Its beneficial character is attested by thousands, and it is pronounced by distinguished physicians to be superior to any other medicinal Spring Water now in use. The almost miraulous cures which it has performed lead us to believe that it is destined to become extensively used in the treatment of very many diseases which ordinary remedies fail to cure. Its curative properties are established beyond question, and we feel saured that it must, to a great extent, supersede many of the artificial compounds of the day. A selection of Collects was then read by the assistant minister. Rev. Wm. R. Carroll. This was followed by the infant school singing the hymn. "We're marching to the promise I land, A land all fair and bright." After another hymn there was a sermon by the rector, founded upon the fifth chapter of the Book of Canticles, and the first verse—"I am come into my garden." After another hymn, commencing, "Speed the slad tidings far over the soa," the names of the classes were announced, and one member trom each proceeded to the chancel, bearing the missionary offerings of the year. Each class is a missionary accounting in itself, and bears the name of some one whose life has been devoted to Christian service. Among these names we noticed those of Livingstone, Judson, Henry Martyn, Bishop Payne. Bishop White, John Williams, Dudley A. Tyng, Zinzendorf, Wm. Wiberforce, and others. Each class had also accompanied its offering with one of the titles applied to the Saviour in the Bible, which were further illustrated by texts of Soripture and appropriate verses. We quote the following: "The Rock !" "The Roce of Sharon:" "The Day-Spring:" "The Bright and Morning Star:" "The Counsellor." "One of the designs represented a chart, upon which were stripting the dangers and difficulties to be avoided in the voyage. Texts were inscribed under, each of these, and the proper course to steer was laid down. When the male Bible class was called, as abelow was bauded up, illustrating Christ as the each of the soul.
