

is actually 1,500 tons larger than the largest weight, when her engines and her armament are complete, being 9,000 tons. The Warrier present national crisis.

 100. Ladies' Ensampled and Corriging and the spectral process of the spectral proces of the spectral process of t	GREAT REDUCTION, GREAT REDUCTION, AT THE ORAVAT STORE, No. 701 OHESTNUT BTREET, OORNER OF SEVENTH. A Large Assortiment of CRAVATS, SCARFS, NE CK TIES, UNDER- SHIRTS, DRAWERS, HOSTERY, GLOVES, SUSPENDERS, AND	armor-clad sides, she is, in a manner, irro- sistible. The Times complains that "the Americans— the most enterprising and scheming of naval architects—overlook the subject sltogether, and without even such notice as would show that they had ever taken it into considera- tion;" and proceeds to say: "It cannot pro- ceed from want of information, for, though the Commissioners went to work before the launch of the Gloire , the Report itself is dated on the 1st of December, so that the Americans must be well "posted up" in the controversy. It cannot be that they are indisposed to fresh expenditure, for the report flings economy to the winds. It cannot be that they are averse to experiments, for never wore people so given to newfangled schemes, especially in naval matters. Almost all fresh models of marine architecture have issued from Ameri- can Navy-yards, and it is not so very long ago that they were quietly at work on a great steam ram, and proposing a species of submarine cruiser, to run under water. In shert, if we could presume to suspect them of any reluc- tance to "go ahead," either in this or any other matter, they would be fairly entitled to resent the imputation as perfectly unwarrant- able. Then, what are we to think ? France, England, Russia, have come into the new sys- tom, but the United States hold out. Are the Americans right, while we are all wrong ?" It is a curious fact that the United States, a great mercantil nation, with fleets in which white-winged Commerce is borne across all seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the ago.	of some rabid Breckinridge Democrats, and an earnest desire is expressed that the Crittenden solutions rot be adopted by Congress and the States as a and entilement of the flavery question. With the exception or man- above named, we strongly approve the de- termination of Gov. Hicks not to call the Le- gislature in extra session, fearing, if it should be called, to be precipitated into a revolution. The greatest uncesines us felt at the present attitude of affairs. Business is, in a manner, relinquished, and no efforts are made, as is usual at this season, to carry on with vigor the farming operations for the coming year. Gentiemen consult together with heavy and despending hearts; our wives and children filled with a vague alarm of coming evil; all are depressed, all are dispirited. As if to make matters worse, the terrible intelligence comes to us that the Orittenden resolutions have been defeated in the Sonate; that the Republicans are determined to con- cede nothing, and stand by their odious Ghi- cago platform. The consequence of this condition of things can be seen already in the minds and appear- ances of our citizens; all parties are beginning to change from strong Union men into Se- cessionists; there is no excitement, but a deep and growing feeling that we will have to fight it out to the bitter end. Military companies are rapidly forming, and private citizens are ingly forming, and astrong determina- tion to stand by the Constitution and the en- forcement of the laws. I was myself a strong and ardent supporter of Mr. Douglas, and voted for him, and am a slaveholder, also; and vet I am hecoming cradually convinced	INTO REVOLUTION." Not succeeding to the carried that a wishes and designs at Oharleston, they adjourned to Battinure, and, alas! too successfully accomplished their ma- farions purposes. It is a mistake to is suppose that the cause of the crisis rests entirely with the Republicans. I am free to consure and to blame them for their anti-slavery plank in their National platform, but the election of Lincoln was only a protext for the traitors to urge on the disunton movement. Nor is it to be denied that Northern doughfaces and dirt- eaters played jackals to these fellows in their disorganization movement. Concessions to traitors with arms in their hands, firing upon our national vessels—concessions to robbers who plunder our national property—conces- slons to vagabonds who have filled their pock- ets out of national plunder; if there be con- cessions let them be honorablo ones—let it be in accordance with the wishes of Senator Johnson, of Teanesseo, of Senators Douglas, Crittenden, and Cameron; ef Clemens, of Virginia, of Gilmer, Etheridge, and the other true and conservative spirits of the South, who really desire a speedy and permanent set- tlement of our troubles. Ifor The Press.] Ma. EDITOR : In your published report of the workingmen's meeting on Saturday night, my name is published as one of the secretaries. In consequence of the manner in which the "milk-and-water" resolutions were gagged through—no negative vote being taken, although demanded—the President, at my request, publicly announced that I with-	street: Diamond treet slops there; I don't know the name; it runs a little off; then I heard the rattle of the wagon; I don't know what you call li when the wagon goes; I heard it; when I heard it I looked up Diamond street; I went you corner where I guess there stands a lamp post; I stood still again, right there on the corner, and then I was looking up and saw the light of a pis- tol-just the light (the dawh) states; I mont you stood still again, right there on the corner, and then I was looking up and saw the light of a pis- tol-just the light (the dawh) states; m. Diamond street; the wagon was esepted there; and there I stood looking at it; the pistol-would have how the fish was; it looked as if downward; the flash was going that way down; it didn't run quite straight, a little down; (the pistol was handed to the wit ness and he pointed it downward as representing the position); the flash looked about a foot or a foot and a half from the ground; the wagon the wagon I guess, because I ran up the vory first moment I saw the flash towards the wagon; there was fast as I could; I consider I can run prety fast; when I was coming there to Howard and Diamond streets, by the side of the square, then I stood still I cannot recollect for certain, there was something standing there; I ran to Heward and Diamond, and there stopped; I leaned against a box, and the wagon was stat- ing already; then I tried to get a look into the wagon; he dory create planted along this square), he was on Diamond street; the wagon solf the Diamond street; leaw one man only sitting in the wagon; he turned around Howard street and was coming towards ne; coming down Diamond street; he droy every fast; the first morement I made was to get a weapon, and the first thing that went through my head was to shoot the herse down, only I had nothing; I run aftor the wagon unil we got to the charch varies and Diamond; there I stood still; I could not catch the wagon in Howard street; at cod there a little	 Industry and the second state of the second state of
ACT ACT ACT ACT ACT ACT ACT ACT ACT ACT ACT ACT ACT ACT ACT ACT ACT ACT A	GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS. GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES GREAT REDUCTION, GREAT REDUCTION, GREAT REDUCTION, GREAT REDUCTION, GREAT REDUCTION, GREAT REDUCTION, GREAT REDUCTION, AT THE CRAVAT STORE, No. 701 OHESTNUT STREET, OORNER OF SEVENTH. A Large Assortiment of CRAVATS, SCARPE, N & CK TIES, UNDER- SHIRTS, DRAWERS, B CK TIES, UNDER- SHIRTS, DRAWERS, CORNER, OF BIGHTH. CHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF BIGHTH.	armor-clad sides, she is, in a manner, irro- sistible. The Times complains that "the Americans— the most enterprising and scheming of naval architects—overlook the subject altogether, and without even such notice as would show that they had ever taken it into considera- tion;" and proceeds to say: "It cannot pro- ceed from want of information, for, though the Commissioners went to work before the launch of the Gloire , the Report itself is dated on the 1st of December, so that the Americans must be well "posted up" in the controversy. It cannot be that they are indisposed to fresh expenditure, for the report flugg economy to the winds. It cannot be that they are averse to experiments, for never wore people so given to newfangled schemes, especially in naval matters. Almost all fresh models of marine architecture have issued from Ameri- can Navy-yards, and it is not so very long ago that they were quietly at work on a great steam ram, and proposing a species of submarine cruiser, to run under water. In shert, if we could presume to suspect them of any reluc- tance to "go ahead," either in this or any other matter, they would be fairly entitled to resent the imputation as perfoctly unwarrant- able. Then, what are we to think ? France, England, Russia, have come into the new sys- tom, but the United States hold out. Are the Americans right, while we are all wrong ?" It is a curious fact that the United States, a great mercantile nation, with fleets in which white-winged Commerce is borne across all seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the ago.	Assolutions are yet to adopted by Congress and the States as a main antioner of the Lavery question. With the exception or ma- above named, we strongly approve the de- termination of Gov. Hicks not to call the Le- gislature in extra session, fearing, if it should be called, to be precipitated into a revolution. The greatest uncessiness is folt at the present attitude of affairs. Business is, in a manner, relinquished, and no efforts are made, as is usual at this season, to carry on with vigor the farming operations for the coming year. Gentiemen consult together with heavy and desponding hearts; our wives and childron filled with a vague alarm of coming evil; all are depressed, all are dispirited. As if to make matters worse, the terrible intelligence comes to us that the Crittenden resolutions have been defeated in the Senate; that the Republicans are determined to con- code nothing, and stand by their odions Ohi- cago platform. The consequence of this condition of things can be seen already in the minds and appear- ances of our citizens; all parties are beginning to change from strong Union men into Se- cessionists; there is no excitement, but a deep and growing feeling that we will have to fight it out to the bitter end. Military companies are rapidly forming, and private citizens arming themselves for the coming battle. The attitude of these who, during the past fow weeks, have stubbornly opposed all con- ciliatory measures, has done much to paralyze the offorts of the Union men of the South. Take this neighborhood, for instance. Gov. Hicks is almost universally sustained, South Carolina condemned, and a strong determina- tion to stand by the Constitution and the en- forcement of the laws. I was myself a strong and ardent supporter of Mr. Douglas, and voted for him, and am a slaveholder, also; and vet I am hecoming ardually convinced	design, as evinced by his Slaughter letter, "TO PRECIPITATE THE COTTON STATES INTO BEVOLUTION." Not succeeding to the Example and adjourned to Battimure, and, alas! too successfully accomplished their me- farious purposes. It is a mistake to suppose that the cause of the crisis rests entirely with the Republicans. I am free to censure and to blame them for their anti-slavery plank in their National platform, but the election of Lincoln was only a protext for the traitors to urge on the disunion movement. Nor is it to be denied that Northern doughfaces and diri- eaters played jackals to these follows in their disorganization movement. Concessions to traitors with arms in their hands, firing upon our national vessels—concessions to robbers who plundor our national property—conces- slons to vagabonds who have filled their pock- ets out of national plunder; if there be con- cessions let them be honorablo ones—let it be in accordance with the wishes of Senators Johnson, of Teanesseo, of Senators Douglas, Crittenden, and Cameron; ef Clemens, of Virginia, of Gilmer, Etheridge, and the other true and conservative spirits of the South, who really desire a speedy and permanent set- tlement of our troubles. IFor The Press.] Ma. EDITOR : In your published report of the workingmen's meeting on Saturday night, my name is published as one of the secretaries. In consequence of the manner in which the "milk-and-water" resolutions were gagged through—no negative vote being taken, although demanded—the President, at my request, publicly announced that I with-	ratile of the wagon; I don't know what you call it whon the wagon goes; I heard it; when I heard it I looked up Dismond street; I wentvory slow ahead up Front street; when I was on the corner where I guess there stands a lamp post; I stood still again, right there on the corner, and then I was looking up and saw the light of a pis- tion-just the light [116 dows] Lating and there I streer; it we wagon was expect there; and there I streer; it we wagon was expect there; and there I streer; it we wagon was expect there; and there I streer; it we wagon was expect there; and there I streer; it we wagon was expect there; and there I streer; it we wagon was expect there; and there I streer; it we wagon was expect there; and there I streer; it we wagon was expect there; and there I streer; it was a street is the pistol was handed to the wit ness and he pointed it downward as representing the position); the flash looked about a foot or a foot and a half from the ground; the wagon, but I just could think it was a wagon; the wagon looked to me like—I could not tell plain wha it was; could not tell whether it was a wagon, but I just could think it was a wagon; the mean who fired the pistol could not have been far from the wagon I guess, because I ran up the very far an moneat I saw the flash towards the wagon; I ran as fast as I could; I consider I can run pretty fast; when I was coming there to Howard and Diamond streets, by the side of the square, then I stood still. I cannot recollect for certain, there was comething standing there; I ran to Heward and Diamond, and there stopped; I leaned against a box, and the wagon was start- ing already; then I tried to get a look into the wagon; bofore I could look it was not very far; morement I made was to get a weapon, and the first thing that went through my head was to shoot the herse down, only I had nothing; I run after the wagon until we got to the church called Little Heaven (in Howard street; i stood there a little heavan (in Howard street; i stood there a little	 Industry and the second state of the second state of
 	GREAT REDUCTION IN PEICES GREAT REDUCTION, GREAT REDUCTION, GREAT REDUCTION, GREAT REDUCTION, GREAT REDUCTION, GREAT REDUCTION, AT THE CRAVAT STORE, No. 701 OHESTNUT BURET, OUNDER OF SEVENTH. A Large Assortiment of CRAVATS, SCANE, NE CFTIES, UNDER- SHIRTS, DRAWERS, HOSTERY, GLOVES, SUSPENDERS, AND MEN'S FURNISHING GENERALLY, AT G R E A T L Y REDUCED PRICES, TO SUIT THE TIMES. J. ALBERT ESHLEMAN, dos with-tf E. & F. ESHLEMAN & FLETOHER. UF 800 20 OHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF BIGHTH.	sistible. The Times complains that "the Americans— the most enterprising and scheming of naval architects—overlook the subject altogether, and without even such notice as would show that they had ever taken it into considera- tion;" and proceeds to say: "I cannot pro- ceed from want of information, for, though the Commissioners went to work before the launch of the Gloire, the Report itself is dated on the 1st of December, so that the Americans must be well "posted up" in the controversy. It cannot be that they are indisposed to fresh expenditure, for the report flings economy to the winds. It cannot be that they are averse to experiments, for never wore people so given to newfangled schemes, especially in naval matters. Almost all fresh models of marine architecture have issued from Ameri- can Navy-yards, and it is not so very long ago that they were quietly at work on a great steam ram, and proposing a species of submarine cruiser, to run under water. In shert, if we could presume to suspect them of any reinc- tance to "go ahead," either in this or any other matter, they would be fairly entitled to resent the imputation as perfoctly unwarrant- able. Then, what are we to think? France, England, Russia, have come into the new sys- tom, but the United States hold out. Are the Americans right, while we are all wrong ?" It is a curious fact that the United States, a great mercantile nation, with fleets in which white-winged Commerce is borne across all seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the ago.	Islavery question. With the exception or the above named, we strongly approve the determination of Gov. Hicks not to call the Legislature in extra session, fearing, if it should be called, to be precipitated into a revolution. The greatest uncessiness is folt at the present attitude of affairs. Business is, in a manner, relinquished, and no efforts are made, as is usual at this season, to carry on with vigor the farming operations for the coming year. Gentlemen consult together with heavy and desponding hearts; our wives and children filled with a vague alarm of coming evil; all are depressed, all are dispirited. As if to make matters worse, the terrible intelligence comes to us that the Crittenden resolutions have been defeated in the Senate; that the Republicans are determined to concede nothing, and stand by their odious Chicaco platform. The consequence of this condition of things can be seen already in the minds and appearances of our citizens; all parties are beginning to change from strong Union men into Secessionists; there is no excitement, but a deep and growing feeling that we will have to fight it out to the bitter end. Military companies are napidly forming, and private citizens arming themselves for the coming battle. The attitude of those who, during the past fow weeks, have stubbornly opposed all conciliatory measures, has done much to paralyze the efforts of the Union men of the South. Take this neighborhood, for instance. Gov. Hicks is almost universally sustained, South Carolina condemned, and a strong determination to stand by the Constitution and the enforcement of the laws. I was myself a strong and ardent supporter of Mr. Douglas, and yoted for him, and am a slaveholder, also;	INTO REVOLUTION." Not succeeding to the carried that a wishes and designs at Oharleston, they adjourned to Battinure, and, alas! too successfully accomplished their ma- farions purposes. It is a mistake to is suppose that the cause of the crisis rests entirely with the Republicans. I am free to consure and to blame them for their anti-slavery plank in their National platform, but the election of Lincoln was only a protext for the traitors to urge on the disunton movement. Nor is it to be denied that Northern doughfaces and dirt- eaters played jackals to these fellows in their disorganization movement. Concessions to traitors with arms in their hands, firing upon our national vessels—concessions to robbers who plunder our national property—conces- slons to vagabonds who have filled their pock- ets out of national plunder; if there be con- cessions let them be honorablo ones—let it be in accordance with the wishes of Senator Johnson, of Teanesseo, of Senators Douglas, Crittenden, and Cameron; ef Clemens, of Virginia, of Gilmer, Etheridge, and the other true and conservative spirits of the South, who really desire a speedy and permanent set- tlement of our troubles. Ifor The Press.] Ma. EDITOR : In your published report of the workingmen's meeting on Saturday night, my name is published as one of the secretaries. In consequence of the manner in which the "milk-and-water" resolutions were gagged through—no negative vote being taken, although demanded—the President, at my request, publicly announced that I with-	heard it I looked up Diamond street; I went very slow shead up Front street; when I was on the corner where I guess there stands a samp post; I stood still again, right there on the corner, and than I was looking up and saw the light of a pis- tiol-just the light (the face) tarking and there is street; it he wayou was expect there, and there is street; it he wayou was expect there, and there is street; it he wayou was expect there, and there is street; it he wayou was expect there, and there is the way own; it didn't run quite straight, a little down; (the pistol was handed to the wit ness and he pointed it downward; the fash was going that way down; it didn't run quite straight, a little down; (the pistol was handed to the wit ness and he pointed it downward as the pressoning the position); the flash looked about a foot or a foot and a half from the ground; the wayon, but I just could think it was a wagon; the man who fired the pistol could not have been far from the wagon I guess, because I ran up the very far moment I saw the flash lowards the wagon; I ran as fast as I could; I consider I can run pretty fast; when I was coming there to Howard and Diamond streets, by the side of the square, then I stood still. I cannot recollect for certain, there was something standing there; I ran to Haward and Diamond, and there stopped; I leaned against a box, and the wagon was start- ing already; then I tried to get a look into the wagon; bofore I could look it was not very far off; he had got about three tree boxes off from the corne; (irces are planted along this equare), he was on Diamond street; I way on had star- ing already; the it rund a was to shoot the herse down, only I had nothing; I run after the wagon until we got to the church called Little Heaven (in Howard street, is dowd there a little heaven (in Howard street, is dowd not roath the wagon until we cold still; I could not catch	 a pink and ploads of outside of the Withdrawn for the present. Mr. Cresson offered a resolution that a committee be appointed to inquire into the arrangements of the receiving word, and see if better accommodations receiver the made for patients undergoing examinations by the physicians. Agreed to. A resolution; offered -coses time since by Mr. Dickinson, abolishing the office of superintendent of manufactures, was now called up. Mr. Maris moved to posipone the resolution indefinitely, which was agreed to. On motion, the Board then proceeded to nominate candidates for the office of superintendent of manufactures. Messrs. S. D. Franklin, John Huff, John Colliston, and Jesse Shelmire, were nominated. Mr. Orasson presented two bills—one for wood and the other for potatoes—which articles had been bought by the steward. Mr. C. said the price paid was too exorbitant; and he hoped the Board states for the house for pumping up water were much out of repair, and need streading to. The matter was referred to the Committee on Manufactures, all distingting the board the fact that the state of the Mississippi. A battery of thirty-two-punders is to be erected on the banks of the Mississippi, at Memphis. The river oraft will, therefore, be compelied to lie to a that point, as well as at Viokaburg. The Tennessee Minute Men have had tendered to the missister of Minute Men have had tendered to the mississippi.
