

Eye Glass

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 25, 1860.

The Union men of the South... A somewhat careful reading of our Southern exchanges impresses us with the opinion that the Disunionists of the South intend to make a demonstration the moment Mr. Lincoln is declared the victor of the Union States.

It is not necessary to refer to the tone of the Charleston Mercury, the avowed organ of revolutionary secession. The text upon which the echoes of the Mercury propose to act will be found in the extracts.

Thus, South Carolina becomes the leader in the proposed revolutionary secession—the Jackson thirty years ago. Now let us put upon record the Southern journals that follow the lead of the Charleston Mercury.

Mr. Lincoln is elected, we say, with no chance of a re-election. He is, in addition, to be proclaimed a traitor to his country.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE

Letter from "Occasional." (Correspondence of The Press.) October 21, 1860. The comptroller in the Southern States are actively at work. Unquestionable intelligence constrains us to believe that the movement is in progress of secret and rapid formation.

Where do we stand to-day? (For The Press.) Another difficult thing for my Democrat to answer this question, but there is hardly one in Pennsylvania who can answer it with certainty.

Every true-hearted member of the party knows where he would like to stand in the coming contest; but having surrendered the organization to the hands of unprincipled and unwise leaders, matters have become so mixed up, that they say down that, no one now knows what to do.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

THE BOARD OF TRADE EXCURSION.

(Correspondence of The Press.) October 20, 1860. Dean Press: The excursion party leaving Chicago, and passing over the Cleveland, Columbus and Cincinnati route, arrived at New York on Saturday morning.

Where do we stand to-day? (For The Press.) Another difficult thing for my Democrat to answer this question, but there is hardly one in Pennsylvania who can answer it with certainty.

Every true-hearted member of the party knows where he would like to stand in the coming contest; but having surrendered the organization to the hands of unprincipled and unwise leaders, matters have become so mixed up, that they say down that, no one now knows what to do.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

THE BOARD OF TRADE EXCURSION.

(Correspondence of The Press.) October 20, 1860. Dean Press: The excursion party leaving Chicago, and passing over the Cleveland, Columbus and Cincinnati route, arrived at New York on Saturday morning.

Where do we stand to-day? (For The Press.) Another difficult thing for my Democrat to answer this question, but there is hardly one in Pennsylvania who can answer it with certainty.

Every true-hearted member of the party knows where he would like to stand in the coming contest; but having surrendered the organization to the hands of unprincipled and unwise leaders, matters have become so mixed up, that they say down that, no one now knows what to do.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

Another Democrat writes from Erie as follows: I see by a telegraph in this paper that the Douglas State Central Committee have withdrawn the straight ticket, and pledged themselves to support the free election.

LATEST NEWS

By Telegraph to The Press. THE MONEY MARKET. Reading shows another quarter of one per cent. The downward movement extended over the last few days.

THE PIEMONTESE IN THE NEAPOLITAN TERRITORY. The Piedmontese army in the Neapolitan territory. The Piedmontese army in the Neapolitan territory.

THE BATTLE OF VOLTEURNO CONTINUED. The battle of Volturno continued. The battle of Volturno continued.

THE BATTLE OF VOLTEURNO CONTINUED. The battle of Volturno continued. The battle of Volturno continued.

THE BATTLE OF VOLTEURNO CONTINUED. The battle of Volturno continued. The battle of Volturno continued.

THE BATTLE OF VOLTEURNO CONTINUED. The battle of Volturno continued. The battle of Volturno continued.

THE BATTLE OF VOLTEURNO CONTINUED. The battle of Volturno continued. The battle of Volturno continued.

THE BATTLE OF VOLTEURNO CONTINUED. The battle of Volturno continued. The battle of Volturno continued.

THE BATTLE OF VOLTEURNO CONTINUED. The battle of Volturno continued. The battle of Volturno continued.

THE BATTLE OF VOLTEURNO CONTINUED. The battle of Volturno continued. The battle of Volturno continued.

THE BATTLE OF VOLTEURNO CONTINUED. The battle of Volturno continued. The battle of Volturno continued.

THE BATTLE OF VOLTEURNO CONTINUED. The battle of Volturno continued. The battle of Volturno continued.