IDLENESS NOT HAPPINESS.—The most common error of men and women is that of looking for happiness somewhore outside of nsoful work. It has never yet been found when thus sought; and never will be, while the world stands, and the sconer thus truth is learned the batter for every one. If you doubt the proposition glance round among your friends and acquantances, and select those who appear to have the most enjoy-ment through life. Are they idlers and pleasure neek-ëts, or estnest workers? We know what your an-swer will be, Of all the miserable human beings it has been our fortune or misfortune to know, they wore the most wreiched who had retured from useful employ-ment, in order to enjoy themselves.
