

ŧ .	NO AN OTHER DAY	OF MY OWN IMPORTATION.	To which they respectfully invite the attention of merchants. Cash and short-time huvers will find encoded advenue	AND 36 LETITIA STREET	this Congress paragraph to an idler as a capi-	announce my entire concurrence with the resolu- tions preposed by the Senator from Californis.	he done, that he should pay the penalty of his life? Why was his once bosom friend, who had	its healing splendor."
· · · ·	NO. 631 CHESTNUT STREET,		merchants. Cash and short-time buyers will find special advan- tage in examining this stock before purchasing. Te3-5m	Ais AGENTS for the sale of Goods Manufactures by the following Companies, vis: Massacuterrs, GENAT FALLS, DWTOHY, PREINS, HASTON, Brown, Hanglar, Brown, Hasobed, and Goldred Bhasting, Guilding, Brown, Hasobed, and Goldred Bhasting, Guilding,	tal puzzld. Let him once get into it, and run, up and down among the twisted phrases, and	aunounce my oblire concurrence with the resolu- tions preposed by the Senator from California. My own sequaturance with Mr. BRODERICK com- menced in this body and ended here. It was pure- ly and exclusively of a public character. I had not the baseward from marconel sequences with	no just cause of quarrel with him, his execu-	The telegraph has high, Georgis, on the 6th inst.
	JAYNE'S HALL,	AND FOR SALE BY	I HILLBORN JONES,	LACONIA, GREAT FALLS,	then let birs get honestly out of it if he	ly and exclusively of a public character. I had	tioner? When I contemplate the proper answers to these questions, the heart grows sick, the mind reels upon his throne, and I find no consolation except	Endy at Ways persons lost their lives. The Ba-
1 1 2	WINE THE ARE NOW REORIVING	JOSHUA L. BAILY,	Importer and Manufacturer of	LYNAN, CAROT, DUTORTY	The Congress paragraphs here alluded to	and outside of the pacific supporty in the portorial	that "He who doeth all things well," and " whose
, ,	THEIR SPRING IMPORTATIONS	IMPORTER AND JOBBER	FANOY SILK AND STRAW	PRAVING, Irewice,	are as follows ;	tors. But, sir, there were striking points in his	ways are not man's ways, and are past finding out," bath in them an insorutable providence	eon John Owens, a merchant of Waynesborough,
	Sand Brite of nor said and said	513. MARKET STRERT, PHILADELPHIA.	BONNETS AND HATS,	Brown, Blesched, and Golored Bhasting, Sulfinge, Jeans, and Drills. Deans, and Drills.	"At the close of the last session; I informed you	admiration. I found him bold, honorable, truthful,	ways are not man's ways, and are past finding out." bath in them an insorutable providence Julius Consar fell boneath two sty-three bit of and gaping wounds; but it was the star of Brates that was the unkindest of them all. But though	of that day Walkey deliberately shot and killed
يستع	MEN AND BOYS WEAR.	MERRIMACK PRINTS.	FRATHBRS; RUCHES, &o.	HAMPDEN COMPANY'S	great Powers of Kurope, ror mur he held by the		that was the unkindest of them all. But though (læsar entered Rome as a victorious general, in vi-
	The story of such and an in the story of a such as the story of the st	TWENTY NEW STYLES	The attantion of City and Country Dealers is invited to a large and varied stock of the above goods at	WBEDS AND COTTONADES in great variety. WASHINGTON MILLS	future condition of Italy, a plenipotential and	speciments of self-made Americans ; springing from	claster entered home as a victorious general, in the olation of law, the conspirators who struck him down gained nothing by his desth. Justice some- times comes with a slow and muffled step, but as	the town became very great, and five citizens, with
	To which they invite the attention of dealers in such a social to the second state of		452 MARKET STREET.	(Formerly Bay State) Shawis, Piano and Table Covers Printed Pattings	have since received a formal invitation from the	life, almost uncultivated internet; and in early		RPHINEL BT WEIKET S DODSO, WRITES THE TIME SHOW
) / 1	TNO. B. ELLISON & SONS.	THIS DA . , PEBRUARY MITH,	193-5m Below Filler	Shawis, Piano and Table Covers, Printed Feltings, Fianneis, All-Wool and Cotton Warp Cloths, heavy bir and blue Beavers, Cassimerse, and Tricots. Also, Ker Severs, Estimets, and Tweeds.	Emperor of Austria and from the Emperor of the French to send a plenipotentiary to a Congress, to consist of the representatives of the eight Powers	himself after he came to this body in such a man-	their them, somer or later. It starts the guilty in	door armod with a rifle, pistols, and a Knile. Ine
•		POR-SALE BY	LADIES' DRESS TRIMMINGS.		The were parties to the tresties of Vienne of L	etending the meny press/see which bad shrrounded	whithersoever they go, there it is whispering to In- uneasy and violated conscience.	his wife in attitude of defianco and refused, while
	559 MARKET STREET, (Second door below Fourth.)	JOSHUA & BAILY.	FEBRUARY 4, 1860.	PATENT FUR AND SEAL SKIN	1815-the object of such Congress being stated to be to receive communication of the trustics con-	his advent into this body, produced, it may be, by the many and stern partisan conflicts which
	IMPORTARS AND JOBBERS OF	NO.SIS MARKET STREET,	A	COATINGS.	cluded at Zurich, and to deliberate, associating with the above-mentioned Powers the Courts of	the many and storn parlisan conflicts which marked his active but troubled caroer. I trusted him as a faithful, an honest, an upright, a fearless	BRODEBICK was the result of foul play; but many think, if he had been less honest and independent,	rifie, and was about to fire, when the whole party of pursuers discharged their pieces, killing him in-
	OLOTHS, GASSIMBRES, VESTINGS, AN	fels-if PHILADELPHIA.	WM. H. HORSTMANN & SONS,	THE SUBSCRIBERS.	means best adapted for the pacification of Italy,	Senator. I give my full concurrence to these resolutions.	he would to day be a living man. What was his offence? What had he done that he should fall by the hand of violence? Why was he hunted	stantly, putting two buckshot through the arm and
-	TAILORS' TRIMMINGS,	CANTON FLANNELS,	FIFTH AND CHERRY STREETS, ADJOINING	BOLK AGENTS IN THE UNITED STATES For the above description of goods of the well-known	and for placing its prosperity on a solid and dura- ble basis.	I had not intended even to say this much but for the dissent which has been manifested to our pro-	from place to place without just cause or provoca-	ter, a little girl about seven years old, who was in Mass of FANCY CASSIMERES. VESTINGS, and dif-	ENOW SHOE.		manufacture of	"Circumstances have arisen which have led to a postponement of the Congress, without any day	ceedings in honor of his memory. Ho fell in honorable combat, under a code which he fully recognized. While I lament his zad fate, I have	spons to these questions; and the people of Cali- fornia will read and understand them. He had	the house at the time, a buckshot having entered her face below the eye and lodged in the rear por-
	ferent makes of PORBIGN CLOTHS and DOBSKINS, in Blacks and Colors; and offer the exclusive sale in	AMOSKBAG,	FACTORY, MANUFACTURERS AND IMPORTERS	MESSRS. BDWIN FIRTH & SONS,	having been fixed for its meeting; but, whether in Congress or in separate negotiation, I shall endeavor	recognized. While I lament his sad fate, I have no word of consure for him or his adversary. I	wronged no man; he had sought to quarrel with	tion of her heats
1	Philadelphia of HILGER'S celebrated make of Cloths and Dosskins; also, La Favorita Sewings, (warranted	KENNRBEC,	MANUFAUIURERS AND IMPORIERS	HECKMONDWIKE, YORKSHIRE, BNGLAND.	to obtain, for the people of Italy, freedom from foreign interference by force of arms in their in-	no word of consure for him or his adversary. I think no man, under any circumstances, can have a mere honorable death than to fall in the vindi- cation of honor. He has gone beyond consure or prote the has named area from mon's indement	would allow, avoided personal difficulty. Yet he	Legislature, to encourage and promote the mechan-
	16 on to the yound,) and MACHINE TWIST is all oo-	DORGAS,		Are preparing to exhibit samples of the various quali- ies, and to take orders f or immediate or future del	ternal concerns, and I trust that the affairs of the Italian peninsula may be peacefully and satisfac-	cation of honor. He has gone beyond censure or praise. He has passed away from men's judgment. to the bar of the Judge of all the earth, who will	poor but honest parentage, and tolling with his bands for his daily bread, a child of obsourity,	ical and scientific arts, and proposes to give one hundred and fifty dollars out of the State Treasury
	SITER, PRICE, & CO.,	Bissched, Unbissched, and Colored	LADIES' DRESS	very, to suit the convenience of the trade. The goods cannot be purchased through the custom	torily settled " This certainly is a notable specimen of the	do right:	and buffeted by misfortune's waves, he had looked	to each young man over the age of twenty-one
1	IMPORTERS AND JOBBNES OF	OANTON FLANNELS.	AND	ary channels in England, and all orders for the United States must go through the subscribers.	description of writing called rigmarole. It	"Earth's highest honors and in 'here he lies ;' And 'dust to dust' concludes her noblest song."	And a second H - hangen stard the state the second	years, who has served a five-year apprenticeship at some mechanical trade, and who can produce to í L	FORBIGN AND DOMESTIC	BY THE PIROE OR CASE.	MANTILLA TRIMMINGS,	WRAY & GILLILAN,	would puzzle the best scholar in the High School to parse it, because it is put together	IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.	competition for honorable fame.	the Governor a certificate of his qualifications from three master workmen, and a certificate from a ł		JOSHUA L. BAILY, 913 MARKET STREET,		PHILADELPHIA, and FANSHAWE, MILLIKEN, & TOWNSEND.	with a magnificant contampt of the owlinew	Mr. BURLINGAME. I rise, Mr. Speaker, to min-	Settling in a State possessing a heterogeneous population; poor, without friends; scoffed at and derided—he started out in a direct line for the	Probate Judge of his character. This amount is
1	DRY GOODS.	fold if PRILADELPHIA.	We are now prepared to offer a large and desirable	iald.tuth&aim New York.	trammels of syntax. Murdering the Queen's	gle my sorrow with this general expression of grief at the fall of one so gifted and so brave as was DAVID C. BRODERICK. It is true, that I did not	goal of his ambition, while those who were his ri-	th enable him to purchase necessary tools, and those tools are to be forever exempted from levy
	No. 815 MARKET STREHT.	HARDWARE.	stock of Ladies' Dress and Manulla Trimmings, to- gether with a full line of colors.					and sale under execution.
1	JOI-STA PHILADELPHIA.	FIARD WARD	ZEFHYR WORSTEDS,	F	culprit-the offence forced upon her by her	men who have just now space no feelingly and so justly of him. But latterly my relations with him were quite intimate, and I proume it was a know- ledge of this fact which led those who were near	ran only plebeian blood should be so bold and pre-	ture, there was an interesting exhibition. by a pro-
Î.		HANDY & BRENNER.	SHETLAND WOOL,	85 LETITIA PTREET, AND 34 SOUTH	cide what punishment should be meted to her	ledge of this fact which led these who were near and dear to him when he lived, to request that I	der. Nothing daunted by opposition, however,	cession through the Senste Chamber and Repre- sentatives' Hall of cight giant men, viz : General and the second	NOS. 93, 95, AND 97 NORTH PIFTH STRRET	EMBROIDERING CHENILLE,	FRONT STREET.	It is as if a Ohief Justice should himself com-	would join with them in these last sad tributes te	soul, his course was upward and onward, like the eagle's flight, and in a few short years he was the	Henry P. Cotton, sheriff of Lincoln county, 201
(models)	BAROROFT & CO.,	PHILADELPHIA. WHOLESALE COMMISSION MERCHANTS.	to to to which the attention of the Trade is directed.	COTTONADES.	mit one of the offences which he is in the habit of trying in his Criminal Court.	his memory. And now, sir, standing by his closed grave, I will do what I can to lead your mind, Mr. Bpeaker,	acknowledged head and leader of his State, while	Whitney, of Presque Jele, of the Senate, 262;
	NOS. 405 AND 407 MARKET STRBET,	For the sale of all kinds of	SOLE AGENTS FOR RYLE'S SPOOL BILK.	Suitable for both Clothiers and Jobbers, in large	When Victoria announces to the Lords	and the mind of the House, far, far away from the causes which I ald him in his bloody shroud, and	asking his aid, and found him as magnanimous as	Samuel C. Hamilton, of Biddeford, of the House, 235; Raymond B. Rich, of Thorndike, of the
* a	IMPORTERS AND JOBBRRS	ARREICAN MANUFACTURED HARDWARE,	fod-13t	variety.	Spiritual and Temporal and "her faithful Commons" who conjointly constitute the	causes which faid this is blocky should, and call your attention to a few of those singular quali- ties which made him the marvel alike of his friends	many chataslas in at shart a time. With and the	Hones 954, Enca Dhinnes of Ten of the Ward
,	FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC DRY GOODS.	GERMAN, BELGIAN, FRENCH, AND ENGLISH	1860. SPRING. 1860.	AVMMER COATINGS AND CASHMERETTS	British Parliament, that "the last embers of	and his focs. I do not shrink, air, from a defence of the motives and actions of Mr. BRODERICK; but	ne never dould nave done it	254; Mr. Morrison, of Farmington, 250; and J. W. Davis, of East New Portland, 245.
2	Stook now complete and ready for buyers. fe3-6w	HARDWARE AND OUTLERY, Keep constantly on hand a large stock of Goods to sup-	1000.	Made by Washington Mills.	disturbance" in her East Indian dominions	I this is not the occasion this is not the time for re-	tallact man and in a conseione month. It and	London, for private circulation, by Sir John Si-
21.144		ply Hardware Dealers.	4		" have been extinguished," we are inclined to ask where, in the name of all that is rational,	sentment; it is the hour sacred to friendship and to grief. In this spirit, sir, I shall offer the few	stood for the right. He sacrificed no principle to a	meon. It is the cotemporary account, in Italian,
•	SPRING, 1860.	BUTCHER'S FILMS, By the cask or otherwise.	EVANS & HASSALL.	Orders taken for these desirable goods for Spring trads. nl7-ti	such a remarkable mixed metaphor as this	words I have to say. He was the child of the people; born to that	expediency, acknowledged no leader but duty, and alike scorned the smiles and corruptions of power.
2	BERJAMIN V. MARANU, HENNEY HENDERSON. LEWIS W. HAYWARD, RICHARD WOOD, RDW'D Y. TOWNSERD, ALVERD H. FOSTER.	BUTCHER'S BIGE TOOLS, BUTCHER'S STREL OF VARIOU KINDS.	IMPORTBRS OF	SHIPLEY, HAZARD, & HUTCHINSON,	could have been put into her mouth. "The last embers of disturbance"-what can it	great American heritage, the right to labor and to enjoy the fruits thereof, and he shed a new dignity	His allegiance he owed to the people and their rights, and he refused it to Presidents and Cabi-	is the document, we believe, upon which Shelley
14 $	R. WOOD, MARSH, & HAYWARD,	WRIGHT'S PATENT ANVILS AND VICES,	LADIES' DRESS TRIMMINGS,	NO 119 CHESTNUT ST.,	mean? Ait the "confusion worse con-	prest American nerical, the fight of hadrand to enjoy the fruits thereof, and he shed a new dignity on the toil of man. It is true, as the gentleman from New York (Mr. Haskin) remarked, that now, worn and tired labor may look up from its toil and be proud. Sir, that was a beautiful in-	nets, when desired for base purposes. Always open and straightforward, there was no dis-	in English, is given in Mr. Moxon's edition of Shel.
ļ	Importers and Wholesale Dealers in DRY GOODS	SHIP OHAIR, And other kinds in every variety.	No. 51 S. FOURTH STREET,	OONNISSION MEBOHANTS FOR THE SALE OF	founded" of e Queen's Speech, one learns to think with more tolerance than the sentence	its toil and be proud. Sir, that was a beautiful in-	simulation or guile in him. His language was the open, plain Anglo-Saxon language of frank-	of the affair in a matter of fact and naves tone,
5	AND	SOLA AGENTS FOR	Are now opening a fine assortment of	DUIT A DET DUITAMADE	has usually received, upon President Taylor's	cident to which he made reference when in the Senate of the United States, representing, in part.	names. A truer man, a more disinterested pa-	which rather enhances than destroys the horror which attaches to it.
	OLOTHING, for an No. 309 MARKET Street, Philadelphia.	SHARP'S BEPRATER PISTOL,	NOVELTIES FOR THE SPRING SEASON,	GOODS.	joyful announcement to Congress that this country was "at peace with all the world-	the recollections of his early struggles to come upon	triot, a firmer hater of wrong and eppression, a more devoted and consistent friend, and purer public servant, never lived. No suspicion was ever	Professor T. S. C. Lowe has turned up in WEIGHING ONLY SK OUNCES. SEARPS NEW MODEL RIFLES AND PISTOLS.	To which they invite the attention of buyers. fe3-1m	CARPETINGS.	and the rest of mankind." Here is tautology,	his honored father, as it appeared in the traceries	even whispered that corruption had tampered	Charleston, S. C, where he is bewildering the Southerners with his aerial purposes, views, and
4	PAPER HANGINGS, &c.	EDWARDS. MANDY, JNO. 6. BRENNER. 6. P. BRENNER.	MEDICINAL.		surplusage of words, strange iteration; but here, also, is a plain and straightforward	tion of his ellignes with the great working disses	with him, that bribery's base coin had adhered to his fingers, or that he was in any way impli-	Anonylations . Us has furnished the summer least an
	TO CLOSE BUSINESS.		WIRS. WINSLOW.	M'CALLUM & CO.	thought, intelligible, if not exactly grammati-	on that occasion, when instead of flattering the pre- judices of his people, he told them with a foarless	cated in schemes of public plunder. Temperate, moral, simple, and frugal in his habits, and ad-	with an apology for the mysterious disappoarance of himself and his mammoth silken globe from the
	MART, MONTGOMERY, & CO.,	MOORE, HENSZEY, & CO.	MRS. WINSLOW, AN EXPERIENCED NURSE AND PEMALE Physician, presents to the attention of mothers her SO OT H IN G SY R U.P	CARPET MANUFACTURERS, GLEN ECHO MILLS, GERMANTOWN.	cally correct. The Queen's Speech is a sort of joint-stock	tongue their faults, rebuked their prejudices, and yet leaned confidingly on their virtues while he	good, he trod life's path not as society's spawn,	cognizance of the citizens of New York. He says : ""The mammoth air-ship. City of New York, in
				GLAN FORO MILLE, OPRIMATION .			hut as one of nature's noblemen, looking down
	INC. SIZ CHESTNUT STREET,	HARDWARR.	FOR OHILDREN TRETHING.	Also, Importers and Dealers in	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers.	vindicated their rights.	from his lofty eminence upon his traducers, and	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in
· ·	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their	HARDWARE, OUTLERY,	FOR CHILDREN TRETHING.	Also, Importers and Dealers in	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle.	vindicated their rights. Sir, he was a Democrat, without being a dema-	moving forward as a comet amid losser planets, shedding a radiance in his pathway. He knew po	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or June next, I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to nexpected
2	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their large stock of	OUTLERY, and GUN	FOR CHILDREN TEETHING, which greatly facilitates the process of testhing, by softening the gume. reducins all inflammation; will al- lay ALL, which and spasmodic action, and is affine TO REWILLATE THE BUWELS.	CARPETINGS,	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle. men but had the advantage of an University	vindicated their rights.	moving forward as a comet amid losser planets, shedding a radiance in his pathway. He knew no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he	Which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next, I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to nurspected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was difficult to foresee and the delar to which I was
	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their large stock of PAPER HANGINGS,	OUTLERY, and GUN	FOR OHILDREN TEETHING, which greatly facilitates the process of testhine, by softening the gume, reducins all inflammation; will al- lay ALL, value and spasmodic action, and is BURE TO REGULATE THE BUWELS. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves	CARPETINGS. OIL CLOTHS.	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle. men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small celebrity as men of letters. Lord	vindicated their rights. Bir, he was a Demoorat, without being a dema- gogue; he loved the people and he nover betrayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in his character, he won their enduring regard. Sir, I never knew a man who was so misunder-	moving forward as a comet amid losser planets, shedding a radiance in his pathway. He know no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, bold, faithful, and single in his purpose, bo never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and wrong	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next, I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to unexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was difficult to foresee, and the delay to which I was subjected in the construction of the mechanical subjected in the construction of the mechanical
ه مد در م ر اسطار ادرام ۲	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their large stock of	OUTLERY, and GUN	FOR OHILDREN TEETHING, which greatly facilitates the process of testhine, by softening the gume, reducins all inflammation; will al- lay ALL, value and spasmodic action, and is BURE TO REGULATE THE BUWELS. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves	CARPETINGS. OIL CLOTHS.	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle. men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained	vindicated their rights. Bir, he was a Democrat, without being a dema- gogue; he loved the people and he nover betrayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in hisoharacter, he won their enduring regard. Sir, I nover knew a man who was so misunder- stood-who differed so much from his common fame. I mysolf sought bim in this city, as the	moving forward as a counci amid lesser planets, shedding a radiance in bis pathway. He knew no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and wrong were presented to him, which to choose. His was no weak, doubting, cowardly tongue, that was	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next, I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to unexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was difficult to foresee, and the delay to which I was subjected in the construction of the mechanical apparatus and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; consequently, I de- loided to postpone the first experiment of practically lessing to the theory a focusing and
	Will soll out, through this winter and next spring, their large stock of PAPER HANGINGS, Conducting of every variety counsected with the business, AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES.	OUTLERY, and GUN	FOR OHILDREN TEETHING, which greatly facilitates the process of testhine, by softening the gume, reducins all inflammation; will al- lay ALL, value and spasmodic action, and is BURE TO REGULATE THE BUWELS. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves	CARPETINGS. OIL CLOTHS.	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle. men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small celebrity as men of letters. Lord Palmerston was one of the authors of "The New Whig Guide." Lord Campbell is the biographer of the Chancellors and Chief Jus-	<ul> <li>Findicated their rights.</li> <li>Bir, he was a Democrat, without being a dema- gogue; he loved the people and he nover betrayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in hisoharaoter, he won their enduring regard.</li> <li>Sir, I never knew a man who was so misunder- stood-who differed so much from his common fame. I myself sought him in this city, as the Representative of a hardy but tumulinous portion of my countrymen. Imagine, sir, my surprise</li> </ul>	moving forward as a counci amid losser planets. shedding a radiance in bis pathway. He know no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and wrong were presented to him, which to choose. His was no weak, doubting, cowardly tongue, that was afraid to give ulterance to truth. As a statesman, he had not the polish of those	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next, I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to unexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was difficult to foresee, and the delay to which I was subjected in the construction of the michanical apparatus and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; consequently, I de- loided to postpone the first experiment of practically testing the theory a focening acting maximum.
