Hon. Henry D. Gilpin.

This distinguished gentleman, whose death was briefly announced on Monday morning, occupied a very high and prominent position in the political career of the most important character. Mr. Gilpin was a native of Philadelphia, born in the year 1803. His education was completed at the University of Pennsylvania in the year 1820, and was an intimate friend of Dr. Wm. Penn, setting forth, on the banks of the Schuylkill, the most beautiful scenery in the State. He was a member of the Philadelphia bar, and was a member of the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts. WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

Letter from "Occasional." Correspondence of the Press. Washington, Jan. 31, 1860. I stepped into the room of Hon. J. C. McKim, last evening, he handed me a copy of the Stockton (California) Democrat of the 25th Dec., from which I first read, and then extracted the following article, which was also, of course, rejected.
