THE PRESS .-- PHILADELPHIA, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1860.

it sail, not in troops of armed men, but in courtery. It sail, not in troops of armed men, but in courtery. That this power may grow, and establish its throne upon the everlasting foundations of the human heart, we may well make it our ambition and our prayer. It is an object worth living and dying for far beyond the accumulation of fertunes like Girad's or the Astors'. One word more. As we have reason to rejoice in the pice. You will not torget, because id do not the pice, you on this Thanksgiving day, to remember the pice. You will not torget, because id do not the pice, which this church is woat to dispanse through the lossing, which this church is woat to dispanse through the lossing, which this church is woat to dispanse through the lossing is w

That that power may grow, and stitutist its infolio upon the everiasting foundations of the human heart, we may well make it our ambition and our prayer. It is an object worth living and dying for; far beyond the acoumulation of fertunes like dirard's or the Astors'. One word more. As we have reason to rejoice in the jointy of the year which is just closing, let me pray you, on this Thanksgiving day, to remember it he poor. You will not forget, because I do not the poor. You will not forget, because I do not the poor. You will not forget, because I do not the poor. You will not forget, because I do not the poor. You will not forget, because I do not the poor. You will not forget, because I do not the poor. You will not forget, because I do not the poor. You will not forget, because I do not the poor. You will not forget, because I do not the poor. You will not forget, because I do not the poor. You will not forget, because I do not the poor. You will not forget, because I do not the poor are always kindly and munifeent, de-tis no gratitude to Go that is not generous to man. I If you are happy in your bleesings, remember that the happy are always kindly and munifeent, de-ighting to make happy. And now I commend you to the thought of an invisible Benefactor in heaven, I and of your suffering brothers and sisters every where on earth. Let these thoughts kindle libe-ral intents and sacred prayers in our becoms, and bring down upon us an overlasting bleesing.

indication states states definition in the observer interver i

The well not burget, sectors a transmiss, mark we well as a cases a sector of the secto

Ħ ress h e FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1860. ORNEY'S CALIFORNIA PRESS Will be ready TO-DAY, at 2 P. M.

Price fix CENTS per copy in strong wrappels, a tamped, ready for mailing. This paper is published expressly for CALIFORNIA CIRCULATION. nd contains a complete summary of what has i red in our City, State, and the Atlantic States, departure of the last steamer for Califo Finst Page .--- Behind the Age; Thanksgiving rmons, delivered in the different Churches yestorday. FOURTH PAGE .- Speech of Holi Calel ushing, delivered in Newburyport on Monday night; Goneral News; The Pope Bankrupt; Ma rine Intelligence. The News. Thanksgiving day was commemorated yesterday n many of the States of the Union. In this city here was a general suspension of business, and a niversal respect paid by all classes of citizens to e Governor's proclamation. In Washington and orsary.

son, who, on one occasion, had been introduced to make sport for an audience, and succeeded in "bringing down the house," though it proved to be blacked approximation or that are not been as a second between the census returns of 1850, which gave 515. "bringing down the house," though it proved to be blacked approximation or that are not be as a second be as a sec

Franch

Death of Hugh Maxwell. Gratitude of a United People. Hudn Maxwell, twenty years ago well The great body of the people of twenty-two Sovereign States, and two Territories of the known in Pennsylvania as one of the most various forms of worship, offered up prayerful since that time retired from the active duties statistics, declares the population of the Rus. I statistics declares the population of the Rus. I thanks to the living God for the blessings of a of IIfe, died recently, at an advanced age, at consus of 1856. This is continued the residence of his continued the residence of his continued to the resid free Government, and invoked His continued the residence of his son, Dr. MAXWELL, near Providence upon themselves and their posteri- Chambersburg, Franklin county, in this State. of the independent tribes in Russian North ty. No such spectacle as this has ever been Mr. MAXWELL was connected for many years with newspapers in Lancaster county. He The Russian army (the regular troops) are set in 1851 continues to palpitate there still; and that Other nations, with State religions and formal was the owner and editor of the Lancaster creeds, express their gratitude for victories Journal, we believe, after it passed from the won, and peace consummated, or humble hands of JOHN REYNOLDS, so long the intimate Besides this, Russia has a large force of irre- mirrow. iselves in the presence of some mysteri- and confidential associate and friend of the ous disease. But no where else is the human present President of the United States, and 300,000 more. Here are nearly 900,000 sol. race permitted to testily their sense of Divine during his life universally esteemed for his favor in recognizing the priceless advantages | many noble qualities. After Mr. MAXWELL assumed the control of ing men. A magnificent army.

of a system of laws which, while promoting personal liberty, fosters and protects all great the Journal, he made it exceedingly interesting, on account of the ability and research interests alike.

