given upon true national repentance. $P_{aslm} I_{XY}$ ii, 31-33. And this brings up the last topic in the arrange-ment, which is the connection there is between national repentance and the preservation of na-tional moroies. There have always been great displays of sovereignty in God's dispensation of national judgments, and, indeed, of national mer-cies. The sins of multitudes are often passed by a sit were; and often He sends a judgment for a fow offences, yea, for even one, as in the case of Achan. Joeb. 7, 1. It is not easy, at all times, to judge of national judgment Got any sfillet in order to mersy. Ho may take away smaller bless-ings to make way for greater. He may destroy the gentry to save the vulgar. He may shake the body of a nation, so that all fear and tremble, when He coly designs to make the mass of the peo-ple (at least his own people) more alive, to their best interests. The judgment of some goes bofore them, the judgment of some goes bofore them, the judgment of some mose boften and reasons of action. Now, it repentance as nation from utter destruction, what kind of repentances is required?

Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and laiopathic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common, and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apo plexy. Gout, Rheumatsm, and all foltild diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of diseases of the stomach, constituting sick headache, of hepatio disease constitutions biticus headacke, of worms, constitution, and other disorders of the bowels, as well as real and uterine affections which frequently occasion head-ache. Idiopatho headche is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of nerveus headache, on slowid, heralith, and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comers on slowid, heralith and prostrating its once of the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comers on slowid, heralith instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both oyes, and sometimes pro-voking vomiting ; under this class of headache the Ce-bacter intervents and the there class of headache the Ce-

Constipation or Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so pre-valent, so little understood, and so much negleoted as Costuveness, often originating in okrelesgness, or se-dentary habits. It is rescated as a slight disorder, of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in resli-tr it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fastal and dangerous discasses, and unless early eradicated, it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter orits of which Costuveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheuma-tism, Foul Breach, Files, and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful discass, such as Malig-nant Fevers, Abcesses, Dysentery, Diarthcea, Dyspep-sia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralsis, Hysteria, Hypo-chondviasis, Melancholy, and Insanity. first indicate heir presence in the system by this alsrning symptom.
