sage of the clause of the Constitution of Mildle the Disunionists, intend to avail themselves. The Electors shall meet in their respective States, and vote by ballot for President and Yee President, one of whom, at least, shall not be an inhabitant of the Same Btate with themselves. They shall indue in their subject the persons voted for as President, and in distinct ballots the person voted for as Vice President; and they shall make distinct lists of all persons voted for as Vice President, and of the number of votes for each which lists they shall sign and certify, and transmit, scaled, to the seat of Gevernment of the United States, directed to the President of the Sanate. The President of the Sanate shall, in presons of the Seaste and House of Representatives, open all the certificates, had the votes shall then be counted The person having the votes shall the whole humber of Votes for President shall be the President of votes for President shall be the President of votes for President shall be the President for manifest in the counted The person having the inglest namebers, and the word for an President the observation of the sanate shall the person have such majority then from the person have such majority of the Whole humber of Electors, appointed; and if no person have such information from self-field the sanate shall be because of the President the votes shall be because the President the votes shall be received the President shall be because the President shall be the States, and a majority of she the States and a laborate shall be the sanate of the States and a majority of she the States and a majority of she the States and a the person the shall and as President shall be the date of the President shall be the date of the States and a majority of she the States and a majority of she the States and a majority of the President shall be the date of the States and a majority of the States, and a majority of the States, and a majority of the same of the states of the States and a majority of the same of th

THE PARS - PHILADEL PHA. TURSDAY, JUNE 56.

THE PARS - PHILADEL PH

be used by these men, but I fear the war between himself and Douglas has become so bitter that nohimself and Douglas has become so bitter that no-thing like this can be untilificated. Should be per-sist in semaining in the field, the friends of Ball and Everett will organize in Louisiana, Tennessee, Kentucky, North Carolina, Virginia, Marylahd, and other Southern States, and may carry than. Should this be so, Mr. Ricckinridge and his friends will make nothing by their motion. It is true they will defect Douglas, but they will erect and conso-ildate in their own region a powerful party. They may send into the Senate, the House failing to elect

The property of the property o

To enter the military, schools, as students, and the control of th

The control of the co into which ascret donnotations were dropped, is an apt illustration of the Govoda Committee. The Star Chamber, tyrannical and odlogs as it was, never proceeded in much a manner. For contraries there has been nothing like it in any civilized country when the procedure of the productions without of France in the ways of the preductions without of France in the

HON. STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS. HERSCHEL V. JOHNSON,

Serenade of Hon. John C. Breckinridge, SPEECH OF THE NOMINEE-HIS ACCEPTA THE NOMINATION AND THE RESPONSIBILITY. Washington, June 25.—A large body, accom-panied by a band of music, proceeded to-night to the residence of Hon John C. Breckinridge, and berepaded him.

and congratulations.

Speech of how. Jefferson days.

Sanstor Davis followed in an elequent speech. He referred to the personal and public character of Messrs. Breckinridge and Lane. The Democration period and party was not a party which seeks for spotis, or reads itself on the claims of men. When Van Baren proved untrus, they cut him off as a diseased member, and when, at a more recent period, another Democrat proved referent, it remained for the period another Democrat proved referent, it remained for the party faithful to its instinct, to remain a special member, and when, at a more recent period, another Democrat proved referent, it remained for the period another Democrat proved referent, it remained for the period, another Democrat proved referent, it remained for the period, another Democrat proved referent, it remained for the period, another Democrat proved referent, it remained for the period, another Democrat proved referent, it remained for the public acts of all public functionaries, and they may hold them responsible through the source and vitt hem. The people's representatives had the right to question the secret and public acts of all right to question the secret and public acts of all right to question the secret and public acts of all with them. The people's representatives had the right to question the secret and public acts of all with them. The people's representatives had the right to question the secret and public acts of all with them. The people's representatives had the right to question the secret and public acts of all with them. The people's representatives had the right to question the secret and public acts of all with them. The people's representatives had the right to destine the source that the secret and public acts of all with them. The people's representatives had the right to question the score tand public acts of all with them. The people's representatives had the right to question the score tand public acts of all with them. The people's representatives had the right to d for another committee of conference on the Post Office deficiency bill.

The Pracident sent a message notifying the House that he had signed certain bills, including that making appropriations for civil expenses, with a protest against a clause designating Capt. Meigs to superintend the expenditure of half a million dollars for the completion of the Washington Aqueduot. He does not believe it was the intention of Congress to interfers with the constitutional right of the President, as commander-in-chief of the samp, to order Captain Meigs elsewhere, and asserts his authority to send him away to superintend the crediton of fortifications or other works. It was evident to him that Congress intended not thing more than to express a decided opinion that Capt Meigs should be continued in simultaneous to OREGON. OREGON:

The dates from Oregon are to the 28th at