R. do. do. yawai. do. do. do. do. do. do. do. do. do. do	GREAT REDUCTION, GREAT REDUCTION, GREAT REDUCTION, GREAT REDUCTION, GREAT REDUCTION, AT THE ORAVAT STORE, No. 701 OHESTNUT STREET, OORNER OF SEVENTH. A LATTO ASSOCIATION OF CRAVATS, SCARPS, N & C & T / E S. UNDERSTRUT STREET, SUBJECT OF SEVENTH. A LATTO ASSOCIATION OF GENERALLY, A T G R E A T L Y REDUCED PRICES. TO BUIT THE TIMES. J. ALBERT ESHLEMAN, dos stuth-tf ESHLEMAN & FLETOHER. UF 800 _CU OHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF BIGHTH.	The limes complains that "the Americans- the most enterprising and scheming of naval architectsoverlook the subject. altogether, and without even such notice as would show that they had ever taken it into considera- tion;" and proceeds to say: "It cannot pro- ceed from want of information, for, though the Commissioners went to work before the launch of the Gloire, the Report itself is dated on the 1st of December, so that the Americans must be well "posted up" in the controversy. It cannot be that they are indisposed to fresh expenditure, for the report dings economy to the winds. It cannot be that they are averse to experiments, for never were people so given to newfangled schemes, especially in naval matters. Almost all fresh models of marine architecture have issued from Ameri- can Navy-yards, and it is not so very long ago that they were quietly at work on a great steam ram, and proposing a species of submarine cruiser, to run under water. In shert, if we could presume to suspect them of any reluc- tance to "go ahead," either in this or any other matter, they would be fairly entitled to resent the imputation as perfoctly unwarrant- able. Then, what are we to think ? France, England, Russia, have come into the new sys- tom, but the United States hold out. Are the Americans right, while we are all wrong ?" It is a curious fact that the United States, a great mercantile nation, with fleets in which white-winged Commerce is borne across all seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the ago.	above handle, we sholly approve the de- termination of Gov. Hicks not to call the Le- glelature in extra session, fearing, if it should be called, to be precipitated into a revolution. The greatest uncessiness is folt at the present attitude of affairs. Business is, in a manner, relinquished, and no efforts are made, as is usual at this season, to carry on with vigor the farming operations for the coming year. Gentiemen consult together with heavy and desponding hearts; our wives and children filled with a vague alarm of coming evil; all are depressed, all are dispirited. As if to make matters worse, the terrible intelligence comes to us that the Crittenden resolutions have been defeated in the Senate; that the Republicans are determined to con- cade nothing, and stand by their odions Ohi- cago platform. The consequence of this condition of things can be seen already in the minds and appear- ances of our citizens; all parties are beginning to change from strong Union men into Se- cessionists; there is no excitement, but a deep and growing feeling that we will have to fight it out to the bitter end. Military companies are rapidly forming, and private citizens arming themselves for the coming battle. The attitude of these who, during the past fow weeks, have stubbornly opposed all con- ciliatory measures, has done much to paralyze the efforts of the Union men of the South. Take this neighborhood, for instance. Gov. Hicks is almost universally sustained, South Carolina condemned, and a strong determina- tion to stand by the Constitution and the en- forcement of the laws. I was myself a strong and ardent supporter of Mr. Douglas, and voted for him, and am a slaveholder, also; and wit I am becoming gradually convinced	Charleston, they adjourned to Bartimure, and, alas I too successfully accomplished their ma- farious purposes. It is a mistake to surprose that the cause of the crisis rests entirely with the Republicans. I am free to censure and to blame them for their anti-slavery plank in their National platform, but the election of Lincoln was only a protext for the traitors to urge on the disunion movement. Nor is it to be denied that Northern doughfaces and dirt- eaters played jackals to these follows in their disorganization movement. Concessions to traitors with arms in their hands, firing upon our national vessels-concessions to robbers who plundor our national property-conces- slons to vagabonds who have filled their pock- ets out of national plunder; if there be con- cessions let them be honorablo ones-let it be in accordance with the wishes of Senator Johnson, of Teanesseo, of Senators Douglas, Crittenden, and Gameron; ef Clemens, of Virginia, of Gilmer, Etheridge, and the other true and conservative spirits of the South, who really desire a speedy and permanent set- tlement of our troubles. Ifor The Press.] Ma. EDITOR : In your published report of the workingmen's meeting on Saturday night, my name is published as one of the secretaries. In consequence of the manner in which the "milk-and-water" resolutions were gagged throughno negative vote being taken, although demandedthe President, at my request, publicly announced that I with-	The second secon	present. Mr. Cresson offered a resolution that a committee be appointed to inquire into the arrangements of the redeving ward, and see if better accommodations interact in mode for patients undergoing examina- tions by the physicians. Agreed to. A resolution; offered -come time since by Mr. Dickinson, abolishing the office of superintendent of maunfactures, was now called up. Mr. Maris moved to pospone the resolution in- definity, which was greed to. On motion, the Board then proceeded to nomi- nate candidates for the office of superintendent of maunfactures. Messrs. S. D. Franklin, John Huff, John Colliston, and Jesse Sheimire, were nominated. Mr. Orasson presented two bills—one for wood and the other for potatoes—which articles had been bought by the steward. Mr. C. said the price paid was too ecrobitant; and he hoped the Board would refuse to pay thom. The bills were referred to the House Committee. Mr. Dickinson, ohsirman of the Committee on Maunfactures, with power to act. Adjourned. The Biockade of the Mississippi. A battery of thirty-two-pounders is to be erected on the banks of the Mississippi, at Memphis. The river orait will, therefore, be compelied to life to at that point, as well as at Viokaburg. The Tennessee Minute Men have had tendered to the Menphis Ataanche of Monday: "The Minute Men have had tendered to the maintee and the originators of this new outrage. We quote the following from the Memphis Ataanche of Monday: "The Minute Men have had tendered to the mischen thirty-two-pound casenon by Major A. H. Douglass, who beceme the purchaser when the
No. a.b. Black Measing and the set of the	GREAT REDUCTION, GREAT REDUCTION, GREAT REDUCTION, AT THE ORAVAT STORE, No. 701 OHESTNUT STREET, OORNER OF SEVENTH. A LAYRE ASSOTIMENT OF CRAVATS, SCARFS, N E CHIES, UNDER- SUSPENDERS, AND MEN'S FURNISHING GENERALLY, AT G R E A T L Y REDUCED PRICES, TO BUIT THE TIMES, J. ALBERT ESHLEMAN, des stuth-tf ESHLEMAN & FLETOHER. UF 800 _D OHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF BIGHTH.	ceed from want of information, for, though the Commissioners went to work before the launch of the Gloire, the Report itself is dated on the 1st of December, so that the Americans must be well "posted up" in the controversy. It cannot be that they are indisposed to frosh expenditure, for the report flings economy to the winds. It cannot be that they are averse to experiments, for never wore people so given to newfangled schemes, especially in naval matters. Almost all fresh models of marine architecture have issued from Ameri- can Navy-yards, and it is not so very long ago that they were quietly at work on a great steam ram, and proposing a species of submarine cruiser, to run under water. In shert, if we could presume to suspect them of any reluc- tance to "go ahead," either in this or any other matter, they would be fairly entitled to resent the imputation as perfectly unwarrant- able. Then, what are we to think ? France, England, Russia, have come into the new sys- tom, but the United States hold out. Are the Americans right, while we are all wrong ?" It is a curious fact that the United States, a great mercantile nation, with fleets in which white-winged Commerce is borne across all seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the ago.	be called, to be precipitated into a revolution. The greatest uneasiness is folt at the present attitude of affairs. Business is, in a manner, relinquished, and no efforts are made, as is usual at this scason, to carry on with vigor the farming operations for the coming year. Gentlemen consult together with heavy and desponding hearts; our wives and children filled with a vague alarm of coming evil; all are depressed, all are dispirited. As if to make matters worse, the terrible intelligence comes to us that the Orittenden resolutions have been deteated in the Sonate; that the Republicans are determined to con- code nothing, and stand by their odious Ohi- cago platform. The consequence of this condition of things can be seen already in the minds and appear- ances of our citizens; all parties are beginning to change from strong Union men into Se- cessionists; there is no excitement, but a deep and growing feeling that we will have to fight it out to the bitter end. Military companies are rapidly forming, and private citizens arming themselves for the coming battle. The attitude of those who, during the past fow weeks, have stubbornly opposed all con- ciliatory measures, has done much to paralyze the offorts of the Union men of the South. Take this neighborhood, for instance. Goy. Hicks is almost universally sustained, South Carolina condemned, and a strong determina- tion to stand by the Constitution and the en- forcement of the laws. I was myself a strong and ardent supporter of Mr. Douglas, and voted for him, and am a slaveholder, also; and yet I am hecoming gradually convinced	Inflows purposes. It is a mistake to suppose that the cause of the crisis rests entirely with the Republicans. I am free to censure and to blame them for their anti-slavery plank in their National platform, but the election of Lincoln was only a protext for the traitors to urge on the disunion movement. Nor is it to be denied that Northern doughfaces and dir- eaters played jackals to these fellows in their disorganization movement. Concessions to traitors with arms in their hands, firing upon our national vessels—concessions to robbers who plunder our national property—conces- sions to vagabonds who have filled their pock- ets out of national plunder; if there be con- cessions let them be honorable ones—let it be in accordance with the wishes of Senator Johnson, of Teanesseo, of Senators Douglas, Grittenden, and Cameron; ef Clemens, of Virginia, of Gilmer, Etheridge, and the other true and conservative spirits of the South, who really desire a speedy and permanent set- tlement of our troubles. Ifor The Press.] Mr. EDITOR : In your published report of the workingmen's meeting on Saturday night, my name is published as one of the secretaries. In consequence of the manner in which the "milk-and-water" resolutions were gagged through—no negative vote being taken, although demanded—the President, at my request, publicly announced that I with-	tol-just the light's file alows a two light to light of the wagen we have a several theory, and there I stood looking at it; the pistol-wouk how how the flash was; it looked as if downward; the flash was going that way down; it didn't run quite straight, a little down; (the pistol was handed to the wit nees and he pointed it downward as representing the position); the flash looked about a foot or a foot and a half from the ground; the wagen is looked to me like—I could not tell plain wha; it is an an it was; could think it was a wagen; the man who fired the pistol could not have been far from the wagen I guess, because I ran up the very first moment I saw the flash towards the wagen; it head a flash toward a flash toward a fort or earling. Then a start as I could; I consider I can run pretty fast; when I was coming there is the square, then I stood still. I cannot recollect for certain, there was coming towards me; could block at box, and the wagen is before I culd look it was not very for; he had got about three tree boxes off from the wagen; he dow and bismond street; the wagen had strated, and was coming towards me; coming down Diamond street; the wagen had strated, and was coming towards a look into the wagen; he drow every fast; the first ing that wont had was to shoot the heaven (in Howard street, between Norris and Diamond); the re I stood still; I could not catch the wagen i here stoped street is nover for the wagen is the three a little doward street is the was to shoot the here of the square in the wagen; he drow every fast; the first more met should be was to shoot the here of the more in the was to shoot the here of the square street, between Norris and Diamond; there I stood still; I could not catch the wagen in the was in more bords ince is showed there a little doward street is down only is the read way to shoot the here a little the was in three was ince the mode is the show was to shoot the here a little the was in the was way here is showed there a little theaven in thow the was in the was the	of manufactures, was now called up. Mr. Maris moved to posipone the resolution in- definitely, which was agreed to. On motion, the Board then proceeded to nomi- nate candidates for the office of superintendent of manufactures. Messrs. S. D. Franklin, John Huff, John Colliston, and Jesse Shelmire, were nominated. Mr. Gresson presented two bills-one for wood and the other for potatoes-which articles had been, bought by the steward. Mr. G. said the price paid was too exorbitant, and he hoped the Board would refuse to pay thom. The bills were referred to the House Committee. Mr. Dickinson, chairman of the Committee on Manufactures, called attention to the fact that the steam engines used at the house for pumping up water were much out of repair, and need attend- ing to. The matter was referred to the Committee. Mr. Dickinson, chairman of the Mississippi. A battery of thirty-two-pounders is to be erected on the banks of the Mississippi, at Memphis. The river orait will, therefore, be compelied to lle to at that point, as well as at Vicksburg. The Tennessee Minute Men seem to be the originators of this new outrage. We quote the following from the Minute Men have had tendered to them sixteen thirty-two-pound cannon by Major A. H. Douglass, who beceme the purchaser when the
Do. do. Calleo Seit do. do. s to statuto a substantial dorights and cuttomers that for the substantial dorights and cuttomers and dorights and cuttomers and cuttomers and cuttomers and cuttomers and cuttomers a	GREAT REDUCTION, GREAT REDUCTION, GREAT REDUCTION, AT THE ORAVAT STORE, No. 701 OHESTNUT STREET, OORNER OF SEVENTH. A LAYRE ASSOTIMENT OF CRAVATS, SCARFS, N E CHIES, UNDER- SUSPENDERS, AND MEN'S FURNISHING GENERALLY, AT G R E A T L Y REDUCED PRICES, TO BUIT THE TIMES, J. ALBERT ESHLEMAN, des stuth-tf ESHLEMAN & FLETOHER. UF 800 _D OHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF BIGHTH.	ceed from want of information, for, though the Commissioners went to work before the launch of the Gloire, the Report itself is dated on the 1st of December, so that the Americans must be well "posted up" in the controversy. It cannot be that they are indisposed to frosh expenditure, for the report flings economy to the winds. It cannot be that they are averse to experiments, for never wore people so given to newfangled schemes, especially in naval matters. Almost all fresh models of marine architecture have issued from Ameri- can Navy-yards, and it is not so very long ago that they were quietly at work on a great steam ram, and proposing a species of submarine cruiser, to run under water. In shert, if we could presume to suspect them of any reluc- tance to "go ahead," either in this or any other matter, they would be fairly entitled to resent the imputation as perfectly unwarrant- able. Then, what are we to think ? France, England, Russia, have come into the new sys- tom, but the United States hold out. Are the Americans right, while we are all wrong ?" It is a curious fact that the United States, a great mercantile nation, with fleets in which white-winged Commerce is borne across all seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the ago.	usual at this season, to carry on with vigor the farming operations for the coming year. Gentiemen consult together with heavy and desponding hearts; our wives and children filled with a vague alarm of coming evil; all are depressed, all are dispirited. As if to make matters worse, the terrible intelligence comes to us that the Orittenden resolutions have been defeated in the Sonate; that the Republicans are determined to con- cede nothing, and stand by their odious Ohi- cago platform. The consequence of this condition of things can be seen already in the minds and appear- ances of our citizens; all parties are beginning to change from strong Union men into Se- cessionists; there is no excitement, but a deep and growing feeling that we will have to fight it out to the bitter end. Military companies are rapidly forming, and private citizens arming themselves for the coming battle. The attitude of these who, during the past fow weeks, have stubbornly opposed all con- cillatory measures, has done much to paralyze the efforts of the Union men of the South. Take this neighborhood, for instance. Goy. Hicks is almost universally sustained, South Carolina condemned, and a strong determina- tion to stand by the Constitution and the en- forcement of the laws. I was myself a strong and ardent supporter of Mr. Douglas, and voted for him, and am a slaveholder, also; and yet I am heeroming gradually convinced	Lincoln was only a protext for the traitors to urge on the disunion movement. Nor is it to be denied that Northern doughfaces and dirt- eaters played jackals to these follows in their