The committee, after consultation with the City Solicitor. The motion to refer was voted down. Mr. NEAL further moved to amend by striking out all after the word "recolved," and insert that the superintendent furnish the amount due by de-linquents and whether any compromises have been made. Mr. BRADFORD was in favor of Mr. N.'s amend-ment There was many a person whe, owing to the present state of affairs, had become in arrears, and it was not right that their names should be exposed to the public. Mr. Neal's amendment was lost. The resolution was then so amended as to inquire only the names of those with whom compromises had been made for rent due over six months, with the smounts due, and the amounts actually re-ceived, which was agreed to The resolution from Common Council, instruct-ing the chief engineer to proceed with the work of completing the wheel-house at Fairmount, was concurred in.
