The News. The Canada brings later news from Europe, bu nothing of special import. The report that the Austrian army had crossed the Mincio is denied officially. Sardinia had released the French soldiers of the Papal army and sent them to their homes. The rumor that Mapoleon had intimated a wish to be present at Warsaw was indignantly denied. Garibaldi had promulgated a Sardinian Constitution for Naples and Sielly. The French army was about to receive a six-months furlough. Any lingering hope among the friends of Walke of that chieftain's escape from execution will be ispelled by the latest news from Havana, detailing

The startling statement is made that he confessed his raid on Monduras to be wrong The Prince of Wales is now at the capital of the American nation, the guest of President Bu-chausu. He was received at Harrisburg, the sapital of Pennsylvania, by the Governor of the State. The speech of Governor Packer on the co-casion of welcome was worthy of his own reputation for elequence, and eminently worthy of the Governor of Pennsylvania. The Prince was secorted through the various departments of State Government, and after a ride along the Susque hanns, and a view of all the sights, he proceeded to Bultimore. The reception here was merely of a formal character, as the Prince passed directly through to Washington, where he was received by Secretary Cass. on behalf of the President, and escorted to the White House. He will be the quest

The day upon which the ceremony took place was the birthday of the Princess, who has just entered her fifteenth year, having been born on the 29th of July, 1845, and is consequently nearly four and a half years younger than the il-lustrious Prince of Wales, born in November, 1841, who is now agitating the Northern limit of the necessary repairs. We think the palm is clearly due to Harrisburg, Pa., for the most entirely republican and appropriate reception which has yet been ex-tended to the heir apparent of the English throne. The whole affair seems to have been managed with signal good taste, and good sense. Governor PACKER's short address to the Prince was not only pointed and beautiful, but full of significance; and the liberality with which one of the leading Irish citizens of that place acted towards the distinguished guest the Government newspaper at Turin, that cannot be too highly commended. It is a fact GARIBALDI and VICTOR-EMMANUEL have quarworthy of notice—and in expressing this reled—that GARIBALDI demands the dismissal opinion we know we shall not be called upon of Count Cavour and ex-Dictator Farini, to change it before the close of this royal and asks for 80,000 Sardinians to garrison tour-that no portion of our people have acted | Naples. We believe one third of this reportwith more prudence and magnanimity in their namely, that GARIBALDI asks for the dismissal intercourse with Lord REMPERW and his party of FARINI, who interfered so much with him than our adopted citizens of Irish birth.

Ought we not to be ashamed of ourselves, as human beings, to allow any such arguments as these to affect us? It will be a dark hour for this Republic when any citizen, constitutionally elected to the Presidency, cannot be inauguated, and permitted to make a trial in that high office. Our own belief is, that no American can be chosen Chief Magistrate without Edministering the duties of that office in strict untice to all sections of the Union. The Explosion of Steam Boilers. The explosion of a steam boiler at Manarunk yesterday morning is an event full of significant warning, and should awaken the earnest attention of our citizens. This great manufacturing centre contains an immense number of these powerful machines, and it is to be feared that not a few of them are in an unsafe condition, or under the management of engineers who are not at all times as careful as they should be. The explosion of the boilers of stationary engines is beginning to be one of the common accidents of the day. It is not long since a boiler exploded at New York; only a few days ago we published in account of another terrible explosion at chronicle a similar disaster in our own imme-

IFor The Press.!

Mr. Editors: Within the last three years my gas bills have doubled. No change has occurred in my house, nor in my family, nor in our habits, nor in the price per thousand feet of gas, that will account for any increase in the cost of light. The same thing is complained of by my neighbors. The instances known to me are very numerous; I believe they are general. I am not aware of any exceptions. I happen to live in that quarter of the city where the gas is manufactured, and, perhaps, the pressure required to force the gas to the most distant points supplied by the same works, may have had semething to do with the overcharge in my bills. The change has happened since the several gas works have been centralized. If this be one of the counses, the arrangement, or want of arrangement, is just ground of complaint; for it only explains the injury without removing the wrong. Either the gas works ought not to have been thus consouldated, or the measurement and price charged should be equitably adjusted.

VERDICT OF THE CORONER'S JURY.

ALEMY, October 3.—The Democratic State Committee met at one o'clock. Samgel F. Batterworth attended on behalf of the Union men of New York eity, and Alderman Dayton, of Brooklyn, represented the Union men of Kings county.

The proposition for placing six Union electors on the Douglas toket to fill vacancies, and for putting Henry B. Randall on for elector at large, appeared perfectly acceptable to the State Committee, provided that the parties thus placed on the ticket will accept and declare themselves favorable to fusion. THE LATE MURDER CASE IN THE NINE-them until the final result of the union question is known.

There seems little doubt that a union will be effected, with Mr. Bronson as elector-at-large, and Messrs. Brower. Westervelt, Enterworth, and three ethers on the electoral ticket.