Yesterday, at least, there was an equality which he exhibited in discussing political France do, should Russia join with Germany action in tavor of his country? in the utterance of a nation's gratitude. Every issues, and his devotion to the interests of and rush into war ?" No wonder, thought denomination-"Jew and gentile;" every party-Republican and Domocrat, came forward, either publicly or privately; either by delphia with Columbia, on the Susquehanna personal attendance or in the silent chambers of the heart itself; and spoke out its reverence with how much decision his prophecy was re- France. No doubt, France thinks that Russia personal politics, and I had hoped that General Baltimore the same respect was paid to the anni- | for the preservation of the American Union and | ceived.

The writer of this article acquired a knowits profound respect for that Omniscient ruler, ledge of the printing business in the office of We have intelligence of a fearful accident at who has thus far presided over our destinics, the Lancaster Journal, under the tuition of army is magnificent and numerous-upon Mr. MAXWELL, and we still recall with pleasant emotions the satisfaction with which we put his manuscript in type, and the many unconscious lessons of life and of politics we imbibed in the process. He wrote with equal facility and vigor, was an industrious and critical reader, a profound thinker, and a bold write about Russia in a hostile manner. A leader. Like most men identified with journalism, and we have availed ourselves of his ability his sacrifices for his party were great. Those and kindness. What follows is a resume of he assisted to eminent positions soon forgot its contents. him; and even while thrilling the country with his eloquent editorials, he was frequentthe exception of the Twenty-first, which is 49,063. us in war, so will the God of Pence be with us ly greatly reduced in his means. Justice to brigades of infantry to cach corps. There Mr. BUCHANAN deserves that it should be re- also are one division cavalry, a division of corded that he acted towards Mr. MAXWELL artillery, the corps of Grenadiers, two corps with signal generosity. One of the sons of of the Guard, (infantry and cavalry,) and Cathe deceased journalist is living in Philadelphia, surrounded by an interesting family, and one or two of his daughters by his second narriage. If the experiences of such a man had been reserved, and could be laid before the public. hey would constitute a curious volume ; but, like most of his class, Mr. MAXWELL generally worked under whip and spur, and doubtless eglected the duty which most of us preach bout, but too frequently disregard.

for what? To aid whom? To assist thos Jefforson Davis, who is in Washington, it is said, who believe themselves aggrieved? Alas has demanded on the pert of the South additional guarantees as a basis of southenent between the would be compelled, if successful in their dark designs, to protect the very States they We see it stated-and give the statement for carry out from evils ten times more horrible than what it is worth-that an editorial leader in the the imaginary ones of which they now com-Kentucky Statesman, Mr. Breckinridge's organ, plain. No; should this conspiracy be accom-appealing to the conservative element of the South, plished, there will be universal woe. Our country, in that event, will be something like the end of the world, as described by been received in Washington, subsequent to the BYRON, in his poem of "Darkness." The sun will be blotted from our political heavens; despair will settle upon our cities, consin, from Mr. L. himself. The report of his and while the despots are laughing at our niseries, we shall be weeping for the return of the blessings we lost in an hour when pruarrived at Norfolk on Wednesday, having on board dence and patriotism had departed from our connsels.

WASHINGTON COBRESTONDENCE. The Almanach de Gotha for 1860, which is

Military Force of Russia.

dreaded.

valry reserve.

Siberia.

onsidered official in all its statements and

The Russian army is composed of six corps of infantry, with three divisions, each of two

Letter from "Occasional."

pondence of The Press.] WASHINGTON, Nov. 29, 1860. The lilness of Mr. Secretary Cobb has been se-Caucasian people, estimated at 1,400,000, and of the independent tribas in Brissian North of the independent tribes in Russian North America, say about 40,000 to 50,000 more. that the Union heart which throbbed in his become down-infantry, cavalry, and artillery-at a the fire-cater of to-day may at last, in view of the total of 577,859, all men capable of duty. difficulties of the nation, become the patriot of to-

And Jacob Thompson, tco-why should he be a gular or Cossack troops, amounting to some Secessionist ? He has always been a moderate man. He never acted with Davis until Lecompdiers-a-grand total, to be increased in time of war by one half. That is, 1,345,000 fight to hunt Douglas down. Does he not see in the conservative tendencies of the Northern masses, and