a state of the second	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their PAPER HANGINGS , Conducting of avery variety counselled with the business. AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES FINE FRENCH PAPERS AT 30 PER CENT, BE- LOW COST.	OUTLERY, and GUN	FOR OHILDREN TEETHING, which greatly facilitates the process of testhine, by softening the gume, reducins all inflammation; will al- lay ALL, value and spasmodic action, and is BURE TO REGULATE THE BUWELS. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves	CARPETINGS. OIL CLOTHS.	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle. men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small celebrity as men of letters. Lord Palmerston was one of the authors of "The New Whig Guide." Lord Campbell is the biographer of the Chancellors and Chief Jus- tices of England. Mr. Gladstone has written	vindicated their rights. Bir, he was a Demoorat, without being a dema- gogue; he loved the people and he never betrayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in his character, he won their endering regard. Sir, I never knew a man who was so misander- stood-who differed so much from his common fame. I myself sought him in this city, as the Representative of a hardy but tumulicous portion of my countrymen. Imagine, sir, my surprise when I found him a student-ma student of history.	moving forward as a counci amid lesser planets, shedding a radiance in his pathway. He know no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and wrong were presented to him, which to choose. His was afraid to give utterance to truth. As a statesman, he had not the polish of those educated in the schoels-mot their blausibility or	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next, I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to nurspected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was difficult to foresee, and the delay to which I was subjected in the construction of the mechanical apparatus and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; contropeutly, I de- oided to postpone the first experiment of practically testing the theory et oceanic aerial navigation un- til spring, when, as everything is in the most com- plete and perfect order, I shall (my life and health a fan de Trên de Artenie	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their PAPER HANGINGS, Conducting of avery variety counselled with the business, AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES. PINE PRENCH PAPERS AT 30 PER CENT, BE- LOW COST. Persons wanting their Houses Papered, can get great	OUTLERY, and GUN	FOR OHILDREN TEETHING, which greatly facilitates the process of testhine, by softening the gume, reducins all inflammation; will al- lay ALL, value and spasmodic action, and is BURE TO REGULATE THE BUWELS. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves	CARPETINGS. OIL CLOTHS.	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle. men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small celebrity as men of lettors. Lord Palmerston was one of the authors of "The New Whig Guide." Lord Campbell is the biographer of the Chancellors and Chief Jus- tices of England. Mr. Gladstone has written largely in the Quarterly and other Reviews, and has written several octavo volumes upon	vindicated their rights. Sir, he was a Demoorat, without being a dema- rogue; he loved the people and he never betrayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in his character, he won their endaring regard. Sir, I never knew a man who was so misander- stood—who differed so much from his common fame. I myself sought blim in this city, as the Representative of a hardy but tumulicous portion of my countrymen. Imagine, sir, my surprise when I found him a student-as student of history, a student of poetry, a silent man, one who ast every first the student man, one who ast every first many surprise when a student of history.	moving forward as a comet amid lesser planets, shedding a radiance in his pathway. He knew no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and wrong were presented to him, which to choose. His was afraid to give utterance to truth. As a statesman, he had not the polish of those educated in the schoels-mot their plausibility or flowing language; but possessed a native vigor of intellect, expanded by reflection and reading, which marked every effort of his forensic power.	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next, I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to unexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was subjected in the construction of the mechanical apparatus and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; consequently, I de- cided to postpone the first experiment of practically testing the theory et occanic aerial navigation un- til spring, when, as everything is in the most com- plete and perfect order, I shall (my life and health being spaced) softe the opportunity, which the time until then will afford une for making obser-
and the second	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their PAPER HANGINGS , Conducting of avery variety counselled with the business. AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES FINE FRENCH PAPERS AT 30 PER CENT, BE- LOW COST.	OUTLERY, and GUN	FOR OHILDREN TEETHING, which greatly facilitates the process of testhine, by softening the gume, reducins all inflammation; will al- lay ALL, value and spasmodic action, and is BURE TO REGULATE THE BUWELS. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves	CARPETINGS. OIL CLOTHS.	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle. men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small colebrity as men of lettors. Lord Palmerston was one of the authors of "The New Whig Guide." Lord Campbell is the biographer of the Chancellors and Chief Jus- tices of England. Mr. Gladstone has written largely in the Quarterly and other Reviews, and has written several octavo volumes upon Church and State. The Duke of Argyll is the	<ul> <li>vindicated their rights.</li> <li>Bir, he was a Demoorat, without being a dema- gogue; he loved the people and he nover beirayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in his character, he won their endering regard.</li> <li>Bir, I nover knew a man who was so misander- stood-who differed so much from his common fame. I mysoif sought him in this city, as the Representative of a hardy but tumultuous portion of my countrymen. Imagine, sir, my surprise when I found him a student-as student of history, a student of poetry, a silent man, one who ast apart from his follows, pondering deeply the great problems of life; one instructed, as the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. Hickman) has informed</li> </ul>	moving forward as a comet amid lesser planets, shedding a radiance in bis pathway. He know no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and wrong were presented to bim, which to choose. His was no weak, doubling, cowardly tongue, that was afraid to give uiterance to truth. As a statesman, he had not the polish of these educated in the schoels-mot their plausibility or flowing language; but possessed a native vigor of flowing language; but possessed a native vigor of flowing language; our possessed a native vigor of flowing language; our post the tag rading, which marked every effort of his forensie power.	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next, I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to unexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was difficult to foresee, and the delay to which I was subjected in the construction of the mechanical apparatus and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; consequently, I de- cided to postpone the first experiment of practically testing the theory et oceanic aerial navigation un- til spring, when, as everything is in the most com- plete and perfect order, I shall (my life and health being spaced) softe the opportunity, which the time until then will afford me, for making obser- vations in the lower latitudes. My object now is,
and a second and a s	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their large stock of PAPER HANGINGS, Conducting of avery variety counselled with the business. AT GREATLY REDUCKD PRICES FINE FRENCH PAPERS AT 20 PER CENT. BE- LOW COST. Periode wanting their Houses Payered, can get great EARGAINS. jail-tf	OUTLERY, and GUN	FOR OHILDREN TEETHING, which greatly facilitates the process of testhine, by softening the gume, reducins all inflammation; will al- lay ALL, value and spasmodic action, and is BURE TO REGULATE THE BUWELS. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves	CARPETINGS. OIL CLOTHS.	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle. men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small celebrity as men of letters. Lord Palmerston was one of the authors of "The New Whig Guide." Lord Campbell is the biographer of the Chancellors and Chief Jus- tices of England. Mr. Gladstone has written largely in the Quarterly and other Reviews, and has written several octavo volumes upon Church and State. The Duke of Argyll is the author of several pamphlets and one volume on the Scottish Presbytery. Sir George Corn-	Findicated their rights. Bir, he was a Demoorat, without being a dema- gogue; he lovad the people and he nover betrayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in his character, he won their enduring regard. Sit, I nover knew a man who was so misander- stood-who differed so much from his common fame. I mysolf sought him in this city, as the Representative of a hardy but tumultuous portion of my countrymen. Imagine, sir, my surprise when I found him a student-a student of history, a student of poetry, a silent man, one who ast apart from his follows, pondering deeply the great problems of life; no instructed, as the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. Hickman) has informed us, in those motives which underlie all the actions of men. I found him firm aud dignified in deport- ment. If is true his struggles with adverse fortune bed clouded his how, and that his face in the set.	moving forward as a comet amid lesser planets, shedding a radiance in bis pathway. He know no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and wrong were presented to bim, which to choose. His was no weak, doubling, cowardly tongue, that was afraid to give uiterance to truth. As a statesman, he had not the polish of these educated in the schoels-mot their plausibility or flowing language; but possessed a native vigor of flowing language; but possessed a native vigor of flowing language; our possessed a native vigor of flowing language; our post the tag rading, which marked every effort of his forensie power.	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next, I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to unexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was difficult to foresee, and the delay to which I was subjected in the construction of the michanical apparatus and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; consequently, I de- cided to postpone the first experiment of practically testing the theory et oceanic aerial navigation un- til spring, when, as everything is in the most com- plete and perfect order, I shall (my life and health being spaced) zoire the problem. I have deter- mined not to neglect the opportunity, which the time until then will afford me, for making obser- vations in the lower latitudes. My object now is,
n fan Juli - An	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their large stock of PAPER HANGINGS, Conducting of avery variety counselled with the business. AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES FINE FRENCH PAPERS AT 20 PER OBMT. BE- LOW COST. Periods wanting their Houses Papered, can get great BARGAINS. Jule-It STATIONERY.	OUTLERY, and GUN	FOR OHILDREN TEETHING, which greatly facilitates the process of testhine, by softening the gume, reducins all inflammation; will al- lay ALL, value and spasmodic action, and is BURE TO REGULATE THE BUWELS. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves	CARPETINGS. OIL CLOTHS.	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle. men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small celebrity as men of letters. Lord Palmerston was one of the authors of "The New Whig Guide." Lord Campbell is the biographer of the Chancellors and Chief Jus- tices of England. Mr. Gladstone has written largely in the Quarterly and other Reviews, and has written several octavo volumes upon Church and State. The Duke of Argyll is the author of several pamphlets and one volume on the Scottish Presbytery. Sir George Corn- wall Lewis, is a philosophical Historian, and has	Findicated their rights. Bir, he was a Democrat, without being a dema- gogue; he loved the people and he nover betrayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in his character, he won their enduring regard. Bir, I never knew a man who was so misunder- stood-wwho differed so much from his common fame. I mysolf sought him in this city, as the Representative of a hardy but tumultuous portion of my countrymen. Imagine, sir, my surprise when I found him a student—a student of history, a student of poetry, a silect man, one who ast apart from his follows, pondering deeply the great problems of life; one instructed, as the gentleman from Pennaylvania (Mr. Hickman) has informed us, in these motives which underlie all the actions of men. I found him firm and dignified in deport- ment. It is true his struggles with adverse fortune had clouded his brow, and that his face, in the presence of his foce, ever wore a mingled look of	moving forward as a comet amid lesser planets, shedding a radiance in bis pathway. He know no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and wrong were presented to bim, which to choose. His was no weak, doubting, cowardly tongue, that was afraid to give utterance to truth. As a statesman, he had not the polish of those educated in the schoelsnot their plausibility or flowing language; but possessed a native vigor of intellect, expanded by reflection and reading, which marked every effort of his forensic power. Who that heard him or who that has read his re- marks, will ever forget his manly and eloquent reply to Bouth Carolina's proud and gifted Senator, who reflected on the laboring men of the North in unjust terms? It is, Mr. Spesker, no disparage-	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next. I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to unexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was subjected in the construction of the mechanical importants and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; concequently, I de- oided to postpone the first experiment of tracklastly testing the theory et occanic aerial navigation un- til spring, when, as everything is in the most com- plete and perfect order, I shall (up life and health being spared) solve the problem. I have deter- mined not to neglect the opportunity, which the time until then will afford me, for making obser- vations in the lower latitudes. My object now is, to make an examination of the upper currents, assortain their course, velowity, &c, at short dis- tanoe to and below the equator, to see if cannot discover a return current setting from east to wast — a theory in which I have strong fait. In the
a fan de Tolenne and 'n de Santa and 'n de Sant	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their large stock of PAPER HANGINGS, Cyndiating of every variety counsected with the business, AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES PINE PRENOH PAPERS AT 30 PER CENT. BE- LOW COST. Periode manting their Houses Payered, can get great BARGAINS. jule-tr STATIONERY. 1860. NEW FIRMS AND 1860.	OUTLERY, and GUN	FOR OHILDREN TEETHING, which greatly facilitates the process of testhine, by softening the gume, reducins all inflammation; will al- lay ALL, value and spasmodic action, and is BURE TO REGULATE THE BUWELS. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves	CARPETINGS. OIL CLOTHS.	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle. men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small colebrity as men of lettors. Lord Palmerston was one of the authors of "The New Whig Guide." Lord Campbell is the biographer of the Chancellors and Chief Jus- tices of England. Mr. Gladstone has written largely in the Quarterly and other Reviews, and has written several octavo volumes upon Church and State. The Duke of Argyll is the author of several pamphlets and one volume on the Scottish Presbytery. Sir George Corn- wall Lewis, is a philosophical Historian, and has been editor of the Edinburgh Review . Lord John Russell has written history, criticism,	vindicated their rights. Bir, he was a Demoorat, without being a dema- gogue; he lovad the people and he nover beirayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in his character, he won their endaring regard. Sir, I nover knew a man who was so misander- stood-who differed so much from his common fame. I mysoif sought him in this city, as the Representative of a hardy but tumultuous portion of my countrymen. Imagine, sir, my surprise when I found him a student-as student of history, a student of poetry, a silent man, one who ast apart from his follows, pondering deeply the great problems of life; one instructed, as the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. Hickman) has informed us, in these motives which underlie all the actions of men. I found him firm and dignified in deport- ment. It is true his struggles with adverse fortune had clouded his how, and that his face, in the presence of his foes, ever wore a mingled look of scorn and defance, but for his friends he had a genial smile-an irresistible facing for the diverse fortune had clouded him form and sing face, in the presence of his foes, ever wore a mingled look of scorn and defance, but for his friends he had a genial smile-an irresistible facing for and the head the sub form and the head as the fortune has the face for head as the face in the score fortune had clouded his bore.	moving forward as a comet amid lesser planets. shedding a radiance in bis pathway. He knew no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and wrong were presented to him, which to choose. His was no weak, doubting, cowardly tongue, that was afraid to give uiterance to truth. As a statesman, he had not the polish of those educated in the schoelsnot their plausibility or flowing language; but possessed a native vigor of intelled; expanded by reflection and reading, which marked every effort of his forensic power. Who that heard him or who that has read his re- marks, will ever forget his manly and elequent reply to Boath Carolina's proud and gifted Sentor, who reflected on the laboring men of the North in unjust terms? It is, Mr. Speaker, no disparage- ment to others to say that no Sentor ever gained, in o short a time, so wide-spread a fame. Coming to this Carolitol with the breath of alander preceding to the faulto with the breath of alander preceding	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next, I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to unexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was subjected in the construction of the mechanical apparatus and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; consequently, I de- cided to postpone the first experiment of practically testing the theory et oceanic aerial navigation un- til spring, when, as everything is in the most com- plete and perfect order, I shall (my life and health being spared) zoites the opportunity, which the time until then will afford me, for making obser- vations in the lower latitudes. My object now is, to make an examination of the upper currents, ascortain their course, velowity, &c, at short dis- tanoe to and below the equator, to see if I cannot discover a return current setting from cast to west —a theory in which I have store fisht. In the thirty-eight voyages I have made above the cload regions, between 47 dez, and 33 deg north lati-
and the second	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their I arge stock of PAPER HANGINGS, Cyndicting of every variety counselled with the business, AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES PIME PRENOR PAPERS AT 30 PER GENT, BE- LOW COST. Persons wanting their Houses Pasered, can get great BARGAINS. jais-tr STATIONERY. 1860. NEW FIRMS AND 1860. WM. F. MURPHY & SONS.	OUTLERY, and GUN	FOR OHILDREN TEETHING, which greatly facilitates the process of testhine, by softening the gume, reducins all inflammation; will al- lay ALL, value and spasmodic action, and is BURE TO REGULATE THE BUWELS. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves	CARPETINGS. OIL CLOTHS.	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle. men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small colebrity as men of lettors. Lord Palmerston was one of the authors of "The New Whig Guide." Lord Campbell is the biographer of the Chancellors and Chief Jus- tices of England. Mr. Gladstone has written largely in the Quarterly and other Reviews, and has written soveral octavo volumes upon Church and State. The Duke of Argyll is the author of several pamphlets and one volume on the Scottish Presbytery. Sir George Corn- wall Lewis, is a philosophical Historian, and has been editor of the Edinburgh Review. Lord John Russell has written history, criticiam, plays, politics, poems, and so forth-after a	vindicated their rights. Bir, he was a Demoorat, without being a dema- gogue; he lovad the people and he nover betrayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in his character, he won their endaring regard. Bir, I nover knew a man who was so misander- stood-who differed so much from his common fame. I mysoif sought him in this city, as the Representative of a hardy but tumultuous portion of my countrymen. Imagine, sir, my surprise when I found him a student-as student of history, a student of poetry, a silent man, one who as apart from his follows, pondering deeply the great problems of life; one instructed, as the gentlemsan from Pennsylvania (Mr. Hickman) has informed us, in those motives which underlie all the actions of men. I found him firm and dignified in deport- ment. It is true his struggles with adverse fortune had clouded his brow, and that his face, in the resence of his foes, ever wore a mingled look of scorn and defance, but for his friends he had a genial smile-an irresistible fasionation. His look was honest and sincere, bis voice firm and truth- fal, and sometimes it had a maily melody whick	moving forward as a comet amid lesser planeta. shedding a radiance in bis pathway. He know no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and wrong were presented to him, which to choose. His was no weak, doubting, cowardly tongue, that was afraid to give ulterance to truth. As a statesman, he had not the polish of those educated in the scheelsnot their plausibility or intellect, expanded by reflection and reading, which marked every effort of his forensic power. Who that heard him or who that has read his re- marks, will ever forget his manly and eloquent reply to South Caroling is provid and gitted Stator, who reflected on the laboring men of the North in unjust terms? It is, Mr. Speaker, no disparage- ment to others to say that no Senator ever grinod, in so short a time, so wide-spread a fame. Coming him and breathing dishonor upon his character, in two short varins is late ropatation was swyllowed	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next. I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to unexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was subjected in the construction of the mechanical apparatus and other requipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; concequently, I de- clided to postpone the first experiment of practically testing the theory et occenic aerial navigation un- til spring, when, as everything is in the most com- plete and perfect order, I shall (my life and health being spared) colve the oppertunity, which the time until then will afford me, for making obser- vations in the lower latitudes. My object now is, to make an examination of the upper currents, ascertain their course, velowity, & c, at short dis- taneo to and below the equator, to see if I cannot discover a return current setting from cast to west a theory in which I have strong faith. In the thirty-eight voyages I have make above the cloud regions, between 47 deg. and 33 deg north lati- tude, I have found (though not always at the same altitude) a current setting rom cast, relia-