Albary, Oct. 2—Evening.—The Union ticket has been finally formed. Green C. Bronson has been substituted for Henry S. Randall, elector-at-large. The Deuglas State Committee has also endorsed the fuelon. Wm. C. Orane, of Herkimer, has been substituted for Wm. F. Allen for Lieutenant Oovernor.

Mr. Greene professes a determination to oppose the ticket, and Mr. Brady will stump the State in opposition.

The staircase of the mill is located near where the explosion occurred, and the will was instantly enveloped in steam. The operatives, imagining the mill on fire, attempted to escape by the windows. One of them, Miss Alice Brown, imped from a window and broke her leg. Rolls of cloth were flung from the windows, and the boys slid down them to the ground.

Of course, the pruic among the relatives of the operatives was great, and mothers frantically searched for their children, wives for their husbands, and brothers and sisters for each other, making up a scope of excitement and confusion. Pieces of iron and stone were blown clear into the Schnylkill, and the force of the explosion and the buildings in the vicinity. The machinery within the mill was also somewhat damaged. The loss has not been correctly estimated yet, but it will be between $3,000 and $4,000. The operations of the mill will be temporarily suspended. Mot at Independence Square at 7 o'clook. It was composed entirely of citizens, many of whom had never before paraded. They were chiefly acceptance, tradesmen, shopkeepers, etc. A large number were gray haired, yet shouldered a lantern and made the march with the alacrity and enthusiasm of boys. They congregated in the square, distinguished by a paper badge bearing the motto,

"PRINCIPLES NOT MERCHANDISE." THOMAS J. ARMSTRONG COMMITTED AS THE MURDERER.

Last evening, the coroner's jury, investigating the case of the murder of Robert Orawford, on Friday week last, met sgain at the Nineteenth, ward station-house. Several companions of the prisoner, Armstrong, were examined, but they shed little or no light upon the tragical coursence. Another witness, however, named Maurlee B. Murphy, was produced, who saw the wagon on the night of the murder, in the vicinity of the spot united in expression and similitude a so-berness of purpose more impressive than all the rought of the murder, in the vicinity of the spot was more independ in expression and similitude a so-berness of purpose more impressive than all the took particular notice of it, for the reasons given in his testimony below. Since the arrest of Armstrong, Murphy has visited Vanseiver's livery stable, and, unnided, ploked out the identical wagon which had been hired by Armstrong on the evening in question, and also identified a horse estending in the stable as boing the one which was attached to the wagon he saw on the night of the murder.

The coroner's jury have given the subject a very state that could be done has been done to huntury testimony, which would either fasten the guilt in question, with chickens in their possession, have been robbed of any chickens within the past ston, with chickens in their possession, have been advertised for, and search made in every direction for persons answering their description, the next ovening discharged, and the discrepancy in the regard to the kind of money he paid for a pair of new boots on the day after the murder. And minor organizations met at the several head-quarters at an early hour in the evening. To supply the large number of these olubs, every band of music in the city was engaged. The consumption of fluid was very great. One club on Oheetnut street required more than sixty gallone. At 8 o'clock every street in the city was blazing with light and quivering with music. Toward north Broad street the entire array was tending; crowds of people had already assembled in the street; ladies arrayed themselves in the most attractive evening garb, and the residents of avennes over which the procession was to pass found themselves overrun with friends. The state of EXPLOSION OF A BOILER AT MANAYUNK.

—Yesterday morning, shortly before 8 o'clock, one of a range of five boilers, which had recently been placed in the yarn and Kentucky jean manufactory of Messrs. R. W. & J. Presson, at Manayunk, exploded with a tremendous report. The factory is situated on the banks of the Echuylkill, and there are between 200 and 300 operatives employed to it. The hands had just about got to work when the explusion occurred, and a terrible panic ensued, though fortunately unattended with serious consequences.

The boilers were situated in a small engine house, detached from the main building, and the head of the boiler in the direction pointing away from the manufactory was blown out. The steam from the whole range instantly eccaped, while the origine-house was blown into ruins. The exploded boiler was flung from its position and allighted upon a wagon stan dug in the yard waiting for a lead. The fireman, James Rutherford, was attending to the fires at the moment of explosion. He was terribly soalded, and crawled out from under the ruins with hardly a stitch of clothes eu-they had been torn off by the steam. His injuries may prove fatal. A BUSY SCRNE.—The splendid wareroche of Messis. Charle: Oakford & Sons, under the Continental Hotel, under the genial influence of yesterday addinatiful atmosphere, presented an interesting speciacie. From early in the morning until night their golite attendants, in their several departments, were been writtendants, in their several departments, were been without comers, and we doubt if there were ever more compliments raid to a single stock in one day than their elegant new fall goods elicited yesterday. Their ladies' shoes and misses' huts were particularly admired, and the fair of our city have evidently embraced the idea that in these articles Oakfords have this season, as last, carried off the palm. Every day is now making great additions to their already magnificent display, their facilities in Europe being such that every new thing out is shipped to them by their agents abroad at the earliest moment. It is this that makes Oakfords among merchents with the Press is among newspapers—Liwatz Aukad.