As we went through these details one the utter weakness of the argument in favor of thought ruled in our mind,-" What can recession, a broad open pathway for candid, unselfish

In the midst of the slmost universal disposition Pennsylvania. He was among the first to we, that NAFOLEON was alarmed at the War-predict that a railroad would connect Phila-delphia with Columbia on the Suscendance of Union, I re-gret to notice that Caleb Cushing raises the wardelphia with Columbia, on the Susquehanna river, and we have often heard him relate was apprehended, how to crush the pride of Mr. Senator Wilson. This is no time for small is a great military power, and greatly to be Cushing, who prates so much about pationality. would weigh and appreciate the necessities of the

It turns out, however, that the Russian present case. After reading his speech. I felt, in hinking of the difference between paper only. In the Krakow Times of Sep-Cushing, as Byron felt when, in Childe Harold, he exclaimed tember 25, is a statement which particularly

"Oh, for one hour of blind old Pandelo ! shows the real weakness of the Russian army. h' octogenarian chief, Byzantium's conquering fes." Oh, for an hour of Webster in Massachuzetts Although .Krakow or (Cracow) is a Polish city, it now belongs to Austria, which gives r Clay in Kentucky, or that noble McDowell, of Virginia, who, in 1850, thrilled the hearts of his its journalists no discouragement when they countrymon with his magnificent appeal at the moment when it was supposed that the Union was friend has translated the article in question. trembling (owing to the fanaticism of the hour) upon the precipice of annihilation.

It is true that General Criss is in the habit of uncing the inexcusable violence of the Disinionists. That statesman has held his tongue long enough. He submitted to Lecompton and the inglish bill against his will, and he does not hesitate to pour out, in his peculiar style, soniderable indignation upon the men who are now attacking the Union.

As I predicted yesterday, Harris, of Virginia ans come out in a characteristic speech in favor o Besides these, there are three large bodies the Union. He belongs to the Tenth Legion, and with particular destinations, viz : The army is the successor in Congress of John Letcher. Mr. Garnelt, Representative from Mr. Hunter's of the Caucasus, that of Orenburg, which district-and, I believe, a son-in-law of the great Camden and Amboy Railroad prince, Mr. Steis con stantly warring with the indomitable nomadic Kirguis' hordes, and the army of phens, of Hoboken-heretofore quite an extreme man, advocates the conservative remedy of a con-Latterly, great changes have been made in vention of all the Southern States before the se the military organization of Russia. For excession is decided upon. ample, the Corps of Dragoons (the Emperor NICUOLAS' pet force) was disbanded by the The Breckinridge papers in the Wheeling, Va, district, attack Hon. Mr. Clemens with great bitterpresent Ozar, and some of these soldiers are ness, on account of his sharp and determined letnow distributed among the six corps of the tor in favor of the Union. Mr. Clemens is the central army, and some were detailed to the man who fought with the gifted son of Governor the struggle. ous changes made in the service, even down

One of the most violent newspapers for secession is the New Orleans Delta, and this is done in the Lordship pays half, the two Sheriffs contribu-ting the other moiety. To the great joy of army, are not completed, which makes the are in favor of preserving the confederator as it is. " London town," the Prince of Wales was national force inefficient. In the Eastern War The forling of the people of Wales was born on Lord Mayor's day. The London there were heavy losses, and the disbanding ever strong it may have been for the ultra Southattempt to set up a rival political metropolis. Hence, all those in this quarter who joined Mr. Breckinridge and his party, in the belief that they could compel the Democracy of the North to sur-render Judge Douglas, now see the path to their own permanent prosperity in supporting every con-corvative man who stands by the Union as it is.

I have repeatedly told you of my surprise at the manifestations of feeling in this city in favor of the bolters from the Charleston and Baltimore Conventions. The secret is to be found in the fact One of the expectations sure to be disappointed

A Significant Compliment. On the 9th of November, according to in ondon enters office, and inaugurates the tary colonies have been abolished, and varievent by a grand banquet in the Guildhall, which generally costs $20,000, of which his to the drilling of the men. As yet, these Lordship pays half, the two Sheriffs contribu-

