The Municipal Election.

Comparatively little interest is felt in the municipal election of this city, and if the announcement that it will take place on the 25th of May was not extensively advertised, and public attention persistently drawn to the subject, the probability is that the municipal election would not be so generally understood as it is.

Mr. Buchanan's Letter to Gov. Walker.

The President of the Convention, dated the 12th July, 1857, and addressed to Hon. Robert J. Walker, of the State of Illinois, is a document of great importance, and one which has not been generally understood.

Independent of these practical considerations.

Independent of these practical considerations, the efforts of the devoted patriots on either side, a variety of arguments are addressed to the general public, to elicit their sympathies, and to induce them to support the cause which they deem to be just.

Public Amusements.

Miss Heron's play at Walnut Street Theatre, last evening, was a great success. The drama of "The Roman of the Year" was also well received.

The New York.

There is a report, in this paper, a merchantman, which is substantially correct. It is a vessel of the name of the "Hesperus," and is owned by Captain H. B. Major.
