MONDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1860. Our Aldermanic System. In former articles we drew attention to the ad effects of the system of paying, aldermen from the flee srising from suits, civil and criminal, instituted, or caused to be instituted before them. These fees arise from issuing immonses, warrants, taking bail, entering bail or appeals, commitments, &c., and it is palpa ble that the more business they do therein the nore money is realized. It, therefore, comes axiomatic that the more business they nake the more money they will make, It s so, the inducements are "to make bust ness," and this leads to pandering; corruption and the stirring up of suits, quarrels, &c., an offence which the law punishes as Barretry.

Wholesale Depot, No. 48 CHUAR Street, New York. Put up for Dealers in Cases containing four, eight nd twelve dozen, a beautiful Lithographio Show-cant The fees for acknowledgments, transcripts, marriages, &c., would remain. But in suits hey should be abolished, cost what it may. The return to the county for cost of the various processes would probably be over $100,000, out of which suitable salaries could be paid. We will turn to some of the facts on the criminal side. The sources from which our acts are drawn are from the Judges' charges, BOOT, SHOB, and GAITER MATERIALS, reports of the prison agent and the prison in-

In the year 1855, the number committed to trial 375 were convicted. For 1856 we are the amende. N. E. CORNER FOURTH AND ARCH STREETS without data before us, but in 1857 the comnitments were 15.540, and the convictions on 2,765. In 1858, the commitments were the same. BHOE AND GAITER MANUFACTURERS

These goods are, as a general thing, imported by me, direct from the Mannfacturers, and I have reason to believe, from my experience in the business and my knowledge of the wants of the Shoe Trade, that I can offer inducements equal to any in the business. The Grand Jury acted on 4,701 indictments, and of these ignored 2,233, and of the true bills found, on trial in court, where both sides were heard, only 538 were convicted and sentenced. In 1869 the total commitments were 19,816, the indictments acted on, 3,918—of which the bills ignored were 1,796, and the convicted and sentenced 676. Of those, where bills of indictment were not preferred, (forming the greatest portion), the prisoners were discharged without trial. It will be remembered that the Grand Jurors hear only the witnesses for the prosecution, and, on such hearing, discharged these prisoners, because they "are ignorant" of their having committed any crime or misdemeanor.

The tax-payers had to house, keep, and feed them; servants had to be hired and paid to watch and wait on them.