n (na da 2010) a la companya da companya ana ana ana	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their large stock of PAPER HANGINGS, Conducting of every variety counsected with the business, AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES FINE FRENCH PAPENS AT 20 PER CENT, BE- LOW COST. Periode wanting their Houses Papered, can get great BARGAINS. isi8-tt STATIONERY. 1860. NEW FIRMS AND 1860. OHANGES. WMM. F. MURPHY & SONS, No. W CREATNUT STREET, Below Forth,	OUTLERY, and GUN	FOR OHILDREN TEETHING, which greatly facilitates the process of testhine, by softening the gume, reducins all inflammation; will al- lay ALL, value and spasmodic action, and is BURE TO REGULATE THE BUWELS. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves	CARPETINGS. OIL CLOTHS.	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle, men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small celebrity as men of lettors. Lord Palmerston was one of the authors of "The New Whig Guide." Lord Campbell is the biographer of the Chancellors and Chief Jus- tices of England. Mr. Gladstone has written largely in the Quarterly and other Reviews, and has written several octavo volumes upon Church and State. The Duke of Argyll is the author of several pamphlets and one volume on the Scottish Presbytery. Sir George Corn- wall Lewis, is a philosophical Historian, and has been editor of the Edinburgh Review. Lord John Russell has written history, criticism, plays, politics, poems, and so forth-after a fashion. Hero, at all events, are six men who	vindicated their rights. Sir, he was a Demoorat, without being a dema- rogue; he loved the people and he never betrayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in hisoharaoter, he won their enduring regard. Sir, I never knew a man who was so misunder- stood-who differed so much from his common fame. I mysolf sought him in this city, as the Representative of a hardy but tumultaous portion of my countrymen. Imagine, sir, my surprise when I found him a student-as student of history, a student of poetry, a silent man, one who ast apart from his follows, pondering deeply the great problems of life; one instructed, as the gentieman from Pennsylvania (Mr. Hickman) has informed us, in these motives which underlie all the actions of men. I found him firm and digalided in deport- ment. It is true his struggles with adverse fortune had clouded his brow, and that his face, in the presence of his fore, ever wore a mingled look of scorn and defance, but for his frinds he had a genial smile-an irresistible facination. His look was honest and sincere, bis voice firm and truth- fal, and sometimes it had a manly melody which caused it to poetrate into the deepest rocesses of the buman heart. Sir, he was a born leader. Sitting in his silent.	moving forward as a comet amid lesser planeta. abedding a radiance in bis pathway. He know no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and wrong were presented to him, which to choose. His was no weak, doubting, cowardly tongue, that was afraid to give utterance to truth. As a statesman, he had not the polish of those educated in the schoelsnot their plausibility or intellect, expanded by reflection and reading, which marked every effort of his forensie power. Who that heard him or who that has read bis re- marks, will ever forget his manly and eloquent reply to South Caroling sense of the North in nujust terms? It is, Mr. Speaker, no disparage- ment to others to say that no Senator ever gained, in so short a time, so wide-spread a fame. Coming it the capitol with the breath of slander preceding him and evershing dishonor upon his character, in two short years his State reputation was swallowed up by a national one, and his name became a fame.	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next. I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to unexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was subjected in the construction of the mechanical supparatus and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; concequently, I de- oided to postpone the first experiment of practically testing the theory et oceanic aerial navigation un- til spring, when, as everything is in the most com- plete and perfect order, I shall (ury life and health being spared) solve the problem. I have deter- mined not to neglect the opportunity, which the time until then will afford me, for making obser- vations in the lower latitudes. My object now is, to make an examination of the upper currents, ascortain their course, velowity, for east to west a theory in which I have strong faith. In the thirty-eight voyages I have male above the cloud regions, between 47 deg. and 35 deg north lati- tide, I have found (though not always at the same altitude) a current setting from west to east, relia- ble in its course as the Gull Stream. If, then, I can find at or near the equator a counter enter, alaboration must construct and a second and a	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their I args stock of PAPER HANGINGS, Conducting of avery variety counselled with the business. AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES FINE FRENCH PAPERS AT 20 PER CENT, BE- LOW COST. Periode wanting their Houses Papered, can get great EARGAINS. Islb-tr STATIONERY. ISGO. NEW FIRMS AND ISGO. WM. F. MURPHY & SONS, No. 200 GREATNER FORMER, BLANK BOOK S.	OUTLERY, and GUN	FOR OHILDREN TEETHING, which greatly facilitates the process of testhine, by softening the gume, reducins all inflammation; will al- lay ALL, value and spasmodic action, and is BURE TO REGULATE THE BUWELS. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves	CARPETINGS. OIL CLOTHS.	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle, men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small celebrity as men of lettors. Lord Palmerston was one of the authors of "The New Whig Guide." Lord Campbell is the biographer of the Chancellors and Chief Jus- tices of England. Mr. Gladstone has written largely in the Quarterly and other Reviews, and has written several octavo volumes upon Church and State. The Duke of Argyll is the author of several pamphlets and one volume on the Scottish Presbytery. Sir George Corn- wall Lewis, is a philosophical Historian, and has been editor of the Edinburgh Review. Lord John Russell has written history, criticism, plays, politics, poems, and so forth-after a fashion. Hero, at all events, are six mon who have written books, yet these, assisted by nine more, (every one of whom has published at	<ul> <li>vindicated their rights.</li> <li>Bir, he was a Demoorat, without being a demagogue; he loved the people and he never beirayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in hischaracter, he won their endering regard.</li> <li>Sir, I never knew a man who was so misanderstood who differed so much from his common fame. I myself sought him in this city, as the Representative of a hardy but tumultuous portion of my countrymen. Imagine, sir, my surprise when I found him a student—a student of history, a student of poetry, a silent man, one who ast apart from his follows, pondering deeply the great problems of life; one instructed, as the gontiems of men. I found him a student—a budent of history, men. I found him firm and dignified in deportment. It is true his struggles with adverse fortune had elouded his brow, and that his face, in the presence of his foes, ever wore a mingled look of secon and defance, but for his friends he had a genial smile—an irresistible facion fund the and many melody which caused it to potertate into the deepest recesses of the human heart.</li> </ul>	moving forward as a comet amild lesser planeta. shedding a radiance in bis pathway. He know no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and wrong were presented to bim, which to choose. His was no weak, doubting, cowardly tongue, that was afraid to give uiterance to truth. As a statesman, he had not the polish of those educated in the schoelsnot their plausibility or flowing ianguage; but possessed a native vigor of intellect, expanded by reflection and reading, which marked every effort of his forensic power. Who that heard him or who that has read his re- marks, will ever forget his manly and eloquent reply to Boath Carolina's proud and gifted Senator, who reflected on the isboring mon of the North in unjust terms? It is, Mr. Speaker, no disparage- ment to others to say that no Senator ever grained, in so short a time, so wide-spread a fame. Coming to this Capitol with the breath of slander preceding thm and breathing dishonor upon his character, in two short years his State reputation was swallowed up by a national one, and his name became a fa- miliar household word throughout this vast Repub- lio. It will go on, sir, outinnating, until truth and uptice shall place it in the highest niched of fame.	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next. I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to unexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was subjected in the construction of the mechanical supportunes and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; conrequently, I de- cided to postpone the first experiment of tractically testing the theory et oceanic aerial navigation un- til spring, when, as everything is in the most com- plete and perfect order, I shall (my life and health being spared) solve the problem. I have detor- mined not to neglect the opportunity, which the time until then will afford me, for making obser- vations in the lower latitudes. My object now is, to make an examination of the upper currents, ascortain their course, velocity, & e, at short dis- tance to and below the equator, to see if I cannot discover a return current setting from east to wrat -a theory in which I have strong faith. In the thirty-eight voyages I have make abore the clead regions, between 47 deg. and 33 deg north lati- tude, I have found (though not naveys at the same altitude) a current setting from west to east, relia- ble in its course sto Guilf Stream. If, then, I can find at or near the equator a counter current, possessing the same uniformity and reliability, fu and a second	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their large stock of PAPER HANGINGS, Cyndiating of every variety counsected with the business, AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES PINE PRENOH PAPERS AT 20 PER CENT. BE- LOW COST. Periode manting their Houses Payered, can get great BARGAINS. Jule to STATIONERY. ISGO. NEW FIRMS AND 1860. OHANGES. WM. F. MURL'HY & SONS, No. 200 CREATNUT STARKET, BICH AN K BOOK S.	OUTLERY, and GUN WALEHOUSE, No. 497 MARKET, and 416 COMMERCE Streets PHILADELPHIA. fo3-5mo. DRUGS AND CHEMICALS. B.A. FAHNESTOOK & CO. DRUGS, CORES, IMPORTERS, AND WHOLESALE DEALERS IN DRUGS, OHEMICALS, CORKS, SPONGES, AMERICAN AND FOREIGN RESERVIAL OILS, 40.7, And Manufacturors and Sole Proprietors of B. A. FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIFUGE, Nos. 7 and 9 NORTH FIFTH STREET,	FOR OR ORIGINAL DRENTEETHING, which greatly facilitates the process of testing, by solving the formed production will solve the formed production will solve by Alger TO RNGULATE THE BUWELS. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and the production of the solve the solve the solve the solve RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS. Where put up and sold 'this article for over ten medicine, NEVER HALL TH TO YOUR INFANTS. Where solve never been of the dence and furth. Of it, what we have never been of the dence and furth. Of it, what we have never been of the dence and furth. Of it, what we have never been of the dence and furth. Of it, what we have never been of the dence and furth. Of it, what we have never been of the solve and the dence and furth. Of it, what we have never been of the dence and furth. Of it, what we have never been of the dence and furth. Of it, what we have never been of the dence and furth. Of it, what we have never been of the dence and furth. Of it, what we have never been of the dence and furth of the dence trarr, all are delighted will be the solve of the most it what we have and the dence of the most for the dence of the most for the will be the work it where the will be the dence of the most for the fulfiller of the fulfiller of the fulfiller in the work the solve of the presention of the fulfiller of the fu	CARPETINGS. OIL CLOTHS.	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle. men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small celebrity as men of lettors. Lord Palmerston was one of the authors of "The New Whig Guide." Lord Campbell is the biographer of the Chancellors and Chief Jus- tices of England. Mr. Gladstone has written largely in the Quarterly and other Reviews, and has written several octavo volumes upon Church and State. The Duke of Argyll is the author of several pamphlets and one volume on the Scottish Presbytery. Sir George Corn- wall Lewis, is a philosophical Historian, and has been editor of the Edinburgh Review. Lord John Russell has written history, criticism, plays, politics, poems, and so forth-after a fashion. Hero, at all events, are six mon who have written books, yet these, assisted by nine more, (every one of whom has published at least one Parlismentary speech, which is one	vindicated their rights. Bir, he was a Demoorat, without being a dema- rogue; he loved the people and he never betrayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in hischaraoter, he won their endaring regard. Sir, I never knew a man who was so misander- stood—who differed so much from his common fame. I myself sought blim in this city, as the Representative of a hardy but tumulicous portion of my countrymen. Imagine, sir, my surprise when I found him a student—a student of history, a student of poetry, a silent man, one who ast apart from his follows, pondering deeply the great problems of life; one instructed, as the gentieman from Pennaylvania (Mr. Hickman) has informed us, in those motives which underlie all the actions of men. I found him firm and dignified in deport- ment. It is true his struggles with adverse fortune had clouded his brow, and that his face, in the presence of his foes, ever wore a mingled look of scorn and defance, but for his friends he had a genial smile—an irresistible facionation. His look was honest and sincere, bis voice firm and trut- ful, and sometimes it had a manly melody which caused it to poetrate into the deepest recesses of the human heart. Sir, he was a born leader. Sitting in his silent. solitary room in San Francisco, his wirard mind went forth over the hills and through the valleys of California, until the whole State was filed with	moving forward as a comet amid lesser planeta. shedding a radiance in bis pathway. He know no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and wrong were presented to him. which to choose. His was no weak, doubting, cowardly tongue, that was affaid to give utterance to truth. As a statesman, he had not the polish of those educated in the schoelsnot their plausibility or flowing language; but possessed a native vigor of intellect, expanded by reflection and reading, which marked every effort of his forensic power. Who that heard him or who that has read his re- marks, will ever forget his manly and eloquent reply to Bouth Carolina's proud and gifted Senstor, who reflected on the isboring men of the North in unjust terms? It is, Mr. Speaker, no disparage- to thers to say that no Senator ever gained, in so short a time, so wide-spread a fame. Coming to this Capitol with the breath of shander preceding him and dreathing dishonor upon his character, in two short years his State ropatation was swallowed up by a national one, and his name becsme a fa- mijiar household word throughout this wast Repub- lio. It will go on, sir, columinating, until truth and justice shall place it in the higheat niche of fame. Though he was born ut this District, and spent	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next. I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to unexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was subjected in the construction of the mechanical apparatus and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; concequently, I de- clided to postpone the first experiment of practically testing the theory et occenic aerial navigation un- til spring, when, as everything is in the most com- plete and perfect order, I shall (my life and health being spared) zoire the opportunity, which the time until then will afford me, for making obser- vations in the lower latitudes. My object now is, to make an examination of the upper currents, ascortain their course, velowity, & c, at short dis- taneo to and below the equator, to see if I cannot discover a return current setting from cast to west a theory in which I have strong faith. In the thirty-eight voyages I have male above the cloud regions, between 47 deg. and 33 deg north lati- tude, I have found (though not always at the same altitude) a current setting from act, the same altitude a current setting from west, realia- ble in its course as the Guilf Stream. If, then, I can find at or near the equator a counter current, possessing the same uniformity and relivability, I shall be astified. The avivantages arising from such a discovery can hardly be determined." CRENOLINE SCEDUEDThe London Times re and the second state that the second state of the second state of the second state of the second state of the s	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their large stock of PAPER HANGINGS, Cyndiating of every variety counsected with the business, AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES PINE PRENOH PAPERS AT 20 PER CENT. BE- LOW COST. Periode manting their Houses Payered, can get great BARGAINS. Jule to STATIONERY. ISGO. NEW FIRMS AND 1860. OHANGES. WM. F. MURL'HY & SONS, No. 200 CREATNUT STARKET, BICH AN K BOOK S.	OUTLERY, and GUN WALEHOUSE, No. 497 MARKET, and 416 COMMERCE Streets PHILADELPHIA. fol-5mo. DRUGS AND CHEMICALS. B.A. FAHNESTOCK & CO. DRUGS, CHEMICALS, DRUGS, CORKS, CHEMICALS, CORKS, SPONGKS, AMERICAN AND FORMIGN RESERVIAL OILS, 40., AND MABUTACTORS AND FORMIGN USE, 40., AND MABUTACTORS AND FORMIGN USE, Nos., 7 and 9 NORTH FIFTH STREET, East side, a few doors above Market, fol-5m PHILADELPHIA	FOR OR ORIGINAL DRENTEETHING, which greatly facilitates the process of testing, by solving the formed production will solve the formed production will solve by Alger TO RNGULATE THE BUWELS. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and the production of the solve the solve the solve the solve RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS. Where put up and sold 'this article for over ten medicine, NEVER HALL TH TO YOUR INFANTS. Where solve never been of the dence and furth. Of it, what we have never been of the dence and furth. Of it, what we have never been of the dence and furth. Of it, what we have never been of the dence and furth. Of it, what we have never been of the dence and furth. Of it, what we have never been of the solve and the dence and furth. Of it, what we have never been of the dence and furth. Of it, what we have never been of the dence and furth. Of it, what we have never been of the dence and furth. Of it, what we have never been of the dence and furth. Of it, what we have never been of the dence and furth of the dence trarr, all are delighted will be the solve of the most it what we have and the dence of the most for the dence of the most for the dent of the dence of the most for the dent of the dent	CARPETINGS, OIL OLOTHS, MATTING, RUGS, &O., WARKHOUSE 609 CHESTNJT BT., (Opposite the State House.) Southern and Western buyers are respectfully invited to call. CARPETS, CARPETS. F. A. ELIOT & CO., Nos. St and S4 North FRONT Street, are the SOLE AGENTS in Philadelphis for the ROXBURY CARPET COMPANY, and have constantly for sale a full assortment of VELVET and TAPESTRY CARPETS, of choice patterns. Also, a large supply of the various kinds of CAR- PETS manifectured in Philadelphis at the ad county, from nearly all the best manufacturers. Dealers will find it to their interest to call and examine these goods, which are offsred for sale on the most favorable terms. N. BF. A. ELIOT & CO, being the Sole Agents in Philadelphis for the sale of the Worsted and Carpet Yarne spun by the Saxonville Mills (formerly the New Knriand Worsted Company, Jand being agents also for	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle. men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small colebrity as men of lettors. Lord Palmerston was one of the authors of "The New Whig Guide." Lord Campbell is the biographer of the Chancellors and Chief Jus- tices of England. Mr. Gladstone has written largely in the Quarterly and other Reviews, and has written soveral octavo volumes upon Church and State. The Duke of Argyll is the author of several pamphlets and one volume on the Scottish Presbytery. Sir George Corn- wall Lewis, is a philosophical Historian, and has been editor of the Edinburgh Review. Lord John Russell has written history, criticism, plays, politics, poems, and so forth-after a fashion. Hero, at all events, are six mon who have written books, yet these, assisted by nine more, (every one of whom has published at least one Parliomentary speech, which is one degree of authorship), were unable to com- pose a Queen's Speech which should be intel-	vindicated their rights. Bir, he was a Demoorat, without being a dema- gogue; he lovad the peoplo and he nover betrayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in his character, he won their enduring regard. Sir, I nover knew a man who was so misander- stood-who differed so much from his common fame. I mysolf sought him in this city, as the Representative of a hardy but tumultuous portion of my countrymen. Imagine, sir, my surprise when I found him a student-a student of history, a student of poetry, a silent man, one who ast apart from his follows, pondering deeply the great problems of life; one instructed, as the gentlemsm from Pennsylvania (Mr. Hickman) has informed us, in those motives which underlie all the actions of mon. I found him firm and dignified in deport- ment. It is true his struggles with adverse fortune had clouded his bore, and that his face, in the presence of his foes, ever wore a mingled look of soorn and defance, but for his friends he had a gonial smile-an irresistible fascination. His look was honest and sincere, bis voice firm and truth- fal, and sometimes it had a manly melody which caused it to poterate into the deepest roccesses of the human heart. Sir, he was a born leader. Sitting in his silent, solitary room in San Francisco, his wirard mind went forth over the hills and through the valleys of California, until the whole State was filled with the breach of his power. He had an indomitable will. Before it party names and party organize.	moving forward as a comet amid lesser planeta. shedding a radiance in bis pathway. He know no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and: wrong were presented to him, which to choose. His was no weak, doubting, cowardly tongue, that was affaid to give uiterance to truth. As a statesman, he had not the polish of those educated in the schoelsnot their plausibility or flowing language; but possessed a native vigor of intelled; arganded by reflection and reading, which marked every effort of his forensic power. Who that heard him or who that has read his re- marks, will ever forget his manly and elequent reply to Bouth Carolina's proud and gifted Scantor, who reflected on the isboring men of the North in unjust terms? It is, Mr. Spesker, no disparsge- ment to others to say that no Scantor ever gained, in so short a time, so wide-spread a fame. Coming to this Capitol with the breath of slander preceding him and dreathing dishonor upon his character, in two short years his State reputation was swallowed up by a national one, and his name beceame a fa- mijiar household word throughout this vast Repub- lio. It will go on, ir, oulminating, until truth and juvice shall place it in the highest niche of fame. Though he was born in this District, and spent Liberty, he was the true typo of a Northern Demo- orat. All his instinctions, sympethies, and feelings.	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next. I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to unexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was subjected in the construction of the mechanical supparatus and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; concequently, I de- oided to postpone the first experiment of prostloally testing the theory et oceanic aerial navigation un- til spring, when, as everything is in the most com- plete and perfect order, I shall (my life and health being spared) solve the problem. I have deter- mined not to neglect the opportunity, which the time until then will afford me, for making obser- vations in the lower latitudes. My object now is, to make an examination of the upper currents, ascertain their course, velowity, & c, at short dis- tanoe to and below the equator, to see if c cannot discover a return current setting from east to west —a theory in which I have strong faith. In the thirty-eight voyages I have made above the cloud regions, between 47 des, and 35 deg north lati- tude, I have found (though not always at the same altitude) a current setting from west to east, relia- ble in its course as the Guild Stream. If, then, I can find at or near the equator a counter entrent, possessing the same uniformity and reliability, I shall be satisfied. The avivantages arising from such a discovery can hardly be determined." CRINGLINE SCEUED.—The London Times re porter, in isketching the secues at the recent open-
n (na da). The name of the second of the	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their large stock of PAPER HANGINGS, Cyndiating of every variety counselted with the buildness. AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES PIME PRENOH PAPERS AT 30 PER GENT, BE- LOW COST. Persons wanting their Houses Payered, can get great BARGAINS. jal8-tf STATIONERY. ISGO. NEW FIRMS AND ISGO. OHANGES: WM. F. MURL'HY & SONS, No. BE GREATNUT STREET, BOW FORTH. PROTOAL MISUFACTORIES OF BLANGE CLIEBE Stock. Make of Liebe Stock.	OUTLERY, and GUN WALEHOUSE, No. 497 MARKET, and 416 COMMERCE Streets PHILADELPHIA. fo3-5mo. DRUGS AND CHEMICALS. B.A. FAHNESTOOK & CO. DRUGS, CORES, IMPORTERS, AND WHOLESALE DEALERS IN DRUGS, OHEMICALS, CORKS, SPONGES, AMERICAN AND FOREIGN RESERVIAL OILS, 40.7, And Manufacturors and Sole Proprietors of B. A. FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIFUGE, Nos. 7 and 9 NORTH FIFTH STREET,	FOR OR ORIGINATION OF THE ETHING, y which greatly facilitates the process of testhing, by solving the grunn redemined in inflammenic; will si- by Alger TO HYDELLATH TO YOUR INFANTS. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS. White your pand sold, 'this article for over ten redicine, NEVER HALTH TO YOUR INFANTS. White your pand sold, 'this article for over ten dimest used. Never then the strict of a BIN GLE INSTANCE, TO FAILED it A BIN CONCERNING IN THE STANCE STANLIG, THE STANCE INTRACE AND THE STANCE AND STANCE INTRACE AND THE STANCE INTRACE AND THE STANCE AND STANCE AND STANCE INTRACE AND THE STANCE AND STANCE AND STANCE AND STANLIG, IN A BIN STANCE INTRACE AND THE STANCE AND STANCE AND STANCE AND STANLIG, IN A BIN STANCE AND STANCE AND STANCE AND STANLIGHT AND	CARPETINGS, OIL OLOTHS, MATTING, RUGS, &O., WARRHOUBE 609 CHESTNUT BT., (Opposite the State House.) Southern and Western buyers are respectfully invited to call. CARPETS. F. A. ELIOT & CO., Nos. M and 34 North FRONT Street, are the SOLE AGENTS in Philadelphia for the ROXBURY CARPET COMPANY, and have constantly for sale a full assortment of VELVBT and TAPESTRY CARPETS, of choice patterns. Also, a large supply of the various kinds of OAR- PETS manufactured in Philadelphia cuty and county, from nearly all the best manufacturers. Beliers will find it to their interest to call and examine these goods, which are offered for sale on the mot favorable terms. N.BF. A. ELIOT & CO, being the Bole Agents in Philadelphia for the sale of the Worsted and Carpet Yarnes gue by the Saxonville Mills (formerly the New England Worsted Company,) and being agents also for the Baldwin, Willow, and Aboto Company, and boto Companies, have	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle. men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small celebrity as men of lettors. Lord Palmerston was one of the authors of "The New Whig Guide." Lord Camphell is the biographer of the Chancellors and Chief Jus- tices of England. Mr. Gladstone has written largely in the Quarterly and other Reviews, and has written several octavo volumes upon Church and State. The Duke of Argyll is the author of several pamphlets and one volume on the Scottish Presbytery. Sir George Corn- wall Lewis, is a philosophical Historian, and has been editor of the Edinburgh Review. Lord John Russell has written history, criticism, plays, politics, poems, and so forth-after a fashion. Hero, at all events, are six mon who have written books, yet these, assisted by nine more, (every one of whom has published at least one Parliamentary speech, which is one degree of authorship), were unable to com- pose a Queen's Speech which should be intel- ligible and grammatical! What a pity it is that while the dead and living languages had	<ul> <li>vindicated their rights.</li> <li>Bir, he was a Demoorat, without being a demagogue; he loved the people and he never beirayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in hischaraoter, he won their endering regard.</li> <li>Sir, I never knew a man who was so misanderstood who differed so much from his common fame. I mysoif sought him in this city, as the Representative of a hardy but tunulicous portion of my countrymen. Imagine, sir, my surprise when I found him a student—a student of history, a student of poetry, a silent man, one who ast apart from his follows, pondering deeply the great problems of life; one instructed, as the gontleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. Hickman) has informed us, in these motives which underlie all the actions of men. I found him struggles with adverse fortune had clouded his brow, and that his face, in the presence of his foes, ever wore a mingled look of secon and defance, but for his friends he had a genial smile—an irresistible facion and truthful, and sometimes it had a manly melody which caused it to potertate into the deepest recesses of the human heart.</li> <li>Sir, he was a born leader. Sitting in his silent, solitary room in San Francisco. his wirard mind went forth orer the hills and through the valleys of California, until the whole State was filed with adversed for the sum under the specific diagneer and men, under the specific diagneer and men, under the specific diagneer and men went forth orer the numer and party organize tions disappeared, and men, under the specific diagneer and men, under the specific diagneer and men.</li> </ul>	moving forward as a comet amid lesser planets. abedding a radiance in bis pathway. He know no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and wrong were presented to him, which to choose. His was no weak, doubling, cowardly tongue, that was afraid to give utterance to truth. As a statesman, he had not the polish of those educated in the scheelsnot their plausibility or flowing language; but possessed a native vigor of intellect, expanded by reflection and reading, which marked every effort of his forensic power. Who that heard him or who that has read his re- marks, will ever forget his manly and eloquent reply to Boath Caroling men of the North in nujust terms? It is, Mr. Speaker, no disparage- ment to others to say that no Senator ever gained, in schort a time, so wide-oprend a fame. Coming it this Capitol with the breath of slander preceding him and dreathing disbonor apon his character, in miljar houschold word throughout this wast Repub- lio. It will go on, sir, oulminating, until truth and juvice shall place it in the highest niche of fame. Though he was born in this Distriot, and spent his juvenlie years around this Distriot, and spent his juvenlie years around this Distriot, and spent his juvenlie years around this Temple of American Liberty, he was the true typo of a Northern Demo- crat. All his instincts, sympathies, and feeling?, were with the Democrary.	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next. I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to unexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was subjected in the construction of the mechanical apparatus and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; concequently, I de- oided to postpone the first experiment of practically testing the theory et oceanic aerial navigation un- til spring, when, as everything is in the most com- plete and perfect order, I shall (my life and health being spared) solve the problem. I have deter- mined not to neglect the opportunity, which the time until then will afford me, for making obser- vations in the lower latitudes. My object now is, to make an examination of the upper currents, assortain their course, velowity, for ast to start discover a return current setting from cast to wast —a theory in which I have strong faith. In the thirty-eight voyages I have mate above the cloud regions, between 47 deg. and 35 deg north lati- tude, I have found (though not always at the same altitude) a current setting from west to east, relia- ble in its course as the Guild Stream. If, then, I can find at or near the equator a counter entrent, possessing the same uniformity and reliability, I shall be astisfied. The advantages arising from such a discovery can hardly be determined." CRINOLINE SUBDUED.—The London Times re porter, in ekstching the scenes at the recent open- ing of Parliament, remarks :
