PREPARED GLUE. A DOG STORY!

Section of the sectio WE ADVERTISE TO-DAY A NEW STYLE OF GLUE, which must be needed in every house. This is reported to be the identical Glue with which the man reported to be the identical vine with which the man slued the dog together after he (the dog-not the man) had split himself in two halves by running against a sharp post while in pursuit of a rabbit. It is related of this unfortunate dog, that he was stuck together with two legs up and two down, and remained so for the rest of his life; albeit he was a more durable dog than before this slight accident, because while he was running on two logs the other two were resting, and he had only to flop over on the rested legs, and go ahead afresh. This nly shows that care should be taken in sticking things

WHAT BRECKINGIDGE WAS IN 1866. I made speeches from the same stand with John Breckinridge, in 1856, when he was advocating sown claims to the Vice Presidency, and heard C. Drockinnages in 1255, when he was advocaning his own claims to the Yice Presidency, and heard him go to extribute its in favor of popular ave-roignty in the Territorics. And then, again if I resolicet aright, the Democrats of New Hampshire held a monster mass meeting as this aspital, in Maroh. 1856, provides to the nominasize at Oir-olanati, at which Haweil Cobb and Joseph Lane and James L. Ørr, of South Carolina, made apocohes. In every one of, these speeches: they advocated quatter sovereignly, in its broadest sense.