disorganization movement. Concessions to traitors with arms in their hands, firing upon our national vessels—concessions to robbers who plunder our national property—conces- sions to vagabonds who have filled their pock- ets out of national plunder; if there be con- cessions let them be honorable ones—let it be in accordance with the wishes of Senator Johnson, of Teanessee, of Senators Douglas, Crittenden, and Cameron; of Clemens, of Virginia, of Gilmer, Etheridge, and the other true and conservative spirits of the South, who really desire a speedy and permanent set- tlement of our tronbles. Ifor The Press.] Mr. EDITOR: In your published report of the workingmen's meeting on Saturday night, my name is published as one of the secretaries. In consequence of the manner in which the "milk-and-water" resolutions were gagged through—no negative vote being taken, although demanded—the President, at my request, publicly announced that I with-	a little down; (the pistol was handed to the will ness and he pointed it downward as representing the position); the flash looked about a foot or a foot and a half from the ground; the wagon looked to me like—I could not tell plain whas it was; could not tell whether it was a wagon, but I just could think it was a wagon; the man who fired the pistol could not have been far from the wagon I guess, because I ran up the very first moment I saw the flash towards the wagon; I ran as fast as I could; I consider I can run prety fast; when I was coming there to Howard and Diamond streets, by the side of the square, then I stood still. I cannot recollect for certain, there was something standing there; I ran to Hereward and Diamond, and there stopped; I leaned against a box, and the wagon was start- ing already; then I tried to get a look into the wagon; before I could look it was not very far off; he had got about three tree boxes off from the was on Diamond street; the wagon had street; and was coming towards me; coming down Diamond street; he drove very fast; the first movement I made was to get a weapon, and the first thing that went through my head was to shoot the heres down, only I had nothing; I run aftor the wagon unil we got to the church called Little Heaven (in Howard street; stow dree horris and Diamond); there I stood still; I could not catch the wagon — it was imposable: I stood there a little	of manufactures, was now called up. Mr. Maris moved to posipone the resolution in- definitely, which was agreed to. On motion, the Board then proceeded to nomi- nate candidates for the office of superintendent of manufactures. Messrs. S. D. Franklin, John Huff, John Colliston, and Jesse Shelmire, were nominated. Mr. Gresson presented two bills-one for wood and the other for potatoes-which articles had been, bought by the steward. Mr. G. said the price paid was too exorbitant, and he hoped the Board would refuse to pay thom. The bills were referred to the House Committee. Mr. Dickinson, chairman of the Committee on Manufactures, called attention to the fact that the steam engines used at the house for pumping up water were much out of repair, and need attend- ing to. The matter was referred to the Committee. Mr. Dickinson, chairman of the Mississippi. A battery of thirty-two-pounders is to be erected on the banks of the Mississippi, at Memphis. The river orait will, therefore, be compelied to lle to at that point, as well as at Vicksburg. The Tennessee Minute Men seem to be the originators of this new outrage. We quote the following from the Minute Men have had tendered to them sixteen thirty-two-pound cannon by Major A. H. Douglass, who beceme the purchaser when the
NEW SOLKAT INDEXES AND ALLOW ALLOWERS. Or an address of the proving the second sizes i cocking of string three they will have always on hand a fine second three they will have always on the second three thr	GREAT REDUCTION, GREAT REDUCTION, GREAT REDUCTION, AT THE ORAVAT STORE, No. 701 OHESTNUT STREET, OORNER OF SEVENTH. A LAYRE ASSOTIMENT OF CRAVATS, SCARFS, N E CHIES, UNDER- SUSPENDERS, AND MEN'S FURNISHING GENERALLY, AT G R E A T L Y REDUCED PRICES, TO BUIT THE TIMES, J. ALBERT ESHLEMAN, des stuth-tf ESHLEMAN & FLETOHER. UF 800 _D OHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF BIGHTH.	ceed from want of information, for, though the Commissioners went to work before the launch of the Gloire, the Report itself is dated on the 1st of December, so that the Americans must be well "posted up" in the controversy. It cannot be that they are indisposed to frosh expenditure, for the report flings economy to the winds. It cannot be that they are averse to experiments, for never wore people so given to newfangled schemes, especially in naval matters. Almost all fresh models of marine architecture have issued from Ameri- can Navy-yards, and it is not so very long ago that they were quietly at work on a great steam ram, and proposing a species of submarine cruiser, to run under water. In shert, if we could presume to suspect them of any reluc- tance to "go ahead," either in this or any other matter, they would be fairly entitled to resent the imputation as perfectly unwarrant- able. Then, what are we to think ? France, England, Russia, have come into the new sys- tom, but the United States hold out. Are the Americans right, while we are all wrong ?" It is a curious fact that the United States, a great mercantile nation, with fleets in which white-winged Commerce is borne across all seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the ago.	usual at this season, to carry on with vigor the farming operations for the coming year. Gentiemen consult together with heavy and desponding hearts; our wives and children filled with a vague alarm of coming evil; all are depressed, all are dispirited. As if to make matters worse, the terrible intelligence comes to us that the Orittenden resolutions have been defeated in the Sonate; that the Republicans are determined to con- cede nothing, and stand by their odious Ohi- cago platform. The consequence of this condition of things can be seen already in the minds and appear- ances of our citizens; all parties are beginning to change from strong Union men into Se- cessionists; there is no excitement, but a deep and growing feeling that we will have to fight it out to the bitter end. Military companies are rapidly forming, and private citizens arming themselves for the coming battle. The attitude of these who, during the past fow weeks, have stubbornly opposed all con- cillatory measures, has done much to paralyze the efforts of the Union men of the South. Take this neighborhood, for instance. Goy. Hicks is almost universally sustained, South Carolina condemned, and a strong determina- tion to stand by the Constitution and the en- forcement of the laws. I was myself a strong and ardent supporter of Mr. Douglas, and voted for him, and am a slaveholder, also; and yet I am heeroming gradually convinced	Lincoln was only a protext for the traitors to urge on the disunion movement. Nor is it to be denied that Northern doughfaces and dirt- eaters played jackals to these follows in their disorganization movement. Concessions to traitors with arms in their hands, firing upon our national vessels—concessions to robbers who plunder our national property—conces- sions to vagabonds who have filled their pock- ets out of national plunder; if there be con- cessions let them be honorable ones—let it be in accordance with the wishes of Senator Johnson, of Teanessee, of Senators Douglas, Crittenden, and Cameron; of Clemens, of Virginia, of Gilmer, Etheridge, and the other true and conservative spirits of the South, who really desire a speedy and permanent set- tlement of our tronbles. Ifor The Press.] Mr. EDITOR: In your published report of the workingmen's meeting on Saturday night, my name is published as one of the secretaries. In consequence of the manner in which the "milk-and-water" resolutions were gagged through—no negative vote being taken, although demanded—the President, at my request, publicly announced that I with-	a little down; (the pistol was handed to the will ness and he pointed it downward as representing the position); the flash looked about a foot or a foot and a half from the ground; the wagon looked to me like—I could not tell plain whas it was; could not tell whether it was a wagon, but I just could think it was a wagon; the man who fired the pistol could not have been far from the wagon I guess, because I ran up the very first moment I saw the flash towards the wagon; I ran as fast as I could; I consider I can run prety fast; when I was coming there to Howard and Diamond streets, by the side of the square, then I stood still. I cannot recollect for certain, there was something standing there; I ran to Hereward and Diamond, and there stopped; I leaned against a box, and the wagon was start- ing already; then I tried to get a look into the wagon; before I could look it was not very far off; he had got about three tree boxes off from the was on Diamond street; the wagon had street; and was coming towards me; coming down Diamond street; he drove very fast; the first movement I made was to get a weapon, and the first thing that went through my head was to shoot the heres down, only I had nothing; I run aftor the wagon unil we got to the church called Little Heaven (in Howard street; stow dree horris and Diamond); there I stood still; I could not catch the wagon — it was imposable: I stood there a little	of manufactures, was now called up. Mr. Maris moved to posipone the resolution in- definitely, which was agreed to. On motion, the Board then proceeded to nomi- nate candidates for the office of superintendent of manufactures. Messrs. S. D. Franklin, John Huff, John Colliston, and Jesse Shelmire, were nominated. Mr. Gresson presented two bills-one for wood and the other for potatoes-which articles had been, bought by the steward. Mr. G. said the price paid was too exorbitant, and he hoped the Board would refuse to pay thom. The bills were referred to the House Committee. Mr. Dickinson, chairman of the Committee on Manufactures, called attention to the fact that the steam engines used at the house for pumping up water were much out of repair, and need attend- ing to. The matter was referred to the Committee. Mr. Dickinson, chairman of the Mississippi. A battery of thirty-two-pounders is to be erected on the banks of the Mississippi, at Memphis. The river orait will, therefore, be compelied to lle to at that point, as well as at Vicksburg. The Tennessee Minute Men seem to be the originators of this new outrage. We quote the following from the Minute Men have had tendered to them sixteen thirty-two-pound cannon by Major A. H. Douglass, who beceme the purchaser when the
Torms much by Takers muchanics for 'Si essi. No. 361 ROUTH SECOND ETHEFT. Tortnow which the source of them. Distance of them. No. 335 CHEETNUT Streat, Philadephis. Distance of them. Tortnow which the contar source of them. Distance of them. Addition Distance of them. Distance of them. Tortnow which the contar source of them. Distance of them. Distance of them. Tortnow which the contar source of them. Distance of them. Distance of them. Tortnow which the contar source of them. Distance of them. Distance of them. Contar source of them. Distance of them. Distance of them. Contar source of them. Distance of them. Distance of them. Contar source of them. Distance of them. Distance of them. Contar source of them. Distance of them. Distance of them. Fine contariance of them. Distance of them. Distance of them. Fine contariance of them. Distance of them. Distance of them. Fine contariance of them. Distance of them. Distance of them. Fine contariance of them. Distance of them. Distance of them. Mastel clocker, Munced Boxes, Cooks, &co.,	GREAT REDUCTION, AT THE ORAVAT STORE, No. 701 OHESTNUT STREET, CORNER OF SEVENTH. A Large Assortiment of CRAVATS, SCAWFS, N ECKIPS, UNDER- SUSPENDERS, AND MEN'S FURNISHING GENERALLY, A T G R E A T L Y REDUCED PRICES, TO BUIT THE TIMES. J. ALBERT ESHLEMAN, des stuth-tf BEVENTH AND CHESTNUT. ESHLEMAN & FLETOHER. LIF 800 £0 OHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF BIGHTH.	ceed from want of information, for, though the Commissioners went to work before the launch of the Gloire, the Report itself is dated on the 1st of December, so that the Americans must be well "posted up" in the controversy. It cannot be that they are indisposed to frosh expenditure, for the report flings economy to the winds. It cannot be that they are averse to experiments, for never wore people so given to newfangled schemes, especially in naval matters. Almost all fresh models of marine architecture have issued from Ameri- can Navy-yards, and it is not so very long ago that they were quietly at work on a great steam ram, and proposing a species of submarine cruiser, to run under water. In shert, if we could presume to suspect them of any reluc- tance to "go ahead," either in this or any other matter, they would be fairly entitled to resent the imputation as perfectly unwarrant- able. Then, what are we to think ? France, England, Russia, have come into the new sys- tom, but the United States hold out. Are the Americans right, while we are all wrong ?" It is a curious fact that the United States, a great mercantile nation, with fleets in which white-winged Commerce is borne across all seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the ago.	usual at this season, to carry on with vigor the farming operations for the coming year. Gentiemen consult together with heavy and desponding hearts; our wives and children filled with a vague alarm of coming evil; all are depressed, all are dispirited. As if to make matters worse, the terrible intelligence comes to us that the Orittenden resolutions have been defeated in the Sonate; that the Republicans are determined to con- cede nothing, and stand by their odious Ohi- cago platform. The consequence of this condition of things can be seen already in the minds and appear- ances of our citizens; all parties are beginning to change from strong Union men into Se- cessionists; there is no excitement, but a deep and growing feeling that we will have to fight it out to the bitter end. Military companies are rapidly forming, and private citizens arming themselves for the coming battle. The attitude of these who, during the past fow weeks, have stubbornly opposed all con- cillatory measures, has done much to paralyze the efforts of the Union men of the South. Take this neighborhood, for instance. Goy. Hicks is almost universally sustained, South Carolina condemned, and a strong determina- tion to stand by the Constitution and the en- forcement of the laws. I was myself a strong and ardent supporter of Mr. Douglas, and voted for him, and am a slaveholder, also; and yet I am heeroming gradually convinced	Lincoln was only a protext for the traitors to urge on the disunion movement. Nor is it to be denied that Northern doughfaces and dirt- eaters played jackals to these follows in their disorganization movement. Concessions to traitors with arms in their hands, firing upon our national vessels—concessions to robbers who plunder our national property—conces- sions to vagabonds who have filled their pock- ets out of national plunder; if there be con- cessions let them be honorable ones—let it be in accordance with the wishes of Senator Johnson, of Teanessee, of Senators Douglas, Crittenden, and Cameron; of Clemens, of Virginia, of Gilmer, Etheridge, and the other true and conservative spirits of the South, who really desire a speedy and permanent set- tlement of our tronbles. Ifor The Press.] Mr. EDITOR: In your published report of the workingmen's meeting on Saturday night, my name is published as one of the secretaries. In consequence of the manner in which the "milk-and-water" resolutions were gagged through—no negative vote being taken, although demanded—the President, at my request, publicly announced that I with-	a little down; (the pistol was handed to the will ness and he pointed it downward as representing the position); the flash looked about a foot or a foot and a half from the ground; the wagon looked to me like—I could not tell plain whas it was; could not tell whether it was a wagon, but I just could think it was a wagon; the man who fired the pistol could not have been far from the wagon I guess, because I ran up the very first moment I saw the flash towards the wagon; I ran as fast as I could; I consider I can run prety fast; when I was coming there to Howard and Diamond streets, by the side of the square, then I stood still. I cannot recollect for certain, there was something standing there; I ran to Hereward and Diamond, and there stopped; I leaned against a box, and the wagon was start- ing already; then I tried to get a look into the wagon; before I could look it was not very far off; he had got about three tree boxes off from the was on Diamond street; the wagon had street; and was coming towards me; coming down Diamond street; he drove very fast; the first movement I made was to get a weapon, and the first thing that went through my head was to shoot the heres down, only I had nothing; I run aftor the wagon unil we got to the church called Little Heaven (in Howard street; stow dree horris and Diamond); there I stood still; I could not catch the wagon — it was imposable: I stood there a little	of manufactures, was now called up. Mr. Maris moved to posipone the resolution in- definitely, which was agreed to. On motion, the Board then proceeded to nomi- nate candidates for the office of superintendent of manufactures. Messrs. S. D. Franklin, John Huff, John Colliston, and Jesse Shelmire, were nominated. Mr. Gresson presented two bills-one for wood and the other for potatoes-which articles had been, bought by the steward. Mr. G. said the price paid was too exorbitant, and he hoped the Board would refuse to pay thom. The bills were referred to the House Committee. Mr. Dickinson, chairman of the Committee on Manufactures, called attention to the fact that the steam engines used at the house for pumping up water were much out of repair, and need attend- ing to. The matter was referred to the Committee. Mr. Dickinson, chairman of the Mississippi. A battery of thirty-two-pounders is to be erected on the banks of the Mississippi, at Memphis. The river orait will, therefore, be compelied to lle to at that point, as well as at Vicksburg. The Tennessee Minute Men seem to be the originators of this new outrage. We quote the following from the Minute Men have had tendered to them sixteen thirty-two-pound cannon by Major A. H. Douglass, who beceme the purchaser when the
