ANOTHER OIL EXCITEMENT .--- We learn from Aborder Off. Excitement. --- We loarn from the Buoyne (Ohio) Journal that they have got up an oil excitement in that region. -- The oil has been discovered in Jackson, Vernon, and Sandusky fownahips in Crawford county, and efforts are being made in several places to strike the reser-var beneath, by digging deep into the earth. One well, six miles from Crestline, is now yielding oil in payable quantities.

wai, all inits from Oresine, is now yielding oil , in payable quantities. No MORE fortunes in ship chandlering will be made in Honolula. It is said that during the list three years there has been a steady declino in the whaling basiness, from which the greater part of the trade of the islands has been derived. The is whaleships now visiting the islands are few, and the catch of oil se poor that each ship now leaves less than half the money formerly distributed. A MEDAL, says the Art Journal, to com-memorate the visit of his Boyal Highness the Prince of Wales to Canada, has been strick by Mr. Wyon, the eminent medalist, of Regent street, London. It is a work of much merit, although the material used is simple. The portrait of the Prince oid to a good likeness, and excellent as a production of art.
