Be it known; therefore, that John Ross Dix, Esq., has writter a most restartable New Year's story--remarkable slike for its intensely lamising and shrilling narrative, scaling, and sower, which cannot fail to carry with it deligat and someonet into the household of every family in the land. Beldom, if ever, has a story been published more suited for, universal permeal at the commencement of a new year. The records of the wonderfail takes told by the pilgrims and sellers who were all showed up on the memorable occasion referred to, are all happily blended together by the author in a strie at come general, attractive, and entertaining in this ew atory.

The above Story has been written especially for the Rousehold Journal commencing in No. 16. It will ap-