Tormanual, Takes, around the forval such. No. 335 CHEST NUT Sites () 31 such. No. 335 CHEST NUT Sites () 101 such. Diama () 000 such () 101 such () 000 such () 101	AT THE ORAVAT STORE, No. 701 OHESTNUT BTREET, CORNER OF SEVENTH. A Large Assortiment of CRAVATS, SCARPE, NECKTIES, UNDER- SUSPENDERS, NO MEN'S FURNISHING GENERALLY, A T G R E A T L Y REDUCED PRICES, TO BUIT THE TIMES, J. ALBERT ESHLEMAN, def stuth-tf BEVENTH AND CHESTNUT, ESHLEMAN & FLETOHER. UF 800 £0 OHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF BIGHTH.	launch of the Gloire, the Report itself is dated on the 1st of December, so that the Americans must be well " posted up" in the controversy. It cannot be that they are indisposed to fresh expenditure, for the report flings economy to the winds. It cannot be that they are averse to experiments, for never wore people so given to newfangled schemes, especially in naval matters. Almost all fresh models of marine architecture have issued from Ameri- can Navy-yards, and it is not so very long ago that they were quietly at work on a great steam ram, and proposing a species of submarine cruiser, to run under water. In shert, if we could presume to suspect them of any reinc- tance to "go ahead," either in this or any other matter, they would be fairly entitled to resent the imputation as perfoctly unwarrant- able. Then, what are we to think? France, England, Russia, have come into the new sys- tom, but the United States hold out. Are the Americans right, while we are all wrong ?" It is a curious fact that the United States, a great mercantile nation, with fleets in which white-winged Commerce is borne across all seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the ago.	desponding hearts; our wives and childron filled with a vague alarm of coming evil; all are depressed, all are dispirited. As if to make matters worse, the terrible intelligence comes to us that the Crittenden resolutions have been defeated in the Sonate; that the Republicans are determined to con- cade nothing, and stand by their odions Ghi- cago platform. The consequence of this condition of things can be seen already in the minds and appear- ances of our citizens; all parties are beginning to change from strong Union men into Se- cessionists; there is no excitement, but a deep and growing feeling that we will have to fight it out to the bitter end. Military companies are rapidly forming, and private citizens arming themselves for the coming battle. The attitude of those who, during the past fow weeks, have stubbornly opposed all con- ciliatory measures, has done much to paralyze the efforts of the Union men of the South. Take this neighborhood, for instance. Goy. Hicks is almost universally sustained, South Carolina condemned, and a strong determina- tion to stand by the Constitution and the en- forcement of the laws. I was myself a strong and ardent supporter of Mr. Douglas, and voted for him, and am a slaveholder, also; and yet I am hecoming gradually convinced	be denied that Northern doughfaces and dirt- eaters played jackals to these fellows in their disorganization movement. Concessions to traitors with arms in their hands, firing upon our national vessels—concessions to robbers who plunder our national property—conces- slons to vagabonds who have filled their pock- ets out of national plunder; if there be con- cessions let them be honorable ones—let it be in accordance with the wishes of Senator Johnson, of Texnessee, of Senators Douglas, Crittenden, and Cameron; of Clemens, of Virginia, of Gilmer, Etheridge, and the other true and conservative spirits of the South, who really desire a speedy and permanent set- tlement of our troubles. Ifor The Press.] Mr. EDITOR : In your published report of the workingmen's meeting on Saturday night, my name is published as one of the secretaries. In consequence of the manner in which the "milk-and-water" resolutions were gagged through—no negative vote being taken, although demanded—the President, at my request, publicly announced that I with-	The position, it is mash nooked about a foot or a foot and a half from the ground; the wagon looked to me like—I could not tell plain what it was; could not tell whether it was a wagon, but I just could not tell whether it was a wagon, but I just could not tell whether it was a wagon, but I just could think it was a wagon; the man who fired the pistol could not have been far from the wagon I guess, because I ran up the very first moment I saw the flash towards the wagon; I ran as fast as I could; I consider I can run pretty fast; when I was coming there to Howard and Diamond streets, by the side of the square, then I stood sill. I cannot recollect for certain, there was something standing there; I ran to Heward and Diamond, and there stopped; I leaned against a box, and the wagon was start- ing already; then I tried to get a look into the wagon; before I could look it was not very far off; he had got about three tree boxes off from the corner; (irces are planted along this equare), he was on Diamond street; the wagon had start- ed, and was coming towards me; coming down Diamond street; I saw one man only sitting in the wagon; he turned around Howard street and wont south; he drove very fast; the first moroment I made was to get a weapon, and the first thing that went through my head was to shoot the herse down, only I had nothing; I run after the wagon (in Howard street; is tood three a little Heaven (in Howard street; is down drive a little Heaven (in Howard street; is down or is and Diamond); there I stood still; I could not catch	On motion, the Board then proceeded to nomi- nate candidates for the office of superintendent of manufactures. Messrs. S. D. Franklin, John Huff, John Colliston, and Jesse Shelmire, were nominated. Mr. Orasson presented two bills—one for wood and the other for potatoes—which articles had been bought by the steward. Mr. C. said the price paid was too exorbitant, and he hoped the Board would refuse to pay them. The bills were referred to the House Committee. Mr. Diktinson, chairman of the Committee on Manufactures, called attention to the fast that the steam engines used at the house for pumping up water were much out of repair, and need attend- ing to. The matter was referred to the Committee on Manufactures, with power to act. Adjourned. The Biockade of the Mississippi. A battery of thirty-two-pounders is to be erected on the banks of the Mississippi, at Memphis. The river oraft will, therefore, be compelied to lie to at that point, as well as at Vicksburg. The Tennessee Minute Men have had tendered to them fins new outrage. We quote the following from the Memphis Avalanche of Monday : "The Minute Men have had tendered to them sixteen thirty-two-pound cannon by Major A. H. Douglass, who beceme the purchaser when the
Tormanual, Takes, around the forval such. No. 335 CHEST NUT Sites () 31 such. No. 335 CHEST NUT Sites () 101 such. Diama () 000 such () 101 such () 000 such () 101	THE CRAVAT STORE, No. 701 OHESTNUT BTREET, CORNER OF SEVENTH. A Large Assortiment of CRAVATS, SCARPE, NECKTIES, UNDER- SHARTS, DRAWE, NECKTIES, UNDER- SUSPENDERS, AND MEN'S FURNISHING GENERALLY, A T G R E A T L Y REDUCED PRICES, TO BUIT THE TIMES, J. ALBERT ESHLEMAN, des stuth-tf BEVENTH AND CHESTNUT, E. & F. ESHLEMAN & FLETOHER. CF 800 20 OHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF BIGHTH.	on the 1st of December, so that the Americans must be well "posted up" in the controversy. It cannot be that they are indisposed to fresh expenditure, for the report flings economy to the winds. It cannot be that they are averse to experiments, for never were people so given to newfangled schemes, especially in naval matters. Almost all fresh models of marine architecture have issued from Ameri- can Navy-yards, and it is not so very long ago that they were quietly at work on a great steam ram, and proposing a species of submarine cruiser, to run under water. In shert, if we could presume to suspect them of any reluc- tance to "go ahead," either in this or any other matter, they would be fairly entitled to resent the imputation as perfoctly unwarrant- able. Then, what are we to think? France, England, Russia, have come into the new sys- tom, but the United States hold out. Are the Americans right, while we are all wrong ?" It is a curious fact that the United States, a great mercantile nation, with fleets in which white-winged Commerce is borne across all seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the ago.	desponding hearts; our wives and children filled with a vague alarm of coming evil; all are depressed, all are dispirited. As if to make matters worse, the terrible intelligence comes to us that the Crittenden resolutions have been defeated in the Senate; that the Republicans are determined to con- code nothing, and stand by their odious Ghi- cago platform. The consequence of this condition of things can be seen already in the minds and appear- ances of our citizens; all parties are beginning to change from strong Union men into Se- cessionists; there is no excitement, but a deep and growing feeling that we will have to fight it out to the bitter end. Military companies are rapidly forming, and private citizens arming themselves for the coming battle. The attitude of those who, during the past fow weeks, have stubbornly opposed all con- cillatory measures, has done much to paralyze the efforts of the Union men of the South. Take this neighborhood, for instance. Goy. Hicks is almost universally sustained, South Carolina condemned, and a strong determina- tion to stand by the Constitution and the en- forcement of the laws. I was myself a strong and ardent supporter of Mr. Douglas, and voted for him, and am a slaveholder, also; and yet I am hecoming gradually convinced	be denied that Northern dougnaces and nir- caters played jackals to these follows in their disorganization movement. Concessions to traitors with arms in their hands, firing upon our national vessels—concessions to robbers who plunder our national property—conces- stons to vagabonds who have filled their pock- ets out of national plunder; if there be con- cessions let them be honorable ones—let it be in accordance with the wishes of Senator Johnson, of Teanesseo, of Senators Douglas, Crittenden, and Cameron; ef Clemens, of Virginia, of Gilmer, Etheridge, and the other true and conservative spirits of the South, who really desire a speedy and permanent set- tlement of our tronbles. Ifor The Press.] Mr. EDITOR: In your published report of the workingmen's meeting on Saturday night, my name is published as one of the secretaries. In consequence of the manner in which the "milk-and-water" resolutions were gagged through—no negative vote being taken, although demanded—the President, at my request, publicly announced that I with-	look and a half from the ground; the wagon looked to ma like-I could not tell plain whas it was; could not tell whether it was a wagon, but I just could think it was a wagon; the man who fired the pistol could not have been far from the wagon I guess, because I ran up the very first moment I aw the flash towards the wagon; I ran as fast as I could; I consider I can run pretty fast; when I was coming there to Howard and Diamond street, by the side of the square, there was comsthing standing there; I ran to Heward and Diamond, and there stopped; I leaned against a box, and the wagon was start- ing already; then I tried to get a look into the wagon; bofore I could look it was not very far off; he had got about three tree boxes off from the corner; (trees are planted along this square), he was on Diamond street; the wagon had start- ed, and was coming towards me; doming dowar Diamond street; I saw one man only sliting in the wagon; he turned around Howard street and went south; he drove very fast; the first movement I made was to get a weapon, and the first thing that went through my head was to shoot the herse down, only I had nothing; I run after the wagon (in Howard street, between Norris and Diamond; there I stood still; I could net eatch the wagon (in Howard street, is down how rat street the wagon (in Howard street, between Norris and	The Biockade of the Mississippi, A battery of thirty-two-pounders is to be eracted on the biockade of the Mississippi. The Biockade of the Mississippi. A battery of thirty-two-pounders is to be eracted on the banks of the Mississippi at Memphis. The river orat will, therefore, be compelied to life to at that point, as well as at Vicksburg. The Tennessee Minute Men seem to be the originators of this new outrage. We quote the following from the Memphis Avalanche of Monday : "The Minute Men have had tendered to them sixteen thirty-two-pound cannon by Misjor A. H. Douglass, who became the purchaser when the
No. 335 GDUTH SECOND STRIKET. No. 335 GHESTNUTS Size of Salessi. No. 335 GHESTNUTS Size of salessi. Size of salessi. No. 335 GHESTNUTS Size of salessi. No. 336 GHESTNUTS Size of salessi. No. 346 GHESTNUTS Size of salessi. No. 346 GHESTNUTS Size of salessi. No. 5. MOORE & OO Salessi of ooksi. No. 5. MOORENEAD. No. 5. MOO	No. 701 CHESTNUT BTRRET, CORNER OF SEVENTH. A Large Assortment of CRAYATS, SCHER, NECKTIES, UNDER- SHIRTS, DRAWFRS, HOSTERY, GLOVES, SUSPENDERS, OCTOPES, AND MEN'S FURNISHING GENERALLY, A T G R E A T L Y REDUCED PRICES, TO BUIT THE TIMES. J. ALBERT ESHLEMAN, 605 stuth-tf ESHLEMAN & FLETCHER. UF 800 _CI CHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF EIGHTH.	must be well "posted up" in the controversy. It cannot be that they are indisposed to fresh expenditure, for the report flings economy to the winds. It cannot be that they are averse to experiments, for never wore people so given to newfangled schemes, especially in naval matters. Almost all fresh models of marine architecture have issued from Ameri- can Navy-yards, and it is not so very long ago that they were quietly at work on a great steam ram, and proposing a species of submarine cruiser, to run under water. In shert, if we could presume to suspect them of any reluc- tance to "go ahead," either in this or any other matter, they would be fairly entitled to resent the imputation as perfectly unwarrant- able. Then, what are we to think ? France, England, Russia, have come into the new sys- tom, but the United States hold out. Are the Americans right, while we are all wrong ?" It is a curious fact that the United States, a great mercantile nation, with fleets in which white-winged Commerce is borne across all seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the ago.	are depressed, all are dispirited. As if to make matters worse, the terrible intelligence comes to us that the Crittenden resolutions have been defeated in the Senate; that the Republicans are determined to con- cede nothing, and stand by their odious Ohi- cago platform. The consequence of this condition of things can be seen already in the minds and appear- ances of our citizens; all parties are beginning to change from strong Union men into Se- cessionists; there is no excitement, but a deep and growing feeling that we will have to fight it out to the bitter end. Military companies are rapidly forming, and private citizens arming themselves for the coming battle. The attitude of those who, during the past fow weeks, have stubbornly opposed all con- cillatory measures, has done much to paralyze the efforts of the Union men of the South. Take this neighborhood, for instance. Goy. Hicks is almost universally sustained, South Carolina condemned, and a strong determina- tion to stand by the Constitution and the en- forcement of the laws. I was myself a strong and ardent supporter of Mr. Douglas, and voted for him, and am a slaveholder, also; and yat I am hecoming gradually convinced	disorganization movement. Concessions to traitors with arms in their hands, firing upon our national vessels—concessions to robbers who plundor our national property—conces- slons to vagabonds who have filled their pock- ets out of national plunder; if there be con- cessions let them be honorable ones—let it be in accordance with the wishes of Senator Johnson, of Teamessoe, of Senators Douglas, Crittenden, and Cameron; ef Clemens, of Virginie, of Gilmer, Etheridge, and the other true and conservative spirits of the South, who really desire a speedy and permanent set- tlement of our troubles. Ifor The Press.] MR. EDITOR: In your published report of the workingmen's meeting on Saturday night, my name is published as one of the secretaries. In consequence of the manner in which the "milk-and-water" resolutions were gagged through—no negative vote being taken, although demanded—the President, at my request, publicly announced that I with-	was; could hoit tell whether it was a wagon, but I just could think it was a wagon; the man who fired the pistol could not have been far from the wagon I guess, because I ran up the very first moment I saw the flash towards the wagon; I ran as fast as I could; I consider I can run pretty fast; when I was coming there to Howard and Diamond streets, by the side of the square, then I stood still. I cannot recollect for certain, there was something standing there; I ran to Heward and Diamond, and there stopped; I leaned against a box, and the wagon was start- ing already; then I tried to get a look into the wagon; before I could look it was not very far off; he had got about three tree boxes off from the corner; (trees are planted along this square), he was on Diamond street; the wagon had start- ed, and was coming towards me; coming down Diamond street; I saw one man only sitting in the wagon; he turned around Howard street and went south; he drove very fast; the first movement I made was to get a weapon, and the first thing that went through my head was to shoot the herse down, only I had nothing; I run aftor the wagon unil we got to the church called Little Heavon (in Howard street; is tood there a little Heavon (in Howard street; is tood there a little he wagon unil we got to the church called Little Heavon (in Howard street; is tood there a little	 manufactures. Meesrs. S. D. Franklin, John Huff, John Colliston, and Jesse Shelmire, were nominated. Mr. Oresson presented two bills-one for wood and the other for potatoes-which articles had been bought by the steward. Mr. C. said the price paid was too exrobitant, and he hoped the Board would refuse to pay them. The bills were referred to the House Committee. Mr. Dickinson, chairman of the Committee on Manufactures, called attention to the fact that the stein engines used at the house for pumping up water were much out of repair, and need atteading to Manufactures, with power to act. Adjourned. The Blockade of the Mussissippi. A battery of thirty-two-pounders is to be erested on the banks of the Mississippi, at Memphis. The river orait will, therefore, be compelied to lie to at that point, as well as at Vicksburg. The Tennessee Minute Men shen seen to be the ofly and the Memphis Avalanche of Monuy: "The Minute Men have had tendered to the mistreen thirty-two-pound cannon by Major A. H. Douglass, who because the purchaser when the
