FROM DE VENOGE & CO., EPERNAY, FRANCE Sold by all Respectable Dealers throughout the country. This fine brand of CHAMPAGNE, which until the past year was confined exclusively to the best tables of the Continent of Ecrope, has now obtained the most unbounded success and popularity in this country. It is recommended by some of the first physicians of the city of New York, over all other wines, on account of its extreme purity and delicacy, and those who once try it rately use any other brand. Although only one year has elapsed since its introduction into this country, the demand is enournous and containtly increasing. Our arrangements are such as to insure the quality of the wine being maintained at its present high standard. The Prince Imperial is imported solely by us, we bound the sole Agonts of Messrs. Seeing, therefore, the feeling of distrust and nostility the annexation of Savoy would give rise to, he hoped the Emperor would abandon such a poliev." The Paris correspondent of the London Times, whose information upon European pooriginal occupants. litics is generally surprisingly accurate as well as early, says it is reported that the Emperor of the French is, even now, desirous to exe cute, if possible, the stipulations of the Villa, ne Susquehanna, and many who won ought it as a desirable heation were deter franca treaty; and, for that purpose, would wish the great European Powers to discuss the latter in conference on the following basis simply: A kingdom to be formed in Central Italy, to consist of Tuscany and also the Romagna; and in the probable event of the Pope refusing the plan of a nominal suzerainte Perli and Modena to be annexed to Picdment in exchange for Savoy. The sovereign of the new States to be the young Grand Duke of Tuscany, or a prince of the House of Bonaparte; in the latter case probably a grandion of The remarkable confusion lato which Italian politics have fallen, chiefly from Napoleon's weathercock action, may lead to a repetition of the war ere long. He wavers between the claims of Italy, represented by Victor-Emmanuel; of the Church, represented by the Pope; and of Austria, which represents the old legitimist principle, as well as the aggrandizement of the House of Hapsburg. Napoleon evidently desires to round off his Empire by the annexation of Savoy; but we can scarcely believe that Victor-Emmanuel will voluntarily part with that earliest appanage of his house, on any terms.

Taking it Coolly.

Taking it Coolly.

While extensive preparations are making in England, France, and in India, for the new China war—inevitable, unless the Emperor Hienlung "give satisfaction" for the attack upon the British and French vessels in the Peiho river—it would appear that the Chinese are taking matters very coolly. They are acting as if every dread of hostility was dismissed. The Emperor has not only thrown open the new ports of Swatow and Taiwan, but he has extended the advantageous provisions of the American treaty to England and other Powers.

The Future of Italy.

The London Globe of the 28th ult. (Lord Palmerston's organ) says "it has authority to announce that the Austrian Government has stated that the report published on the 25th, of an Austro-Russian alliance, is entirely devoid of foundation." Less authoritatively, the Globe says that the statements that, under threat of the withdrawal of the French troops from Italy, the Central Italians are to be called upon to think no more of annexation, but to consent to the election of a sovereign in Tuscany, to allow the separate annexation of Modena and Parma to Piedmont, and to give up the Romagna, are far from being correct.

On the other hand, it is stated, from Paris, that Napoleon has sent a note to Count Cavour, requiring Piedmont to give up all thoughts of the annexation of Tuscany, that Victor-Eminanuel has decided not to act as this dictation dealeres, and the first of the work is three individual in the city is known to have petitioned for it. CHAMBERSBURG, March 12, 1560 Have you ever been through the "Cumberland Valley" from Harrisburg to our place? If not, waslth. Bounded on both wides by ranges of towering mountains, which add greatly to the salubrity of the atmosphere and the beauty of the scenery, this far-famed valley is excelled by none in the ing far in the North among the chilling regions of e and snow, it extends away down to the sann land flowing with milk and honey. Its people are industrious, temperate and frugal; attached to their homes and their fire-sides; content with their lot, and jealous of their rights. And year ther year they find their labors abundantly warded by the productions of the genial soil won,
