Books Abroad. It has long been regretted that no sufficien biography of the man who wrote "The Song of the Shirt" and "The Bridge of Sighs" has yet been given to the world. We learn that "Memorials of Thomas Hood" will soon appear, collected, arranged, and edited by his daughter. Hoop's only son, who has written tolerable verses and has a clerkship in one of the Government departments of England, will supply a preface and notes. The only account of Hoop, worth reading, is his own Autobiography in "Hood's Own," and that is so dashed with eccentricity and the obvious desire of being smart as to be wholly inadequate. if not unreliable. Mr. FROUDE is about publishing two additional volumes of his remarkable "History of England, from the fall of WOLSEY to the Death of ELIZABETH." The forthcoming comple-

THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CATHEDRAL OF ST. PETRE AND ST. PAUL .- The sanual collecti aid of the completion of the Roman Catholic Cathedral of St. Peter and St. Paul, was made on Sun-day, in all the churches in Philadelphia of that demination. The collection will also be made in all the churches throughout the Diocese, as, also, in each station where mass is celebrated, on such Sunday before the 20th of July as may best suit

the engageminis of the respective pastors. The thirteenth annual report of the Building Committos of the Cathedral has just been Issue the progress which has been made upon the building, as well as giving some information as to the prospects for the fature. The following extract n the report will be read with inter