No. 355 CHEETNUT Street, being of any one kind of goods at the above prices of as a maje exists and no stind of goods at the above prices, unleas at our or lists. To those who our for goods by mail, must send to exist extra to pay points, one a maje exists and no stind cleast score by mail, must send to exist cleast and contact a contact at the stand send to exist desired a stand send to exist at the stand send cleast and contact at exists and to exist desired a stand send to exist at the stand send cleast and contact at exists and to exist desired a stand send to exist at the stand send cleast and contact at exists and to exist desired a stand send to exist at the stand send cleast and contact at exists at the stand send cleast and contact at exists at the stand send to exist at a stand send at the stand send to exist at a stand send at the stand send to exist at a stand send to exist at exists at the stand send to exist at exists at the stand send send sends or time of a stand send to exist at a stand the stand send to exist at a stand the stand send to exist send sends or time of the send send to exist at the stand send to exist at the send sends or time of the send send to exist as the send to exist at the stand send to exist as the send the stand send to exist at the send sends or time of the send send to exist at the send sends or time of the send send to exist at the send to exist as the send to exist at the send to exist at the send sends or time of the send send to exist at the send sends or time of the send send to exist at the send sends or time of the send send to exist as the send to exist at the send sends or time of the send send to exist as the send to exist at the send sends or time of the send send to exist as the send to exist at the send sends or time of the send send to exist as the send to exist at the send sends or time of the send send to exist as the send to exist at the send to exist as the send to exist at the send to exist as the send to exist at the send to exist as the send to exis	A Large Assortment of CRAVATS, SCARPE, NECKTIES, UNDER- SHIRTS, DRAWERS, HOSTERY, GLOVES, SUSPENDERS, AND MEN'S FURNISHING GENERALLY, A T Q R E A T L Y REDUCED PRICES, TO BUIT THE TIMES. J. ALBERT ESHLEMAN, dos stuth-tf BEVENTH AND CHESTNUT. E. & F. ESHLEMAN & FLETCHER. UP 800 20 CHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF EIGHTH.	expenditure, for the report flings economy to the winds. It cannot be that they are averse to experiments, for never wore people so given to newfangled 'schemes, especially in naval matters. Almost all fresh models of marine architecture have issued from Ameri- can Navy-yards, and it is not so very long ago that they were quietly at work on a great steam ram, and proposing a species of submarine cruiser, to run under water. In shert, if we could presume to suspect them of any reluc- tance to "go ahead," either in this or any other matter, they would be fairly entitled to resent the imputation as perfectly unwarrant- able. Then, what are we to think? France, England, Russia, have come into the new sys- tem, but the United States hold out. Are the Americans right, while we are all wrong?" It is a curious fact that the United States, a great mercantile nation, with fleets in which white-winged Commerce is borne across all seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the ago.	intelligence comes to us that the Crittenden resolutions have been defeated in the Sonate; that the Republicans are determined to con- cade nothing, and stand by their odions Ghi- cago platform. The consequence of this condition of things can be seen already in the minds and appear- ances of our citizens; all parties are beginning to change from strong Union men into Se- cessionists; there is no excitement, but a deep and growing feeling that we will have to fight it out to the bitter end. Military companies are rapidly forming, and private citizens arming themselves for the coming battle. The attitude of those who, during the past fow weeks, have stubbornly opposed all con- ciliatory measures, has done much to paralyze the offorts of the Union men of the South. Take this neighborhood, for instance. Goy. Hicks is almost universally sustained, South Carolina condemned, and a strong determina- tion to stand by the Constitution and the en- forcement of the laws. I was myself a strong and ardent supporter of Mr. Douglas, and voted for him, and am a slaveholder, also; and yet I am hecoming gradually convinced	our national vessels—concessions to robbers who plunder our national property—conces- sions to vagabonds who have filled their pock- ets out of national plunder; if there be con- cessions let them be honorable ones—let it be in accordance with the wishes of Senator Johnson, of Teanessee, of Senators Douglas, Crittenden, and Cameron; ef Clemens, of Virginie, of Gilmer, Etheridge, and the other true and conservative spirits of the South, who really desire a speedy and permanent set- tlement of our troubles. Respectfully yours, John CAMPBELL. IFor The Press.] Mr. EDITOR: In your published report of the workingmen's meeting on Saturday night, my name is published as one of the secretaries. In consequence of the mannor in which the "milk-and-water" resolutions were gagged through—no negative vote being taken, although demanded—the President, at my request, publicly announced that I with-	Inted the piscol could not have been far from the wagon I guess, because I ran up the very first moment I saw the flash towards the wagon; I ran as fast as I could; I consider I can run prety fast; when I was coming there to Howard and Diamond streets, by the side of the square, then I stood still. I cannot recollect for certain, there was something standing there; I ran to Heward and Diamond, and there stopped; I leaned sgainst a box, and the wagon was start- ing already; then I tried to get a look into the wagon; before I could look it was not very far off; he had got about three tree boxes off from the corner; (irces are planted along this square), he was on Diamond street; the wagon had start- ed, and was coming towards me; coming down Diamond street; I saw one man only sitting in the wagon; he turned around Howard street and went south; he drove very fast; the first movement I made was to get a weapon, and the first thing that went through my head was to shoot the herse down, only I had nothing; I run after the wagon unil we got to the church called Little Heaven (in Howard street; is dow fare horris and Diamond); there I stood still; I could net eatch	 nominated. Mr. Orasson presented two bills—one for wood and the other for potatoes—which articles had been, bought by the steward. Mr. C. said the price paid was too exrobitant, and he hoped the Board would refuse to pay them. The bills were referred to the House Committee. Mr. Dickinson, chairman of the Committee on Manufactures, called attention to the fact that the steam engines used at the house for pumping up water were much out of repair, and need attend- ing to. The matter was referred to the Committee on Manufactures, with power to act. Adjourned. The Blockade of the Mississippi. A battery of thirty-two-pounders is to be erected on the banks of the Mississippi, at Memphis. The river orafit will, therefore, be compelied to lie to at that point, as well as at Vicksburg. The Tennessee Minute Men shew that tendered to the of this new outrage. We quote the following from the Memphis Avalanche of Monday: "The Minute Men have had tendered to them sixteen thirty-two-pound cannon by Major A. H. Douglass, who because the purchaser when the
No. 343 ROUTH SECOND STRIKET. No. 343 ROUTH SECOND STRIKET. No. 345 ROUTH SECOND STRIKET. No. 345 CHESTNUTSERST. No. 345 CHESTNUTSERST. No. 345 ROUTH SECOND STRIKET. No. 345 ROUTH	A Large Assortment of CRAVATS, SCARPE, NECKTIES, UNDER- SHIRTS, DRAWERS, HOSTERY, GLOVES, SUSPENDERS, AND MEN'S FURNISHING GENERALLY, A T Q R E A T L Y REDUCED PRICES, TO BUIT THE TIMES. J. ALBERT ESHLEMAN, dos stuth-tf BEVENTH AND CHESTNUT. E. & F. ESHLEMAN & FLETCHER. UP 800 20 CHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF EIGHTH.	the winds. It cannot be that they are averse to experiments, for never wore people so given to newfangled 'schemes, especially in naval matters. Almost all fresh models of marine architecture have issued from Ameri- can Navy-yards, and it is not so very long ago that they were quietly at work on a great steam ram, and proposing a species of submarine cruiser, to run under water. In shert, if we could presume to suspect them of any reluc- tance to "go ahead," either in this or any other matter, they would be fairly entitled to resent the imputation as perfoctly unwarrant- able. Then, what are we to think? France, England, Russia, have come into the new sys- tem, but the United States hold out. Are the Americans right, while we are all wrong ?" It is a curious fact that the United States, a great mercantile nation, with fleets in which white-winged Commerce is borne across all seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the ago.	that the Republicans are determined to con- code nothing, and stand by their odions Ohi- cago platform. The consequence of this condition of things can be seen already in the minds and appear- ances of our citizens; all parties are beginning to change from strong Union men into Se- cessionists; there is no excitement, but a deep and growing feeling that we will have to fight it out to the bitter end. Military companies are rapidly forming, and private citizens arming themselves for the coming battle. The attitude of these who, during the past fow weeks, have stubbornly opposed all con- ciliatory measures, has done much to paralyze the efforts of the Union men of the South. Take this neighborhood, for instance. Goy. Hicks is almost universally sustained, South Carolina condemned, and a strong determina- tion to stand by the Constitution and the en- forcement of the laws. I was myself a strong and ardent supporter of Mr. Douglas, and voted for him, and am a slaveholder, also; and yet I am hecoming gradually convinced	sions to vagabonds who have filled their pock- ets out of national plunder; if there be con- cessions let them be honorable ones—let it be in accordance with the wishes of Senator Johnson, of Teanessee, of Senators Douglas, Crittenden, and Cameron; of Clemens, of Virginie, of Gilmer, Etheridge, and the other true and conservative spirits of the South, who really desire a speedy and permanent set- tlement of our tronbles. Respectfully yours, Jonn CAMPBELL. [For The Press.] Mr. EDITOR: In your published report of the workingmen's meeting on Saturday night, my name is published as one of the secretaries. In consequence of the manner in which the "milk-and-water" resolutions were gagged through—no negative vote being taken, although demanded—the President, at my request, publicly announced that I with-	pretty mas; when I was coming there to Howard and Diamond streets, by the side of the square, then I stood still. I cannot recollect for certain, there was something standing there; I ran to Heward and Diamond, and there stopped; I leaned against a box, and the wagon was start- ing already; then I tried to get a look into the wagon; bofore I could look if was not very far off; he had got about three tree boxes off from the corner; (trees are planted along this square), he was on Diamond street; the wagon had start- ed, and was coming towards me; doming down Diamond street; I saw one man only sliting in the was out ; he drove very fast; the first movement I made was to get a weapon, and the first thing that went through my head was to shoot the herse down, only I had nothing; I run aftor the wagon (in Howard street, between Norris and Diamond); there I stood still; I could net eatch the wagon (in Howard street, is to wate a hot	and the other for potatoes—which articles had been bought by the steward. Mr. C. said the Board would refuse to pay them. The bills were referred to the House Committee. Mr. Dickinson, chairman of the Committee on Maunfactures, called attention to the fast that the steam engines used at the house for pumping up water were much out of repair, and need attend- ing to. The matter was referred to the Committee on Manufactures, with power to act. Adjourned. The Blockade of the Mississippi. A battery of thirty-two-pounders is to be erected on the banks of the Mississippi, at Memphis. The river craft will, therefore, be compelied to lie to at that point, as well as at Vicksburg. The Tennessee Minute Men seem to be the originators of this new outrage. We quote the following from the Menphis Avalanchs of Monday: "The Minute Men have had tendered to them sixteen thirty-two-pound cannon by Major A. H. Douglass, who beceme the purchaser when the
No. 335 GDUTH SECOND STRIKET. No. 335 GHESTNUTS Size of Salessi. No. 335 GHESTNUTS Size of salessi. Size of salessi. No. 335 GHESTNUTS Size of salessi. No. 336 GHESTNUTS Size of salessi. No. 346 GHESTNUTS Size of salessi. No. 346 GHESTNUTS Size of salessi. No. 5. MOORE & OO Salessi of ooksi. No. 5. MOORENEAD. No. 5. MOO	A Large Assortment of CRAVATS, SCARPE, NECKTIES, UNDER- SHIRTS, DRAWERS, HOSTERY, GLOVES, SUSPENDERS, AND MEN'S FURNISHING GENERALLY, A T Q R E A T L Y REDUCED PRICES, TO BUIT THE TIMES. J. ALBERT ESHLEMAN, dos stuth-tf BEVENTH AND CHESTNUT. E. & F. ESHLEMAN & FLETCHER. UP 800 20 CHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF EIGHTH.	to experiments, for never were people so given to newfangled schemes, especially in naval matters. Almost all fresh models of marine architecture have issued from Ameri- can Navy-yards, and it is not so very long ago that they were quietly at work on a great steam ram, and proposing a species of submarine cruiser, to run under water. In shert, if we could presume to suspect them of any reluc- tance to "go ahead," either in this or any other matter, they would be fairly entitled to resent the imputation as perfectly unwarrant- able. Then, what are we to think? France, England, Russia, have come into the new sys- tom, but the United States hold out. Are the Americans right, while we are all wrong?" It is a curious fact that the United States, a great mercantile nation, with fleets in which white-winged Commerce is borne across all seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the ago.	cede nothing, and stand by their odious Ohi- cago platform. The consequence of this condition of things can be seen already in the minds and appear- ances of our citizens; all parties are beginning to change from strong Union men into Se- cessionists; there is no oxcitement, but a deep and growing feeling that we will have to fight it out to the bitter end. Military companies are rapidly forming, and private citizens arming themselves for the coming battle. The attitude of these who, during the past fow weeks, have stubbornly oppesed all con- cillatory measures, has done much to paralyze the efforts of the Union men of the South. Take this neighborhood, for instance. Gov. Hicks is almost universally sustained, South Carolina condemned, and a strong determina- tion to stand by the Constitution and the en- forcement of the laws. I was myself a strong and ardent supporter of Mr. Douglas, and voted for him, and am a slaveholder, also; and yet I am hecoming gradually convinced	ets out of national plunder; if there be con- cessions let them be honorable ones-let it be in accordance with the wishes of Senator Johnson, of Texnessee, of Senators Douglas, Crittenden, and Cameron; ef Clemens, of Virginia, of Gilmer, Etheridge, and the other true and conservative spirits of the South, who really desire a speedy and permanent set- tlement of our troubles. Respectfully yours, Joun CAMPBELL. IFor The Press.] Mr. EDITOR: In your published report of the workingmen's meeting on Saturday night, my name is published as one of the secretaries. In consequence of the mannor in which the "milk-and-water" resolutions were gagged through-no negative vote being taken, although demanded-the President, at my request, publicly announced that I with-	pretty mas; when I was coming there to Howard and Diamond streets, by the side of the square, then I stood still. I cannot recollect for certain, there was something standing there; I ran to Heward and Diamond, and there stopped; I leaned against a box, and the wagon was start- ing already; then I tried to get a look into the wagon; bofore I could look if was not very far off; he had got about three tree boxes off from the corner; (trees are planted along this square), he was on Diamond street; the wagon had start- ed, and was coming towards me; doming down Diamond street; I saw one man only sliting in the was out ; he drove very fast; the first movement I made was to get a weapon, and the first thing that went through my head was to shoot the herse down, only I had nothing; I run aftor the wagon (in Howard street, between Norris and Diamond); there I stood still; I could net eatch the wagon (in Howard street, is to wate a hot	Board would refuse to pay them. The bills were referred to the House Committee. Mr. Dickinson, chairman of the Committee on Maufactures, called attention to the fact that the steam engines used at the house for pumping up water were much out of repair, and need attend- ing to. The matter was referred to the Committee on Manufactures, with power to act. Adjourned. The Biockade of the Massissippi. A battery of thirty-two-pounders is to be erected on the banks of the Mississippi, at Memphis. The river oraft will, therefore, be compelied to lie to at that point, as well as at Vicksburg. The Tennessee Minute Men seem to be the originators of this new outrage. We quote the following from the Memphis Avalanche of Monday : "The Minute Men have had tendered to them sixteen thirty-two-pound cannon by Major A. H. Douglass, who became the purchaser when the
