In some Southern States, unless this com-bination is made, the Disunionists will be triumphant. These complications add much feeling to the contest. They revive the old Henry Clay party all over the South, and they give solid en-couragement to that new class of Democrats who have at last plucked up courage to do battle against have at last plucked up contage to do battle against the fire-caters.

There never was a set of men so utterly defeated, upon their own theory, as the Dismionists. They cannot complain that, for the Douglas men to unite with the Americans is for the Douglasites to endorse Know-Nothingism; for have they not tried to rally all the Southern people to their Dismion banner, Americans as well as Democratic. Did they not vete for an American for Speaker of the last House? and is not one third of their electoral ticket in New Jersey composed of Americans? They danket complain if, having called upon the with the Douglas Democrats to rid the country of the Breckinfidge party. Never were men so com-pletely prostrated by their dwif logic. Never was ongineer so hoisted by his own petard. The effect of, these movements in the South upon the ew weeks will show. I allude to these circu stances not as a partisan, but to show how fully late at Charleston; and since their overthrow ther and at Baltimore, I told you that the Southern people would, as their eyes were opened to the designs of the Dismionists, rise and drive them

The ILLADELPHIA, Aug. 44, 1869.

And DRAM Sife. I have just received your favor of the 7th inst., advising me, officially, of my nomination as the candidate of, the Constitutional Union party of this city, for the office of Recorder of Deeds, though I had previously ascertained the fact through the public press and numerous friends. I recognise most gratefully the compliment conferred upon me, the more deeply, as it was mind peeted and unsought, and occurs after the expiration of ten years of laborious official duty, during which it was my earnest endeavor to faithfully and donrecously perform eyery legal requirement.

Be good enough to say to the gentlemen of the Convention, (among whom I recognize many of our most worthy and particitic citizens), that the principles of their party are those to which I ever have given, and shall give, my most carnest support, and that I cheerfully accept the nomination thus made, pledging myself—if the people should confirm their choice—to perform the duties of the office in such a manner as to merit, the approbation of all my fellow-citizens.

With many thanks for the kindly way, you anin such a manner as to ment the approbation of all my fellow-citizens.

With many thanks for the kindly way you announce my nomination to me, permit me to subscribe myself, very truly, your friend and fellow-citizen.
