Fourth Page.—Address of the Democratic Nominees of the Oregon Legislature; General News; List of Letters remaining in the Post-office; Marine Intelligence.

Thrilling news from Italy. King Victor Emmanuel has just arrived with King of Sardinia, and on the Garibaldi has met the victorious Garibaldi. The battle was brief, the victory decisive, brilliant, and decisive.

The American Union vs. the Southern States. Should South Carolina be enabled to attach the rest of the Cotton States to the Disunion locomotive, and with the impulse of her example carry them into the tempestuous ocean of a Southern secession?

Any one who will peruse the Disunion papers will be forced to the conclusion that the Disunion cause will be prosecuted with vigor and energy.

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

Letter from "Occasional."

There seems to be a manifest indisposition on the part of the Union men in the succeeding States? Will they remain to be persecuted and reviled by the chiefs of the new State, or will they shake the dust from their feet, and follow the flag of the Union wherever it may lead?

Public Amusements.

Very little need be written about the theatre and concert life of the city.

Mr. Booth's engagement, at Arch Street, closed on Saturday evening, and was extremely successful. The performance in "The Fool's Revenge" was particularly brilliant.

The Presidential Vote of Georgia Probably Lost. Mr. Secretary Cass, leader of the Secessionists, may have secured the vote of Georgia in favor of his own State.

Judge Douglas in New Orleans. The rumor that Judge Douglas is in Mississippi in ill health, is entirely unfounded.

Gov. Housh's Visit to Texas. Gov. Housh, the Union Governor of Texas, will accompany the Secessionist friends of the State to a special session of the Legislature.

Senator Stidell's Re-election. Great rejoicing is expressed in this city at the re-election of Senator Stidell.

Louisiana will not Leave the Union. The Union men of Louisiana are determined to remain loyal to the Union.

Thorough Combination of the Douglas and Bell men in the South. The friends of Douglas and Bell are united in the South.

Senatorial Election in Illinois. The re-election of Hon. James Shields, Republican Senator from Illinois, is generally conceded here.

From Philo's Pen. Fort Kearsarge, on the western shore of Lake Ontario, was captured by the Union forces.

Later from Tampico. The capture of Tampico, a city of 100,000 inhabitants, is a great triumph for the Union.

A Blunder Retold. The blunder of the Union forces in the capture of Tampico is retold.

Lincoln in Virginia. General Lincoln's visit to Virginia is a significant event.

Financial Matters. The financial situation of the Union is a matter of concern.

Southern Money Market. The money market in the Southern States is in a state of flux.

New Outbreak in Lynn Co., Kansas. A new outbreak of violence is reported in Lynn Co., Kansas.

New Arrival from Brazos. A new arrival from Brazos is reported.

Resignation of Mr. Bonham, of South Carolina. Mr. Bonham has resigned his position as a member of the House of Representatives.

Legal Intelligence. Various legal cases and court decisions are reported.
