THURSDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1860. school Boys THE WEEKLY PRESS, For SATURDAY maxis, is now out, and can be had a the Office, in Transcrip, ready for mailing. It contains man single copy in a complete proceding week. ONTENTS:

- ONTENTS:
- ONTENTS:
- WATERD HERORS - BROKEN

ORIGINAL POETRY.-LINES TO MEMORY. DRIGINAL STORY. SHAROWS OF PASSON: CONTINUED SHOW THE WRENT PRESS OF SEPT. 16.

THE CITY. OUR REPORTER'S VISIT TO THE WISHA-'HICKON': Its LEGENDS, SCHNERY, AND HISTORY-Mastring of the Return Judges—The Contester ELECTION IN THE FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT TRUBGRAPHIC .-- THE LAYEST NEWS BY TELE-COMMERCIAL. WERKLY REVIEW OF THE PHILA-DELPHIA MARKEYS—THE MOREY MARKEY, NEW YORK MARKEY, &c.

MARRIAGES AND DEATHS, &c. THE WEELLY PRESS is furnished to subscribers of per year, in advance, for the single copy, and Chalcot Twesty, when must to one address, $30, in a vance. Single copies for sale at the counter of The Phones Office; in Wrappers, ready for mailing.

FIRST PAGE. - A Dinner in Moscow; Spirit the Southern Press; The Prince of Wales Among the Yankees; George W. Kendall on F. A umsden. Fourth Page.—General News; His-rical Memoranda; Marine Intelligence. The News.

We continue to-day our conde ern journals of their opinions on the recent State ams, it will be seen, very deliberately, and with dignified relactance, avows himself a Disunionist of the Rhett Tancey school. He says that the time the Rheit Tancey school. He says that the time credit of Austria, "for it must be acknowled was a disconant sound, but his views have charged with a gradual change, and he now thinks that the south cannot till safety one sent organization of the empire has shaken the constitute of the confidence of now thinks that the South cannot with safety con-tinue the connection week longer. South Carolina is declared to be a "unit" for secession—as if and the series which may be very safely made. In the meanting, the Washington Star, a journal of the meanting the washington Star, and the meanting the washington the meanting the was

Upon the ability of Austria to fight now mainly rests the great question of peace or war in Europe. That is, upon her pecuniary

There is no knowing what foolish attempts may be made by the Emperor of Austria, ineriting all the obstinacy and pride of his ace, to regain Lombardy, to restore the runaway Grand-Dukes, to bolster up the Papal the UMes, in wrappers, recay for maining. It contains sovereignty, and, perhaps, to restore the fugitive like it is a like it is a contained by the first and the form of the first source of the likely to be a great impediment to all, or any, for weakly paper weblished is better muted for of these attempts. The finances of the Austrans is the sity to sail to their friends out of two, as a sail to go at a complete history of the time. trian Empire are in a dreadful state of confusion, and these complications have brought it next door to bankruptcy. Rothschild and Baring are not likely, under such circum.

stances, to lend any more money to Austria. Should the Empire break up, which is probable enough, the great money-lenders may have to whistle for their debt. TRIBURIAN AND ERGILER — SUB-ATLANTIC COSS Of EXPONDITURE, IS 1300,000,000 norms of the contempt of the contemp lion—and it needs but the signal from Kossuth union. Senator Toombs has felt the public pulse lion—and it needs but the signal from Kossuth union. Senator Toombs has felt the public pulse to do it—the deficit in the Austrian revenue 1661 is calculated at $19,500,000, and at $12,500,000 in the following year. To mend matters, it turns out, according to the official report of the Exchequer Committee of Austria, from which we glean these statistics, that the extraordinary war contribution, which arounts to 22,000,000 foring ($16,000,000).

> that it cannot long be levied. if peace be preserved—about the most doubtind contingency in the world—is dark indeed.
> The Committee is of opinion that the Government cannot, for the time being, calculate on > address, $20, in sadthe counter of The > mailing.
>
> Moscow; Spirit of
> of of Wales Among > sindall on P. A.
> mailing.
>
> Moscow; Histelligence.
>
> Most HisMost Histelligence.
>
> Most HisMost Histelligence.
>
> Most HisMost Histelligence.
>
> Most Histelligence.
>
> Most Histellige

a rather than strengthened the confidence of the and it will require all of their ingenuity to get them out of it. They must do something, having The excess of paper currency in Austria for any thing also while in Meraphis the editors of the Breckining paper there, who is a postmaster, answer whether he will keep his office ander Lincoln. The Breckining man of letters is very indignant, and tells his opposite that their question is impertinent. The Memaphis that their question is impertinent. The Memaphis hand knows what his office is worth, and evident lincoln. If Mr. Lincoln is alsolved President, and has a particle of gratically looks kindly on Lincoln. If Mr. Lincoln is alsolved President, and has a particle of gratical devices of the Reign of Terror, Continental paper money was of the Reign of Terror, Continental paper money was of the same nominal bank-notes and silver are of the same nominal value, silver is at 34 per cent. premium. The stock of the National Loan, issued at 95, is unsaleable at 78. What capitalist will assist that the other thing, which no same man can ever the same model. is alested President, and has a particle of gratitide, the Breckingidge men will be well provided for a his election will be mainly owing to their regative exartions. The carpenters who are making up the Dismion platform are very much
making up the Dismion platform are very much

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDE NCE soner is the first trial, want of identity that the prisoner is the guilty party, and the proof or disproof mostly turns upon a question of "side whitekers."

By Telegraph to The Press. espondence of The Press.] WASHINGTON, October 17, 4860.

The remainder of the Fress.

