BATTLE CHERK, Mich., Dec 21, 1828.

Page, Woon: Thee wilt please accept a fine to inform thee that the hair on my head all fell off over twenty gears age, caused by a complicated chrome discass, attended with an eruption on the head. A continual course of suffering through life having reduced me to a state of dependence, I have not been able to obtain stuff for caps, neither have I been able to determine the control of the man, in consequence of which my head has suffered at the control of the man, in consequence of which my head has suffered to the man, in consequence of which my head has suffered at the control of the man, in the control of the preserver in the use, and being destitute of mann to punchase and more, it would ask thee if the wouldst not be willing to cond on an order on this agents for a bottle, and receive to tryself the Scripture declaration.