Times, describing the decorations of the Guildhall, says, "At the contern end was a painting representing the combined force of Great Britain. In the centre was a medallion of many regiments sent on unlimited furlough, and in Poland during the last six years. The other work and pro-slavery men regard Washington with great envy. If they succeed in their plans, they will Great Britain. In the centre was a medallion | pattalions and batteries are exceedingly inportrait of the Queen, supported by the press, complete-being one-third short of the newith allegorical figures of England, Scotland, cessary numbers.

and Ireland, surrounded by the navy, the The Czar NichoLAs had greatly depopuarmy, and the rifle corps. Over these shone lated the Russian Empire, by enormous rethe feathers of the Prince of Wales, of spun cruiting, of which the present Czar is painglass, nine feet in height, with the American fully aware. Four corps, (the 1st, 2d, 4th, and Mag." No doubt, the stars and stripes were 5th.) to which the soldiers on furlough have thus introduced in complimentary acknow- been recalled, and which are, therefore, the Two FACTS appear upon the surface of pub- ledgment of the very handsome reception of strongest, count scarcely 30,000 men each. lic opinion as we write : One, the gradual sub- the Prince of Wales by his American cousins. When complete, each numbers 66,000 men. lic opinion as we write: One, the gradual sub-mission of most of the politicians to the idea Mr. DALLAS, though invited, was not pre-The six corps d'armée, with the corps of yield to the Southern minority, and they now see, that, while a State should not secede from the sent at the Lord Mayor's Dinner. The only the Grenadiers and the two corps of Guards, in the exactions of the Cotton States, a disposition Union, there is no power to force her return, foreign Ambassadors who attended were are now distributed thus: The first and se- not only to refuse to liston to all honorable com and if such power existed it would be most Count DE PERSIONY and HASSAN ALI KHAN, cond corps in Poland, Lithuania, and a part of premises, but a determination to ignore Washinginexpedient to exercise it; and the other, respectively representing France and Persia. Volkynia-they are to be concentrated in to as the seat of Federal Government. The that the States that are rapidly resolving to No allusion to the United States was made by barracks near Warsaw, for the great Review effect of this movement is suparent in all quarters.

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text> that the States that are rapidly resolving to analytic the Control with the the control of the speakers in Mr. DALLAS' absence. preceding the Conference, in October. Their Une of the expectations sure to be disappointed place the many of the speakers in Mr. DALLAS' absence. ther cannot exceed 60 000. They have to Ambassador very strongly ex chants that in the event of hand, being five days later than provised inter that stop, the consequences to pressed NAPOLEON's desire and policy to con-ligence. There is very little news. All is quiet at abidg and he upon themselves. It is not our time on the best terms with England and their numbers. The third corps is quartered point as New York and Philadelphia foll of, the tinue on the best terms with England and Liter numbers. The tinue corps is quarters portion as New Fork and Finisce portion as ortion as New York and Philadelphia fell off, the the Constitution of the United States should President Buchanan, on account of a tele-are concentrated in Podolia and the Ukraine, Star-spangled Banner was written as they have be onforced by the Executive, and that if graphic despatch which intimates that he will on the Black Sea. They are more complete the Constitution of the United States should be enforced by the Executive, and that if General Jackson were now President, he would find authority in the Constitution, it Congress refused to confer it, to compete Wr. Buckmann for helping the Secessionists in Sec. They are more complete than the others, and were empleyed, during than the others, and were empleyed, during war of extermination against the locusts, who infest those districts in myriads. The sixth by the way, speaking of Boston, and resuming a somers are treated, are said to be creating a sold find the opinion that a government that their great game, it is not true, as the Mer-deal of sympathy for the federal-and to employ will which pill a sold in the opinion that a government that their great game, it is not true, as the Mer-deal of sympathy for the federal-and to employ will be corps and the Greating a sold for the force bill of interior of Southern Russia. The two corps that eily and Newburyport, we think, not many asserts, that he votes to the force off of interior of Southern Russia. The two corps of years ago, certain ships interested in the slave of Guards made their summer manceuvres years ago, certain ships interested in the slave trade-that is, in supplying colored "property" to burg, as American minister, at that time. But it is true that her is contest against Mr. UAL-JACKSON in all his contest against Mr. UAL-Here, then, instead of 900.000 -- lat---, Here, then instead of 900.000 -- lat---, Kussia can minister, at hat the second s Southern States. Do the Borton shinners, inelading Caleb Cushing and his family, intend to invest their patriotism in that traffic? HOUN. We have frequently heard Mr. Bu- 000, nor can these be removed from the One of the most enterprising and industrious members of the Cabinet of Jamos Buchanan is Mr. CHANAN dilate upon Old Hickory's familiar places where they are stationed. The Czar, expression that "By the Eternal, he would were war to commence at once, could not HAng any enemy of the Union as high as collect an available force of 70,000 men. On papers than any of the rest. He is less in news-HAMAN !" in arms, and, by calling out the reserves, GOVERNOR MAGOFFIN, of Kentucky, seems to have troubled our friend PRENTICE, of the Louisville Journal, by his late letter: but the Black, the Attorney General; but rarely of Mr. Holt in mere politics. I am happy to say that he Louisville Journal, by his late letter; but the could lead 300,000 into action at twenty days' Journal must recollect that MAGOFFIN is the representative of BRECKINELDGE, and that both for dreading Russian hostilities ? continues steadily to stand by the Union, and will o so to the last. started out upon the experiment of trying to Since I wrote to you yesterday I do not think be more devoted to the South than the firehere is any disposition on the part of the South-THE supposed organ of JEFFERSON DAVI eaters themselves; and that, like many good (the Jackson Mississippian, of the 28d of Noern men to inaugurate violent scenes in Congress. Those I have seen, although there are very few men, they have left their irons in the flames rember) laughs at the idea of a Convention here, are moderate and conciliatory. The very too long. of all the slaveholding States for the purpose

