The fight of yesterday was suddenly terminated

this morning, at the opening of the sersion, by Mr. CHURCH, of New York, withdrawing the latter part of his smendment, which prescribed a test of llegiance to the South. This was done by unamous consent, and is regarded as the tender of the olive branch by the Douglas men. It was the result of a caucus, which was held last night, among the leaders of both of the conflicting parties. It shows that, while the Douglas men are frm and sanguine, they are willing to do anything or harmony.

BROADSIDES IN THE CONVENTION.

The Convention is flooded with broadsides in the shaps of printed circulars. One of them is an "address from the Democracy of Louisiana" in favor of the Eccessionists; the second is a small pamphlet from the Yancey men of Alabama, en-titled an "address from the Democracy of Ala-bama to the Democratio National Convention at Baltimore." This allusion (o the "Democracy of Ala-bama to the Democratio National Convention at Baltimore." This allusion (o the "Democracy of Alabama" is considered one of the finest pieces of Yancar's irony. A third is a small donument entitled "sn appeal to the members of the Con-rention," signed by "Jefferson." which is full of tables and espitella, and reads like an editorial in the Constitution. It is a piece of harmless chetoric, and was useful to those gentlemen ford all is one in the shape of a handbill, which reads as follows: "Citizen Work of Jackson, Miss --Prorxsr.-lat, assing a Democrat having to obtain a Pass, like a pamphlet from the Yancey men of Alabama, en-

A GAIN FOR DOROTAR. The declination of Hon. ANDREW JOHNSON, Of Tennessee, whose letter of declension I telegraphed you yesterday, will cause a gain of three votes for Mr. DOUGLAS from the Tennessee delegation.

LATER. BALTINORE, June 19-11.40 P.-M. The Committee on Credentials have been very busily engaged in considering the various cases of ting delegations.

It is reported that they have decided to admit the original delegation from Mississippi. When the Arkanaas case was under considera tion, a very exciting difficulty occurred. Mr Hindman charged that the Convention which had selected the delegates to whom he was opposed had heen packed by the people of a neighboring State. Mr. Hopper, editor of the Madison Journal, de-nounced this allegation as unqualifiedly false, whereupon Mr. Hindman slapped Mr. Hooper's face, and drew a pistol. Further difficulties were prevented by the interference of those present. The committee have decided to report against the admission of the socieding delegates from Texas and Florida, as they have obtained no new instructions or authority frem their constituents directing them to return to the Convention.

Senators SLIDBLL and PUGH, and Secretary Coss controls Science and Fords, and Secretary Jobs, are here, busily engaged in political operations. Another mass meeting of the friends of DougLAS was held at Monument Square this evening. The crowd was large, and their enthusiasm unabated. I housands of idle rumors are in circulation.
