THE GREAT BALL. NEITHER & FAILURE NOR A SUCCESS.

An Alarm, and Almost an Accident.

We continue our chronicle of the journey of the Prince of Wales, and his adventures in New York

A LUNATIC ASSAULTS THE PRINCE

A LURATIC ASSAULTS THE PRINCE. A noteworthy insident occurred. A orasy Eng-lishman had taken a position near the front door, and became quite bolsterous, shaking his fats at the Frince, and threatened to shoot or kill him. He declared the Prince would never be King of England if he lived to be a hundred years old; that the democracy of England would never allow it. The man became so disorderly and threatoning that Officer Rhodes, of the Eighteenth ward, inter-fored and arrested him, taking bim to the Jeffor-son Market Police Court, before Justice Connolly. The prisent gave his name as Edward Moncarn. After, this semewhat exciting episode, the royal party, having entered the carriages, drove off, amid the wathustatic cheers of the multitude. HE VISITS THE HESTITUTIONS. The Prince, diving Friday morings, visited the University, where Chancellor Ferris made as speech. The Wenn's Library, the Law School, the Astor Library; the Geoper Institute, and the Free Aca-demy, at which places speeches were made and appropriate welcomes extended to the Prince. He also, visited Cantral Park, planed an English oak and an Amorican elm, and heard a speech. He also visited Mayor Wood's residence, where he partook of a lunch in company with James Gordon Bennett, Sr. James Gordon Bennett, Jr., and other distin-guished people. The royal party then visited the Beaf and Dumb Asylum. The Prince was residred by Dr. Poet, and seemed highly gratified with the cratefies of the supplie. A ride to the High Bridge followed, when the whole party returned to the city by water, on the steamer Trampeter. THE BALL. AR VISITS THE INSTITUTIONS. hundred in the county, and this year Gen. Foster ought to have had at least that much. But the truth is, a great many did not know he was a can-didate. Our last County Convention acted like dumb dogs, and did not mention anybody, endorse any man, or assert any principle. The result is seen. About nine hundred of the rank and file naturally enough thought the Democratic organi-sation had been abandoned, and they joined the enemy. In 1859, Judge Hale beat White about 1,800 votes; this fall his majority over Fleming is over 2,000! Truly this district is getting no better fast. [The result in Lycoming is still further explained by the following letter to Chairman Welsh :] WILLIAM H. WHLSH, Chairman of the Democratio StateComputation city by water, on the steamer Trampeter. THE BALL. On Friday evening the great ball took place in the Academy of Music. This was intended to be a magnificent affair, and neither pains nor expense were spined to make it worthy of the city, and the city's royal guest. Twenty-eight, hundred invita-tions were insued, becides, three hundred compli-mentary to distinguished citizens. The decora-tions were catentationally magnificent.

dence of The Press.] WILLIAMSFORT, Oct. 12. Now that the election is over, which has ended so disastrously to the Democracy, the inquiry on all sides is, who killed Cock Robin? Some say it was Forney; some say the Dutch, who mostly abandoned our party for their ancient enemies, the Know Nothings; but a vast majority admit it was O. P. F. at Washington. It was J. B. who laid out the Democracy colder than a wedge. To him is due the credit of Republicanizing the entire North, and he will have the pleasure of stopping out of the Whit. out of the White House to make way for Old Abe Lincoln, the rail-splitter. I assure you that Lincoln's Lincoln, the rail-splitter. I assure you that Lincoln's election, by getting the vote of overy froe State, is looked upon as a foregone conclusion here; and lot me add the Democracy of this county will not dis-solve the Union. Neither have stocks nor real es-tate suffered, notwithstanding the portentous threatenings from the South shadowed forth in that late despatch from "Augusta, Ga." SPECIAL NOTTOES. FOR COUGHS, OR FOR ANY DIBEASE OF THE Breathing Organs, use J. R. STAFFORD'S OLIVE TAR and IRON AND SULFHUR POWDERS, which are advertised in this paper. The Olive Tar infuses magnetism or vitality, allaring at once any pain or op-pression, and its great balsamic properties heal soro-ness and inflammation. The Iron and Sulphur Powders, being a soluble preparation, units with the digested lood, and enter with it into the formation of new blood, the iron rotaining the vital or Infa-giving forces in the blood, which in its circulation is diffused through the entire system. The combined sulphur converts the waste or worn-out particles of the blood into gases, which are expelled from the body through its pores, by the increased entery given to the oriculation. It is these wastes or worn-out particles of blood that form phlegm and tuberoles, and it is their actif humor which irritates and destroys the membranes of the throat-bronchial tubes, and air cells of the longs. Armes, Mars Asward Geoper. The Baron left at the end of the 16th dance. APTER. THE REVELEY Numerous pocket-handkerchiefs were picked up-some of great value, worth one hundred dollars, of the costlicaties and ornamentation. Some asked what should be done with them? Some considered them with the police. But, if left with the police, it wis asked, what would become of them? The loss in torn laces of the costlict descrip-tions must have been very great. We do not think, it would be an exageration to say at least 320,000 were lost, as the laces wore by the matrons were of the costlicts Brussels, do., do. The young ladies in founces and flowers often looked like Young America in ruins. Their founces would be trodden upon, and long strings would follow in train. Then flounces would be form (fi and could be picked up in all directions. The fifty-dollar-young-ladies' mulin dressee ans source-it we would be is sort of damage. The beaux, to rescue the bouquets of their part-ners, would clies were.