TALK about revolutions ; the following from the able columns of the Baltimore Clipper, and Mauch Chunk, yesterday. The Beaver Meadow and saved our country. Our own churches Passenger railway car was thrown from the track were vocal with praise, and sacred with A car containing twenty-eight passaugers was thrown into the Louisch, a distance of fifteen feet Missouri, Kentucky, Tennessee, North Caro-Four of the passengers, and the conductor were drowned. A number of passengers made a narrow lina, and Maryland. These are Union States. Their interests, their hones, their attachments escape from death. The escape of so many from their recollections, their traditions, and their what appeared to be imminent doath is regarded as almost miraculous. The New York United States marshals have it is true, misguided men revel in the anticipa.

ompleted the census of that city and sent it on to tion of what they suppose will be a better Washington. The population falls considerably condition of things, but in all of them there is hort of the estimates heretofore made at the main a prevailing, and we hope a conquering sentishal's office, being 814.277. The population of the leveral wards has already been published, with ment, that as the God of Battles has been with

The population of the city in 1855, according to the State census, was 629,810; increase in five Fow words fell from the pulpit yesterday. 547, is 208,730, or nearly 58 per cent. The cenus of 1840 returned 312,710, and the increase in the the years following was 202 837 or at the rate of tical ideas, and who may have looked to the early 65 per cent. The rate of increase, there- one side or the other in attempting to acsing introduction in prose, every period of which fore, for the last decade, falls short about 7 per count for the cause of existing difficulties, evoked an irrepressible burst of laughter, he strode cent. from that of the ten years preceding. New crowned their sermons with tributes to the

York is, however, advancing more than twice as Union. Can it be possible that work thus wo shipped, a Government thus prayed for, a Republic so reverenced, shall be sundered all, of Wisconsin, has issued a proclamation callinto new fragments, and each fragment ground ney, provisions, and clothing for the relief of the into inconceivable confusion and chaos? And

At a public meeting in Lancaster, a fow even-ings ago, Judge CHAMPNEXS, the accom-plished Attorney General under the Adminis-plished Attorney General under the Adminis-tration of Governor SHUXK, made a short speech, in which, says the Lancaster Express, he adverted to the present condition and agi-tation in the extreme South, and condemned, in energetic tones, the fallacies and preten-sions of the Secessionists. He also con-demned the quiescent attitude assumed by some, as if the traitors who were assailing and tranpling upon the Constitution were engaged in a legitimate pursuit, and must be screened from violence. He was amazed to find that the Government organ at Washington openly nate. This glorious fabric, cemented by the blood of the Revolution, is not to be thus de-to cavil over the poor and fruitless idea as to by the supposition that all men who voted that The Barber of Seville, the very best of fact that there may be trouble makes everybody conservative. And so I hope it will be to the end. of consulting and deciding upon existing difficulties, and says, "As well talk of rolling OCCASIONAL. doubtless from the prolific pen of our friend, Bol Wurter w contemplates a stapendous in-Col. Thomas II. Benton on the Disso-lution of the Union. Few public men that have ever taken a leading

that the border slave States are not willing now to act, and it is quite improbable, if it is part in the grave questions that have successively left to their choice, that they ever will inau- been discussed in the councils of our country have left a more honorable memory behind, them than Thomas H. Renton. Singularly gifted as a par-liamentarian-able and skilful in debate, with the gurate a secession movement, provided the Cotton States would buy their slaves at high prices." So that the Disunionists of Missisrofoundest and most logical mind, the most exsippi, like those of Alabama and South Carotensive and varied research, the most untiring in-dustry, and indemitable energy and will-he was, na horself, not only resolve to break up the Confederacy, but to have no intercourse what-in all respects, one of America's greatest repreover with the border slave States. sentative men.