	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their large stock of PAPER HANGINGS, Cyndiating of every variety counsected with the business, AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES PINE PRENOH PAPERS AT 20 PER CENT. BE- LOW COST. Periode manting their Houses Payered, can get great BARGAINS. Jule to STATIONERY. ISGO. NEW FIRMS AND 1860. OHANGES. WM. F. MURL'HY & SONS, No. 200 CREATNUT STARKET, BICH AN K BOOK S.	OUTLERY, and GUN WALEHOUSE, No. 497 MARKET, and 416 COMMERCE Streets PHILADELPHIA. fol-5mo. DRUGS AND CHEMICALS. B.A. FAHNESTOCK & CO. DRUGS, CHEMICALS, DRUGS, CORKS, CHEMICALS, CORKS, SPONGKS, AMERICAN AND FORMIGN RESERVIAL OILS, 40., AND MABUTACTORS AND FORMIGN USE, 40., AND MABUTACTORS AND FORMIGN USE, Nos., 7 and 9 NORTH FIFTH STREET, East side, a few doors above Market, fol-5m PHILADELPHIA	FOR OR ORIGINATION OF THE ETHING, y which greatly facilitates the process of testhing, by solving the grunn redemined in inflammenic; will si- by Alger TO HYDELLATH TO YOUR INFANTS. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS. White your pand sold, 'this article for over ten redicine, NEVER HALTH TO YOUR INFANTS. White your pand sold, 'this article for over ten dimest used. Never then the strict of a BIN GLE INSTANCE, TO FAILED it A BIN CONCERNING IN THE STANCE STANLIG, THE STANCE INTRACE AND THE STANCE AND STANCE INTRACE AND THE STANCE INTRACE AND THE STANCE AND STANCE AND STANCE INTRACE AND THE STANCE AND STANCE AND STANCE AND STANLIG, IN A BIN STANCE INTRACE AND THE STANCE AND STANCE AND STANCE AND STANLIG, IN A BIN STANCE AND STANCE AND STANCE AND STANLIGHT AND	CARPETINGS, OIL OLOTHS, MATTING, RUGS, &O., WARRHOUBE 609 CHESTNUT BT., (Opposite the State House.) Southern and Western buyers are respectfully invited to call. CARPETS. F. A. ELIOT & CO., Nos. M and 34 North FRONT Street, are the SOLE AGENTS in Philadelphia for the ROXBURY CARPET COMPANY, and have constantly for sale a full assortment of VELVBT and TAPESTRY CARPETS, of choice patterns. Also, a large supply of the various kinds of OAR- PETS manufactured in Philadelphia cuty and county, from nearly all the best manufacturers. Beliers will find it to their interest to call and examine these goods, which are offered for sale on the mot favorable terms. N.BF. A. ELIOT & CO, being the Bole Agents in Philadelphia for the sale of the Worsted and Carpet Yarnes gue by the Saxonville Mills (formerly the New England Worsted Company,) and being agents also for the Baldwin, Willow, and Aboto Company, and boto Companies, have	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle. men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small celebrity as men of lettors. Lord Palmerston was one of the authors of "The New Whig Guide." Lord Camphell is the biographer of the Chancellors and Chief Jus- tices of England. Mr. Gladstone has written largely in the Quarterly and other Reviews, and has written several octavo volumes upon Church and State. The Duke of Argyll is the author of several pamphlets and one volume on the Scottish Presbytery. Sir George Corn- wall Lewis, is a philosophical Historian, and has been editor of the Edinburgh Review. Lord John Russell has written history, criticism, plays, politics, poems, and so forth-after a fashion. Hero, at all events, are six mon who have written books, yet these, assisted by nine more, (every one of whom has published at least one Parliamentary speech, which is one degree of authorship), were unable to com- pose a Queen's Speech which should be intel- ligible and grammatical! What a pity it is that while the dead and living languages had been crammed into the heads of these public	vinitionated their rights. Bir, he was a Demoorat, without being a dema- gogue; he loved the people and he never beirayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in hischaraoter, he won their endering regard. Sir, I never knew a man who was so misander- stood-who differed so much from his common fame. I myself sought him in this city, as the Representative of a hardy but tunulicous portion of my countrymen. Imagine, sir, my surprise when I found him a student-as student of history, s student of poetry, a silent man, one who ast apart from his follows, pondering deeply the great problems of life; one instructed, as the gontiems of men. I found him Arm and dignified in deport- ment. It is true his struggles with adverse fortune had clouded his brow, and that his face, in the presence of his foes, ever wore a mingled look of scorn and defance, but for his friends he had a genial smile-an irresistible fascination. His look was honest and eincere, bir soice firm and truth- ful, and sometimes it had a manly melody which caused it to potertate into the deepest recesses of the buman heart. Sir, he was a born leader. Sitting in his silent, solitary room in San Francisco. his wirard mind went forth over the hills and through the valleys of California, until the whole State was filed with the breath of his power. He had an indomitable will. Before it party names and party organizs tions disappeared, and men, under the spell of his great spirit, forgot they were Republicans, forgot they were Demoorate, and only remembered with pride that they were Bnonenark on the speed of the presence of the presence of the presence of the presence of his power. We had an indomitable will. Before it party names and party organizs to deal suppeared, and men, under the specified his great spirit, forgot they were Republicans, forgot they were Demoorate, and only remembered with pride that they were Bnonenark to his party neversed to his the presence of his the prosence of the presence of his power. He had an indomita	moving forward as a comet amid lesser planeta, shedding a radiance in bis pathway. He know no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and wrong were presented to him, which to choose. His was no weak, doubting, cowardly tongue, that was afraid to give uiterance to truth. As a statesman, he had not the pollah of those educated in the scheelsnot their plansibility or intellect, expanded by reflection and reading, which marked every effort of his forensic power, who reflected by reflection and reading, which marked every effort of his forensic power, who reflected on the laboring meen of the North in unjust terms? It is, Mr. Speaker, no disparage- ment to others to say that no Senator ever gained, in so short a time, so wide-spread a fame. Coming this and everthing dishonor upon his character, in unjust terms? It is, Mr. Speaker, no disparage- ment to others to say that no Senator ever gained, in so short a time, so wide-spread a fame. Coming this doresthing dishonor upon his character, in up ys national one, and his name became s fa- miliar household word throughout this wast Repub- lio. It will go on, ir, oumination was swallowed up by a national one, and his famel preceding him so the time the truth bo is fartor, the shall place it in the highest niche of fame. Though he was born in this Distriot, and spent bis uvenile years around this Temple of Americanu Liberty, he was the true typo of a Northern Demo- orat. All his instincts, sympathies, and feelings, were with the Democracy, and they were every where looking up to him as their future leader.	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next. I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to unexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was subjected in the construction of the mechanical apparatus and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; consequently, I de- cided to postpone the first experiment of practically testing the theory et oceanic aerial navigation un- til spring, when, as everything is in the most com- plete and perfect order, I shall (my life and health being spared) solve the problem. I have deter- mined not to neglect the opportunity, which the time until then will afford me, for making obser- vations in the lower latitudes. My object now is, to make an examination of the upper currents, ascertain their course, velowity, to see if I cannot discover a return current setting from cast to west a theory in which I have strong faith. In the thirty-eight voyages I have male above the cloud regions, between 47 deg. and 33 deg north lati- tude, I have found (though not always at the same altitude) a current setting from west to exit, relia- ble in its course as the Guilf Stream. If, then, I can find at or near the Guilf Stream. If, then, I can find at or near the curden a counter current, possessing the same uniformity and reliability, I shall be assisted. The advantages arising from such a discovery can hardly be determined." CRINGLYEN SCEDUED.—The London Times ro porter, in sketching the scenes at the recent open- ing of Parliament, remarks : " As the ladles sat closer and closer togother, first ix, then soven, then eight, and at lesst ince upon a moderate bench, a great thight fashed upon
	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their large stock of PAPER HANGINGS, Cyndiating of avery variety counscited with the business. AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES FINE PRENOH PAPERS AT 30 PER OBNT. BE- LOW COST. Persone wanting their Houses Papered, can get griest BARGAINS. Jall-tf STATIONERY. ISGO. NEW FIRMS AND 1860. WM.F. MURPHY & SONS, No. 369 CHESTNUT STREET, Below Forth, Practical Masuracordinas of BLANK MAURINE STREET, Below Forth, Practical Masuracordinas of BLANK MAURINE STREET, Below Forth, Practical Masuracordinas of BLANK BOOK States Conta AND SHOES;	OUTLERY, and GUN WALEHOUSE, No. 497 MARKET, and 416 COMMERCE Streets PHILADELPHIA. fe3-5mo DRUGS AND CHEMICALS. B.A. FAHNESTOCK & CO. DRUGS, CORKS, CORKS, SPONGKS, AMERICAN AND FOREIGN ESSENTIAL CILS, 40., And Manufacturers and Solis Proprietors of B. A. FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIFUGE, Nos., 7 and 9 NORTH FIFTH STREET, East side, a few doors above Market, fe3-5m PHILADELPHIA DRUGS, GLASS, PAINTE, &c.	FOR OR OR ILD RENTEETHING, which greatly facilitatise the process of testhing. by solving the grunn dreamedia a lindsammicity will si- by Alger TO HYGHILATE THE BUWELS. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS. White put up and sold ' this article for over ten regione. NEWER HAS INFORMATION OF ALL AND AND GUE INSTANCE. TO FAILED It as BIN GUE INSTANCE. THE STORY BOARD OF THE THOUSE INSTANCE. TO FAILED It as BIN GUE INSTANCE. TO FAILED It as BIN GUE INSTANCE. TO FAILED It as BIN GUE INSTANCE. THE STORY BOARD OF THE THOUSE INSTANCE. TO FAILED IT AND THOUSE INSTANCE. TO FAILED IT AND STRUCT AND AND THE STRUCTURE INTER THE STRUCTURE IN THE STRUCTURE INTER THE STRUCTURE IN THE STRUCTURE THOUSE AND STRUCTURE IN THE STRUCTURE THOUSE AND STRUCTURE IN THE STRUCTURE THOUSE AND STRUCTURE IN THE STRUCTURE INTER STRUCTURE IN THE STRUCTURE IN THE STRUCTURE INTER STRUCTURE IN THE STRUCTURE IN THE STRUCTURE THOUSE AND STRUCTURE IN THE STRUCTURE IN THE STRUCTURE THOUSE AND STRUCTURE IN THE STRUCTURE IN THE STRUCTURE THOUSE AND STRUCTURE IN THE STRUCTURE IN THE STRUCTURE IN THE STRUCTURE INTER STRUCTURE IN THE STRUCTURE IN TH	CARPETINGS, OIL OLOTHS, MATTING, RUGS, &O., WARKHOUSE 600 CHESTNJT ST., (Opposite the State House.) Southerm and Western buyers are respectfully invited to call. CARPETS. CARPETS. F. A. ELIOT & CO., Nos. 52 and 54 North FRONT Street, are the SOLE AGENTS in Philadelphia for the ROXBURY CARPET COMPANY, and have constantly for table a full assortiment of VELVET and TAPESTRY CARPETS, of choice patterns. Also, a large supply of the various kinds of CAR- PETS manifestured in Philadelphia outy and county, from nearly all the best manufacturers. Dealers will find it to their interest to call and examine these goods, which are offsred for sale on the most favorable terms. N. BF. A. ELIOT & CO, being the Sole Agents in Philadelphis for the sale of the Worsted and Carpet Yarne spun by the Saxonville Mills (formerly the New English Worsted Company, Jand being agents also for the Baldwin, Wilton, and Abbott Companies, have pocular facilities for keeping constantly for sale the various kinds of Carpets manufactured in Philadelphia, o the most favorable terms. Jal7-Sm	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle. men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small celebrity as men of letters. Lord Palmerston was one of the authors of "The New Whig Guide." Lord Campbell is the biographer of the Chancellors and Chief Jus- tices of England. Mr. Gladstone has written largely in the Quarterly and other Reviews, and has written soveral octavo volumes upon Church and State. The Duke of Argyll is the author of several pamphlets and one volume on the Scottish Presbytery. Sir George Corn- wall Lewis, is a philosophical Historian, and has been editor of the Edinburgh Review. Lord John Russell has written history, criticism, plays, politics, poems, and so forth-after a fashion. Here, at all events, are six men who have written books, yet these, assisted by nine more, (every one of whom has published at least one Parliomentary speech, which is one degree of authorship), were unable to com- pose a Queen's Speech which should be intel- ligible and grammatical! What a pity it is that while the dead and living languages had been crammed into the heads of these public men, they were not also taught how to explain	vindicated their rights. Sir, he was a Demoorat, without being a dema- rogue; he loved the people and he never betrayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in hisoharaoter, he won their enduring regard. Sir, I never knew a man who was so misunder- stood—who differed so much from his common fame. I mysolf sought blim in this city, as the Representative of a hardy but tumultuous portion of my countrymen. Imagine, sir, my surprise when I found him a student—a student of history, a student of poetry, a silent man, one who ast apart from his follows, pondering deeply the great problems of life; one instructed, as the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. Hickman) has informed us, in those motives which underlie all the actions of mea. I found him firm and digalided in deport- ment. It is true his struggles with adverse fortune had clouded his brow, and that his face, in the presence of his focs, ever wore a mingled look of scorn and defiance, but for his frinds he had a guital smile—an irresistible facination. His slock was honest and sincere, bis voice firm and truth- fal, and sometimes it had a manly melody which caused it to poetrate into the deepest recesses of the human heart. Sir, he was a born leader. Sitting in his silent, solitary room in San Francisco. his wizard mind went forth over the hills and through the valleys of California, until the whole State was filed with the brosth of his power. He had an indomitable will. Before it party names and party organisa tione disappeared, and men, undor the spell of his great spirit, forgot they were Benopratic men. Few men with power to draw the masses to themelves, to eause their multiform feelings to flow in the indivi- dual channel of a single will, have expected at	moving forward as a comet amid lesser planeta, shedding a radiance in bis pathway. He know no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and wrong were presented to him, which to choose. His was no weak, doubting, cowardly tongue, that was afraid to give uiterance to truth. As a statesman, he had not the pollah of those educated in the scheelsnot their plansibility or intellect, expanded by reflection and reading, which marked every effort of his forensic power, who reflected by reflection and reading, which marked every effort of his forensic power, who reflected on the laboring meen of the North in unjust terms? It is, Mr. Speaker, no disparage- ment to others to say that no Senator ever gained, in so short a time, so wide-spread a fame. Coming this and everthing dishonor upon his character, in unjust terms? It is, Mr. Speaker, no disparage- ment to others to say that no Senator ever gained, in so short a time, so wide-spread a fame. Coming this doresthing dishonor upon his character, in up ys national one, and his name became s fa- miliar household word throughout this wast Repub- lio. It will go on, ir, oumination was swallowed up by a national one, and his famel preceding him so the time the truth bo is fartor, the shall place it in the highest niche of fame. Though he was born in this Distriot, and spent bis uvenile years around this Temple of Americanu Liberty, he was the true typo of a Northern Demo- orat. All his instincts, sympathies, and feelings, were with the Democracy, and they were every where looking up to him as their future leader.	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next. I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to unexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was subjected in the construction of the mechanical apparatus and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; consequently, I de- cided to postpone the first experiment of practically testing the theory et oceanic aerial navigation un- til spring, when, as everything is in the most com- plete and perfect order, I shall (my life and health being spared) solve the problem. I have deter- mined not to neglect the opportunity, which the time until then will afford me, for making obser- vations in the lower latitudes. My object now is, to make an examination of the upper currents, ascertain their course, velowity, to see if I cannot discover a return current setting from cast to west a theory in which I have strong faith. In the thirty-eight voyages I have male above the cloud regions, between 47 deg. and 33 deg north lati- tude, I have found (though not always at the same altitude) a current setting from west to exit, relia- ble in its course as the Guilf Stream. If, then, I can find at or near the Guilf Stream. If, then, I can find at or near the curden a counter current, possessing the same uniformity and reliability, I shall be assisted. The advantages arising from such a discovery can hardly be determined." CRINGLYEN SCEDUED.—The London Times ro porter, in sketching the scenes at the recent open- ing of Parliament, remarks : " As the ladles sat closer and closer togother, first ix, then soven, then eight, and at lesst ince upon a moderate bench, a great thight fashed upon
a series and the series of the	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their large stock of PAPER HANGINGS, Cyndiating of every variety counselted with the buildness. AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES PIME PRENOH PAPERS AT 30 PER GENT, BE- LOW COST. Persons wanting their Houses Payered, can get great BARGAINS. jal8-tf STATIONERY. ISGO. NEW FIRMS AND ISGO. OHANGES: WM. F. MURL'HY & SONS, No. BE GREATNUT STREET, BOW FORTH. PROTOAL MISUFACTORIES OF BLANGE CLIEBE Stock. Make of Liebe Stock.	OUTLERY, and GUN WALEHOUSE, No. 497 MARKET, and 416 COMMERCE Streets PHILADELPHIA. fol-5mo. DRUGS AND CHEMICALS. B.A. FAHNESTOOCK & OO. DRUGS, AND WHOLESALE DEALERS IN DRUGS, CHEMICALS, CORKS, SPONGKS, AMERICAN AND FORMER RESERVIAL OLLS, 40.7 And MANUFACTURE AND FORMER VIEW, Nos. 7 and 9 NORTH FIFTH STREET, East side, a few doors above Market, fold PRUGS, GLASS, PAINTE, &c. BOBT. SHOEMAKER & CO. BORTHEAST CORNER	FOR OR OR ILLD RENTESTILISME STATES THING, y which greatly facilitates the process of testhing, by solve up the sum of sectors of the sector will si- by Algent to sum of sectors of the sector will si- by Algent to sum of sectors of the sector will si- by Algent to sum of sectors of the sector will si- by Algent to sum of sectors of the sector will si- sum of the sector will give rest to your selves and and the sector will give rest to your selves and the sector will be set to sector will si- by algent to sum of the sector of the sector and the sector will be set to sector will be provided to the sector will be set to sector will be will be set to sector will be set to sector will be the sector will be set to sector will be set to sector will be set to sector will be the sector will be set to sector will be set to sector will be set to sector will be set to sector will be set to sector will be set to sector will be set to set to sector will be set to sector will be set to set to sector will be the set to se set to set to set to set to set to set to set to sector will be set to set to set to set to set to set to set to set to set to set to set to set to set to set to set to set to s	CARPETINGS, OIL OLOTHS, MATTING, RUGS, &O., WARRHOUSE 600 CHESTNUT ST., (Opposite the State House.) Southerm and Western buyers are respectfully invited to call. CARPETS. CARPETS. F. A. ELIOT & CO., Nos. 52 and 54 North FRONT Street, are the SOLE AGENTS in Philadelphia for the ROXBURY CARPET COMPANY, and have constantly for table a full assortiment of VELVHT and TAPESTRY CARPETS, of obties patterns. Also, a large supply of the various kinds of CAR- PETS manifestured in Philadelphia but, and county, from nearly all the best manufacturers. Denlers will find it to their interest to call and examine these goods, which are offered for sele on the most favorable terms. N. HF. A. ELIOT & CO, being the Sole Agents in Philadelphis for the sele of the Worsted and Carpet Yarne spun by the Saxonville Mills (formerly the New England Worsted Company,) and being agents also for the Baldwin, Witton, and Abbott Companies, have peculiar facilities for keeping constantly for sale the various kinds of Carpets manufactured in Philadelphia, o the most favorable terms. HOUSE-FURNISHING GOODES.	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle, men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small celebrity as men of lettors. Lord Palmerston was one of the authors of "The New Whig Guide." Lord Campbell is the biographer of the Chancellors and Chief Jus- tices of England. Mr. Gladstone has written largely in the Quarterly and other Reviews, and has written several octavo volumes upon Church and State. The Duke of Argyll is the author of several pamphlets and one volume on the Scottish Presbytery. Sir George Corn- wall Lewis, is a philosophical Historian, and has been editor of the Edinburgh Review. Lord John Russell has written history, criticism, plays, politics, poems, and so forth-after a fashion. Here, at all events, are six men who have written books, yet these, assisted by nine more, (every one of whom has published at least one Parliomentary speech, which is one degree of authorship), were unable to com- pose a Queen's Speech which should be intel- ligible and grammatical! What a pity it is that while the dead and living languages had been crammed into the heads of these public men, they were not also taught how to explain plain thoughts, correctly and plainly, in their mother-tongue.	viniontial the rights. Sir, he was a Demoorat, without being a demagous; he lowed the people and he nover beirayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in his character, he won their enduring regard. Sir, I never knew a man who was so misanders stood—who differed so much from his common fame. I mysoif sought him in this city, as the Representative of a hardy but tumultuous portion of my countrymen. Imagine, sir, my surprise when I found him a student—a student of history, a student of poetry, a silent man, one who ast apart from his follows, pondering deeply the great problems of life; one instructed, as the gentlemsn form Pennsylvania (Mr. Hickman) has informed us, in those motives which underlie all the actions of mean. I found him firm and dignified in deportment. It is true his struggles with adverse fortune had clouded his brow, and that his face, in the presence of his forse, ever wore a mingled look of scorn and defance, but for his friends he had a genial smile—an irresistible fascination. His look was honest and sincere, bis voice firm and truthfal, and sometimes it had a manly melody which was bornest and sincere, bis was mile with evaluage of California, until the whole State was filled with the broath of his power. He had an indomitable will. Before it party names and party organizs itons disappeared, and men, under the spell of his great print, forgot they were Republicans, forgot they were Demoorata, and only remembered with pride that they neve Bronzenter user. Few men with power to draw the masses to themelves, to cause hoir multiform feelings to flow in the individual dannel of a single will, have appeared at any time. Few has appeared in this country. He, sir, had that gift. II bad-	moving forward as a comet amild lesser planeta, shedding a radiance in bis pathway. He know no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and wrong were presented to him, which to choose. His was no weak, doubting, cowardly tongue, that was afraid to give ulterance to truth. As a statesman, he had not the polish of those educated in the schoelsnot their plausibility or flowing language; but possessed a native vigor of intellect, expanded by reflection and reading, which marked every effort of his forensic power. Who that heard him or who that has read his re- marks, will ever forget his manly and eloquent reply to South Caroling men of the North in unjust terms? It is, Mr. Speaker, no disparage- ment to others to say that no Senator ever grinod, in so short a time, so wide-spread a fame. Coming, but advershing dishonor upon his character, in two short years his State reputation was swellowed up by a national one, and his name became a fame. Though he was born in this Distriot, and speat bilo. It will go on, eir, oulminating, until truth and juvice shall place it in the highest niche of fame. Though he was born in this Distriot, and speat big urentle years around this femple of American Ubberty, he was the true typo of a Northern Demo- orat. All his instincts, sympathies, and feeling, where looking up to him as their future leader. When the heart-rending intelligence reached their cars that he was gone, gone forever, down to the cold and eitent grave, an anost universal wail of anguish went up from their midist; and the question- propounded at his funeral obsequies, "Who shall	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next. I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to unexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was subjected in the construction of the mechanical supparatus and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; concequently, I de- cided to postpone the first experiment of practically testing the theory et oceanic aerial navigation un- til spring, when, as everything is in the most com- plete and perfect order, I shall (my life and health being spared) solve the problem. I have detor- mined not to neglect the opportunity, which the time until then will afford me, for making obser- vations in the lower latitudes. My object now is, to make an examination of the upper currents, ascortain their course, velowity, &c. at short dis- tance to and below the equator, to see if I cannot discover a return current setting from cast to wrst —a theory in which I have strong faith. In the thirty-eight voyages I have male abore the cloud regions, between 47 deg. and 33 deg north lati- tude, I have found (though not always at the same altitude) a current setting from west to east, relia- ble in its course as the Guator a counter current, possessing the same uniformity and reliability, I shall be astisfied. The avitant ges arising from such a discovery can hardly be determined." CRINCLIVE SUBDED.—The London Times re porter, in ekstching the scenes at the recent togehe- ing of Parliament, remarks: " As the ladies ast closer and closer togeher, first it, then soven, then eight, and at levst nine upon a moderate bench, a great light flashed upon all beholders, and they saw that the reign of cri- noline was over, the literal and mataphorical from despetism of fashion was broken at last. The er- centions to this rule, it is true, were neither fear
