State Sentinel, of yesterday, puts an offensive question to us in reference to the sincerity.o our support of Mr. Donoras, based upon an editorial which appeared in this journal, rebuking a mendicant paper, owned by the officials in this quarter, which attempted to deny the correctness of a report of the speech of General Fostur at Somerset, published in The Paras, in which he placed himself upor the Douglas platform. The Sentiael, its owners and its editors, ought to know whether we are sincere in what we say or do. We have no explanations nor apologies to make either for our opinions or our preferences As to Mr. Forres, while we shall hall his elec tion with great pleasure if he adheres to the general doctrines of his Somerset speech, we shall oppose, him as we would our bitteres enemy if he backs from that speech or lend himself to the shameless practices of the Federal officers, here or elsewhere, who are attempting to chest the Democracy of Pennsylvania with their fusion electoral ticket.

The example of the Opposition in selecting such gentlemen for Congress, has had, I perceive, an excellent effect upon the Democrate, who are everywhere, through the free States especially, putting forward their best men. The neminations of William E. Lehman in the States especially, putting forward their best men. The neminations of William E. Lehman in the Kline in the Third, P. Frazer Smith in the Skyth, and wis. That platform, adopted by the Democracy and ratified by the people of the United States in No vember following, by the election of Mr. Buchan-an, now stands as the unimpeached creed of the Democratic party, until some supreme judicial tribunal, having equal authority, shall res Gov. Mr. Florence, indeed, is a west-informed, clear-headed, and very sensible gentle-man. He has a habit of crossing his Irishmen with the Dutch—so to say—and, therefore his stage Irishman is not equal to Barney's. He wants a little abandon in his brogue, which, at present, is tinged with a Dutch flavor. But he may get but of this, for he is young, has brains, and he have better the latter than the latter the surjection of the surjection of the market for sixed the whole Union as the market for which the Federal Union rests. Her history has and firm foreign policy. Pennsylvania de-sired the whole Union as the market for her manufactures. She commanded, besides, the she was as great, if not a greater, State than any other one in the Confederacy.

He invited attention to the startling fact that during the last few years the arm of the Federal Government had been paralyzed, so that it his failed to perform the duties for which it was created. [A large delegation here, arrived from Middletown, with music and transparencies, with motices such as "Douglas, the Young Hickory;" "We go for the Little Giant;" "Non-intervention will keep the negro out of Congress,". They were received with nine cheers.] Mr. Douglas, in proceeding, said each year the expenditures of the Federal Government had been about twenty million dollars over and above its income. HIL-LIARD---THE MEW YORK BRECKINRIDGE LEADERS AT WASHINGTON: TO BE HERE TO MORROW: FU-SION TALK—PINALE OF GREAT EASTERN EX-PENSES—EXPORTS POR AUGUST., NEW YORK. September 7, 1860. Correspondence of The Press.)

The politicians and presses that have indulged in excessive facetiousness about the proposed visit of Judge Douglas to his mother, will be gratified te learn that the much-talked-of jaunt is about to be taken—the Daily News of this morning having authoritatively announced that the distin-guished candidate of the Democracy for the Presi-

Breckinridge, believing him to be the choice of a majority of the Democracy of Alabama. He was, however, and is, not only friendly to Judge Douglas, differing in that respect allegather from the fire-easiers of that State, but admits that the Judge has been very badly treated by the Southern Democracy Mr. Hilliard shares in none of the extreme views of Mr. Yanosy and the Seconfordies. Telegraphic despatches this morning from Washington announce the presence there of Gidsen J. Tucker, John A. Green, U. B. Marahai Howe, and a few other notable lyaders of the Breckinridge. lucker, John A. Green, O. S. Marana Howe, and a few other notable haders of the Breekinridge faction. The object of their pilgrimage is various. It stated by different correspondents. The real object is to obtain the consent of the Administration to a fusion—with the Douglas Union men on the best terms the latter are willing to concede. The Breekinridge men are so rapidly running away from their leaders that no reliance can be placed your their coming to the exercise on the placed upon their coming to the acraich on the day of election. Mr. Dickinson's anderstood to be the chief obstacle in the way of a satisfactory adjastment. That gentleman went off at half-cocky in some of his speeches, and he finds his day of election. Mr. Dickinson'is didested to be the chief obstacle in the way of a satisfactory adjustment.
