustrates the horrors which almost inevitably attend the Coolie trade, while it describes one of the most disastrous shipwrecks that ever occurred.

The Flora Temple sailed from Macao for Havana on the 8th of October, 1859. When she had been out a few days it was discovered that the Coolies, who were doubtless greatly dissatisfied with the dreary prospect before them, had formed a scheme to kill the crew and take possession of the ship. The mutiny was promptly suppressed by the captain, but not until one of the crew had been backed to pieces and killed, and several others wounded ; and but for the panic produced among the

Coolies by the prompt use of revolvers, by the captain of the vessel and a portion of the crew, the latter would probably have all been