Italian Opera

In the years 1817-8, pending the discussions in DELAWARE will present a steady front to the Disunionists. The organ of the Breckinridge question, Mr. Calhoun and other Southern Sens-Democracy-the Wilmington Gazette-argues tors warmly antegonized the views of Col. Benton, and held up, in glowing colors, the probable con-equences of the dissolution of the Union. To these disunion rpeeches the distinguished Missouri with great spirit and force against the en-It the manufacturers and mechanics who BATARD will throw the weight of his high tire Secession movement. If Senator JAMES voted against Mr. LINCOLN were imported into character and great abilities on the same side, speeches, on that coession, we call the following the South, and passengers [immigration?] from Europe were carried there, how long the estimation of many who have regretted his the devoid friend and able advocate of the the devoid friend and able advocate of the Jackson Administration, and proves him to have been a true patriot, as well as a gifted Senator and ble statesman. In reply to the disunion centiments of Southern Senators, Col Benton spoke as follows:

The start of the s

, ,

No influence had these menaces on him. A key dropped into the broad Atlantic would, as it had been raid, produce a disturbance that would be felt in the seas of Ohina. Just as little did this talk of Disunton ruffle him." herself in Europe, is now in this country, and we hope to have the opportunity of hearing her in this city ere long. All accounts from abroad agree in culogizing her acting as well

By THE following paragraph, it will be per-Signor Brignoli has recovered, and The ceived that the rumor of the death of Judge Sicilian Vespers will positively be given on LARBABEE, Representative in Congress from Wisconsin, published in this and other jour.

nals a few days ago, was incorrect : WE HAVE scarcely picked up an exchange That has not contained a compliment to Gov. PACKER's capital letter in reply to the Boston Ceived by him ashort time since, in consequence of novation :

be rather a bad case for Mr. Cone to fight Justice WAYNE in Georgia, and for Mr. YAN or the fight Justice OANPREL in Alabama. When the Justice OANPREL in Alabama. Dyou the understanding which this invincible organization should agree, an empire can be who, in the Old World, are loeking upon our ative system. It will be so great, that those who, in the Old World, are loeking upon our ative system. It will and luster the should of the empire of the empire and awed by the spectacle. It will be so presports as to be able to exist upon its for clearcy in the so-called Cotton States. We have never been able to realize the advan-fed eau of our Pacific possestions, and we they will return, like prodigial sons, and kneck, with tears and lamontations, for admission in that quarter, this idea of the "chinalty" will read running from St. Louis to the border of and running from St. Louis to the border of area can running from St. Louis to the border of area can running from St. Louis to the border of area can running from St. Louis to the border of area can running from S

Saturday evening, with a great cast.

would it be before-with South Carolina as recent course.

the leader of the Southern Confederacy-nearly all the States now designated as slave would be free ? The Clipper should not be misled

as her singing.

	schools, and colleges, and churches, whose spires (or and of judgment." given is the spiendor of rising and "spine" (or and of judgment." The spine is the first spine of the youngest before me. (and the speaker), the population of the State, (of Northern fanalise upd and the southers of and the state of Northern fanalise upd and the souther fanalise upd and t	tal, and probably not a foot of it over a se- coding State, will prove to be not only an iron, but a perpetual bond between our distant brothers and ourselves.	lefonte, the resi- d with insatiate is to be has pre- e appearance of distinct for the doctrine of Secession. MARYLAND, although she cast her vote for incendiaries. BRECKINERDEE at the late election, will un- questionably resist the Disunionists. All the Baltimore journals, except the Sun, are ep- posed to the doctrine of Secession.	a fail from the roof of his house, that he will be able to take his seat in Congress on the first day of the present ression. The proceedings of that body will be deeply interesting, and prominent among the men who will so for the whole country will be the Representative from the Third district of Wis- consin."-Watertown (Wss.) Democrat.
n .	•
				, ,
				,