I have made diligant inquiries respecting probabilists of the street of the South, in the event of Mr. Included that it the mount of South and the street of the South, in the event of Mr. Included that it the mount of South and the street of the South in the event of Mr. Included that it the mount of South in the event of Mr. Included that it the mount of South in the event of Mr. Included that it the mount of South in the event of Mr. Included that it the mount of the Mr. Included that it the mount of the Mr. Included that it the mount of the Mr. Included the Mr. I amounts to 32,000,000 florins ($16,000,000), figures as part of the revenue in the Budget act of disloyalty to the Union. South Carolina act of disloyalty to the Union. or 1861; but the tax is so exceedingly onerous may proclaim that she will join herself to Alahat it cannot long be levied.

The Austrian prospect for the future, even as there is between those two States the vasi if peace be preserved—about the most doubtremark that a satisfactory arrangement of togeneral bellef, do not permit any thought o the internal affairs of the empire, and the consequent restoration of confidence, will do much tewards the restoration of the sunken The excess of paper currency in Austria roared so loudly in the index. I have no doubt as whiskers."

The new Brick Church in Fifth avenue was nearly filled on Monday evening by the parish-ioners and friends of Rev. Dr. Spring, who assembled to witness the presentation of a service of silver by the congregation to their pastor, on the fiftieth anniversary of his pastorate over that church.

county ticket, and her vote makes it certain that the People's party also carry the two Assemblymen in that once strong Democratic district;

OFFICIAL VOTE FOR GOVERNOR,

..,...... 7,153 959 2,230 4,556 6 916 3 034 7,392 1 220 5,247 2 955 2,128

York ... 6.605 5,322 The above returns show a majority for Curtin of 15 440. In the counties yet to be heard from the reported majorities for Curtin amount to about 15,000, making his majority in the State a little over 30,000. SEVENTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT-Official.

10,763 10,620

By Telegraph to The Press.

THE CITY. AMUSEMENTS THIS EVENING. VALUUT-STERET THEATER, Walnut and Ninth sts.-"Shandy Maguire"—"Prince Dilloroso"—"Fairy Cirole, or Whighter Cirole, or Whighter Cirole, or The Robbers"—"The Robbers"—"The Robbers ""The Montover!" a Cywnir (late Gajeties), Raoe street above Second.—"Uncle Tom's Cabin" merons informants, and all parties cognizant with the details of his High School career.

Last evening this gentleman figured in a strange scone at Musical Fund Hall, mournful alike to friends of the High School and his own past oredit.
He was announced as the deliverer of a lecture tupon "Popery" and "Conspiracies" in that institution. Had he confined himself to the topics in question his assertions might have been substantiated, but he made an indiscriminate assault upon a majority of the Board of Control, the High School Committee, the Faculty, and several private gentlemen in ne manner connected with the legitimate arguments of the case. The audience

McDevough's Olympic (late Gaieties), Race street above Scoond.—'Under Town's Cahii''

Concert Hall, Chestnut, street, above Twelfth—
The Wizard of the North, street, above Eighth—Continkertal Theatre, Walnutst, above Eighth—Cararores and Bharpley's Ministrels.

Sanyon's Opera House, Eleventh street, above Chestnut.—Concert nightly.

Romain Lujeane at Musical Fund Hall.

DISGRACEFUL SCENES.

He Argues the Abbilition of the High School.

We gave our ideas yesterday of the individual whose name we have cited, ex-professor in the Contral High School. We had no antipathy to Mr. Lujeane, and but reiterated the sentiment of numerous informants, and all parties cognizant with the details of his High School career.

Lusis evening this gentleman figured in a strange scene at Musical Fund Hall, mournful alike to it riends of the High School and his own past credit. He was announced as the deliverer of a lecture We menuted to the second story, and ware ushered into a commedious room, of rather tories, in a tier, the highest of which approximated uncomfortably filled the room, and the Doctor read the deliverer of the sentiment of numerous informants, and all parties cognizant with the the details of his High School career.

Last evening this gentleman figured in a strange scene at Musical Fund Hall, mournful alike to it riends of the High School and his own past credit. He was announced as the deliverer of a lecture We mently suppersion and the Doctor read to the second story, and ware ushered into a commedious room, of rather love uncomfortably filled the room, and the Doctor read the details of his High School career.

Last evening this gentleman figured in a strange scene at Musical Fund Hall, mournful alike to triends of the High School and his own past credit. He was announced as the deliverer of a lecture We mently altered from Pr. Reynell Cates, Professor of the college building stands had been from Arch street, below fewers had a fewer from Dr. Reynell Coates, Professor of Surgery. The college building stands had

THE FEMALE MEDICAL COLLEGE—OPENing Lecture by De. Reynell Coarse—EncouRading Results.—The question of the medical education of women has been agitated of late, and have been made to establish upon a regular collethe late basis a female medical institution. Pennsylfile plants was the first State in the Union to insugurate the medical education of women, by the chartest time of the Female Medical College of this city, in 1849.

Yesterday the elevant annual session was comcoarsed this afternoon at the church, Girard svenuc, above Hanove street, at three o'clock. Addresses are expected from Rey. Thomas Brainerd, Rev. Dr. Newton, and others.

FIRE.—Between elevan and twelve o'clock yesterday morning, a small frame shed, on Cherry-street wharf, Sohoyikil, was destroyed by fire. It belonged to Charles Cowgill, and was used for boil-ing cement for patent roofing. The fire originated secidentally. FELL OVERBOARD.—Yesterday morning, between nine and ten o'clock, John Sellers fell into the Delaware at Arch-street wharf. He was rescued from drowning, through the exertions of Officer Hickman, of the Sixth ward.

LARCENT OF A SGAWL.—John Molen and John Kelly were arrested at Society and Spring Garden streets, yesterday more by, charged with the larceny of a shawl. They were sent below.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

in the state of th