a fan dy D af yn yw ar yn fan a fan ar yn gan gan gan gan gan gan gan gan gan ga	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their large stock of PAPER HANGINGS, Cyndiating of avery variety counselted with the business. AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES FIRE PRENOH PAPERS AT 30 PER OBNT, BB- LOW COST. Persone wanting their Houses Pasered, can get gries? BARGAINS. Jallett STATIONERY. ISGO. NEW FIRMS AND ISGO. MM. F. MURPHY & SONS, No. 88 CHEATHUT STREET. Below Forths. FIACTORE MISTORERS. Made of Lines Stock. Second Orders roundly accepted. Made of Lines Stock. Below Forths. Made of Lines Stock. Below Forths. Made of Lines Stock. Below Forths. BELANK BOOKS, Letter and Made of Lines Stock. Below Forths. BELANK BOOKS, Letter and Made of Lines Stock. Below Forths. BOOTS AND SHOES, BOOKER & BROTHERS, MANUFACTURERS AND WHOLESALE MANUFACTURERS AND WHOLESALE	OUTLERY, and GUN WARHOUSE, No. 497 MARKET, and 416 COMMERCE Streets PHILADELPHIA. fol-5mo. DRUGS AND CHEMICALS. B.A. FAHNESTOOK & OO. DRUG GISTS, IMPORTERS, AND WHOLESALR DEALERS IN DRUGS, CHEMICALS, CORKS, BPONGES, AMERICAN AND FOREIGN RESERVILLA CILS, 40.7 And MANUFACTURE AND FOREIGN RESERVILLA CILS, 40.7 And MANUFACTURE AND FOREIGN RESERVILLA CILS, 40.7 AND MANUFACTURE AND FOREIGN STREET, East side, a few doors above Market, folter DRUGS, GLASS, PAINTS, &c. ROBT. SHOEMAKER & CO. BORTHEAST CORNER	FOR OR OR ILLD RENTESTILISME STATES THING, y which greatly facilitates the process of testhing, by solve up the sum of sectors of the sector will si- by Algent to sum of sectors of the sector will si- by Algent to sum of sectors of the sector will si- by Algent to sum of sectors of the sector will si- by Algent to sum of sectors of the sector will si- sum of the sector will give rest to your selves and and the sector will give rest to your selves and the sector will be set to sector will si- by algent to sum of the sector of the sector and the sector will be set to sector will be provided to the sector will be set to sector will be will be set to sector will be set to sector will be the sector will be set to sector will be set to sector will be set to sector will be the sector will be set to sector will be set to sector will be set to sector will be set to sector will be set to sector will be set to sector will be set to set to sector will be set to sector will be set to set to sector will be the set to se set to set to set to set to set to set to set to sector will be set to set to set to set to set to set to set to set to set to set to set to set to set to set to set to set to s	CARPETINGS, OIL OLOTHS, MATTING, RUGS, &O., WARKHOUSE 609 CHESTNJT BT., (Opposite the State House.) Southern and Western buyers are respectfully invited to call. CARPETS. F. A. ELIOT & CO., Nos. St and St North FRONT Street, are the SOLE AGENTS in Philadelphia for the ROXBURY CARPET COMPANY, and have constantly for table a full assortiment of VELVET and TAPESTRY CARPETS, of choice patterns. Also, a large supply of the various kinds of CAR- PETS manifactured in Philadelphia at and county, from nearly all the best manufacturers. Dealers will find it to their interest to call and examine these goods, which are offsred for sale on the most favorable terms. N. BF. A. ELIOT & CO, being the Sole Agents in Philadelphis for the sale of the Worsted and Carpet Yarne spun by the Saxonville Mills (formerly the New Reyland Worsted Company), and being agents also for the Baldwin, Wilton, and Abbott Companies, have peculiar facilities for keeping constantly for sale the various kinds of Carpets manufactured in Philadelphia, o the mest favorable terms. HOUSE-FURNISHING STORE.	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle, men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small celebrity as men of lettors. Lord Palmerston was one of the authors of "The New Whig Guide." Lord Campbell is the biographer of the Chancellors and Chief Jus- tices of England. Mr. Gladstone has written largely in the Quarterly and other Reviews, and has written several octavo volumes upon Church and State. The Duke of Argyll is the author of several pamphlets and one volume on the Scottish Presbytery. Sir George Corn- wall Lewis, is a philosophical Historian, and has been editor of the Edinburgh Review . Lord John Russell has written history, criticism, plays, politics, poems, and so forth-after a fashion. Hero, at all events, are six men who have written books, yet these, assisted by nine more, (every one of whom has published at least one Parliementary speech, which is one degree of authorship), were unable to com- pose a Queen's Speech which should be intel- ligible and grammatical! What a pity it is that while the dead and living languages had been crammed into the heads of these public men, they were not also taught how to explain plain thoughts, correctly and plainly, in their mother-tongue. In fact, the Aristocracy of England, who,	vinionted their rights. Sir, he was a Demoorat, without being a demagous; he lowed the people and he nover beirayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in his character, he won their enduring regard. Sir, I never knew a man who was so misanders stood—who differed so much from his common fame. I mysolf sought him in this city, as the Representative of a hardy but tumultuous portion of my countrymen. Imagine, sir, my surprise when I found him a student—a student of history, a student of poetry, a silent man, one who ast apart from his follows, pondering deeply the great problems of life; one instructed, as the gentlemsn form Pennsylvania (Mr. Hickman) has informed us, in those motives which underlie all the actions of mean. I found him firm and dignified in deportment. It is true his struggles with adverse fortune had clouded his brow, and that his face, in the presence of his forse, ever wore a mingled look of scorn and defance, but for his friends he had a genial smile—an irresistible fascination. His look was honest and sincere, bis voice firm and truthfal, and sometimes it had a manly melody which was bornest and sincere, bis was mile with evaluage of California, until the whole State was filled with the broath of his power. He had an indomitable will. Before it party names and party organizs itons disappeared, and men, under the spell of his great print, forgot they were Republicans, forgot they were Demoorata, and only remembered with pride that they neve Broozenarce men with power to draw the masses to themelves, to cause hoir multiform feelings to flow in the individual dannel of a single will, have appeared at any time. Fow has a speared in this country. He, sir, had that gift. Il bad-	moving forward as a comet amid lesser planeta, shedding a radiance in bis pathway. He know no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and wrong were presented to him. which to choose. His was no weak, doubting, cowardly tongue, that was affaid to give uiterance to truth. As a statesman, he had not the polish of those educated in the schoelsnot their plausibility or flowing language; but possessed a native vigor of nowing transmost by reflection and reading, which marked every effort of his forensic power. Who that heard him or who that has read his re- marks, will ever forget his manly and eloquent reply to Bouth Carolina's proud and gifted Senstor, who reflected on the laboring men of the North in unjust terms? It is, Mr. Speaker, no disparage- ment to others to say that no Senaitor ever gained, in so short a time, so wide-spread a fame. Coming to this Capitol with the breath of slander preceding him and dreathing dishonor upon his character, in two short years his State ropatation was swallowed up by a national one, and his name became a fa- mijiar household word throughout this vast Repub- lie. It will go on, sir, collimating, until truth and justice shall place it in the highest niche of fame. Though he was born tu this District, and spent Liberty, he was the true type of a Northern Demo- orat. All his instincting intelligence reached their cars that he was gone, gone forever, down to the cold and silent grave, an almost universal weil of anguish went up from their midst; and the question- prepounded at his funeral obsequies, "Who shall speak for California now?" was eclowed from the Altintio to the gravel Wesk, ran slong her lakes and rivers, and sounded through her vallevs and	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next. I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to unexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was subjected in the construction of the mechanical supparatus and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; concequently, I de- oided to postpone the first experiment of tracking paratus and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; concequently, I de- oided to postpone the first experiment of tracking performed and the end of the mechanical subjected in the construction of the mechanical impartance of the start experiment of tracking performed and the start of the shift of the construction of the start of the shift of the being spared) solves the problem. I have deter- mined not to neglect the opportunity, which the time until then will afford me, for making obser- vations in the lower latitudes. My object now is, to make an examination of the upper currents, assortain their course, velowity, &c, at short dis- tanoe to and below the equator, to see if C cannot discover a return current setting from east to west —a theory in which I have strong faith. In the thirty-eight royages I have made above the cload regions, between 47 deg. and 35 deg north lati- tude, I have found (though not always at the same altitude) a current setting from west to east, relia- ble in its course as the Guild Stream. If, then, I can find at or near the equator a counter current, possessing the same uniformity and reliability, I shall be satisfied. The advantages arising from such a discovery can hardly be determined." CRINOLINE SOBURED.—The London Times ro porter, in sketching the scenes at the recent open- ing of Parliament, remarks : " As the ladies as closer and closer togother, first six, then soven, then eight, and at least nine upon a moderate bench, a great light flashed upen all beholders, and they saw that the reign of cri- noline was over, the literal and metaphorical from despetism of
[1] The Lot of the second s Second second s Second second se	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their large stock of PAPER HANGINGS, Cyndiating of every variety counselted with the business. AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES FIRE PRENOH PAPERS AT 30 PER OBNT, BB- LOW COST. Persone wanting their Houses Pasered, can get gries? BARGAINS. Jallett STATIONERY. ISGO. NEW FIRMS AND 1860. WM: F. MURPHY & SONS, No. 88 CHEATHUT STREET. Below Forths. Theorement Streets. No. 88 CHEATHUT STREET. Below Forths. Theorement Streets. Stationers. BLANK BOOKS. Made of Lines Stock. Seeder, Draits, Roservorthe of BLANK BOOKS. BOOTS AND SHOES. BOKER & BROTHERS. MANUFACTURERS AND WHOLESALE DELLES IN CITY AND BASTERN-MADE	OUTLERY, and GUN WARHOUSE, No. 497 MARKET, and 416 COMMERCE Streets PHILADELPHIA. fol-5mo. DRUGS AND CHEMICALS. B.A. FAHNESTOOK & OO. DRUGS AND WHOLESALE DEALERS IN DRUGS, OHEMICALS, CORKS, SPONGES, AMERICAN AND YORKIGN RESENTIAL OILS, 40., And Manufacturers and Sols Proprietors of B. A. FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIEUGE, Nos. 7 and 9 NORTH PIPTH STREET, Eastaide, a few doors above Market, fol-2m PHILADELPHIA DRUGS, GLASS, PAINTS, &c. ROBT. SHOEMAKER & CO. RORTHEAST CORNER AND THE AND RACE STREETS, WHO. S & A LE D B U G G I S T S. Importants and Dealers in WINDOW CLASS, PAINTS	FOR OR OR ILLD RENTHETHING, which great facilitation is the process of testing, by solving the therm as personnois action, and is Burged up to herm as personnois action, and is and the therm as personnois action, and is Burged up on it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and the point, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and the point, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and the point, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and the point, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and the point, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and the point, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and the point, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and the point, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and the point of the point of the point and the web person the fidence and fruit. of it, matter " what we do give the point speak in torms of histers of the most act the point of the point and show the do fidence of the most act what we do give the point and the what we do give the point of the point and the point of the point of the point and the point in the point of the point and the point in the point of the point and the point in the point of the point of the most and the point of the point of the point of the point of the point of the point of the most in the point of the point of the point of the point in the point of the point of the point of the point of the point of the point of the point of the point of the point of the point of the point of the point of the point of the point of the point of the point in the point of the point of the point of the point in the point of the point of the point of the point of the point of the point of th	CARPETINGS, OIL OLOTHS, MATTING, RUGS, &O., WARRHOUSE 600 CHESTNUT ST., (Opposite the State House.) Southern and Western buyers are respectfully invited to call. CARPETS. CARPETS. F. A. ELIOT & CO., Nos. St and St North FRONT Street, are the SOLE AGENTS in Philadelphia for the ROXBURY CARPET COMPANY, and have constantly for table a full assortiment of VELVET and TAPESTRY CARPETS, of choice patterns. Also, a large supply of the various kinds of CAR- PETS manufactured in Philadelphia auty and county, from nearly all the best manufacturers. M.BF. A. ELIOT & CO, being the Sole Agents in Philadelphis for the sale of the Worsted and Carpet Yarne spun by the Saxonville Mills (formerly the New Bryland Worsted Company,) and hebing agents also for the Baldwin, Wilton, and Abbott Companies, have peculiar facilities for keeping constantly for sale the various kinds of Carpets manufactured in Philadelphia, o the mest favorable terms. HOUSE FURNISHING STORE. WILLIAM YARNALL.	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle. men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small celebrity as men of lettors. Lord Palmerston was one of the authors of "The New Whig Guide." Lord Campbell is the biographer of the Chancellors and Chief Jus- tices of England. Mr. Gladstone has written largely in the Quarterly and other Reviews, and has written several octavo volumes upon Church and State. The Duke of Argyll is the author of several pamphlets and one volume on the Scottish Presbytery. Sir George Corn- wall Lewis, is a philosophical Historian, and has been editor of the Edinburgh Review. Lord John Russell has written history, criticism, plays, politics, poems, and so forth-after a fashion. Hero, at all events, are six mon who have written books, yet these, assisted by nine more, (every one of whom has published at least one Parliamentary speech, which is one degree of authorship), were unable to com- pose a Queen's Speech which should be intel- ligible and grammatical! What a pity it is that while the dead and living languages had been crammed into the leads of these public men, they were not also taught how to explain plain thoughts, correctly and plainly, in their mother-tongue. In fact, the Aristocracy of England, who, as Mr. Disraeli tauntingly told them, are born to seats in Parliament, are instructed very	<ul> <li>Findicated their rights.</li> <li>Bir, he was a Demoorat, without being a demagous; he lowed the people and he nover beirayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in hischaraoter, he won their endering regard.</li> <li>Bir, I nover know a man who was so misanderstood—who differed so much from his common fame. I mysolf sought him in this city, as the Representative of a hardy but tunulluous portion of my countrymen. Imagine, sir, my surprise when I found him a student—a student of history, a student of poetry, a silent man, one who ast apart from his follows, pondering deeply the great problems of life; one instructed, as the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. Hickman) has informed us, in these motives which underlie all the actions of meo. I found him a student—a student of history.</li> <li>Bir on Pennsylvania (Mr. Hickman) has informed us, in these motives which underlie all the actions of meo. I found him firm and dignified in deportment. It is true his struggles with adverse fortune had clouded his brow, and that his face, in the presence of his foes, ever wore a mingled look of scorn and defance, but for his friends he had a genial smile—an irresistible faceination. His look was honest and sincere, his voice firm and truthfal, and sometimes it had a manly melody which caused it to potertate into the deepest recesses of the human heart.</li> <li>Bir, he was a born leader. Sitting in his silent, solitary room in San Francisco. his wirard mind went forth over the hills and through the valleys of California, until the whole State was filled with the broath of his power. He had an indomitable with power to draw the masses to themelves, to cause thoir multiform feelings to flow in the find the broath of his power. He had an indomitable with power to draw the masses to themelves, to cause their multiform feelings to flow in the induiting the dod with pride that they were superarce man. Hew many time. Fow have appeared it any time. Fow have appeared in this countr</li></ul>	moving forward as a comet amid lesser planeta, shedding a radiance in bis pathway. He know no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and: wrong were presented to him, which to choose. His was no weak, doubting, cowardly tongue, that was affaid to give uiterance to truth. As a statesman, he had not the polish of those educated in the schoelsnot their plausibility or flowing language; but possessed a native vigor of intelled; expanded by reflection and reading, which marked every effort of his forensic power. Who that heard him or who that has read his re- marks, will ever forget his manly and elequent reply to Bouth Carolina's proud and gifted Scantor, who reflected on the isboring men of the North in unjust terms? It is, Mr. Spesker, no disparsge- ment to others to say that no Scantor ever gained, in so short a time, so wide-spread a fame. Coming to this Capitol with the breath of slander preceding him and ereathing dishonor upon his character, in two abort years his State reputation was swallowed up by a national one, and his name beceme a fa- miliar household word throughout this vast Repub- lio. It will go on, sir, oulminating, until truth and juvice shall place it in the highest niche of fame. Though he was born in this District, and spen- ta. All his instincts, sympathies, and feelings, were with the Democracy, and they were every- where looking up to him as their future leader. When the heart-rending intelligence reached their cars that he was gone, gone forever, down to the cold and elient grave, an almost universal weil of angulah went up from their midst; and itequestion- prepounded at his funceral buscuies; "Who the blast end rivers, and sounded through her Valleys and monntains, like the death-chilling notes of an ill- ommend bid. " Who shall speak for California	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next. I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to unexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was subjected in the construction of the mechanical apparatus and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; concequently, I de- oided to postpone the first sperimercut of practicality testing the theory et oceanic aerial navigation un- til spring, when, as everything is in the most com- plete and perfect order, I shall (up life and health being spared) solve the problem. I have detor- mined not to neglect the opportunity, which the time until then will afford me, for making obser- vations in the lower latitudes. My object now is, to make an examination of the upper currents, assortain their course, velowity, &c, at short dis- tance to and below the equator, to see if cannot discover a return current setting from cast to west a theory in which I have strong faith. In the thrity-eight royages I have made above the cloud regions, between 47 deg. and 33 deg north lati- tude, I have found (though not always at the same altitude) a current setting from west to exat, relia- ble in its course as the Guil Stream. If, then, I can find at or near the equator a counter current, possessing the same uniformity and reliability. I data be assited. The aviantages arising from such a discovery can hardly be determined." CRINGLINE SCBUEDThe London Times re- porter, in sketching the scenes at the recent open- ing of Parliament, remarks : " As the ladles sut closer number to react all beholders, and they saw that the region of cri- noline was over, then light, and at leavi nime upon a moderate bench, a great light fashed upen all beholders, and they saw that the region of cri- noline was over, the literal and metaphorical from despetism of fashion was broken at last. The ex- ceptions to this rule, it is true, were neither few nor unimportant, but still they were the exception, and taken as a whole the sitting spac
[1] The Let The Control of Control o Control of Control of Cont	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their large stock of PAPER HANGINGS, Cyndiating of every variety counselted with the business. AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES PIME PRENON PAPENS AT 30 PER GENT, BE- LOW COST. Periode wanting their Houses Papered, can get great BARGAINS. Jals-II STATIONERY. ISGO. NEW FIRMS AND ISGO. WM. F. MURPHY & SONS, No. 880 CREATINUT STREET. Blow Forths. Practical Missuration from of BLANK BOOKS. Made of Lines Blook. Second Orders Tomatic Accepted. BOOTS AND SHOES. MANUFACTURES AND WHOLESALE BOOTS AND SHOES.	OUTLERY, and GUN WARHOUSE, No. 497 MARKET, and 416 COMMERCE Streets PHILADELPHIA. fol-5mo. DRUGS AND CHEMICALS. B.A. FAHNESTOOK & OO. DRUGS AND WHOLESALE DEALERS IN DRUGS, OHEMICALS, CORKS, BPONGES, AMERICAN AND YORKIGN HESENTIAL OILS, 40., And Manufacturers and Sole Proprietors of B. A. FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIEUGE, Nos. 7 and 9 NORTH PIPTH STREET, East side, a few doors above Market, fol-5m PHILADELPHIA DRUGS, GLASS, PAINTS, &c. ROBT. SHOEMAKER & CO. RORTHEAST CORNER TRTH AND RACE STREETS, WHO. S & A LE D B U G G I S T S Importers and Dealers in WINDOW CLASS, PAINTE bea, invite the attenbox of	FOR OR ON THE ETHING, which greatly facilitates the process of testing, by solving the therman spectrum of a solution will solve the process of testing, by solve tes	CARPETINGS, OIL OLOTHS, MATTING, RUGS, &O., WARRHOUBE 609 CHESTNUT ST., (Opposite the State House.) Southern and Western buyers are respecifully invited to call. CARPETS. CARPETS. F. A. ELIOT & CO., Nos. M and 54 North FRONT Street, are the SOLE AGENTS in Philadelphia for the ROXBURY CARPET COMPANY, and have constantly for sale a full assortment of VELVHT and TAPESTRY CARPETS, of choice patterns. Also, a large supply of the various kinds of OAR- PETS manufactured in Philadelphia cuty and county, from nearly all the best manufacturers. N.BF. A. ELIOT & CO, being the Sole Arents in Philadelphis for the sale of the Worsted and Carpet Yarnes publy to faxe avoid for sale on the most favorable terms. N.BF. A. ELIOT & CO, being the Sole Arents in Philadelphis for the sale of the Worsted and Carpet Yarnes publy to faxe avoid blue Mills (formerity the New England Worsted Company,) and being agents also for the Baldwin, Willow, and Abbot Companies, have peculiar facilities for keeping constantly for asle the various kinds of Carpets manufactured in Philadelphis, o the most favorable terms. HOUSE-FURNISHING GOOBS. HOUSE FURNISHING STORE. WILLIAM YARNALL. No. 1020 CHESTNUT STREET,	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle, men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small celebrity as men of lettors. Lord Palmerston was one of the authors of "The New Whig Guide." Lord Campbell is the biographer of the Chancellors and Chief Jus- tices of England. Mr. Gladstone has written largely in the Quarterly and other Reviews, and has written soveral octavo volumes upon Church and State. The Duke of Argyll is the author of several pamphlets and one volume on the Scottish Presbytery. Sir George Corn- wall Lewis, is a philosophical Historian, and has been editor of the Edinburgh Review. Lord John Russell has written history, criticism, plays, politics, poems, and so forth-after a fashion. Here, at all events, are six men who have written books, yet these, assisted by nine more, (every one of whom has published at least one Parliamentary speech, which is one degree of authorship), were unable to com- pose a Queen's Speech which should be intel- ligible and grammatical ! What a pity it is that while the dead and living languages had been crammed into the heads of these public men, they were not also taught how to explain plain thoughts, correctly and plainly, in their mother-tongue. In fact, the Aristocracy of England, who, as Mr. Disraeli tauntingly told them, are born to seats in Parliament, are instructed very much on the system which prevails in some	<ul> <li>vindicated their rights.</li> <li>Bir, he was a Demoorat, without being a demagous; he lowed the people and he nover beirayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in hischaraoter, he won their endering regard.</li> <li>Bir, I nover know a man who was so misanderstood—who differed so much from his common fame. I mysolf sought him in this city, as the Representative of a hardy but tunulluous portion of my countrymen. Imagine, sir, my surprise when I found him a student—a student of history, a student of poetry, a silent man, one who ast apart from his follows, pondering deeply the great problems of life; one instructed, as the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. Hickman) has informed us, in these motives which underlie all the actions of meo. I found him a student—a student of history.