PRILADELPRIA, Registrates 38, 1868.
There was a dail stock market to-day. Reeding breds and shares improved a fluction, and did also the mining stocks, but city loans and Pennylvania Raifread stock were dell at a smail decline. For other in estiment securities prices remain steady, though the sales are light.
There is no change to note in the money market. The supply is postful and prime propries soid without dis-suity, as fast as it appears on the street, at from 8 to 7 percent. The same indesposition to speculate, which appears in the stock market, affects minetary transvoided, despite every temptation of terms.

REFORTED BY S. E. SLATMARER. 3146 Welmat Street He purtued this subject at great length, declaring that he supported the Republican nomines, not because of their views on the Territoriti question, but because they can be relied on to prevent the opening of the slave trade, and because they support the principle that free States are better than slave States.

These latter sentiments were greeted with much applicance.

That gentleman, by his votes in Congress, has proven his devotion to the interests of Pennsylvania. He complimented the local nominees. He was certain that the people, by their action in Outober, would show their determination of rebuking Black Republicanism in November. The speaker criticised with great force the course of the Opposition. Mr Owen concluded amid a perfect roar of applicans.