No. 343 ROUTH SECOND STRIKET. No. 343 ROUTH SECOND STRIKET. No. 345 ROUTH SECOND STRIKET. No. 345 CHESTNUTSERST. No. 345 CHESTNUTSERST. No. 345 ROUTH SECOND STRIKET. No. 345 ROUTH	AND MEN'S FURNISHING GENERALLY, A T G R E A T L Y REDUCED PRICES, TO BUIT THE TIMES. J. ALBERT ESHLEMAN, 665 stuth-tf BEVENTH AND CHESTNUT. ESHLEMAN & FLETCHER. UF 800 £0 CHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF EIGHTH.	naval matters. Almost all fresh models of marine architecture have issued from Ameri- can Navy-yards, and it is not so very long.ago that they were quietly at work on a great steam ram, and proposing a species of submarine cruiser, to run under water. In short, if we could presume to suspect them of any reluc- tance to "go ahead," either in this or any other matter, they would be fairly entitled to resent the imputation as perfectly unwarrant- able. Then, what are we to think? France, England, Russia, have come into the new sys- tem, but the United States hold out. Are the Americans right, while we are all wrong?" It is a curious fact that the United States, a great mercantile nation, with fleets in which white-winged Commerce is borne across all seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the ago.	The consequence of this condition of things can be seen already in the minds and appear- ances of our citizens; all parties are beginning to change from strong Union men into Se- cessionists; there is no excitement, but a deep and growing feeling that we will have to fight it out to the bitter end. Military companies are rapidly forming, and private citizens arming themselves for the coming battle. The attitude of those who, during the past fow weeks, have stubbornly opposed all con- cillatory measures, has done much to paralyze the efforts of the Union men of the South. Take this neighborhood, for instance. Goy. Hicks is almost universally sustained, South Carolina condemned, and a strong determina- tion to stand by the Constitution and the en- forcement of the laws. I was myself a strong and ardent supporter of Mr. Douglas, and voted for him, and am a slaveholder, also; and yet I am becoming gradually convinced	in accordance with the wishes of Senator Johnson, of Texnessee, of Senators Douglas, Crittenden, and Cameron; of Clemens, of Virginia, of Gilmer, Etheridge, and the other true and conservative spirits of the South, who really desire a speedy and permanent set- tlement of our tronbles. Respectfully yours, Jonn CAMPBELL. [For The Press.] Mr. EDITOR: In your published report of the workingmen's meeting on Saturday night, my name is published as one of the secretaries. In consequence of the manner in which the "milk-and-water" resolutions were gagged through-no negative vote being taken, although demanded—the President, at my request, publicly announced that I with-	there was something standing there. I ran to Heward and Diamond, and there stopped; I leaned against a box, and the wagon was start- ing already; then I tried to get a look into the wagon; bofore I could look it was not very far off; he had got about three tree boxes off from the corner; (trees are planted along this square), he was on Diamond street; the wagon had start- ed, and was coming towards me; coming down Diamond street; I saw one man only sitting in the wagon; he turned around Howard street and went south; he drove very fast; the first movoment I made was to get a weapon, and the first thing that wont through my head was to shoot the herse down, only I had nothing; I run aftor the wagon unil we got to the church called Little Heavon (in Howard street, between Norris and Diamond); there I stood still; I could not catch	 Dikilson, of airman of the Committee on Maufactures, called attention to the fact that the etsam engines used at the house for pumping up water were much out of repair, and need attend- ing to. The matter was referred to the Committee on Manufactures, with power to act. Adjourned. The Blockade of the Mississippi. A battery of thirty-two-pounders is to be created on the banks of the Mississippi, at Memphis. The river craft will, therefore, be complied to lie to at that point, as well as at Vicksburg. The Tennessee Minute Men seem to be the originators of this new outrage. We quote the following from the Memphis Avalanchs of Monday: The Minute Men have had tendered to them sixteen thirty-two-pound cannon by Major A. H. Douglass, who become the purchaser when the
No. 343 ROUTH SECOND STRIKET. No. 343 ROUTH SECOND STRIKET. No. 345 ROUTH SECOND STRIKET. No. 345 CHESTNUTSERST. No. 345 CHESTNUTSERST. No. 345 ROUTH SECOND STRIKET. No. 345 ROUTH	AND MEN'S FURNISHING GENERALLY, A T G R E A T L Y REDUCED PRICES, TO BUIT THE TIMES. J. ALBERT ESHLEMAN, 665 stuth-tf BEVENTH AND CHESTNUT. ESHLEMAN & FLETCHER. UF 800 £0 CHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF EIGHTH.	marine architecture have issued from Ameri- can Navy-yards, and it is not so very long ago that they were quietly at work on a great steam ram, and proposing a species of submarine cruiser, to run under water. In shert, if we could presume to suspect them of any reluc- tance to "go ahead," either in this or any other matter, they would be fairly entitled to resent the imputation as perfectly unwarrant- able. Then, what are we to think? France, England, Russia, have come into the new sys- tem, but the United States hold out. Are the Americans right, while we are all wrong?" It is a curious fact that the United States, a great mercantile nation, with fleets in which white-winged Commerce is borne across all seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the ago.	can be seen already in the minds and appear- ances of our citizens; all parties are beginning to change from strong Union men into Se- cessionists; there is no excitement, but a deep and growing feeling that we will have to fight it out to the bitter end. Military companies are rapidly forming, and private citizens arming themselves for the coming battle. The attitude of these who, during the past fow weeks, have stubbornly opposed all con- ciliatory measures, has done much to paralyze the efforts of the Union men of the South. Take this neighborhood, for instance. Goy. Hicks is almost universally sustained, South Carolina condemned, and a strong determina- tion to stand by the Constitution and the en- forcement of the laws. I was myself a strong and ardent supporter of Mr. Douglas, and voted for him, and am a slaveholder, also; and yet I am hecoming gradually convinced	Johnson, of Tennessee, of Senators Douglas, Crittenden, and Cameron; of Clemens, of Virginia, of Gilmer, Etheridge, and the other true and conservative spirits of the South, who really desire a speedy and permanent set- tlement of our troubles. Respectfully yours, Jonn CAMPBELL. [For The Press.] Mr. EDITOR: In your published report of the workingmen's meeting on Saturday night, my name is published as one of the secretaries. In consequence of the manner in which the "milk-and-water" resolutions were gagged through-no negative vote being taken, although demanded—the President, at my request, publicly announced that I with-	Heward and Diamond, and there stopped; 1 leaned against a box, and the wagon was start- ing already; then I tried to get a look into the wagon; bofore I could look it was not very far off; he had got about three tree boxes off from the corner; (irces are planted along this equare), he was on Diamond street; the wagon had start- ed, and was coming towards me; coming down Diamond street; I saw one man only slitling in the wagon; he turned around Howard street and wont south; he drove very fast; the first movement I made was to get a weapon, and the first thing that wont through my head was to shoct the herse down, only I had nothing; I run after the wagon until we got to the ohurch called Little Heavon (in Howard street, between Norris and Diamond); there I stood still; I could not catch the wagonit was impossible: I stood three a little	The Blockade of the Massissippi. A battery of thirty-two-pounders is to pay in the state and the battery of the state of the committee on Manufactures, with power to act. Adjourned. The Blockade of the Massissippi. A battery of thirty-two-pounders is to be erected on the banks of the Mississippi, at Memphis. The river orait will, therefore, be compelied to lie to at that point, as well as at Vicksburg. The Tennessee Minute Men seem to be the originators of this new outrage. We quote the following from the Memphis Avalanche of Monday: "The Minute Men have had tendered to them sixteen thirty-two-pound cannon by Major A. H. Douglass, who became the purchaser when the
No. 335 CHEETINIT Streat, Poliadejhid. To those who order goods by mail, must send is center with to pay position and the string streat is center with to pay position and the streat is center cles & cents and 9 cents on such additional atticle. deal intervention of the streat is center cles & cents and 9 cents on such additional atticle. deal intervention of the streat is center cles & cents and 9 cents on such additional atticle. deal intervention of the streat is center of the streat is center of the streat is the mean- fine of the streat is the streat is the streat is center of the streat is the streat is the streat science of watches, the of the streat is the strea	GENERALLY, AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES, TO BUIT THE TIMES, J. ALBERT ESHLEMAN, def stuth-tf BEVENTH AND CHEBTNUT, E. & F. ESHLEMAN & FLETCHER. CF 800 £0 OHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF EIGHTH.	that they were quietly at work on a great steam ram, and proposing a species of submarine cruiser, to run under water. In shert, if we could presume to suspect them of any reluc- tance to "go ahead," either in this or any other matter, they would be fairly entitled to resent the imputation as perfectly unwarrant- able. Then, what are we to think? France, England, Russia, have come into the new sys- tom, but the United States hold out. Are the Americans right, while we are all wrong?" It is a curious fact that the United States, a great mercantile nation, with fleets in which white-winged Commerce is borne across all seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the age.	to change from strong Union men into Se- cessionists; there is no excitement, but a deep and growing feeling that we will have to fight it out to the bitter end. Military companies are rapidly forming, and private citizons arming themselves for the coming battle. The attitude of those who, during the past fow weeks, have stubbornly opposed all con- cillatory measures, has done much to paralyze the efforts of the Union men of the South. Take this neighborhood, for instance. Goy. Hicks is almost universally sustained. South Carolina condemned, and a strong determina- tion to stand by the Constitution and the en- forcement of the laws. I was myself a strong and ardent supporter of Mr. Douglas, and voted for him, and am a slaveholder, also; and yet I am hecoming gradually convinced	tlement of our troubles. Respectfully yours, JONN CAMPBELL. [For The Press.] Mn. EDITOR: In your published report of the workingmen's meeting on Saturday night, my name is published as one of the secretaries. In consequence of the manner in which the "milk-and-water" resolutions were gagged throughno negative vote being taken, although demandedthe President, at my request, publicly announced that I with-	the corner; (frees are planted along this square), he was on Diamond street; the wagon had start- ed, and was coming towards me; doming down Diamond street; I saw one man only sitting in the wagon; he turned around Howard street and wont south; he drove very fast; the first movement I made was to get a weapon, and the first thing that wont through my head was to shoot the herse down, only I had nothing; I run after the wagon until we got to the church called Little Heavon (in Howard street, between Norris and Diamond); there I stood still; I could not catch the wagon-it was impossible: I stood there a little	The Blockade of the Massissippi. A battery of thirty-two-pounders is to be erected on the banks of the Mississippi, at Memphis. The river oraft will, therefore, be compelied to lie to at that point, as well as at Viokaburg. The Tennessee Minute Men seem to be the originators of this new outrage. We quote the following from the Memphis Avalanche of Monday: "The Minute Men have had tendered to them sixteen thirty-two-pound cannon by Major A. H. Douglass, who became the purchaser when the
FINE WATCH REPAIRING. FINE WATCH REPAIRING. DERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES wearers are invited to fire them to our store, where all defects can be ramedied by thoroughly skilled to sire elegends workmen, and the wstoh warranted to sire entry mathefections, failth and Boxes, co., carefully put in complete order, FAR & BOTHER, . Importers of Watches, Mancal Boxes, Clocks, Sc., jall an 344 CHESTNUT Street, below Fourth. BUSINESS CARDS. AY COOKE & CO., BANKERS, 114 BOUTH THIRD STREET.	TO BUIT THE TIMES. J. ALBERT ESHLEMAN, des stuth-tf BEVENTH AND CHESTNUT. ESHLEMAN & FLETCHER. EF 800 _CU CHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF EIGHTH.	ram, and proposing a species of submarine cruiser, to run under water. In short, if we could presume to suspect them of any reluc- tance to "go ahead," either in this or any other matter, they would be fairly entitled to resent the imputation as perfectly unwarrant- able. Then, what are we to think? France, England, Russia, have come into the new sys- tem, but the United States hold out. Are the Americans right, while we are all wrong?" It is a curious fact that the United States, a great mercantilo nation, with fleets in which white-winged Commerce is borne across all seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the age.	and growing feeling that we will have to fight it out to the bitter end. Military companies are rapidly forming, and private citizens arming themselves for the coming battle. The attitude of these who, during the past fow weeks, have stubbornly oppesed all con- cillatory measures, has done much to paralyze the efforts of the Union men of the South. Take this neighborhood, for instance. Gov. Hicks is almost universally sustained, South Carolina condemned, and a strong determina- tion to stand by the Constitution and the en- forcement of the laws. I was myself a strong and ardent supporter of Mr. Douglas, and voted for him, and am a slaveholder, also; and yet I am hecoming gradually convinced	tlement of our troubles. Respectfully yours, JONN CAMPBELL. [For The Press.] Mn. EDITOR: In your published report of the workingmen's meeting on Saturday night, my name is published as one of the secretaries. In consequence of the manner in which the "milk-and-water" resolutions were gagged throughno negative vote being taken, although demandedthe President, at my request, publicly announced that I with-	the corner; (frees are planted along this square), he was on Diamond street; the wagon had start- ed, and was coming towards me; doming down Diamond street; I saw one man only sitting in the wagon; he turned around Howard street and wont south; he drove very fast; the first movement I made was to get a weapon, and the first thing that wont through my head was to shoot the herse down, only I had nothing; I run after the wagon until we got to the church called Little Heavon (in Howard street, between Norris and Diamond); there I stood still; I could not catch the wagon-it was impossible: I stood there a little	The Blockade of the Massissippi. A battery of thirty-two-pounders is to be erected on the banks of the Mississippi, at Memphis. The river oraft will, therefore, be compelied to lie to at that point, as well as at Viokaburg. The Tennessee Minute Men seem to be the originators of this new outrage. We quote the following from the Memphis Avalanche of Monday: "The Minute Men have had tendered to them sixteen thirty-two-pound cannon by Major A. H. Douglass, who became the purchaser when the
