ARRIVALS AT THE PRINCIPAL HOTELS.

On The Boston, was at Holmes' Hole 30th ult. Add a typed again to the Evergiade, laten, hence for Boston, arrived at Holmes' Hole 20th ult. Add and Hotels NO NWKo are the Drusest Gray, St Louis New York this week's New York bank statement:

The bank statement for the past week shows a larger smount of loans, which was not anticipated. The export of cotton to Europe has now abated, and we can look for new bills on Furope from Southern cities Specie must therefore form a large portion of the foreign exports for some weeks to come. The loans of the city banks are now ten millions in excess of the latter part of July, 1859. Nearly all the principal European Governments are in the market for fresh loans, and the English and Continental markets exhibit no stability. England, Franceand Russia will be borrowers again this year, and large sums are required for India These circumstances point to the urgent necessity for greater caution on the part of our moneyed institutions

Compared with the preceding week the bank as no 1, called, who has introduced sin into the world.

In regard to fees will, the Druse theology maintains that the length of overy man's life is fore-ordained, but not his individual sots. They believe in the transmigration of souls, and say that the soul of Ismail was once in John the Baptlet, and still curiler in Elijah, while that of Hamsa once dwelt in the body of Jesus. Yet, while sook nowledging that Jesus once existed, they do not think that he was in any way divine, as the individual soul which lived in him and in many others did not receive divine power till it resched the body of Hamsa. The Druses do not extend their transmigration doctrines so far as to allow that human souls ever exist in the forms of animals—they think that the souls of men go on, inhabiting different bodies—with the exception of a very few, whose excellence permits them to exert a pure spirit—until the resurrection day, when the faithful will be resolved for cernity into appriring heigh, but by far the greater portion of mankind will be annihilated.

If the Druses live up to the seven command. Compared with the preceding week the bank the results are as follows: Bate. Losns Specie. Circulation, Deposits. 370 761 500 374 474 101 1860.... 129 074,000 23,099 700 5,760,000 84,284,000 will be annihitated.

If the Druses live up to the saven commandments in which they express their moral laws, they would not be so dreaded and so cruel a people, for murder, their, covetosaness, and cruelty are probibiled as special crimes, and chastity, honesty, meskness and mercy are regarded as high virtues—re high, unfortunutely, that the present Druse generation cannot reach them. The men have but one wife each, the form of government is partiarchal, different tribes having a Sheik, and agriculture is carefully attended to. No marriages are contracted outside of the sect, and the Druses adhere tenaciously to their religious traditions. All the male population is trained from youth to serve in war, and the Druses have more than once revolted against the Turkish Government, which holds nominal sway over them. Yet, of late years, they Philadelphia Stock Exchange Sales, against the Turking covernment, which noise nominal sway over them. Yet, of late years, they have been regarded as a peaceful and quiet people, and were disabusing their neighbors of the traditional opinions as to their ferocity and cruelty, until the great Christian messacre of this summer prove that their unenviable hotoriety was not without a just foundation. with the many features in their own approximating to the Christian religion, it appears somewhat trange that the Druss abould marifest such family and the common of the c without a just foundation.

With so many features in their own approximating to the Christian religion, it appears somewhat strange that the Druses should manifest such fleedish barbarity as they have recently done. But to them, strong montheists as they are, the decirines of polytheism are peculiarly reputeive. In the ceremonics of the Chreek and Roman churches they perceive what they think to be a worship of more than one god; they do not comprehend the relations of the three persons in the Trinity, and especially fail to understand the interpretation of the material symbols hold in such veneration in those churches. The Protestants of Syrla, whose religion does not present those features, would probably share better if the Druses understood more about them; but the Protestants, as well as the Greeks and Catholics, all come under the general head of Christians, and as such fall beneath the indistriminating fury of these fanatics. waged between the Druses and the Maconites. The latter people are native Christians, followers of a mook celled Maron, who lived in the sixth century. In 1215 they eff eted a usion with the Church of Rome, from which they have never wieldly differed, though their epiritual head is called the Patriarch of Antical instead of Bishop. It is no new thing for the Druses to make war against the Maronites, and the attacks renewed upon these native. Christians were but the commencement of a general movement to extirpate all Christians in Byria. Alroady, others besides the Maronites have been involved in the terrible effects of this fanaticism, and, unless it is soon stopped, the aim of the murderers will be achieved —N. Y. Evs. Post. co. The market continues firm, but we hear o New York Stock Exchange-July 31. Missouri is pretty certain for Douglas. Senator Green has backed out, and now goes for Douglas. Says the St. Louis Democrat: "The dictator of the Missouri Democracy—the Missouri Reguldican—annonnees the submission of Sena or Green. It says that he has openly performed 'Actao' somewhere in the interior, by pledging himself in a public meeting to support the Douglas State ticket. This is the greatest conquest which our despotic contemporary has yet achieved. Senator Green has been the head and front—the rock and strong tower of the Breckfurldge mevement in this State. Through his instrumentality, mainly were Hancock Jackson and Mooree Parsons put on the track against Claib Johnson and Reynolds. The Sonator's defection, therefore, is the greatest discouragement which could possibly befall that movement in Missouri." nt $5 x 6 10 for superfine State; $5 10 x 6 50 for x knod do; $6 485 x 6 for superfine Western; $5 50 x 6 50 for common to mer'um extra "0: $6 10 x 6 50 for snippine b ands of extra round, drop Ohio. 8 uthern Four is du land heave, with sales o 1 500 bb's, at $6.90 x 2 superfine B ltimore; $5 50 x 6 50 for Knod wine; $6 50 x 6 50 for Knod wine; and at $6 x 6 for superfine. Lond Lyons in Philadelphia —Lord Lyons, the British minister, passed through Philadelphia yesterday morning on his road to Canada, whither he goes for the purpose of paying his respects to the Prince of Walos. His lordship made a very brief stay in the city, only waiting long snough to select for himself a handsome suit of clothes at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 633 and 656 Cheatnut street, above Sixth. He excressed great astonishment at the vaset and splendid took of clothing for gentle men and youths kept on band at this famous establishment. $300 to $300 per mile; the remaining 6; miles is ever the bettems of the Trempaleau and Black and bridging. This road, when completed, will be the farthest road north on the river, and will be the principal entlet for the grain of two-thirds of bole State of Minnesota, besides taking nearly all the winter travel and freight both ways. It would be well for the business interest of Chicago to watch this movement, since, if it should get under the control of Milwaukee, the last opportunity Chicago would have for a term of years to ge