</li> <li>a student of poetry, a silent man, one who ast apart from his follows, pondering deeply the great problems of life; one instructed, as the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. Hickman) has informed us, in these motives which underlie all the actions of meo. I found him firm and dignified in deportment. It is true his struggles with adverse fortune had clouded his brow, and that his face, in the presence of his foes, ever wore a mingled look of scorn and defance, but for his friends he had a genial smile—an irresistible facilitation. His look was honest and sincere, his voice firm and truthfal, and sometimes it had a manly melody which caused it to potetrate into the deepest recesses of the human heart.</li> <li>Sir, he was a born leader. Sitting in his silent, solitary room in San Francisco. his wirard mind went forth over the hills and through the valleys of California, until the whole State was filled with the broath of his power. He had an indomitable with genere to draw the masses to themelvered with pride that they were Bonoratic men. Few men with power to draw the masses to themelvered with pride that they record and men, who an and record at any time. Fow hare appeared in this country. Ho,</li></ul>	moving forward as a comet amid lesser planeta, shedding a radiance in bis pathway. He know no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and wrong were presented to him, which to choose. His was no weak, doubting, cowardly tongue, that was afraid to give uiterance to truth. As a statesman, he had not the polish of those educated in the scheelsnot their plansibility or intellect, expanded by reflection and reading, which marked every effort of his forensic power. Who that heard him or who that has read his re- marks, will ever forget his manly and eloquent reply to Boath Caroling men of the North in unjust terms? It is, Mr. Speaker, no disparage- ment to others to say that no Senator ever grained, in so short a time, so wide-spread a fame. Coming this and breathing dishonor upon his character, in two schott a time, so wide-spread a fame. Though he was born in this Distrio, was wallowed up by a national one, and his name became a fa- miliar household word throughout this wast Repub- lio. It will go on, ir, oumination was swallowed up by a national one, and his fate spread in so shorts a time, so wide-spread a fame. Though he was born in this Distriot, and spent big urealle years around this Temple of American Liberty, he was the true typo of a Northern Demo- orat. All his instincts, sympathies, and feelings, were with the Democracy, and they ware every where looking up to him as their future leader. When the heart-rending intelligence reached their oar that he was gone, gone forver, down to the cold and silent grave, an almost universal wail of angulah went up from their mildst; and thequestion angulah went up from their mildst; and thequestion and with the death-chilling notes of an ill- omond bild. "Who shall speak for California now" to the free people of the free States of this Confederacy?	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next. I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to unexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was subjected in the construction of the mechanical apparatus and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; concequently, I de- oided to postpone the first sperimercut of practicality testing the theory et oceanic aerial navigation un- til spring, when, as everything is in the most com- plete and perfect order, I shall (up life and health being spared) solve the problem. I have detor- mined not to neglect the opportunity, which the time until then will afford me, for making obser- vations in the lower latitudes. My object now is, to make an examination of the upper currents, assortain their course, velowity, &c, at short dis- tance to and below the equator, to see if cannot discover a return current setting from cast to west a theory in which I have strong faith. In the thrity-eight royages I have made above the cloud regions, between 47 deg. and 33 deg north lati- tude, I have found (though not always at the same altitude) a current setting from west to exat, relia- ble in its course as the Guil Stream. If, then, I can find at or near the equator a counter current, possessing the same uniformity and reliability. I data be assited. The aviantages arising from such a discovery can hardly be determined." CRINGLINE SCBUEDThe London Times re- porter, in sketching the scenes at the recent open- ing of Parliament, remarks : " As the ladles sut closer number to react all beholders, and they saw that the region of cri- noline was over, then light, and at leavi nime upon a moderate bench, a great light fashed upen all beholders, and they saw that the region of cri- noline was over, the literal and metaphorical from despetism of fashion was broken at last. The ex- ceptions to this rule, it is true, were neither few nor unimportant, but still they were the exception, and taken as a whole the sitting spac
	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their large stock of PAPER HANGINGS, Cyndiating of every variety counselted with the business. AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES FIRE PRENOH PAPERS AT 30 PER OBNT, BB- LOW COST. Persone wanting their Houses Pasered, can get gries? BARGAINS. Jallett STATIONERY. ISGO. NEW FIRMS AND 1860. WM: F. MURPHY & SONS, No. 88 CHEATHUT STREET. Below Forths. Theorement Streets. No. 88 CHEATHUT STREET. Below Forths. Theorement Streets. Stationers. BLANK BOOKS. Made of Lines Stock. Seeder, Draits, Roservorthe of BLANK BOOKS. BOOTS AND SHOES. BOKER & BROTHERS. MANUFACTURERS AND WHOLESALE DELLES IN CITY AND BASTERN-MADE	OUTLERY, and GUN WALEHOUSE, No. 497 MARKET, and 416 COMMERCE Streets PHILADELPHIA. 63-5mo. DRUGS AND CHEMICALS. B.A. FAHNESTOOK & CO. DRUGS, CORES, MPORTERS, AND WHOLESALE DEALERS IN DRUGS, OHEMICALS, CORKS, SPONGES, AMERICAN AND FOREIGN RESENTIAL OILS, 40.7 And Manufacturors and 80is Proprietors of B. A. FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIFUGE, Nos.7 and 9 NORTH FIFTH STREET, East side, a few doors above Market, fs1-5m PRUGS, GLASS, PAINTS, &c. ROBT. SHOEMAKER & CO. BORTHEAST CORNER TATH AND BACE STREETS, WHO. X SALE DRUGS FAINTS See, lavies the attonhood of COUNTRY MERCHANTS	FOR OR ORIGINATION OF A CONSTRUCT OF	CARPETINGS, OIL OLOTHS, MATTING, RUGS, &O., WARRHOUSE 600 CHESTNUT ST., (Opposite the State House.) Southerm and Western buyers are respectfully invited to call. CARPETS. CARPETS. F. A. ELIOT & CO., Nos. 53 and 54 North FRONT Street, are the SOLE AGENTS in Philadelphia for the ROXBURY CARPET COMPANY, and have constantly for sale a full assortiment of VELVET and TAPESTRY CARPETS, of choice patterns. Mato, a large supply of the various kinds of CARPETS of cohoice patterns. Dealers will find it to their interest to call and examine these goods, which are offered for sale on the most favorable terms. N. BF. A. ELIOT & CO, being the Sole Agents in Philadelphia for the sale of the Worsted and Carpet Yarns spun by the Saxonville Mills (formerly the New Bayland Worsted Company.) and being speaks also for the Baldwin, Wilton, and Abbott Companies, have peculiar facilities for keeping constantly for sale the various kinds of Carpets manufactured in Philadelphia, o the most favorable terms. HOUSE FURNISHING STORE. WILLIAM YARNALL. No. 1020 CHESTNUT STREET, (immediately opposite the Academy of Fine Arts.) Lyties the attention of HOUSEKEPERES and	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle, men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small celebrity as men of lettors. Lord Palmerston was one of the authors of "The New Whig Guide." Lord Camphell is the biographer of the Chancellors and Chief Jus- tices of England. Mr. Gladstone has written largely in the Quarterly and other Reviews, and has written several octavo volumes upon Church and State. The Duke of Argyll is the author of several pamphlets and one volume on the Scottish Presbytery. Sir George Corn- wall Lewis, is a philosophical Historian, and has been editor of the Edinburgh Review. Lord John Russell has written history, criticism, plays, politics, poems, and so forth-after a fashion. Hero, at all events, are six men who have written books, yet these, assisted by nine more, (every one of whom has published at least one Parliomentary speech, which is one degree of authorship), were unable to com- pose a Queen's Speech which should be intel- ligible and grammatical! What a pity it is that while the dead and living languages had been crammed into the heads of these public men, they were not also tauglit how to explain plain thoughts, correctly and plainly, in their mother-tongue. In fact, the Aristocracy of England, who, as Mr. Disraeli tauntingly told them, are born to seats in Parliament, are instructed very much on the system which prevalls in some of the Female institutes in this country, where a young lady who shows superior pro-	vindicated their rights. Sir, he was a Demoorat, without being a dema- gogue; he loved the people and he never betrayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in hischaraoter, he won their enduring regard. Sir, I never knew a man who was so misander- stood—who differed so much from his common fame. I myself sought blim in this city, as the Representative of a hardy but tumultuous portion of my countrymen. Imagine, sir, my surprise when I found him a student—a student of history, a student of poetry, a silent man, one who ast apart from his follows, pondering deeply the great problems of life; one instructed, as the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. Hickman) has informed up, in those motives which underlie all the actions of men. I found him arm and dignified in deport- ment. It is true his struggles with adverse fortune had clouded his brow, and that his face, in the presence of his foes, ever wore a mingled look of scorn and defance, but for his friends he had a genial smile—an irresistible faciona in and truth- ful, and sometimes it had a manly melody which caused it to posterta into the deepest roccases of the human heart. Sir, he was a born leader. Sitting in his silent, solitary room in San Francisco. his wirard mind went forth over the hills and through the valleys of California, until the whole State was filed with the broath of his power. He had an indomitable with power to draw the masses to themelves, to cause their multiform feelings to flow un the indivi- dual channel of a single will, have appeared at any time. Few men write power of the story argonize they were Bonozaric, and only remembered with pride that they were Bonozaric men. Few men with power to draw the masses to themelves, to cause their multiform feelings to flow un the indivi- dual channel of a single will, have appeared at any time. Few they asses powered in this country. He, sit, had that gift. He had— "The mystary of commanding "The bearist of millions till they nove as one." I say that t	moving forward as a comet amid lesser planeta, shedding a radiance in bis pathway. He know no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and wrong were presented to him, which to choose. His was no weak, doubting, cowardly tongue, that was affaid to give uiterance to truth. As a statesman, he had not the polish of those educated in the scheelsnot their plausibility or intellect, expanded by reflection and reading, which marked every effort of his forensic power. Who that heard him or who that has read his re- marka, will ever forget his manly and eloquent reply to Boath Caroling men of the North in unjust terms? It is, Mr. Speaker, no disparage- ment to others to say that no Senator ever gained, in so short a time, so wide-spread a fame. Coming to this Capitol with the breath of slander preceding him and dreathing dishonor upon his character, in two short years his State reputation was swallowed up by a national one, and his name became a fa- miliar household word throughout this wast Repub- lio. It will go on, sir, outinating, until truth and juvice shall place it in the highest niche of fame. Though he was born in this Distriot, and spent big uvenile years around this Temple of American Liberty, he was the true typo of a Morthern Demo- orat. All his instincts, sympathis, and feelings, were with the Democracy, and they wave every- where looking up to him as their future leader. When the heart-trending intelligence reached their oars that ho was gone, gone forever, down to the cold and slient grave, an almost universal wail of angulah went up from their mildst; and thequestion- propoinde at his funeral obsequies. ("Who shall speak for California now ?" was echoed from the Atlantio to the grave West, ran slong ber lakes and rivers, and sounded through her valleys and monnatins, like the death-chilling notes of an ili- onned bisd. ("Who shall speak for California now"?	<ul> <li>which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next. I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to nexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was subjected in the construction of the mechanical supparatus and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; concequently, I decided to postpone the first experiment of practically testing the theory et oceanic aerial navigation until spring, when, as everything is in the most complete durit then will afford me, for making observations in the lower latitudes. My object now is, to make an examination of the upper currents, ascertain their course, relowity, to see if I cannot discover a return current setting from cast to wast the amount of the satisfield. The advantages a filled in a for a law start the earner altitude. The strong faith. If they for next the earner altitude in the satisfield. The advantages arising from set to east, and 3 deg north latitude, between 47 deg, and 33 deg north latitude, a between 47 deg, and 33 deg north latitude, a between 47 deg, and 34 deg north latitude, a satisfield. The advantages arising from set to east, reliable in its course as the Guilf Stream. If, then, I can find at or next the candor a counter current, possessing the same uniformity and reliability, I shall beholders, and they saw that the reign of crimoline was over, the literal and metaphorical from despetism of fashion was broken at last. The exceptions to this rule, it is true, were neither few nor uningortant, but still greac allowed by that sumptary cansor, the setting from despetial phenoletric, and taken as a whole the sitting pace allowed by that sumptary cansor, the sitting seallowed last start is strong fashed upon a moderate bench, a great light fashed upon and despetion was broken at last. The exceptions to this rule, it is true, were neither few nor uningortant, but still they were the exception, and taken as a whole the sitting for mediate allowed by that sumptary cansor, the lord o</li></ul>
	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their large stock of PAPER HANGINGS, Cyndiating of avery variety counscited with the business. AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES FIRE PRENOR PAPERS AT 30 PER OBNT, BR- LOW COST. Persone wanting their Houses Pasered, can get gries BARGAINS. Jall-tf STATIONERY. ISGO. NEW FIRMS AND 1860. WM: F. MURPHY & SONS, No. 389 CHEATHUT STREET. BELANK BOOLS. No. 389 CHEATHUT STREET. BELANK BOOLS. Made of Lines Stock. Second Orders stormed of S. Made of Lines Stock. Below Forthe, Practical Misurgarout and so of SIA NK BOOKS, Letter and Mark of Under Statest. BOOTS AND SHOES. MANUFACTURERS AND VHICLESS. MANUFACTURERS AND VHICLESS. MANUFACTURERS AND VHICLESS. MANUFACTURERS AND SHOES. No. STATURES AND SHOES. MANUFACTURERS AND SHOES. MANUFACTURERS AND SHOES. Not 539 and 434 MARKET STREET.	OUTLERY, and GUN WALEHOUSE, No. 497 MARKET, and 416 COMMERCE Streets PHILADELPHIA. fol-5mo. DRUGS AND CHEMICALS. B.A. FAHNESTOOK & OO. DRUGS, CHEMICALS, ORUGS, CHEMICALS, CORKS, BPONGES, AMERICAN AND FOREIGN ESSENTIAL CILS, 40., And Manufacturers and Sols Proprietors of B.A. FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIEUGE, Nos. 7 and 9 NORTH FIFTH STREET, East side, a few doors above Market, folton PHILADELPHIA DRUGS, GLASS, PAINTS, &c. ROBT. SHOEMAKER & CO. ROBT. SHOEMAKER & CO. BONGES, WHO. S & A LE D B U G G I ST S. Important and Dealers in WINDOW CLASS, PAINTES See, laying the stanhood of COUNTRY MERCHANTS To their fairs stook of Goods, which they offer at the	FOR OR ORIGINATION OF A Consistment of the sector of the s	CARPETINGS, OIL OLOTHS, MATTING, RUGS, &O., WARRHOUBE 600 CHESTNUT BT., (Opposite the State House.) Southerm and Western buyers are respectfully invited to call. CARPETS. F. A. ELIOT & CO., Nos. St and S4 North FRONT Street, are the SOLE AGENTB in Philadelphia for the ROXBURY CARPET COMPANY, and have constantly for sale a full assortment of VELVET and TAPESTRY CARPETS, of choice patterns. Also, a large supply of the various kinds of OAR- PETS manufactured in Philadelphia city and county, from nearly all the best manufacturers. Dealers will find it to their interest to call and examine these goods, which are offered for sale on the most favorable terms. N. BF. A. ELIOT & CO, being the Bole Agents in Philadelphia for the sale of the Worsted and Carpet Yarne spue by the Saxonville Mills (formerity the New England Worsted Company.) and being agents also for the Baldwin. Wilkou, and Abbott Companies, have peculiar faoilities for keeping constantly for sale the various kinde of Carpets manufactured in Philadelphia, o the most favorable terms. HOUSE FURNISHING GOOBS. HOUSE FURNISHING STORE. WILLIAM YARNALLL. No. 1020 CHESTNUT STREET, (Immediately opposite the Academy of Fine Arts.)	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle. men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small celebrity as men of lettors. Lord Palmerston was one of the authors of "The New Whig Guide." Lord Camphell is the biographer of the Chancellors and Chief Jus- tices of England. Mr. Gladstone has written largely in the Quarterly and other Reviews, and has written several octavo volumes upon Church and State. The Duke of Argyll is the author of several pamphlets and one volume on the Scottish Presbytery. Sir George Corn- wall Lewis, is a philosophical Historian, and has been editor of the Edinburgh Review . Lord John Russell has written history, criticism, plays, politics, poems, and so forthafter a fashion. Hero, at all events, are six mon who have written books, yet these, assisted by nine more, (every one of whom has published at least one Parliamentary speech, which is one degree of authorship), were unable to com- pose a Queen's Speech which should be intel- ligible and grammatical! What a pity it is that while the dead and living languages had been crammed into the heads of these public men, they were not also taught how to explain plain thoughts, correctly and plainly, in their mother-tongue. In fact, the Aristocracy of England, who, as Mr. Disraeli tauntingly told them, are born to seats in Parliament, are instructed very much on the system which prevails in some of the Female institutes in this country, where a young lady who shows superior pro- ficiency in Mathematics receives the bighest	<ul> <li>vindicated their rights.</li> <li>Bir, he was a Demoorat, without being a dema- gogue; he loved the people and he never betrayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in hisoharaoter, he won their enduring regard.</li> <li>Bir, I never knew a man who was so misander- stood—who differed so much from his common fame. I myself sought blim in this city, as the Representative of a hardy but tumulicous portion of my countrymen. Imagine, sir, my surprise when I found him a student—a student of history, a student of poetry, a silent man, one who ast apart from his follows, pondering deeply the great problems of life; one instructed, as the gentleman from Pennaylvania (Mr. Hickman) has informed us, in those motives which underlie all the actions of men. I found him firm and dignified in deport- ment. It is true his struggles with adverse fortune had clouded his brow, and that his face, in the presence of his foce, ever wore a mingled look of scorn and defance, but for his friends he had a genial smile—an irresistible faciantion. His look was honest and sincere, bis voice firm and truth- ful, and sometimes it had a manly melody which caused it to poetrate into the deepest recesses of the human heart.</li> <li>Bir, ho was a born leader. Sitting in his silent, soiltary room in San Francisco, his wizard mind went forth over the hills and through the valleys of California, until the whole State was filed with the broach of his power. He had an indomitable with bower to draw the masses to themelered, ito cause their multiform feelings to flow in the indivi- dual channel of a single will, have appeared at any time. Fow have appeared in this country. He, sin, had that gift. Ile bad— ""—The mystary of commanding The hearts of multing, banding The hearts of multing, banding The hearts of multing, banding The hearts of multing, banding The heart and multing, weiding, banding The heart of a single will, have appeared in this country.</li> <li>I say that this quality is rare. Men w</li></ul>	moving forward as a comet amid lesser planeta, shedding a radiance in bis pathway. He know no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and wrong were presented to him, which to choose. His was no weak, doubting, cowardly tongue, that was affaid to give uiterance to truth. As a statesman, he had not the polish of those educated in the schoels-mot their plausibility or flowing language; but possessed a native vigor of intellect, expanded by reflection and reading, which marked every effort of his forensic power. Who that heard him or who that has read his re- marks, will ever forget his manly and eloquent reply to Bouth Carolina's proud and gifted Senator, who reflected on the isboring men of the North in unjust terms? It is, Mr. Speaker, no disparsge- ment to others to say that no Senator ever gained, in so short a time, so wide-spread a fame. Coming to this Capitol with the breath of slander preceding him and dyreathing dishonor upon his character, in two short years his State repatiation was swallowed up by a national one, and his name became a fa- mijiar household word throughout this vast Repub- lio. It will go on, sir, oulminating, until truth and justice shall place it in the highest niche of fame. Though he was born to this District, and spent Liberty, he was the true type of a Northern Demo- orat. All his instincts, sympathies, and feelings, were with the Democracy, and they were every- where looking up to him as their future leader. When the heart-rending intelligneo reached their cars that he was gone, gone forever, down to the odd and eitent grave, an almost universal weil of anguish went up from their midst; and the question- prepounded at his funeral obsequies, '' Who shall speak for California now?' was eclowed from the Altintio to the great West, ran slong her lakes and rivers, and sounded through her valleys and monntains, like the death-chilling notes	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next. I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to unexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was subjected in the construction of the mechanical supparatus and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; concounting, I de- oided to postpone the first experiment of practically testing the theory et oceanic aerial navigation un- ill spring, when, as everything is in the most com- plete and perfect order, I shall (my life and health being spared) solve the problem. I have deter- mined not to neglect the opportunity, which the time until then will afford me, for making obser- vations in the lower latitudes. My object now is, to make an examination of the upper currents, ascertain their course, velowity, & e, at short dis- tance to and below the equator, to see if I cannot discover a return current setting from east to west —a theory in which I have strong faith. In the thirty-eight voyages I have made above the cloud regions, between 47 deg. and 33 deg north lati- tude, I have found (though not always at the same altitude) a current setting from west to east, relia- ble in its course as the Guilf Stream. If, then, I can find at or near the equator a counter current, possessing the same uniformity and reliability, I shall be satisfied. The advantages arising from such a discovery can hardly be determined." CRINGLYE SCEDED.—The London Times ro porter, in sketching the senes at the recent opsh- ing of Parliament, remarks : " As the ladles sat closer and closer together, first sit, then soven, then eight, and at least nine upon a moderate bench, a great light flashed upen all beholders, and they saw that the reign of cri- noline was over, the literal and metaphorical from despetism of fashion was broken at last. The er- ceptions to this rule, it is trao, were neither few nor unimportant, but still they were the exception, and taken as a whole the sitting space allowed by that sumptuary censor, the L
