Newstead Abbey.- (Last Article.) There were numerous, monastic houses in Nottinghamshire, belonging to various orders, being known as Hospitallus or the Brothers of St. John of Jerusalem-Minorites, Cermeli enedictines, Carthusians, Augustinians, Franciscans, and Gilbertines. Newstead was one of the thirteen priories existing in Notting hamshire at the time of the dissolution of the Monasteries. It belonged to the order of St.

Augustine.
