Treason to the Country. We are having a good deal of cheap commiseration in regard to the men who have been leading in all the movements in the States to give our people and our country a revolution and a republic.

The Baltimore Sun. In all the unhappy discussions that have afflicted our country, as well before as since the election of Mr. Lincoln, the Baltimore Sun, a daily paper, has been the most prominent and the most offensive and dangerous in its efforts to arouse that spirit of complaint, provocation, and exasperation among the Southern people which now so unfortunately for them has exploded in war.

We are having a good deal of cheap commiseration in regard to the men who have been leading in all the movements in the States to give our people and our country a revolution and a republic. The rights of property are invoked by those who have stood coolly by and have seen the Southern conspirators stealing the money of the people, selling the property of the Government, fanning and fethering our citizens, destroying our commerce, and paralyzing our manufacturing.