FINE WATCH REPAIRING. FINE WATCH REPAIRING. DERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES tast have inthero given no satisfaction to the selestic or of the remediced by thoroughly skilled as selestic or of the remediced by thoroughly skilled by the remediced by thoroughly skilled by the remediced by thoroughly skilled by the remediced by thoroughly skilled by thoroughly skilled by the remediced by thoroughly skilled by the remediced by the remediced by thoroughly skilled by the remediced by the remedi	TO BUIT THE TIMES. J. ALBERT ESHLEMAN, des stuth-tf BEVENTH AND CHESTNUT. ESHLEMAN & FLETCHER. EF 800 _CU CHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF EIGHTH.	could presume to suspect them of any reluc- tance to "go ahead," either in this or any other matter, they would be fairly entitled to resent the imputation as perfectly unwarrant- able. Then, what are we to think? France, England, Russia, have come into the new sys- tem, but the United States hold out. Are the Americans right, while we are all wrong?" It is a curlous fact that the United States, a great mercantile nation, with fleets in which white-winged Commerce is borne across all seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the age.	are rapidly forming, and private citizens arming themselves for the coming battle. The attitude of those who, during the past fow weeks, have stubbornly opposed all con- ciliatory measures, has done much to paralyze the efforts of the Union men of the South. Take this neighborhood, for instance. Gov. Hicks is almost universally sustained, South Carolina condemned, and a strong determina- tion to stand by the Constitution and the en- forcement of the laws. I was myself a strong and ardent supporter of Mr. Douglas, and voted for him, and am a slaveholder, also; and yet I am hecoming gradually convinced	Respectfully yours, JOIN CAMPBELL. [For The Press.] MR. EDITOR: In your published report of the workingmen's meeting on Saturday night, my name is published as one of the secretaries. In consequence of the mannor in which the "milk-and-water" resolutions were gagged through-no negative vote being taken, although demanded—the President, at my request, publicly announced that I with-	he was on Diamond street; the wagon had start- ed, and was coming towards me; doming down Diamond street; I saw one man only sitting in the wagon; he turned around Howard street and wont south; he drove very fast; the first movement I made was to get a weapon, and the first thing that wont through my head was to shoot the herse down, only I had nothing; I run after the wagon until we got to the church called Little Heavon (in Howard street, between Norris and Diamond); there I stood still; I could not catch the wagon-it was impossible: I stood there a little	A battery of thirty-two-pounders is to be erected on the banks of the Mississippi, at Memphis. The river oraft will, therefore, be compelied to lie to at that point, as well as at Vicksburg. The Tennessee Minute Men seem to be the originators of this new outrage. We quote the following from the Memphis Avalanche of Monday : "The Minute Men have had tendered to them sixteen thirty-two-pound cannon by Major A. H. Douglass, who became the purchaser when the
FINE WATCH REPAIRING. PERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES that have lutherto given no satisfaction to the warver are invited to bring them to our store, where all defects can be ramedied by thoroughly skillad to give Business, scale and the watch warranted to give in complete offer. FARR & BOOTHER, importers of Watches, Muscal Boxes, Clocks, Sc., jail 2m Business Carbos. AT ROBERT B. CORSON & CO.'S OFFICE, 133 WALNUT STREET, BUSINESS CARDS. AT ROBERT B. CORSON & CO.'S OFFICE, 133 WALNUT STREET, BRIOW SECOND, Jas-tathaim PHILADELPHIA, KEROSENE OIL. KEROSENE OIL.	TO BUIT THE TIMES. J. ALBERT ESHLEMAN, des stuth-tf BEVENTH AND CHESTNUT. ESHLEMAN & FLETCHER. EF 800 _CU CHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF EIGHTH.	tance to "go shead," either in this or any other matter, they would be fairly entitled to resent the imputation as perfectly unwarrant- able. Then, what are we to think? France, England, Russia, have come into the new sys- tom, but the United States hold out. Are the Americans right, while we are all wrong?" It is a curlous fact that the United States, a great mercantile nation, with fleets in which white-winged Commerce is borne across all seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the age.	arming themsolves for the coming battle. The attitude of these who, during the past fow weeks, have stubbornly oppessed all con- ciliatory measures, has done much to paralyze the efforts of the Union men of the South. Take this neighborhood, for instance. Gov. Hicks is almost universally sustained, South Carolina condemned, and a strong determina- tion to stand by the Constitution and the en- forcement of the laws. I was myself a strong and ardent supporter of Mr. Douglas, and voted for him, and am a slaveholder, also; and yet I am hecoming gradually convinced	JOHN CAMPBELL. [For The Press.] MR. EDITOR: In your published report of the workingmen's meeting on Saturday night, my name is published as one of the secretaries. In consequence of the manner in which the "milk-and-water" resolutions were gagged throughno negative vote being taken, although demandedthe President, at my request, publicly announced that I with-	Ed, and was coming towards me; doming down Diamond street; I saw one man only sliting in the wagon; he turned around Howard street and wont south; he drove very fast; the first movement I made was to get a wespon, and the first thing that went through my head was to shoot the herse down, only I had nothing; I run after the wagon until we got to the church called Little Heaven (in Howard street, between Norris and Diamond); there I stood still; I could not catch the wagon—it was impossible: I stood there a little	on the banks of the Mississippi, at Memphis. The river craft will, therefore, be compelled to lie to at that point, as well as at Vicksburg. The Tennessee Minute Men seem to be the originators of this new cutrage. We quote the following from the Memphis Avalanche of Monday: "The Minute Men have had tendered to them sixteen thirty two-pound cannon by Major A. H. Douglass, who became the purchaser when the
FINE WATCH REPAIRING. PERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES water are invited to bring them to our store, where all deficits can be randeded by thoroughly skilled as scientific worther, sad the watch watranied to sive many to the state and the watch watranied to sive many to the state and the watch watranied to sive many to the state and the watch watranied to sive many to the state and the watch watranied to sive many to the state and the watch watranied to sive many to the state and the watch watranied to sive many to the state and the watch watranied to sive many to the state and the watch watranied to sive many to the state and the side and the state and the state and the state many to the state and the state and the state and the state and the state many to the state and the state and the state and the state and the state many to the state and the state and the state and the state and the state many to the state and the state an	TO BUIT THE TIMES. J. ALBERT ESHLEMAN, des stuth-tf BEVENTH AND CHESTNUT. ESHLEMAN & FLETCHER. EF 800 _CU CHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF EIGHTH.	other matter, they would be fairly entitled to resent the imputation as perfectly unwarrant- able. Then, what are we to think? France, England, Russia, have come into the new sys- tom, but the United States hold out. Are the Americans right, while we are all wrong ?" It is a curious fact that the United States, a great mercantile nation, with fleets in which white-winged Commerce is borne across all seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the age.	fow weeks, have stubbornly opposed all con- ciliatory measures, has done much to paralyze the efforts of the Union men of the South. Take this neighborhood, for instance. Gov. Hicks is almost universally sustained, South Carolina condemned, and a strong determina- tion to stand by the Constitution and the en- forcement of the laws. I was myself a strong and ardent supporter of Mr. Douglas, and voted for him, and am a slaveholder, also; and yet I am hecoming gradually convinced	MR. EDITOR: In your published report of the workingmen's meeting on Saturday night, my name is published as one of the secretaries. In consequence of the manner in which the "milk-and-water" resolutions were gagged through—no negative vote being taken, although demanded—the President, at my request, publicly annunced that I with-	the wagon; he turned around Howard street and wont south; he drove very fast; the first movement I made was to get a weepon, and the first thing that went through my head was to shoot the herse down, only I had nothing; I run after the wagon until we got to the church called Little Heaven (in Howard street, between Norris and Diamond); there I stood still; I could not catch the wagon-it was impossible: I stood there a little	river craft will, therefore, be compelled to lie to at that point, as well as at Vicksburg. The Tennessee Minute Men seem to be the originators of this new cutrage. We quote the following from the Memphis Avalanche of Monday: "The Minute Men have had tendered to them sixteen thirty-two-pound cannon by Major A. H. Douglass, who became the purchaser when the
List have hither of given no satisfaction to the waster stein with them to our store, when elected or bring them to our store, when elected or bring them to our store, when entry satisfaction: Manual Boxes, co., carefully put in complete erfer, Manual Boxes, co., carefully put in business CARDS. Mar Cooke & Co., Business CARDS. Mar Cooke & Co., BarkEns, Ar Cooke & Co., BarkEns,	des stuth-tf BEVENTH AND CHEBTNUT. E. & F. ESHLEMAN & FLETCHER. EF 800 _CU CHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF EIGHTH.	able. Then, what are we to think? France, England, Russia, have come into the new sys- tem, but the United States hold out. Are the Americans right, while we are all wrong ?" It is a curlous fact that the United States, a great mercantile nation, with flects in which white-winged Commerce is borne across all seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the age.	the efforts of the Union men of the South. Take this neighborhood, for instance. Gov. Hicks is almost universally sustained, South Carolina condemned, and a strong determina- tion to stand by the Constitution and the en- forcement of the laws. I was myself a strong and ardent supporter of Mr. Douglas, and voted for him, and am a slaveholder, also; and yet I am becoming gradually convinced	were gagged through no negative vote being taken, although demandedthe President, at my request, publicly announced that I with-	Diamond); there I stood still; I could not catch the wagon-it was impossible: I stood there a little	Douglass, who became the purchaser when the
List have hither of given no satisfaction to the waster stein with them to our store, when elected or bring them to our store, when elected or bring them to our store, when entry satisfaction: Manual Boxes, co., carefully put in complete erfer, Manual Boxes, co., carefully put in business CARDS. Mar Cooke & Co., Business CARDS. Mar Cooke & Co., BarkEns, Ar Cooke & Co., BarkEns,	E. & F. ESHLEMAN & FLETCHER. IF 800 LU CHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF EIGHTH.	England, Russia, have come into the new sys- tem, but the United States hold out. Are the Americans right, while we are all wrong ?" It is a curious fact that the United States, a great mercantile nation, with fleets in which white-winged Commerce is borne across all seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the age.	Take this neighborhood, for instance. Gov. Hicks is almost universally sustained, South Carolina condemned, and a strong determina- tion to stand by the Constitution and the en- forcement of the laws. I was myself a strong and ardent supporter of Mr. Douglas, and voted for him, and am a slaveholder, also; and yet I am becoming gradually convinced	were gagged through no negative vote being taken, although demandedthe President, at my request, publicly announced that I with-	Diamond); there I stood still; I could not catch the wagon-it was impossible: I stood there a little	Douglass, who became the purchaser when the
Interstation AT Interstation FARE & BROTHER, . Importers of Watches, Muncal Boxes, Cocks, Fo., . ROBERT R. CORSON & CO.'S OFFICE, . Importers of Watches, Muncal Boxes, Cocks, Fo., . 133 WALNUT STREET, . BUSINESS CARDS. BLOW SECOND, JAT COORE. W. G. MOOBHEAD JAY COOKE & CO.,	ESHLEMAN & FLETOHER. IF 800 LU OHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF RIGHTH.	Americans right, while we are all wrong ?" It is a curious fact that the United States, a great mercantile nation, with fleets in which white-winged Commerce is borne across all seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the age.	Carolina condemned, and a strong determina- tion to stand by the Constitution and the en- forcement of the laws. I was myself a strong and ardent supporter of Mr. Douglas, and voted for him, and am a slaveholder, also; and yet I am becoming gradually convinced	were gagged through no negative vote being taken, although demandedthe President, at my request, publicly announced that I with-	Diamond); there I stood still; I could not catch the wagon-it was impossible: I stood there a little	Douglass, who became the purchaser when the
COMPACTOR OF Watches, Muncal BOXES, Clocks, Sc., jalian 384 CheSTNUE Street, below Fourth. BUSINESS CARDS. JAY COOKE & CO., JAY COOKE & CO., JAY COOKE & CO., 114 SOUTH TRING STREET.	ESHLEMAN & FLETOHER. IF 800 LU OHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF RIGHTH.	It is a curious fact that the United States, a great mercantile nation, with fleets in which white-winged Commerce is borne across all seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the age.	forcement of the laws. I was myself a strong and ardent supporter of Mr. Douglas, and voted for him, and am a slaveholder, also; and yet I am becoming gradually convinced	taken, although demanded—the President, at my request, publicly announced that I with-	the wagon-it was impossible: I stood there a little
Importers of Watches, Munical Boxes, Clocks, &c., jall an 344 GLESTNUF Street, below Fourth, BUSINESS CARDS. JAY COOKE & CO., JAY COOKE & CO., BANKERS, 114 BOUTH THIRD STREET.	OF 800 LU OHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF RIGHTH.	a great mercantile nation, with fleets in which white-winged Commerce is borne across all seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the age.	and ardent supporter of Mr. Douglas, and voted for him, and am a slaveholder, also; and yet I am becoming gradually convinced	my request, publicly announced that I with-		the city. These guns are in good condition and
BUSINESS CARDS. BUSINESS CARDS. JAY COOKE & CO., JAY CONKE & CO	OF 800 LU OHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF RIGHTH.	seas to the shores of all maritime countries, should be charged with being behind the age.	and yet I am becoming gradually convinced	drew my name as an officer of the meeting.	while and considered over it; I then went near the church, across the lots, and went near the body and stood off fitnen or the the the body	will immediately be put in working order.
JAY GOOKE & CO., JAY COOKE & CO., JAY COOKE & CO., 114 SOUTH THIRD STREET.	CHESTNUT STREET, SOUTHWEST CORNER OF RIGHTH.	should be charged with being behind the age.		and assured me that it should not be published	and stood off fifteen or twenty feet in the square; there was some lights there, and I saw two boys	the City Council for the privilege of erecting the battery at such point as may be selected, as well
JAY OOOKE & CO., 114 SOUTH THIRD STREET.	SOUTHWEST CORNER OF EIGHTH.	Vet there is a good minut faste and me-	quarter; and that the enforcement of the laws	as such. As he failed to fulfil his assurance, you will confer a favor by publishing the	them; one was David Hanna, and the other Craw-	as for an appropriation commensurate with the 114 SOUTH THIRD STREET.				above. I am, sir, very respectfully, &c., JONATHAN C. FINCHER, 809 Gaskill street.	long, and walked off slowly to home. Mr. Mann. Look at the prisoner and say	as for an appropriation commensurate with the plan proposed. "The presence of these cannon seems almost providential, and it behoves us, occupying the def tes	THE ORAVAT STORE	Times concludes thus : "We sheald be traly glad to learn what conclu- sions the Americans have formed on this business.			whether, to the best of your knowledge and belief.	Dosition that Memohis does to evail ourselves of
In order to meet the constantly-increasing demand	I			Lord Palmerston and the American	that man who was in that wagon was that pri-	should actual hostilities, of which now there
	AND	insy the might achieve the dustion is a most important one. We cannot even yet profess to see our way clearly, and we should be glad of any clue to the truth. It has been ascertained, no doubt-or, at any rate, inferred with a high decree of probability-that increased ficience sul	ments of any considerable portion of the peo-	Difficulty. [From the Toronto Leader.]	The prisoner was requested to stand up. During the examination of the witness, the prisoner ex-	seems little doubt, occur. Let us, by all means, strengthen ourselves in every available manner,
THE START ON SALES AND	THE COLLAR STORE	any clue to the truth. It has been ascertained, no doubt-or, at any rate informed with a bight	must be thinking Davis does represent us	In the course of a speech, delivered at South- ampton, Lord Palmerston referred to the diffi-	hibited, for the first during the trial, evidences of	We trust that our patriotic and public-spirited ci-
JAMES PAT. TAB. B. NICHOLSON. In order to innue for us a constant supply, adequate to the demand, they have positively refused to establish	OF	degree of probability-that iron-cased frigates will	the North in the event of a dissolution, and to	culties between the Northern and Southern sections of the United States, and expressed a foar that the	constant change of position and change of hands, running the latter through his hair, &c. Prior to	They eventually prove one seluction and show to doubt-or, at any rate, inferred with a high degree of probability-that iron-cased frigates will not do for long cruises, distant expeditions, or stormy seas; but it has been also shown that for the immediate work of a naval engagement their powers will be so formidable as to crush those of any old-fashioned opponents. British sallors have distinctly recorded their opinions that, whother the	buying out our slaves and make this a free State. There is not money enough in all	Union would be dissolved. His Lordship added a bone that whether the Union was dissolved or	this it was noticeable that he would maintain the same position for hours.	Abolitionists, and their rederal allies, if they should attempt coercion, that here in Tennes-
Where the south of the south in the south of	GRAND DEPOT	powers will be so formidable as to orush those of	North America and England to buy us out;	maintained, amicable relations would be esta-	Mr. Bull objected to the question on the ground that the appearance of the man should be stated	see they will be welcomed with the courtesies of war."