	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their large stock of PAPER HANGINGS, Cycalatian of avery variety counsected with the business, AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES PINE PRENOR PAPERS AT 20 PER CENT. BE- LOW COST. Persone wanting their Houses Paperd, can get great BARGAINS. Init-ti STATIONERY. 1860. NEW FIRMS AND 1860. WM.F. MURPHY & SONS, No. 20 CHEATHOUR STREET, Below Forth, Principal Methematical States of BLANGES. WM.F. MURPHY & SONS, No. 20 CHEATHOUR STREET, Below Forth, Principal And Shoks, Contained and Shoks, BOCKER & BROTHERS, MANUFACTURERS AND SHOES, MANUFACTURERS AND WHOLESALE DEVICE AND SHOES, MANUFACTURERS AND SHOES, No. 30 SHOULD AND SHOES, MANUFACTURERS AND SHOES, No. 535 and 436 MARKET STREET, Below FIFTH Street, South side,	OUTLERY, and GUN WALEHOUSE, No. 497 MARKET, and 416 COMMERCE Streets PHILADELPHIA. fol-5mo. DRUGS AND CHEMICALS. B.A. FAHNESTOOK & CO. DRUGS, OR UG GISTS, IMPORTERS, AND WHOLESALE DEALERS IN DRUGS, OHEMICALS, CORKS, SPONGES, AMERICAN AND FOREIGN RESERVIAL CILS, 40.9 AND MANUFOCUTORS and Bole Proprietors of B.A. FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIFUGE, Nos.7 and 9 NORTH FIFTH STREET, East side, a few doors above Market, fol-3m PHILADELPHIA DRUGS, GLASS, PAINTS, &d. BOBT. SHOEMAKER & CO. RORTHEAST CORNER TETH AND BACE STREETS, WHO. IN SALE DRUG GISTS importers and Dealers in WINDOW GLASS, PAINTS &e., fayies the sitenhood of COUNTRY MERCHANTS Te their fairs stook of Goods, which they offer at the lawset market rates. OS. H	FOR OR OF ILLD RENTESTILING, which greatly facilitates the process of testhing, by solving the guma, reducine all inflammatic, will st- by Alge TO ANGULLATE THE BUWELS. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and relified an asy, in contrast, it will give rest to yourselves and the second second second second process rest. Iter AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS. Where put up and sold, 'this article for over ten medicine, NEVER HALTH TO YOUR INFANTS. Where seve never been and the second second second process of single and sold of the second process of the second second second second second second second institute and the second s	CARPETINGS, OIL OLOTHS, MATTING, RUGS, &O., WARRHOUGE 600 CHESTNUT ST., (Opposite the State House.) Southerm and Western buyers are respectfully invited to call. CARPETS. F. A. ELIOT & CO., Nos. St and S4 North FRONT Street, are the SOLE AGENTS in Philadelphia for the ROXBURY CARPET COMPANY, and have constantly for asle a full assortment of VELVET and TAPESTRY CARPETS, of choice patterns. Also, a large supply of the various kinds of OAR- PETS manufactured in Philadelphia city and county, from nearly all the best manufacturers. Dealers will find it to their interest to call and examine these goods, which are offered for sale on the most favorable terms. N. BF. A. ELIOT & CO, being the Bole Agents in Philadelphia for the sale of the Worsted and Carpet Yarns spue by the Skanouville Mills (formely the New England Worsted Company.) and being agents also for the Baldwin. Wilkun, and Abbott Companies, have peculiar facilities for keeping constantly for sale the various kinds of Carpets manufactured in Philadelphia, o the most favorable terms. HOUSE FURNISHING STORE. WILLIAM YARNALL. No. 1020 CHESTNUT STREET, (Immediately opposite the Academy of Fine Arts.) isvites the sitention of HOUSEKEBPERES and others to his extensive assortment of UBERFUL HOUSEKEEPING GOODS. TABLE OUTLERY,	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle, men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small celebrity as men of lettors. Lord Palmerston was one of the authors of "The New Whig Guide." Lord Campbell is the biographer of the Chancellors and Chief Jus- tices of England. Mr. Gladstone has written largely in the Quarterly and other Reviews, and has written several octavo volumes upon Church and State. The Duke of Argyll is the author of several pamphlets and one volume on the Scottish Presbytery. Sir George Corn- wall Lewis, is a philosophical Historian, and has been editor of the Edinburgh Review. Lord John Russell has written history, criticism, plays, politics, poems, and so forth-after a fashion. Here, at all events, are six men who have written books, yet these, assisted by nine more, (every one of whom has published at least one Parliomentary speech, which is one degree of authorship), were unable to com- pose a Queen's Speech which should be intel- ligible and grammatical! What a pity it is that while the dead and living languages had been crammed into the heads of these public men, they were not also taught how to explain plain thoughts, correctly and plainly, in their mother-tongue. In fact, the Aristocracy of England, who, as Mr. Disraeli tauntingly told them, are born to seats in Parliament, are instructed very much on the system which prevails in some of the Female institutes in this country, where a young lady who shows superior pro- ficiency in Mathematics receives the highest premium awarded-though she may be utterly unable to hem or mark a pocket-handkerchief,	<ul> <li>vindicated their rights.</li> <li>Bir, he was a Demoorat, without being a dema- gogue; he loved the people and he never betrayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in hisoharaoter, he won their enduring regard.</li> <li>Sir, I never knew a man who was so misander- stood—who differed so much from his common fame. I myself sought blim in this city, as the Representative of a hardy but tumulicous portion of my countrymen. Imagine, sir, my surprise when I found him a student—a student of history, a student of poetry, a silent man, one who ast apart from his follows, pondering deeply the great problems of life; one instructed, as the gentleman from Pennaylvania (Mr. Hickman) has informed us, in those motives which underlie all the actions of men. I found him firm and dignified in deport- ment. It is true his struggles with adverse fortune had clouded his brow, and that his face, in the presence of his focs, ever wore a mingled look of scorn and defance, but for his friends he had a genial smile—an irresistible faciantion. His look was honest and sincere, bis voice firm and truth- ful, and sometimes it had a manly melody which caused it to poetrate into the deepest recesses of the human heart.</li> <li>Sir, ho was a born leader. Sitting in his silent, soiltary room in San Francisco. his wizard mind went forth over the hills and through the valleys of California, until the whole State was filed with the broath of his power. He had an indomitable with bower to draw the masses to themelves, fory they were Bencorate, and only remembered with pride that they were Bronzners men. Few men with power to draw the masses to themelves, to cause their multiform feelings to flow in the indivi- dual channel of a single will, have appeared at any time. For have appeared in this country. He field that they is rare. Men with it have appeared at long intervals upon the shores of time; but when they have appeared, they have been the idols of their race.</li> <li>Mr. Baopzancz fell in the very dawn of b</li></ul>	moving forward as a comet amid lesser planeta, shedding a radiance in bis pathway. He know no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and wrong were presented to him, which to choose. His was no weak, doubting, cowardly tongue, that was affaid to give uiterance to truth. As a statesman, he had not the polish of those educated in the schoelsnot their plausibility or flowing language; but possessed a native vigor of intellect, expanded by reflection and reading, which marked every effort of his forensic power. Yeb o that heard him or who that has read his re- marks, will ever forget his manly and eloquent reply to Bouth Carolina's proud and gifted Senator, who reflected on the isboring men of the North in unjust terms? It is, Mr. Speaker, no disparsge- ment to others to say that no Senator ever gained, in so short a time, so wide-spread a fame. Coming to this Capitol with the breath of slander preceding him and dreathing dishonor upon his character, in two short years his State repatiation was swallowed up by a national one, and his name became a fa- mijiar household word throughout this vast Repub- lio. It will go on, in, columinating, until truth and juvice shall place it in the highest niche of fame. Though he was born in this District, and spent Liberty, he was the true type of a Northern Demo- orat. All his instincts, sympathies, and feelings, were with the Domocracy, and they were every- where looking up to him as their future leaded their cars that he was gone, gone forever, down to the cold and silent grave, an almost universal well of angulab went up from their midst; and the question- prepounded at his funeral obsequies, '' Who shall speak for California now?'' was eccloed from the Atiantic to the great West, ran slong her lakes and rivers, and sounded through her valleys and monntains, like the death-chilling notes of an ill- omend bird. '' Who shall speak	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next. I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to unexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was subjected in the construction of the mechanical apparatus and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; concequently, I de- oided to postpone the first experiment of tradition un- til spring, when, as everything is in the most com- plete and perfect order, I shall (my life and health being spared) solve the problem. I have deter- mined not to neglect the opportunity, which the time until then will afford me, for making obser- vations in the lower latitudes. My object now is, to make an examination of the upper currents, ascertain their course, velowity, &c, at short dis- tance to and below the equator, to see if cannot discover a return current setting from east to west —a theory in which I have strong faith. In the thirty-eight royages I have made above the cloud regions, between 47 deg. and 35 deg north lati- tude, I have found (though not always at the same altitude) a current setting from west to east, relia- ble in its courss as the Guilf Stream. If, then, I can find at or near the equator a counter current, possessing the same uniformity and reliability, I shall be satisfied. The advantages arising from such a discovery can hardly be determined." CRINGLYER SCHED.—The London Times re porter, in sketching the senes at the recent open- ing of Parliament, remarks : " As the ladles sat closer non closer together, first ir, then soven, then eight, and at least nine upon a moderate bench, a great light flashed upon all beholders, and they saw that the reign of cri- noline was over, the literal and metaphorical from despetism of fashion was broken at last. The er- ceptions to this rule, it is trao, were neither few nor unimportant, but still they were the exception, and taken as a whole the sitting space allowed by that sumptuary censor, the Lord Chamberlain, was generally allowed to be enough."
	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their large stock of PAPER HANGINGS, Cyndiating of every variety counselted with the buildness. AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES PIME PRENON PAPENS AT 30 PER UBNT, BR- LOW COST. Periode wanting their Houses Papered, can get great BARGAINS. Jalbett STATIONERY. ISGO. NEW FIRMS AND ISGO. WM. F. MURPHY & SONS, No. 880 CREATINUT STREET. BELANK BOOKS. WM. F. MURPHY & SONS, No. 880 CREATING TRAERT. PROTOCH, MISUFACTOR AND OK S, Mass COUNTING HOUSE STATIONERS. BLANK BOOKS. BLANK BOOKS. BLANK BOOKS. BLANK BOOKS. BOOTS AND SHOES. BOOTS AND SHOES. MANUFACTURES AND WHOLESALE DEALERS IN CITY AND HASTERN-MADE BOOTS AND SHOES. FOR SUB AND SHOES.	OUTLERY, and GUN WALEHOUSE, No. 497 MARKET, and 416 COMMERCE Streets PHILADELPHIA. 63-5mo. DRUGS AND CHEMICALS. B.A. FAHNESTOOCK & OO. DRUGS AND CHEMICALS. B.A. FAHNESTOOCK & OO. DRUGS, CHEMICALS, CORKS, SPONGKS, AMERICAN AND WHOLESALE DEALERS IN DRUGS, CHEMICALS, CORKS, SPONGKS, AMERICAN AND FORMER RESERVIAL OLLS, 40.7 And Manufacturers and Beis Proprietors of B. A. FAHNESTOOK'S VERMIPUGE, Nos. 7 and 9 NORTH FIFTH STREET, East side, a few doors above Market, fs3-5m PHILADELPHIA DRUGS, GLASS, PAINTS, &c. BOBT. SHOEMAKER & CO. BORTHEAST CORNER TETH AND BACE STREETS, WHO AND BALE DRUG GISTS, WHO AND BALE DRUG GISTS, PAINTS See, laying the stook of Goods, which they offer at the invest market rates. cost u	FOR OR OF ILLD RENTERETHING, which greatly facilitation to a process of testhing. by which greatly facilitation to a process of testhing. by which greatly facilitation to a process of testhing. by which greatly facilitation to a process of testhing. by which greatly facilitation to a process of test of the process of test of t	CARPETINGS, OIL OLOTHS, MATTING, RUGS, &C., WARRHOUBE 609 CHESTNUT ST., (Opposite the State House.) Southern and Western buyers are respecifully invited to call. CARPETS. F. A. ELIOT & CO., Nos. M and 54 North FRONT Street, are the SOLE AGENTS in Philadelphia for the ROXBURY CARPET COMPANY, and have constantly for sale a full assortment of VELVHT and TAPESTRY CARPETS, of choice patterns. Also, a large supply of the various kinds of OAR- PETS manufactured in Philadelphia cuty and county, from nearly all the best manufacturers. Dealers will find it to their interest to call and examine these goods, which are offered for sale on the most favorable terms. N.BF. A. ELIOT & CO, being the Sole Arents in Philadelphis for the sale of the Worsted and Carpet Yaras spun by the Saxonville Mills (formerly the New Ragiand Worsted Company,) and being agents also for the Baldwin, Wilkou, and Abbott Companies, have peculiar facilities for keeping constantly for asle the various kinds of Carpets manufactured in Philadelphis, o the most favorable terms. HOUSE-FURNISHING STORE. WILLIAM YARNALL. No. 1030 CHESTNUT STREET, (Immediately opposite the Academy of Fine Arts.) Invites the attention of HOUSEKEBPERHS and others to his extensive assortment of USEFUL HOUSEKEBPING GOODS. TABLE OUTLERY, NURSERY PENDERS, CHAFING DISHES,	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle, men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small celebrity as men of lettors. Lord Palmerston was one of the authors of "The New Whig Guide." Lord Campbell is the biographer of the Chancellors and Chief Jus- tices of England. Mr. Gladstone has written largely in the Quarterly and other Reviews, and has written several octavo volumes upon Church and State. The Duke of Argyll is the author of several pamphlets and one volume on the Scottish Presbytery. Sir George Corn- wall Lewis, is a philosophical Historian, and has been editor of the Edinburgh Review . Lord John Russell has written history, criticism, plays, politics, poems, and so forth-affer a fashion. Hero, at all events, are six men who have written books, yet these, assisted by nine more, (every one of whom has published at least one Parliamentary speech, which is one degree of authorship), were unable to com- pose a Queen's Speech which should be intel- ligible and grammatical! What a pity it is that while the dead and living languages had been crammed into the heads of these public men, they were not also taught how to explain plain thoughts, correctly and plainly, in their mother-tongue. In fact, the Aristocracy of England, who, as Mr. Disraeli tauntingly told them, are born to seats in Parliament, are instructed very much on the system which prevalls in some of the Female institutes in this country, where a young lady who shows superior pro- ficiency in Mathematics receives the bighest premium awarded-though she may be utterlift unable to hem or mark a pocket-handkerchief, and may have no knowledge whatever of the	vindicated their rights. Sir, he was a Demoorat, without being a dema- rogue; he loved the people and he never betrayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in hischaraoter, he won their enduring regard. Sir, I never knew a man who was so misander- stood—who differed so much from his common fame. I myself sought blim in this city, as the Representative of a hardy but tumulicous portion of my countrymen. Imagine, sir, my surprise when I found him a student—a student of history, a student of poetry, a silent man, one who ast apart from his follows, pondering deeply the great problems of life; one instructed, as the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. Hickman) has informed up, in those motives which underlie all the actions of men. I found him arm and dignified in deport- ment. It is true his struggles with adverse fortune had clouded his brow, and that his face, in the presence of his fors, ever wore a mingled look of scorn and defance, but for his friends he had a genial smile—an irresistible fascination. His look was honest and sincere, bis voice firm and truth- ful, and sometimes it had a manly melody which caused it to poterate into the deepest recesses of the human heart. Sir, he was a born leader. Sitting in his silent, solitary room in San Francisco. his wirard mind went forth over the hills and through the valleys of California, until the whole State was filed with the broath of his power. He had an indomitable will. Before it party names and party organiza rites disappeared, and men, under the spell of his great spirit, forgot they were Bronznarc men. Yew men with power to draw the masses to themelves, to cause their multiform feelings to flow un the indivi- dual channel of a single will, have appeared at any time. Fow have appeared in this country. He, sit, had that gift. He had— "The Ged-his power, the art-Napoleon of the wate of the race. Men with it have appeared at long intervals upon the shores of titme; but when they have sepeared, they have been the id	moving forward as a comet amid lesser planeta, shedding a radiance in bis pathway. He know no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and wrong were presented to him, which to choose. His was no weak, doubting, cowardly tongue, that was afraid to give utterance to truth. As a statesman, he had not the polish of those educated in the schoelsnot their plausibility or dowing language; but possessed a native rigor of intellect, expanded by reflection and reading, which marked every effort of his forensic power. Who that heard him or who that has read his re- marks, will ever forget his manly and eloquent reply to South Carolina's proud and gifted Sentor, who reflected on the laboring men of the North in nujust terms? It is, Mr. Speaker, no disparage- ment to others to say that no Senator ever gained, in so short a time, so wide-spread a fame. Coming to this Capitol with the breath of alander preceding him and dreathing dishonor upon his character, in two short satine, so wide-spread a fame. Coming to the schold with the breath of alander preceding him and dreathing dishonor upon his character. Thoogh he was born the highest niche of fame. Thoogh he was born the side of fame. Thoogh he was born the side of fame. Thoogh he was born the preceding nichest and the elong. When the heart-rending intelligence reached their oard had wet	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next. I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to unexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was subjected in the construction of the mechanical supparatus and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; concaptently, I devoided to postpone the first experiment of practically testing the theory et oceanic aerial navigation until spring, when, as everything is in the most complete dutil November; concaptently, I devoided to postpone the first experiment of the shift of the second practically testing the theory et oceanic aerial navigation until spring, when, as everything is in the most complete and perfect order, I shall (my life and health being spared) solve the problem. I have determined not to neglect the opportunity, which the time until then will afford me, for making observations in the lower latitudes. My object now is, to make an examination of the upper currents, assortain their course, velovity, &c, at short distance to and below the equator, to see if I cannot discover a return current setting from east to west — a theory in which I have strong faith. In the thirty-eight voyages I have mate abore the cloud regions, between 47 deg, and 33 deg north latitude, I have found (though not always at the same altitude) a current setting from west to east, reliable in its course as the Guil Stream. If, then, I can find at or near the equator a counter current, possessing the same the equator a closer together, fast sing the same they are allowed by the satisfied. The advantages arising from and store, then eight, and at levst nice upon a moderate bench, a great light flashed upen all beholders, and they saw that he reign of crimoline was over, the literal and metaphorical iron desplation of this rule, it is true, were neither few nor unimportant, but still they were the exception, and taken as a whole the sitting gape allowed by that sumptuary censor, the Lond Chamberlain, was generali
	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their large stock of PAPER HANGINGS, Predeting of avery variety counsected with the business, AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES PINE PRENOIS PAPENS AT 20 PER CENT, BE- LOW COST. PARTIN PAPENS AT 20 PER CENT, BE- LOW COST. PARTIN PARENCE HOUSE PAPEROS, can get great BARGAINS. Juil-II STATIONERY. ISGO. NEW FIRMS AND ISGO. WM. F. MURPHY & SONS, No. 100 CREATING & SONS, No. 100 CREATING & SONS, No. 100 CREATING BOX BLA NK BOOCKS, MALE OF LARGE STOCK PROVIDENT WORKS, COST. BLA NK BOOCKS, Manufacturing Respired States of Lines Stock. BOXER & BROTHERS, BOXER & BROTHERS, MANUFACTURING AND SHOES, MANUFACTURING AND SHOES, No. 539 and 434 MARKET STREET, BOOTS AND SHOES, No. 539 and 434 MARKET STREET, BOXER, PARTING, CONTRACTOR, MANUFACTURING AND SHOES, No. 539 and 434 MARKET STREET, BOX PIFTH BIRGL, BOXL BAR, MANUFACTURING ROUND STREET, BOX STREET, BICK, BOXL BAR, MANUFACTURING AND SHOES, No. 539 and 434 MARKET STREET, BOX PIFTH BIRGL, BOXL BAR, MARKET, RASIN, & CO., BOY AND BARKET, BARKET, BULLADENT, BOX AND SHOES, MARKET, CARSIN, & CO., BOY AND SHOE WAREHOUSE	OUTLERY, and GUN WALEHOUSE, No. 497 MARKET, and 416 COMMERCE Streets PHILADELPHIA. fol-5mo. DRUGS AND CHEMICALS. B.A. FAHNESTOOK & CO. DRUGS, OR UG GISTS, IMPORTERS, AND WHOLESALE DEALERS IN DRUGS, OHEMICALS, CORKS, SPONGES, AMERICAN AND FOREIGN RESERVIAL CILS, 40.9 AND MANUFOCUTORS and Bole Proprietors of B.A. FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIFUGE, NOS.7 and 9 NORTH FIFTH STREET, East side, a few doors above Market, fol-3m PHILADELPHIA DRUGS, GLASS, PAINTS, &d. BOBT. SHOEMAKER & CO. RORTHEAST CORNER TETH AND BACE STREETS, WHO. IN SALE DRUG GISTS importers and Dealers in WINDOW GLASS, PAINTS &e, fayies the stonkod of COUNTRY MERCHANTS Te their fairs stook of Goods, which they offer at the lawset market rates. OS. H	FOR OR OF ILLD RENTERETHING, which greatly facilitation to a process of testhing. by which greatly facilitation to a process of testhing. by which greatly facilitation to a process of testhing. by which greatly facilitation to a process of testhing. by which greatly facilitation to a process of test of the process of test of t	CARPETINGS, OIL OLOTHS, MATTING, RUGS, &C., WARRHOUBE 609 CHESTNUT ST., (Opposite the State House.) Southern and Western buyers are respecifully invited to call. CARPETS. F. A. ELIOT & CO., Nos. M and 54 North FRONT Street, are the SOLE AGENTS in Philadelphia for the ROXBURY CARPET COMPANY, and have constantly for sale a full assortment of VELVHT and TAPESTRY CARPETS, of choice patterns. Also, a large supply of the various kinds of OAR- PETS manufactured in Philadelphia cuty and county, from nearly all the best manufacturers. Dealers will find it to their interest to call and examine these goods, which are offered for sale on the most favorable terms. N.BF. A. ELIOT & CO, being the Sole Arents in Philadelphis for the sale of the Worsted and Carpet Yaras spun by the Saxonville Mills (formerly the New Ragiand Worsted Company,) and being agents also for the Baldwin, Wilkou, and Abbott Companies, have peculiar facilities for keeping constantly for asle the various kinds of Carpets manufactured in Philadelphis, o the most favorable terms. HOUSE-FURNISHING STORE. WILLIAM YARNALL. No. 1030 CHESTNUT STREET, (Immediately opposite the Academy of Fine Arts.) Invites the attention of HOUSEKEBPERHS and others to his extensive assortment of USEFUL HOUSEKEBPING GOODS. TABLE OUTLERY, NURSERY PENDERS, CHAFING DISHES,	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle. men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small celebrity as men of letters. Lord Palmerston was one of the authors of "The New Whig Guide." Lord Campbell is the biographer of the Chancellors and Chief Jus- tices of England. Mr. Gladstone has written largely in the Quarterly and other Reviews, and has written several octavo volumes upon Church and State. The Duke of Argyll is the author of several pamphlets and one volume on the Scottish Presbytery. Sir George Corn- wall Lewis, is a philosophical Historian, and has been editor of the Edinburgh Review. Lord John Russell has written history, criticism, plays, politics, poems, and so forth-after a fashion. Hero, at all events, are six mon who have written books, yet these, assisted by nine more, (every one of whom has published at least one Parliamentary speech, which is one degree of authorship), were unable to com- pose a Queen's Speech which should be intel- ligible and grammatical! What a pity it is that while the dead and living languages had been crammed into the leads of these public men, they were not also taught how to explain plain thoughts, correctly and plainly, in their mother-tongue. In fact, the Aristocracy of England, who, as Mr. Disraeli tauntingly fold them, are born to seats in Parliament, are instructed very much on the system which prevails in some of the Female institutes in this country, where a young lady who shows superior pro- ficiency in Mathematics receives the highest premlum awarded-though she may be utterly unable to hem or mark a pocket-handkerchief, and may have no knowledge whatever of thue domestic arrangements which come under the general term housekeeping. Of course, in a	<ul> <li>Vindicated their rights.</li> <li>Bir, he was a Demoorat, without being a demagegue; he lowed the people and he never beirayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in hischaracter, he won their endering regard.</li> <li>Bir, I never knew a man who was so misanderstood who differed so much from his common fame. I myself sought him in this city, as the Representative of a hardy but tunulluous portion of my countrymen. Imagine, sir, my surprise when I found him a student—a student of history, a student of poetry, a silent man, one who ast apart from his follows, pondering deeply the great problems of life; one instructed, as the goritement. It is true his struggles with adverse fortune had clouded his brow, and that his face, in the presence of his foes, ever wore a mingled look of second defance, but for his friends he had a genial smile—an irresistible faciencie. Life with adverse of the human heart.</li> <li>Bir, he was a born leader. Sitting in his silent, solitary room in San Francisco. his virard mind went forth over the hills and through the valleys of California, until the whole State was filed with here doen and runthing room in San Yanones. I work and and montable will. Before it party names and party organization defance, had nu indomitable with the broath of his power. He had an indomitable with a forth over the hills and through the valleys of California, until the whole State was filed with the broath of his power. He had an indomitable with pride that they were Benoratic men. Few men with power to draw the masses to themelered with the food. The many and men, when they have appeared it any time. For have appeared it is power. The adding the when the state were the bords of the human heart.</li> </ul>	moving forward as a comet amid lesser planeta, shedding a radiance in bis pathway. He know no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and wrong were presented to hiun, which to choose. His was no weak, doubting, cowardly tongue, that was afraid to give ulterance to truth. As a statesman, he had not the pollsh of those educated in the schoelsnot their plansibility or fowing language; but possessed a native vigor of intellect, expanded by reflection and reading, which marked every effort of his forensic power. Who that heard him or who that has read his re- marks, will ever forget his manly and eloquent reply to Boath Caroling men of the North in unjust terms? It is, Mr. Speaker, no disparage- ment to others to say that no Senator ever gained, in so short a time, so wide-spread a fame. Coming this and breathing dishonor upon his character, in two short years his State reputation was swallowed up by a national one, and his mem became a fa- miliar household word throughout this vast Repub- lio. It will go on, sir, oulminating, until truth and justice shall place it in the highest niche of fame. Though he was born in this Distriot, and faulty prevented by from their midst; and thequestion ubbert, he was their the typo of a Northern Demo- orat. All his instincts, sympathies, and faelings, were with the Democracy, and they ware every- where looking up to him as their future leader. When the heart-trending intelligence reached their confodracy? Mr. Speaker, Senator BROERICK was, indeed, an extraordinary man. It may be said of him, in the language of Ireland's immortal patrict, Em- mett, "the man disc, but his memory lives." If will be green and fresh in the recollection of mil- lions, while that of others will go out, and be for- mett, "the man dies, but his memory lives." It will be green and fresh in the recollection of mil- lions, while that of others will go out, and b	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next. I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to unexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was subjected in the construction of the mechanical supparatus and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; concequently, I decided to postpone the first experiment of practically testing the theory et oceanic aerial navigation until spring, when, as everything is in the most complete and the decide of the ship, it was not to neglect the opportunity. Much the time until then will afford me, for making observations in the lower latitudes. My object now is, to make an examination of the upper currents, assortain their course, relowity, &c. at short distance in a short in the strong faith. In the thirty-eight voyages I have made abore the cload regions, between 47 deg. and 33 deg north latitude, Nave found (though net always at the same altitude) a current setting from east to erast, reliable in its course as the Guator a counter current, possessing the same uniformity and reliability, I shall be a current setting from west to east, reliable in its course as the Guator a counter current, possessing the same uniformity and reliability, I shall be assisted. The activatizes arising from such a discovery can hardly be determined." CRINGLINE SUBDED.—The London Times reporter, in ekstching the scenes at the regin of crimoline was over, then literal and metaphorical from despetism of fashion was broken at last. The extending allowed to be enough."
