Thomas Hood -- No. IV. Heod, it may be remembered, resided i Scotland, for the benefit of his health, while yet in his teens. He did not again revisit that until September, 1848, eighteen months before his death. His son says : " My father was received with open arms by the Scotch, and, having a little Scotch blood in him, was not slow in meeting their advances He used at hotels always to go into the publi coffee-room, where his genial disposition and courtesy invariably got him a good reception. I dare say there are many still living who remember that thin, serious looking gentlemen who often set the table 'in a roar' by an noexpected turn or a dry remark, and who was so fond of a certain brown-skinned urchin, much given to the devouring of books. To any such, I take this opportunity of returning my thanks for the great and unvarying kind ness I met with wherever I went, for the sake of my father. Nor shall my thanks cease with that early period. Up to this present hour, for the same reason, the mere mentioning o my name, in any part of England, has ever in sured me a welcome, such as people are wont to give when they recognize in a stranger th son of an old and valued familiar friend. Washington, August 2, 1860. The grand scheme of Disunion in the South, fos-tered by the influence and patrouage of the present Administration, is assuming from day to day a bolder front. The Charleston Mercury shadows forth, in a ritiole disguised union the title of "Gilmera" of the Fature," the scheme of the organization of the "Southern Confederacy," to be composed of six States—conton States—to be "precipitated into revolution" upon the electron of a Republican President. Atlanta, Georgia, is to be the seat of government Mr. M., (Memminger,) of South Carolina, is to be President, and Mr. Y., (Yancey,) of Alabama, the Vice President and

Here we have high treason openly declared. These traitors want to soil the country to its bitterest enemies. They want to deliver us into the clutches of despotic powers. They already dream of being rewarded for their treachery by those Governments with titles of barons, counts, marquises, lords, etc. Would to God we had a Jackson in our Presidential chair! Aaron Burr's attempt at revolution and secession was less open and developed, and yet he was arrested and tried for high treason at Richmond, and died afterwards in exile. That agent, whoever he may be, and those who sent him out, ought to be dealt with in a similar manner. We have ropes enough for all the traitors and disunionists.

10e of The Fress, 1 Look Haven, Pa., July 31, 1860. The general topic of conversation here is the iction of the Convention which met last week is Harrisburg. All the leading Democrats who are in favor of the regular candidates of the regular National Convention sustain the action of the Harrisburg Convention as the wisest and most con istent course that could have been pursued. Sustaining the regular Convention and its candidates, they could not set an example of irregularity; not eing disorganizers, they could not set an example on the results and disorganishing of amples; for with all due deference it is submitted that after the proceedings at Baltimers and in the fitted Central Committee, that the place of transfer. larity could not be used against us by the supporters of the Bushanan Disunion ticket. The men who support Breckinridge and Lane in this county are few and far between. . Our ex-Con Al. White, is circulating, I am told, the peoches of Humphrey Marshall and B. F. Hallett at the Breckinridge meeting in Washington. It may not be out of place to call the attention of caders into whose hands these speeches may find their way, that Humphrey Marchall is the Know Nothing Representative of the Louisville district, which was only carried for him by the burning of Irish and German men, women, and children. And Benjamin F. Hallett, who is fraudulently put forth as the author of the Cincinnati platform what claim has he upon the Democracy?, He was enudiated, by the present Administration when robes hung fresh upon it; has been rejected by any. The only difficulty with the Democracy here is and edited by H. L. Diffenhach, in sustaining. the action of the State Central Committee, while it floats the flag of Douglas and Johnson. The only explanation for his course is the supposition that he prefers a Disunionist to a consistent Demotrat, and hopes thereby to throw the election into the Senate. But the scheme has already been renudisted by the storling Democracy, and before the first of September, an electoral ticket, clean and pure, in favor of Douglas and Johnson, and in the history of Israel stands pre-eminent for conored principles and the nominees of the party. The prospect of Foster's success is growing still tronger. Thank Heaven! there is no division of the Democracy on that subject. Mark the predic-tion—Clinton county will give a greater majority or Douglas and Foster than she did for Buchana or Packer. Yours truly, Speaking of pugilism, naturally suggests gambling. Stories have frequently been told of men who have gone into fare banks, won five and ten thousand dollars in a night, and walked off with the property. An instance of this sort has just been told me by an inspector of police. A few evenings since a young man from Virginia, apparently not more than eighteen years of age, went with a friend to the most extensive of the gambling hells in this city. After partaking of the samptious suppor always served at those places, he commenced playing fare, and in a short time, by boldness and luck, won ten thousand dollars. He asked the banker to change his "chips" for money, which was done, and he went away without stopping a moment or uttering a word. He has not entered the place since, nor has he been seen in the city. It is understood he left for home, next morning. He is said to have exhibited no trace of agitation, no clation at the tide that sets os steadily in his favor, nor was there apparent in his features the peculiar expressions coasily detectable in the face of the professional player. That this young man will become a habitual gambler can scarcely be doubted. So large a sum so easily won will be sure to lure him on again.

Mr. J. N. Bonaparte has been in town for a few days, but left in the steamer Africa, for Liverpool, yesterday. He received last week, from Paris, a despatch desiring his immediate appearance in that capital. It has been intimated that negotiations are pending for an aminable and satisfactory adjustment of all the domestic difficulties existing between the Patterson Bonapartes and other branches of the original Bonaparte tree.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE CHRISTIAN UNION. A Baptist cotemporary, this week, devotes a column editorial to the subject of Christian union, as it has been sought to be developed within the last two years, in which 'it argues this: That there are no instruments of union, which it is safe to use, but those which are supplied by the Word and Spirit of God. That it supplied by the Word and Spirit of God.