S. JUGUET & CAVANA CIGARS, IMPORTERS OF A ONT Street. MONT Street. MO	FOR THE	distinctly recorded their opinions that, whother the	to a Northern Confederacy, every mother's	brothers. From the curtness of the telegraphic	by the withess first. The court allowed the question.	The Louisville Journal has the following: "There is no longor any room to doubt the re-
NIEW ORLEANS (TA) DICLA (UNE explosive properties), is, we may confidently say,	GENT'S PATENT ENAMELLED COLLAR	any old-fashioned opponents. British sailors have distinctly recorded their opinions that, whother the Glorre is seaworthy or not, she undoubtedly would in close action be as superior to a wooden vessel as a modorn rifle is to an old musket, and would blow	son of us will have to be exterminated, and the old soil repeopled with the cohorts of the	Palmerston intended to refer to the relations of	Answer. This face, (in the wagon,) when I saw it, was quite pale; on one side, where I had to	port that a battery has been erected at Vicksburg,
TOY COF & Co		any two-decker of the old school 'into lucifer	North.		look at it by the inrn, there was a monstache .	I nalling all deconding steambasts to land at that
Have been appointed sole agent in Philadelphia i. Have been appointed sole agent, of commanding in- messer of eik and conniry, at the offices of JOY. OCF. & CO., Advertising Agents, FIT H and CHERTNUT Birester, Fhiladelphia i. Tribune Buildings, New York streets, Fhiladelphia i. Tribune Buildings, New York and the streets of the trade of the streets of the s	BEST LINEN CHOKER. CRAVATS, SCARFS, AND NECKTIES IN END	Inatones. This is not a prened view of the case.	The recently here in myor or sharery is here	ing themselves. He this as it may, the intention	and net a monstache, the witness' imperfect know-	tional authorities Steamboat men who arrived
mapore of eity aud country, at the offices of JOY, CDE, Co. Advertising Arents. First and OHE Structure and the structure of	LESS NUMBERS	going to spend £80,000 apiece will, according to	have a holy horror and disgust of being placed	the new Southern Confederacy as soon as it is	say the color; he had the lines in his hands,	the truth of the rumor, and have furnished us the
A generation of eity and conniry, at the officiant of DOY TOTE to CO. Adverticing Asplie, FITT H and CHERTNUCK streets, Fhiladelphis i Tribune Balldings, New York, art. Less for inspection. art. Less for inspection. We offer 1. OANY'S LOWER' PRICE, We offer 1. OANY'S LOWER' PRICE, COM. See A bon by mail or otherwise will art. See A bon by mail or otherwise will art. See A bon by mail or otherwise will art. See A bon by mail or otherwise will art. See A bon by mail or otherwise will art. See A bon by mail or otherwise will art. See A bon by mail or otherwise will art. See A bon by mail or otherwise will art. See A bon by mail or otherwise will art. See A bon by mail or otherwise will art. See A bon by mail or otherwise will art. See A bon by mail or otherwise will art		when they are completed, and, even if they may	on a level with free negroes, and are more de-	nouncement we are in a position to make in the	that night for a lifetime. [The witness was greatly	[ional authoritios Steamboat men who arrived from that point on Sunday and yesterday confirm the truth of the rumor, and have furnished us the names of several boats which have thus been com- pelled to land and undergo a formal search. We are also assured that such boats are required to pay the wrant what face rates although their business.
	ALL KINDS OF GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHING GOODS.	ble that iron cased vessels may be so far im-	gression than the slave-owners. In a neighbor-	trouble to watch the course of events, will find	Mr. Mann. Is the prisoner the man you saw?	the usual wharfage rates, although their business engagements do not require them to land at Vicks-
TOUN (DIOUET is the dama doubt in the prompt at. Said Manufacturers of	SHIRTS MADE TO ORDER.	How, then, can our trans-Atlantic kinsmen, with	forty slaveholders, and yet, since it has be-	that we are correct. The policy of England has long been to acknowledge all de facto Govern-	ince his ince; the ince I saw was paie, not so ince	burg."
And C. DICKED IS this day sumitted as partner in our Hones. BURNETT, SEXTON, & SWEARINGEN, HURNETT, SEXTON, & SWEARINGEN, Philadelphis, Jan. 1, 1301. Jal-tuf Im	6 for $9 and upwards. (NO FIT, NO SALE.)			ments; and that policy will not be departed from in the present case.	er's complexion.) Mr. Mann. From the best of your knowledge	"The Mississippians are in (dasd earnest) in
	BEAR IN MIND	it in a position of such probable weakness? They	demonstrated to trust the matter to the God of	expected; and as soon as the Southern Confedera-	and belief, is the prisoner the man you saw?	count of themselves. The A. O. Taylor dischared
FAIRMOUNT MACHINE WORKS, WOOD Bt., between Twenty-first and Twenty-	The Corner is	periments, but it is not like them to do so. We	In conclusion, let me appeal to you as an	tion has formed a provisional Government it will be treated by the two leading Powers of Europe as	a side look this morning and it is many much like	I THE TIPE TO MOSION GALLACIED DA S SIX-DOMINI BUOK
the undersigned, successor to the late firm of J, & T. GLASS, PAINTS, WOOD, will continue the business in all its branches as OILS, AND VARNISHES,	EIGHTH & OHESTNUT,	Have in the invention and we been indeed that	wielding the most neverful prove in the State	entitled to all the privileges of a sovereign Ftate. The greatest inconvenience would arise from the	paler.	shet, and aimed at the boat Fortunately or un-neretafore. Power Loome and all machines connected with them, Einbessing Callenders, Lard Oil Presses, Northeast Corner FOURTH and RACE Streets.	NO. 800.	they field it in its first infancy, a good many years ago. Such a conclusion we certainly cannot recon- cile with the results of our own experiments; but neither, on the other hand, can we permedic our	to continue in the good work of advocating concillation, and the reneal of the personal-	adoption of any other policy. England having no control over the domestic politics of other nations,	Q. When you took a side look this morning, was there any difference seen by you between the face	fire, and got beyond the range of the battery. The Markanovini and market works, secord. Established 1335. The understand, stocksor to the late firm of J, & T. would, will continue the business in all its branches as meretaicre. Power Loome and all machines connected with them. Embossing Callenders. Lard Oil Pressee, Status and the patronage so the basit weight the late firm. Philadelphia: Jan. 22, 1651. Philadelphia: Jan. 22, 1651.	Jak SHIRT MANDEADTORY	cile with the results of our own experiments; but neither, on the other hand, can we persuade our-	liberty bills and the adoption of the amend- ments of Mr. Crittenden, that we may reunite		of the prisoner and the face of the man you saw in the wagon?	I by a datachment of military and made to an back the late firm. THOMAS WOOD. Philadelphia. Jan. 22, 1951. ja24-3m HIAWATHA HAIR RESTORATIVE	FINE '4 GHESTNUT Street, B few doors BCOTT, E 'enda," The attention of Wholesale	selves to dismiss it without commending it to the attention of the public."	our divided Confederacy, and live together	cial embarrassments.	WA. The nose of the man in the wagon was large. I want you to understand that I cannot take upon	by a determinent of minitary, and made to go back to the ensampment, where she was thoroughly overhauled, and then permitted to go on her way. All Gincinnati boats will be stopped by the soldiers
	Dealers is invited to hake, and material, on hand SHIRTS, of superior h the notice. ja4-tf	neutoer, on the other hand, can we persuade our- selves to dismiss it without commending it to the attention of the public." It is more than probable that, and without much further delay, if we intend having a na-	forever in peace. W. C. P.	this instance, destined to produce an influence	this is the man-sll I can say is, that the prisoner's	I OF THE NEW REPUBLIC."
The be principal allies of New Preshand, and WAR NOT		I fional and paval farce worthy of our nomen	1		face is very like it. Cross examined. Then again looked to me like a country earringe; I looked into the front of the
Beg issete to imform Endrozed Companies, and othere interested in bridges construction, that they have formed a coefficient in bridges construction, that they have formed a coefficient in bridge, and are prepared to exceed the bridge of the bridge of the bridge of the bridge of the bridge and precised to form any Black is and precised to form any Black is the bridge of the bridge of the bridge and precised to form any Black is the bridge of the bridge of the bridge and precised to form any Black is the bridge of th	LEGAL TT FOR THE	and protensions, we shall have to follow suit, and build iron-cased vessels as France and	IDERIA, Miller county, Mo., Jan. 14, 1861.	i Lord Pelmersion here depression is the hitterest	I WAGOD I WOLL I SAW OF TOG DOTSA WAS TOA DAAR	down steamboals will not be required to stop
Civil Engineer, (author and inventor of the above well- charge it to a beautiful and life-like Brown and Black. i thown wish of ion bridge,) and are prepared to excente It is not an instantaneous dre which orocks, smuts.	L CITY AND COUNTY OF PHI. Drogased.	and build iron-cased vessels, as France and England have done, and are doing. Before the	In a recent humber of your paper, you invi-	of all wars; it would sow the seeds of animosity which would bear bittor fruit for generations to	part, and it looked as if it had a short tail; my whole attention was directed to the inside.	they will not be permitted to pass down below the orders, item say part of the country, item his designs and gives a dead black color to the hair, the patient in and general superintendence. All interest relating to plans and estimates should be the hair every turn it is applied; nor us it a preservion	The Audited appointed by the Court to BRKW	and of this year, France will have eight and	subject of the impending crisis, and very	come. The wise and statesman-like policy was first to attempt a reconciliation; but, if all efforts	The witness underwent a long cross examination without shaking his testimony. In explanation of	wharf-boat with their koats before indicating their intention of stopping. As boats seldom pass here
Boll-an For STONE, QUIGLEY, & BURTON. Isterious to the hair of skin, It is an article requiring	WIGHT and GEORGE W. HKED, Administ, of the estate of ANDREW WIGHT, Br., decease,	England six such vessels. How many are we baye?	munications a place in the columns of The	in this direction are to be held to fail, coercion or civil war ought not to be thought of. The North	his withholding his knowledge, he said he was a poor man, unable to lose time, but the other day	wharf boat with their soats before indicating their intention of stopping. As boats seldom pass here without landing, they will find no trouble in com- plying with the above." Important Army Orders.
REMOVALS.	their hands, will meet the parties interested, for the purposes of his appointment, on TUESDAY February	to " depends, of course, upon the state of	Press. For myself, as one of the people, I thank you for your liberal offer, of which I	is numerically stronger and perhaps wealthier than the South; and there is little reason to doubt that	when other murder cases were being discussed in his segar store, he accidentally let slip a word	Important Army Orders.
* Péople who have used this preparation declars it is (miracolous in its effects, and that it will perform all that it preparation declars it is (it prejented to do."-(Bellou's Pictoria).	6, 1861, st # o'olook P. M., at his office, No. 913 South BIXTH Street LEW IS C. CASSIBY,	Much . It will cost no triffe to provide our Treasury	propose now to avail myself.	But that it could not hold the Southern as con-	sons who heard ran off and told the nolice.	General could has issued orders to the following has removed his Agricultural and Seed Ware- house from Seventh and Market streets to his New Stand, 1140 MARKET Street, opposite Farmers' We observe, by a notice in a Boston paper, that a	IN THE ORPHANS' COURT FOR THE	us with half a de. "'s mammoth Warrior.	l and have daily and hourly communication	querea States is just as certain. Secession may	The remaining oreated by this testimony has	1. Officers on leave of absence who have hear Stand, 1140 MARKET Street, opposite Farmers' Journal. "We observe, by a notice in a Boston paper, that a	OITY AND COUNTY OF PHILADELPHIA. Estate of SIMLON MARSHALL, Decemped.		are kept constantly advised of the doings of	i nearly half the States of the Union insist upon it. there are no means of preventing its consum-		absolution duty for a period of eight months, will toulars implements, warranted. Field, Garden, and Chargitable Association at the international for the field state of the second to the second	Notice is hereby given that the widow of said dece- dent has filed in said Court her petition and appraise-	which the Emperor discloses to	the traitorous crew who hold the reins of Government, see, and realize to its fullest ex-	mation.	The court took a recess until three o'clock, at	but whose leave of absence exceeds eight months.
 Finad, TIMO MARKET birnet, opposite Farmers Brits, and the second s	Estate of SIMLON MARSHALL, Deceased Notice is horeby rive that the widew of seld dece- dent has field in suid Court her petition and appraise ment claimmar to retain the personal property therein ment claimmar to retain the personal property therein sembled the self of the self of the sec- sembled of the Court of the self day of Friding the se- sembled of the Court on the self day of Friding the se- sembled of the court on the self day of Friding the se- sembled of the court on the self day of Friding the sec- sembled of the set of the self day of Friding the sec- sembled of the set of the set of the set of the set set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set is set the set set of the set of the set of the set of the set set of the set set of the set of the set of the set of the set set of the set set of the set of the set of the set of the set set of the set set of the set set of the set set of the set of t	Warrior's cost will not be exactly kn. which in the sho is wholly completed, and fit for sea, b.	I tent, the danger that menaces our noble insti-	THE amount of coal annually taken from mines in Ohio is estimated by the Commissioner of	which hour Mr. Bull proceeded with his argument, which was directed to the unreliability of circum-	will, in like manner, return to duty at the expira- tion of that number of months.
aenited to themselves, swarded to Mr. Hovt the flatter- ing testimonial? - I Providence Evening Press.	proved by the Court on the 18th day of FEBRUARY, A. D. 1861, unless exceptions shall be filed thereto THORE W	is estimated at about $5,000,000. We know,	- the absolute impossibility of gathering up	Statistics to exceed 2,000,000 tons.	stantial evidence. Judge Kelly followed on the same side, and some	2. Officers absent on account of sickness will pre- sent themselves to a medical officer of the army for PHILADELPGIA TERRA COTTA MA- NUFACTORY, SEVENTH and GERMANTOWN Firstor, No. 4 MATHEWSON SL., FORMANDA R. I.	ja24-the-4t* For Petitioner.	therefore, what a squadron of such thunderers will cost us. Can we retain our position with-	the frag. another Government, that will	• THE English newspapers teem with melan- choly narratives of death amongst the poor from	menced by referring to the tendency of the human mind to any gest theories and then marshal the facts	examination, who in his report—forwarded to army headquarters for decision—will give a minute his-
		out them ?	the frag. another Government, that will constructing all of this land, and those who give to the people of this land, and those who		in support of the scheme "This should be spoided 1	I LOTY OF LEG CR38, GISCINGITY RISTING whathay the off-
MAN Files made of Terra Cotta, and of suitable size for strip chem of buildings. The stille is working the statement of all safety suitage suitage to buildings, lasts	The Auditor appointed by the Court to Budit, set ite, and adjust the account of ANDR kw will be addit, set ite, and adjust the account of ANDR kw will be a different and	- Dr. George Bennett, a naturalist who has	would fly from tyran. In other lands, that	tiquarian suppor, in Machias, on the 14th instant.	by the jury in a case involving the life or death of a fellow citizon. He did not ask them to disre- gard argumential evidence, because by a strong
The standard of the standard o	ERIATE OF ANDREW WIGHT, BR., DECKABED, The Acultor appointed by the Courties and the settle, and adjust the account of ANDREW WIGHT, and GEO. W. REED, Administrators of ANDREW WIGHT, Sr., decensed, and to make dustribution of the balance in their hands, will meet the parties interested for the purposes of his Spontment. on MONAY, January 23, ISATH Streets A. M., at plasoffice, No. 31 South SIXTH Streets the off Chaldelpha. Jais-tutts of Low St. CASSILY, Auditor.	lately published an account of his twenty-two verse' residence in Australia, gives a description	that entire freedom from restrant in matters	appearance of the ladies in the ancient slimness of	chain of circumstances the defence had met a vital	tespect, can there be rendered the stanting. We warrant our goods to be equal if not intra of choice qualities.	purposes of his appointment. on MONDAY, January 28, 1861, at 4 o'clock, P. M., at his office, No. 213 Routh	of the grandest of all Anstralian birds, the JabirD.	and do now enjoy under our present Uonsti-	THE New York brokers have determined to	by eight witnesses, reputable persons, that the	THE SHOE TRADE _Business of Haverhill
Tantas (12-1) (1	SIXTH Street in the city of Philadelphia. jais-tuths St* L+WIS C. CASSIDY, Auditor.	or gigantic orane. It grows to be five feet high, and is so rare that the Doctor had seen but four	i purchased by our forefathers, at an immense
TATATIN & OUAYLE'S Solution Section Section	NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN. THAT	whine of the hird during his residence there. It is	cost of blood and treasure, and which the peo-	A LETTER from Madras speaks of a curious	afternoon. It was the business of the Common- wealth to prove its case boyond a doubt. It will	corresponding date last wear about 15 000 eres tabitate 1914 WALNUT STREET, In store and landing, for sale by	for the renewal of a sertificate, No. 13,771, which has been loss or misiaid, for three hundred dollars of the		insusceptible of valuation, will yield only after an expenditure of more blood and trea-	temple having been complained of for stealing the idols and their ornaments.	not do to raise a presumption against the prisoner.	is so far behind that vory fow goods have yet been
MUMPHY & KOONS. PHILADELPHIA. Bos No. 146 NORTH WHARVES.	asme of MARY ANN WOUD. no27-tu Sm	domesticated.	. What we are a summaries of those more than the	New Station many restrictions		NVALE.