	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their large stock of PAPER HANGINGS, Cyndicting of every variety connected with the business, AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES PINE PRENOM PAPENS AT 20 PER CENT, BE- LOW COST. Periode wanting their Houses Payered, can get great BARGAINS. Jule-II STATIONERY. ISGO. NEW FIRMS AND ISGO. OHANGES. WM. F. MURPHY & SONS, No. WY CREATINUT STREET, BELANS BIONE OUTH. PRACTICAL MANUFACTORIES OF BLANS CLIENT BOOK State of Lines Blook. State of Lines Blook. State of Lines Blook. State of Lines Blook. BOKER & BROTHERS, BOKER & BROTHERS, BOCKER & BROTHERS, MANUFACTURERS AND SHOES, Not and beat BLANDS BOOTS AND SHOES, Not sig and 434 MARKET STREET. BROTH AND BARDEN MADA BOOTS AND SHOES, Not sig and 434 MARKET STREET. BOY AND BARKET STREET. BOY AND BHOE WAREHOUSE MAN UF A OTO BY.	OUTLERY, and GUN WALEHOUSE, No. 497 MARKET, and 416 COMMERCE Streets PHILADELPHIA. fol-5mo. DRUGS AND CHEMICALS. B.A. FAHNESTOOCK & OO. DRUGS, AND WHOLESALE DEALERS IN DRUGS, OHEMICALS, CORKS, BPONGES, AMERICAN AND FOREIGN HESENTIAL OLLS, 40., And MANUFOLUCAL SHORES, 40., And MANUFOLISTICK'S VERMIFUGE, NOS. 7 and 9 NORTH FIFTH STREET, East side, a few doors above Market, fol-5m Philladelphia DRUGS, GLASS, PAINTS, 40. ROBT. SHOEMAKER & CO. ROBT. SHOEMAKER & CO. ROBT. SHOEMAKER 57, WHO. S & A LE DRUG STREETS, WHO. S & A LE DRUG STREETS, WHO. S & A LE DRUG STREETS, WHO. S & A LE ORNER SHOE FINDINGS. WM. JOHINS & SON. IMFORTERS AND DEALERS IN	FOR OR OF ILLD RENTERETHING, which greatly facilitation to process of testhing. by solve the guard research a findamment of testhing with solve the guard research a findamment of the solve of the solve to yourselves and the findament of the solve of the solve to yourselves and the solve of	CARPETINGS, OIL OLOTHS, MATTING, RUGS, &O., WARHOUBE 600 CHESTNUT BT., (Opposite the State House.) Southern and Western buyers are respecifully invited to call. CARPETS. CARPETS. F. A. ELIOT & CO., Nos. M and M North FRONT Street, are the SOLE AGENTS in Philadelphis for the ROXBUY CARPET COMPANY, and have constantly for sale a full assortment of VELVET and TAPESTRY CARPETS, of choice patterns. Also, a large supply of the various kinds of OAR- PETS manufactured in Philadelphia duty and county, from nearly all the best manufacturers. Dealers will find it to their interest to call and examine these goods, which are offered for sale on the most favorable terms. N.BF. A. ELIOT & CO, being the Bole Agents in Philadelphis for the sale of the Worked and Carpet Yaraseyne by the Saconville Mills (formerly the New England Worsted Company,) and being agents also for the Baldwin, Willow, and Abbott Companies, have peculiar facilities for keeping constantly for sale the various kinds of Carpets manufactured in Philadelphia, o the made favorable terms. HOUSE FURNISHING STORE. WILLIAM YARNALL. No. 1020 CHESTNUT STREET, (Immediately opposite the Academy of Fine Arts.) Is vites the stiention of HOUSEKEBPERES and olivers to his extensive assortment of USEFUL HOUSEKEPING GOODS. TABLE OUTLERY, NURSERY PENDERS, CHAFING DISHES, FIRE SCREENS. FIATE WARMERS, Itate WARMERS,	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle, men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small celebrity as men of lettors. Lord Palmerston was one of the authors of "The New Whig Guide." Lord Campbell is the biographer of the Chancellors and Chief Jus- tices of England. Mr. Gladstone has written largely in the Quarterly and other Reviews, and has written several octavo volumes upon Church and State. The Duke of Argyll is the author of several pamphlets and one volume on the Scottish Presbytery. Sir George Corn- wall Lewis, is a philosophical Historian, and has been editor of the Edinburgh Review. Lord John Russell has written history, criticism, plays, politics, poems, and so forth-after a fashion. Hero, at all events, are six men who have written books, yet these, assisted by nine more, (every one of whom has published at least one Parliomentary speech, which is one degree of authorship), were unable to com- pose a Queen's Speech which should be intel- ligible and grammatical! What a pity it is that while the dead and living languages had been crammed into the heads of these public men, they were not also taught how to explain plain thoughts, correctly and plainly, in their mother-tongue. In fact, the Aristocracy of England, who, as Mr. Disraeli tauntingly told them, are born to seats in Parliament, are instructed very much on the system which prevails in some of the Female institutes in this country, where a young lady who shows superior pro- ficiency in Mathematics receives the highest premium awarded-though she may be utterly unable to hem or mark a pocket-handkerchief, and may have no knowledge whatever of the domestic arrangements which come under the general term housekceping. Of course, in a multifude of instances, the fair premium-	<ul> <li>Vindicated their rights.</li> <li>Bir, he was a Demoorat, without being a dema- rogue; he loved the people and he never betrayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in hisoharaoter, he won their enduring regard.</li> <li>Sir, I never knew a man who was so misander- stood—who differed so much from his common fame. I myself sought blim in this city, as the Representative of a hardy but tumulitous portion of my countrymen. Imagine, sir, my surprise when I found him a student—a student of history, a student of poetry, a silent man, one who ast apart from his follows, pondering deeply the great problems of life; one instructed, as the gentleman from Pennaylvania (Mr. Hickman) has informed us, in those motives which underlie all the actions of men. I found him firm and digalided in deport- ment. It is true his struggles with adverse fortune had clouded his brow, and that his face, in the presence of his foes, ever wore a mingled look of scorn and defance, but for his friends he had a genial smile—an irresistible facination. His look was honest and sincere, bis voice firm and truth- ful, and sometimes it had a manly melody which caused it to poetrate into the deepest roccesses of the human heart.</li> <li>Sir, he was a born leader. Sitting in his silent, soitary room in San Francisco. his wizard mind went forth over the hills and through the valleys of California, until the whole State was filed with the breath of his power. He had an indomitable with newer to draw the masses to themelves, for ounse their multiform feelings to flow in the indivi- dual channel of a single will, have appeared at any time. Fow have appeared in this country. He god-like power, the art Napoleon "The God-like power, the art Napoleon of winner, bindraw, weidling, heading "The God-like power, the art Napoleon of winner, bindraw, weidling, heading "The hearts of multions tult they move as one." I say that this quality is rare. Men with it have appeared at long intervals upon the shores of filme</li></ul>	moving forward as a comet amid lesser planeta, shedding a radiance in bis pathway. He know no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and: wrong were presented to him, which to choose. His was no weak, doubting, cowardly tongue, that was affaid to give uiterance to truth. As a statesman, he had not the polish of those educated in the schoelsnot their plausibility or flowing language; but possessed a native vigor of intelled; expanded by reflection and reading, which marked every effort of his forensic power. Who that heard him or who that has read his re- marks, will ever forget his manly and elequent reply to Bouth Carolinn's proud and gifted Scantor, who reflected on the laboring men of the North in unjust terms? It is, Mr. Spesker, no disparsge- ment to others to say that no Scantor ever gained, in so short a time, so wide-spread a fame. Coming to this Capitol with the breath of slander preceding him and dreathing dishonor upon his character, in two short years his State repatition was swallowed up by a national one, and his name beceme a fa- mijiar household word throughout this vast Repub- lie. It will go on, ir, oulminating, until truth and juvites shall place it in the highest niche of fame. Though he was born in this District, and spent his juvenile years around this Temple of American Liberty, he was the true typo of a Northern Demo- orat. All his instincts, sympathies, and feelings, were with the Democreacy, and they ware every- where looking up to him as their futuro leader. When the heart-rending intelligence reached their oars that he was gone, gone forever, down to the cold and islent grave, an almost universal will of angulah went up from their midset; and the question- prepoinded at his funeral observed from the Altinuit or the grave. Wase, ran along her lakes and rivers, and sounded through her Valley's and mountains, like the death-chilling notes	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next. I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to unexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was subjected in the construction of the mechanical apparatus and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; concequently, I de- oided to postpone the first experiment of translatily testing the theory et occanic aerial navigation un- ill spring, when, as everything is in the most com- plete and perfect order, I shall (ury life and health being spared) solve the problem. I have deter- mined not to neglect the opportunity, which the time until then will afford me, for making obser- vations in the lower latitudes. My object now is, to make an examination of the upper currents, assortain their course, velowity, &c, at short dis- tanoe to and below the equator, to see if a cannot discover a return current setting from east to west —a theory in which I have strong faith. In the thirty-eight royages I have made above the cload regions, between 47 deg. and 35 deg north lati- tude, I have found (though not always at the same altitude) a current setting from west to east, relia- ble in its course as the Guil Stream. If, then, I can find at or near the equator a counter current, possessing the same uniformity and reliability, I shall be satisfied. The advantages arising from such a discovery can hardly be determined." CRINGLYS SUBURD.—The London Times ro porter, in sketching the scenes at the recent opeh- ing of Parliament, remarks : " As the ladles sat closer and closer togother, not unimportant, but still they were the exception, and taken as a whole the sitting gance allowed by that sumptuary censor, the Lord Chamberlain, was generally allowed to be enough." I was generally allowed to be enough." I was generally show the set is gand. Substime from despetism of fashion was broken at last. The er- ceptions to this rule, it is true, were neither few- nor unimportant, but still they were the exception, and
	Will sell out, through this winter and next spring, their large stock of PAPER HANGINGS, Predeting of avery variety counsected with the business, AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES PINE PRENOM PAPENS AT 20 PER CENT, BE- LOW COST. PARTIN PARENT AT 20 PER CENT, BE- LOW COST. PARTIN PARENT Houses Papered, can got great BARGAINS. Just-H STATIONERY. ISGO. NEW FIRMS AND ISGO. WM. F. MURPHY & SONS, No. 100 CREATING & SONS, No. 100 CREATING STREET, BEON POTTA PRACTORE MANY ACTORNES OF BLA NK BOOKS, MALE OF LARGE STOOL State of Lines Stool: State of Lines Stool: BOOTS AND SHOES, BOOKER & BROTHERS, MANUFACTURERS AND WHOLESALE DEALESS IN CITY AND HASTERN-MADE BOOTS AND SHOES, No. 539 and 434 MARKET STREET, BOOT AND BHOK WAREHOUSE AND AND SHOES, DEALESS, DEALE STREET, BOOT AND SHOES, DEALESS, DEALESS, No. 539 and 434 MARKET STREET, BOOT AND SHOESS, MARNET, CARSIN, & CO., BOOT AND SHOE WAREHOUSE	OUTLERY, and GUN WALEHOUBE, No. 497 MARKET, and 416 COMMERCE Streets PHILADELPHIA. fol-5mo. DRUGS AND CHEMICALS. B.A. FAHNESTOOK & OO. DRUGS AND WHOLESALE DEALERS IN DRUGS, OHEMICALS, CORKS, BPONGES, AMERICAN AND FOREIGN ESSENTIAL OLLS, 40., And Manufacturers and Sols Proprietors of B. A. FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIFUGE, Nos. 7 and 9 NORTH FIFTH STREET, East side, a few doors above Market, folton Philladelprita DRUGS, GLASS, PAINTS, 40. ROB'T. SHOEMAKER & CO. ROB'T. SHOEMAKER & CO. ROB'T. SHOEMAKER & CO. ROB'T. SHOEMAKER & CO. ROB'T. SHOEMAKER & CO. STATH AND BACE STREETS, WHO. S & A LE DBUGS IS TS insporters and Dealers in WINDOW CLASS, PAINTS See, lavies the standood of COUNTRY MERCHANTS Schoe FINDINGS. WM. JOHINS & SON. IMFORTERS AND DEALERS IN BOOT, SHOE, and GAITER MATERIALS	FOR OR OF ILLD RENTERETHING, which greatly facilitation to process of testhing. by solve the guard research a findamment of testhing with solve the guard research a findamment of the solve of the solve to yourselves and the findament of the solve of the solve to yourselves and the solve of	CARPETINGS, OIL OLOTHS, MATTING, RUGS, &O., WARHOUBE 600 CHESTNUT BT., (Opposite the State House.) Southern and Western buyers are respecifully invited to call. CARPETS. CARPETS. F. A. ELIOT & CO., Nos. M and M North FRONT Street, are the SOLE AGENTS in Philadelphis for the ROXBUY CARPET COMPANY, and have constantly for sale a full assortment of VELVET and TAPESTRY CARPETS, of choice patterns. Also, a large supply of the various kinds of OAR- PETS manufactured in Philadelphia duty and county, from nearly all the best manufacturers. Dealers will find it to their interest to call and examine these goods, which are offered for sale on the most favorable terms. N.BF. A. ELIOT & CO, being the Bole Agents in Philadelphis for the sale of the Worked and Carpet Yaraseyne by the Saconville Mills (formerly the New England Worsted Company,) and being agents also for the Baldwin, Willow, and Abbott Companies, have peculiar facilities for keeping constantly for sale the various kinds of Carpets manufactured in Philadelphia, o the made favorable terms. HOUSE FURNISHING STORE. WILLIAM YARNALL. No. 1020 CHESTNUT STREET, (Immediately opposite the Academy of Fine Arts.) Is vites the stiention of HOUSEKEBPERES and olivers to his extensive assortment of USEFUL HOUSEKEPING GOODS. TABLE OUTLERY, NURSERY PENDERS, CHAFING DISHES, FIRE SCREENS. FIATE WARMERS, Itate WARMERS,	composition framed by the Cabinet Ministers. Not one of these fifteen noblemen and gentle, men but had the advantage of an University education. Some of them have even obtained no small celebrity as men of lettors. Lord Palmerston was one of the authors of "The New Whig Guide." Lord Campbell is the biographer of the Chancellors and Chief Jus- tices of England. Mr. Gladstone has written largely in the Quarterly and other Reviews, and has written several octavo volumes upon Church and State. The Duke of Argyll is the author of several pamphlets and one volume on the Scottish Presbytery. Sir George Corn- wall Lewis, is a philosophical Historian, and has been editor of the Edinburgh Review. Lord John Russell has written history, criticism, plays, politics, poems, and so forth-after a fashion. Hero, at all events, are six men who have written books, yet these, assisted by nine more, (every one of whom has published at least one Parliomentary speech, which is one degree of authorship), were unable to com- pose a Queen's Speech which should be intel- ligible and grammatical! What a pity it is that while the dead and living languages had been crammed into the heads of these public men, they were not also taught how to explain plain thoughts, correctly and plainly, in their mother-tongue. In fact, the Aristocracy of England, who, as Mr. Disraeli tauntingly told them, are born to seats in Parliament, are instructed very much on the system which prevails in some of the Female institutes in this country, where a young lady who shows superior pro- ficiency in Mathematics receives the highest premium awarded-though she may be utterly unable to hem or mark a pocket-handkerchief, and may have no knowledge whatever of the domestic arrangements which come under the general term housekceping. Of course, in a multifude of instances, the fair premium-	<ul> <li>Vindicated their rights.</li> <li>Bir, he was a Demoorat, without being a dema- rogue; he loved the people and he never betrayed them, and with passing time, as they discovered these traits in hisoharaoter, he won their enduring regard.</li> <li>Sir, I never knew a man who was so misander- stood—who differed so much from his common fame. I myself sought blim in this city, as the Representative of a hardy but tumulitous portion of my countrymen. Imagine, sir, my surprise when I found him a student—a student of history, a student of poetry, a silent man, one who ast apart from his follows, pondering deeply the great problems of life; one instructed, as the gentleman from Pennaylvania (Mr. Hickman) has informed us, in those motives which underlie all the actions of men. I found him firm and digalided in deport- ment. It is true his struggles with adverse fortune had clouded his brow, and that his face, in the presence of his foes, ever wore a mingled look of scorn and defance, but for his friends he had a genial smile—an irresistible facination. His look was honest and sincere, bis voice firm and truth- ful, and sometimes it had a manly melody which caused it to poetrate into the deepest roccesses of the human heart.</li> <li>Sir, he was a born leader. Sitting in his silent, soitary room in San Francisco. his wizard mind went forth over the hills and through the valleys of California, until the whole State was filed with the breath of his power. He had an indomitable with newer to draw the masses to themelves, for ounse their multiform feelings to flow in the indivi- dual channel of a single will, have appeared at any time. Fow have appeared in this country. He god-like power, the art Napoleon "The God-like power, the art Napoleon of winner, bindraw, weidling, heading "The God-like power, the art Napoleon of winner, bindraw, weidling, heading "The hearts of multions tult they move as one." I say that this quality is rare. Men with it have appeared at long intervals upon the shores of filme</li></ul>	moving forward as a comet amid lesser planeta, shedding a radiance in bis pathway. He know no obligations but such as duty imposed, and those he faithfully discharged. Direct, hold, faithful, and single in his purpose, ho never hesitated, never wavered, never faitered, when right and: wrong were presented to him, which to choose. His was no weak, doubting, cowardly tongue, that was affaid to give uiterance to truth. As a statesman, he had not the polish of those educated in the schoelsnot their plausibility or flowing language; but possessed a native vigor of intelled; expanded by reflection and reading, which marked every effort of his forensic power. Who that heard him or who that has read his re- marks, will ever forget his manly and elequent reply to Bouth Carolinn's proud and gifted Scantor, who reflected on the laboring men of the North in unjust terms? It is, Mr. Spesker, no disparsge- ment to others to say that no Scantor ever gained, in so short a time, so wide-spread a fame. Coming to this Capitol with the breath of slander preceding him and dreathing dishonor upon his character, in two short years his State repatition was swallowed up by a national one, and his name beceme a fa- mijiar household word throughout this vast Repub- lie. It will go on, ir, oulminating, until truth and juvites shall place it in the highest niche of fame. Though he was born in this District, and spent his juvenile years around this Temple of American Liberty, he was the true typo of a Northern Demo- orat. All his instincts, sympathies, and feelings, were with the Democreacy, and they ware every- where looking up to him as their futuro leader. When the heart-rending intelligence reached their oars that he was gone, gone forever, down to the cold and islent grave, an almost universal will of angulah went up from their midset; and the question- prepoinded at his funeral observed from the Altinuit or the grave. Wase, ran along her lakes and rivers, and sounded through her Valley's and mountains, like the death-chilling notes	which I intend to make a voyage to Europe in May or Juno next. I built last year, designing to start in October. Owing, however, to unexpected labor which, from the great size of the ship, it was subjected in the construction of the mechanical apparatus and other equipments to the ship, it was not completed until November; concequently, I de- oided to postpone the first experiment of tracking testing the theory et oceanic aerial navigation un- ill spring, when, as everything is in the most com- plete and perfect order, I shall (ury life and health being spared) solve the problem. I have deter- mined not to neglect the opportunity, which the time until then will afford me, for making obser- vations in the lower latitudes. My object now is, to make an examination of the upper currents, assortain their course, velowity, &c, at short dis- tanoes to and below the equator, to see if a cannot discover a return current setting from east to west — a theory in which I have strong faith. In the thirty-eight royages I have made above the cloud regions, between 47 deg. and 35 deg north lati- tude, I have found (though not always at the same altitude) a current setting from west to east, relia- ble in its course as the Guil Stream. If, then, I can find at or near the equator a counter current, possessing the same uniformity and reliability, I shall be astified. The advantages arising from such a discovery can hardly be determined." CRINGLYS SUBURD.—The London Times ro porter, in sketching the senes at the recent open- ing of Parliament, remarks : " As the ladles sat closer and closer together, not unimportant, but still they were the exception, and taken as a whole the sitting space allowed by that sumptuary ceusor, the Lord Chamberlain, was generally allowed to be enough." I P That giant's throat (Paris) smallowed last year I,454,145 hectolitres of whon in barrels (ox- clusive of whose ita casks), 80,470 hectolitres of al- cohol, 20,778 hectolitres of oider, 23,103.453 kiles, of butchers' meat, 9,222,8267 worth of salt-w

