The News. The latest foreign news-three days later-in The latest foreign news—three days later—is brought by the Ciry of Washington, which arrived off Cape Race yesterday. A terrible massacre of the Obristians had taken place at Damasons, Syria. The Dutch consul was killed while the American consul scaped with a wound. Naples is still the theatre of war. A conflict had taken place between the Neapolitan troops and the Sicilians, resulting in the death of several of the later. Garieldi had issued a proclamston sevent the Routhons and in favor of Victor against the Bourbons and in favor of Victor Emmanuel. It had created intense excitement. The ther news is unimportant.

The Secession candidate for the Vice Presidency, Gen. Jo LANE, of Oregon, as he is familiarly called, is confessedly and notoriously ncompetent. He possesses not a solitary mental or moral qualification, to entitle him to a moment's consideration, in connection with either the first or second offices in the gift of the American people. His statesmanship is as defective as his grammar, and his grammar is bad enough, in all conscience, as everybody knows. And yet "Jo", is conceded to he Mr. Brchanan's first choice, not for the Vice Presidency, but for the Presiden cy-itself. "Jo" is the man, who, above all others, the distinguished "old public funcionary" now in possession of the White House would be glad to own and welcome as his successor. New York. One of the great city railroad charters has been summarily disposed of by the Supreme Court, and the remaining grants will doubtless share the same fate. An ir junction restraining the Gridiron Company from any further proceedings, and also restraining the corporation of New York from furthering that scheme, was granted a day or two since, and will be argued on the first Monday in September. All the best talent of the Kew York par has been retained in this case, on the one side or the other. The general impression is that the Gridireners will be defeated, or that the case will he so engineered in court as to be kept there until he meeting of another State Legislature.

The commerce in dogs is quite animated. Up to yesterday 3.067 of the brutes had been delivered at the dog pound, and drowned at an expense of $751 75 Dog brokers keep cribs full of dogs, brought to them by boys, and paid for at a considerable reduction, which are turned over to the pound keeper at stated times The Uity Marshal eceptly paid one of these brokers $37, which was the premium money for 148 dogs. 🕠
