A HEAR STORY FROM BUTTE COUNTY.—A correspondent of The Batte (California) Record, witting from Inskip, on July 17, rays: "On the 16th, four or five grisulies appeared at the ranch of Eliza Perry (which is located dree or six miles above Inskip, on the west branch of Feather River.) and, after killing one of her young cattle, commoned their gluttenous feast on lit carcass. This was too outrageous for Eliza to winess unmoved; her blood was up, and she did not wait to calculate the chances. She leveled her rifle on one of the largest among them, and butled a ball in his spine, which sent him spinning to the ground; but soon with horrid coreams he partially registed his feet, and made a furious charge on his petiticated fee; but before he got near enough to touch the brave woman, she had reloaded her rifle, and sent another leaden inessenger into his corpus to do its work, nor did she desist until her eighth ball penetrated, the large beast, which proved to be his quietus, and he fell dead, while his companions sought safety amid the horrent hills. There is quite a contrast between this occurrence and one that hancened last's work at Crane Valley, when quite a contrast between this occurrence and one that happened last week at Grane Valley, when two or three grisalies went to a Dutchman's ranch at night, and stirred up an excitement among his cattle. He went out with three navy revolvers, and shot one of his own calves eighteen times, killing it to doed that it emelled bad in a 'minit,' while the criticalies were standing round looking at making the following contretemps:

"The Rev. James Thompson, rector of St. Andrew's Church, preached to a large concourse of people on Sunday last. This was his lest sermon. In a few weeks he will bid farewell to his congregation, as his physicians advise him to cross the Atlantic. His exhibited his hrethrin and siters, and after the explication of a devous prayer, took a whim to tat up some frantic freaks. He ran up Timothy street to Johnson, and down Benefit street to Collage. At this stage of the proceedings, a comple of boyalesized him, tied a tin kettle to his tail, and he again started. A great-crowd collected, and for a time there was a grand scene of noise, running, and confusion. After some trouble, he was shot by a Jersey policeman."

Miss. ABRY BARBER, a young woman residing with her mother, in Mossup, Ot, went out with a female-companion Tuesday afternoon, for the purpose of gathering hockleborries in a neighboring field. After, they had set out on their return, Miss Barber remarked that she had lost her handkerchief, and search was instituted, which resulted in finding her lifeless body in the woods some distance beyond the field where the berries were gathered. She was lying upon her back, with her. handkerchief prossed closely mon her broast. No. marks of violence were perceptible, except a sight mark upon her neck and one on the wrist. Three gold rings were missing from her fingers, and a set of upper teeth secured in a gold piste. Miss Barber was twenty-four years of age, and was employed as an operative in one of the mills.
